BETTER FACILITIES FOR MAKING GAS

Plainfield to Have One of the Largest Gas Tanks in the State.

IS NOW BEING BUILT

OTHER EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS IN LOCAL PLANT.

Greatly Enlarged Capacity and New Machinery Will Enable Company to Provide Better Grade of Gas at Cheaper Rates.

The largest gas tank in this section of the State is being erected at the Plainfield Gas Company's plant at the corner of East Fourth and Washington streets. This improvement will mean that the plant will have a much greater capacity, which has become necessary on account of the larger territory covered by the company. The impression has gone about that the company is about to manufacture gas on a different plan from that which has been in force here since the company organized, but this was branded as erroneous yesterday by Superintendent E. A. Brokaw.

When completed the tank will have a capacity of 200,000 cubic feet of gas which will make the total capacity of the plant 700,000 cubic feet a day. The contractors for its erection are the Bartlett-Hayward Company of Baltimore. It will be completed on or about the first of the year.

The installation of the new tank and additional machinery will not make gas cheaper in this city. It will be the means, however, of securing a better grade than that now used and Plainfield, as a result, will have one of the best gas plants in the State when the improvements are finished. The plant itself has been undergoing extensive repairs. A new retort, larger than that now in use, is soon to be installed and in order to accommodate the larger machinery an addition to the building has been built. The work has been delayed somewhat on account of the difficulty of securing iron.

Among the other improvements is a purifier which, it is claimed, will do away with "sooty gas." The cost of the improvements will be somewhere in the neighborhood of $50,000.

GOOD PUMP

And a Big One Installed at Netherwood Pumping Station.

The large five million gallon pump, recently installed by the Plainfield Water Supply Company at the pumping station at Netherwood, has been put in regular service and has, thus far, worked in a most satisfactory manner. A representative of the Worthington Pump Works, of Brooklyn, which concern erected the machine, declared yesterday that it was the most satisfactory pump ever built by the company. The official also declared that the pumping station of the Plainfield Water Supply Company was a model one of its size. Numerous intending purchasers have been sent here to inspect the machine.

St. Peter's Church Active.

A social was held last evening at St. Peter's German Lutheran Church under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society. Musical selections were a feature of the evening's entertainment. Games were played and refreshments were served. It was held for the purpose of getting the congregation together again preparatory to opening the church work for the season.

Health Authorities to Meet.

An important meeting of the North Plainfield Board of Health will be held Monday evening. The conditions of the wells in the vicinity of Harmony, Pearl and Somerset streets will be inquired into and it is probable that some of the wells will be condemned. It is possible that the poison mystery in the family of Harold Serrell will be discussed.

Holden-Moore.

Mrs. David Martin Moore has sent out invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Miss Clara Florence Moore, to Dr. Edgar Holen, Jr., on the evening of Tuesday, October 20, at 8 o'clock at 1000 Central avenue.

Congratulations.

The engagement of Miss Grace Gaddis, of Regent street, North Plainfield, to Herbert Valiant, of Nyack, N. Y., is announced.

Mayor's Return.

Dr. Olin L. Jenkins, of East Front street, returned from his vacation today.

HEBREWS OBSERVE DAY OF ATONEMENT

All-Day Services Being Held by Congregation B'nai Israel.

FAITHFUL ARE FASTING

HISTORICAL SIGNIFICENCE OF MOST IMPORTANT HEBREW FEAST.

Special Choir at Services—Two in Charge of Religious Exercises—The Stores Were Closed All Day.

Yom Kippur, the Hebrew day of atonement, is being observed today and the local members of the faith, composing the Congregation B'nai Israel, are holding services in Reform Hall, which began at sunset last night. Rev. Abraham Davidson and Rev. Mr. Wolff are in charge of the religious exercises. A choir composed of Rev. Mr. Wolff, cantor; Jacob Abrahams, David Wolff, Benjamin Berse and A. Lookman, renders special music appropriate to the day. The observance will be brought to a close at sunset tonight.

Yom Kippur is the most solemn of all the Jewish holy days and it observance rests on the law as commanded in Leviticus 23:27-28.

Among the ancient Jews it was held as a day of rest, a king of Sabbath of Sabbaths, the only day in which the whole people fasted. The service was peculiar.

The high priest, clothed in white linen, without ornaments, took a young bull and a ram for himself and his house, and two goats as a sin offering for the people. The goats were selected by lot, one for Jehovah and one for Azael in the wilderness.

The blood of the victims was taken into the most holy place and sprinkled upon and before the mercy seat in the tabernacle.

The scape-goat, to be sent away, was brought forth and the high priest confessed over his head his sins and those of the people, and he was sent into the wilderness by a trusty man. The bullock and goat were not eaten, but entirely burnt. This was symbol of the great truths of the redemptory system by means of propitiation.

In modern times the day has always been religiously kept by all orthodox Jews everywhere.

The main features of the observance among the Jews in this city will be the fasting until sunset today, when the day ends, and the services in the synagogues. The services will consist mainly of prayers. All devout Jews will remain in the synagogue at prayer nearly all day today, only taking time for a brief period at home at noon. The stores of the local Hebrew merchants will be closed from sunset last evening until sunset today.

Five days after the day of atonement comes the feast of tabernacles, when the people dwell in tents or booths and rejoice over the ingathered harvest.

Somerset County Board.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Oct. 1—The Somerset County Board of Chosen Freeholders held a special meeting at the bridge near Augustus Shoemaker's in Warren township Tuesday. Organization of the board was effected at the hotel at Gallia. It was decided to build a birch arch bridge at Shoemaker's, on stone foundations, ten foot span and sixteen foot roadway, with ringstones. The committee appointed was Messrs. Codington, Lutkins, Demler, Philhower and Whitenack. The Board decided that the committee should meet to pass special election bills and that they should be paid as soon as approved by the director and clerk.

Y. M. C. A. Bowlers.

C. B. Koons has been elected manager of the Y. M. C. A. bowling team and Morris C. Sutphen captain. Arrangements are now being made for an attractive list of games with out of town teams for the winter months.

Railroad Pays Up.

The claim of George L. Chandler, of Johnston Drive, North Plainfield, against the Central Railroad for injuries received in the Westfield wreck, was settled last night by J. K. Large, claims agent.

Many Building Permits.

Twenty-seven building permits granted by Building Inspector T. O. Donne during the month of September indicate an unusual activity in building circles.

Russell Miller, of Orchard place, has practically recovered from a recent illness.

KEAN'S FRIENDS ORGANIZE HERE

Republican Club of Plainfield to Wage Aggressive Campaign.

SAVING PARTY TICKET

SECRET MEETINGS OF ANTI-FOWLER MEN BEING HELD.

Sheriff Coriell Vice President of of New Organization—To Engage Quarters—No President Was Chosen.

Friends of United States Senator John Kean met secretly last night at a place in North avenue and organized for the coming campaign. The purpose is to wage an aggressive fight against the Republican secessionists in this city. A headquarters will be engaged and an effort will be put forth to stir up enthusiasm for the majority party's assembly ticket in Union county, especially for William T. Kirk, of this city, against whom the bolters are particularly bitter.

No president was selected at the meeting but all other officers were named. They are: Vice president, Sheriff B. Frank Coriell; secretary, W. S. Angleman; treasurer, J. Fred McDonald. These together with a representative from each district of the four wards will compose an executive committee. The delegates of the executive committee include these: First ward, W. R. Codington, Esq., and Amos Andrews; Second ward, Armstrong Mulford and ——— ———; Third ward, John W. Murray, Jr., and Robert Rushmore; Fourth ward, George Whitlock, Abram Angleman and Charles Graves. Another meeting will be held in the near future to select a president. For some time past the Kean people have been holding meetings quietly here and the present organization to be known as the Republican Club of Plainfield is the outcome.

MISS CLARA FORCE WEDS

BRIDE OF OWEN SMITH—WEDDING BEING QUIET.

Groom is Engaged in Newspaper Office—Bride Was Formerly an Actress.

Miss Clara Force, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin R. Force, of East Front street and Owen Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, of North avenue, were married last evening at the rectory of the Church of the Holy Cross, Rev. W. M. Downey, officiating. The wedding was a quiet one, the parents of the couple being unaware that the wedding was to take place until a few hours before the time set.

A reception was held at the home of the groom's parents after the ceremony and later they left for New York, where they will make their home permanently. Mrs. Frank Huff was the bridesmaid and George W. Force, Jr., was the best man. The bride wore a tailor made traveling dress.

The groom is a well-known newspaper man in New York. He was at one time a reporter in this city and later secured employment in the office of the Elizabeth Times. He is at present employed as a linotype operator in the office of the New York Sun. Five years ago he met Miss Force at a reception in this city. Until recently Miss Force was connected with the theatrical profession and appeared with Ada Rehan and other stars. Her career before the footlights was a bright one but a year ago she resigned her position for one in a business office in New York.

Mr. Smith was at one time a compositor in The Daily Press office.

EUCHRE AT TRUELL COURT.

The Misses Haughey and Krom and Mr. Heness Arranged the Affair.

A progressive euchre party was given last night at Truell Court. The affair was arranged by the Misses Esther Haughey, Stephanie Krom and Lewis G. Heness. There were ten tables. Mrs. F. T. Ostrom and Mrs. Wm. Haughey won the first and second prizes for the women, while Wm. Crampton and John Haughey won the first and second prizes for the men.

HE TRIED TO SELL ANOTHER'S PROPERTY

AN ESTATE INVOLVED

TYGARD PURCHASED VANDERVORT'S ALLEGED INTEREST.

Property at Stake Claimed by New York Woman—Arrest Made in Real Estate Concern's Office—Property in Dispute.

James W. Tygard, of South avenue, and Alfred E. Behrens, a railroad promoter, of New York, were arrested yesterday at the office of Hall & Co., real estate dealers, at No. 115 Broadway, charged with offering to sell property, which it is alleged, they had not owned for a year. Tygard, it is said, had signed a contract to sell a parcel on the south side of 166th street, between Kingsbridge road and Audubon avenue, for $16,000.

It is alleged by the complainant, Michael Rayn, a box manufacturer, of No. 186 Second avenue, that the property is owned by his wife, Ellen. The property is said to be part of the Jumel estate.

Ryan has been serving as a juror in the Court of General Sessions, New York. On Monday he told Assistant District Attorney Garvin that Hall & Co. had informed him that the property had been offered to them for sale by Behrens, who said he represented Tygard, and that the sale price was to be $16,000. Hall & Co. had offered Mrs. Ryan $28,000 for the parcel a year ago, and say that it is now worth $32,000. The case was turned over to Assistant District Attorney Kresel for investiagtion.

Mr. Kresel says he learned that there had been a civil fight in the courts over the property, the title of Mrs. Ryan to the property having been contested by John R. Vandervort, of this city. The case was decided in Mrs. Ryan's favor. According to Mr. Kresel, Vandervort claimed the property on the ground that he purchased it from an heir to the Jumel estate. Hall & Co. told Mr. Kresel that Mr. Tygard said he had purchased the property from Mr. Vandervort on April 28, 1903.

THE LOCAL SPORTS ACTIVE

LOTS OF PLAINFIEED YOUNGSTERS TRYING TO BE BOLD BAD MEN.

Betting Prevalent During Baseball Season—Many Wagered Week's Earnings—Police Inactive.

The pernicious habit of betting is almost as old as the world and the subject has been worn threadbare by preachers, who have never allowed an opportunity to pass when they could score a point against the evil. Notwithstanding this it is known that the betting habit has flourished in lively fashion in Plainfield during the past season, the baseball games furnishing the motive. The practice has not been among old bettors, so to speak, but among the young men, who commute back and forth to New York, working for a small wage.

It is also known that some of these young fellows have put up their whole week's wages on the result of this or that game and have lost in a majority of cases. Not being satisfied with betting on the result of games, these same young men have gone still further and wagered various sums of money on the number of hits to be made by either team. This has been one of the most exciting features of the betting habit. Individual players have been selected as ones likely to make a hit or certain number of hits and their friends have wagered money on it.

This betting has been carried on at various games in full view of the police. There have been several instances where hundreds of dollars have changed hands while the police stood by and watched the deal, and in some instances the guardians of the peace have themselves exhibited more than a common interest in the betting. Of course, there is no specific way in which the betting can be stopped, for if two persons want to make a wager they can do so in spite of all the laws in the universe. However, the practice should be discouraged as much as possible, especially among the very young men who have been putting up their entire week's wages, only to lose them.

REAL ESTATE BOOM IN EAST END OF CITY

Few Capitalists Interested in Street Railway Planning Extensive Building Operations.

$100,000 IS INVOLVED

POSSIBILITY THAT FACTORIES MAY BE LOCATED IN THE TERRITORY.

Property Bounded by Terrell Road, East Second Street, Midway Avenue and Scotch Plains Road to be Opened Up.

With the opening up of large tracts of land in the West End of the city and borough comes the announcement that capitalists interested financially in the Plainfield, Elizabeth and Central Jersey Railroad Company, are about to open up an extensive property in the eastern part of the city. Nearly $100,000 is to be expended in making the property bounded by Terrill road, East Front street, Midway avenue and Scotchg Plains road into desirable building lots with streets and other improvements.

The Plainfield Water Supply Company, granting the request of the Inter-Urban Realty Company, of Newark, the owners of the land, has started the work of laying piping along East Second street from the Richmond street mains, to supply that district with water.

Part of the district has been undergoing changes during the summer months. Some of the streets have been laid out and plots of land, suitable for building, have been staked out. It is said that as soon as the water system is in working order, the work of erecting houses on the lots laid out will be begun. Sixteen houses will be erected at once and more will follow as soon as the streets have been graded and the water pipes laid in the new streets.

The Inter-Urban Realty Company is a corporation having its headquarters in Newark. Included among the stockholders are a number of well-known trolley men, among whom is Adrian Riker. It is planned to open up that part of the town and small houses will be erected and rented to employes of the factories in this city.

The need of small houses which will rent for $15 to $20 a month has been long felt by real estate dealers in this city, who, according to one of the most prominent of them, are compelled to turn people away every day because they cannot supply them with the kind of houses they seek. Realizing this the trolley company has takens teps to supply the demand. The action of the realty company will be the means of generating a building boom in that section of the town which heretofore has not been developed as fast as the West End. It is said that a number of factories are being negotiated with to locate along the railroad tracks east of Richmond street.

GERMAN NEWSPAPER.

To be Published at Elizabeth by Henry S. Altai, a Noted Editor.

Elizabeth is to have another daily newspaper through the enterprise of Henry S. Altai, editor and publisher of the Freie Presse, who will on October 15th commence the publication of his journal daily instead of semi-weekly.

Before coming to this country, Mr. Altai was a well-known and successful journalist in Germany, having edited a leading daily paper in Munich for several years. For two years he was connected with the German Herald in New York before coming to Elizabeth eight years ago, and since he has resided here he has been engaged almost continuously in the newspaper business.

Somerville Firemen's Parade.

A large number of people from here are anticipating the Somerville firemen's parade, October 22. It is understood that the up-to-date volunteer department of that place is making strenuous efforts to have this parade eclipse all others. There will be at least twenty handsomely uniformed companies in line, with as many bands, and this together with the modern fire apparatus will make a pleasing spectacle.

Everybody is Good Health.

The number of accident cases at the hospital of late has been few, and the nurses have been given an opportunity to get a little more time for other duties.

TROLLEY SITUATION REMAINS THE SAME

Local Employes Offended at P. S. C.'s Action in This City.

SURELY NO STRIKE HERE

SOME GRIEVENCE AS TO ARRANGEMENT OF WORK.

McCarter Will Not Recognize the Union—Methods Taken to Prevent a General Strike.

In spite of the prevailing quiet, there is an undercurrent of excitement in street railway circles which seems to presage trouble. If trouble comes in Plainfield it will not be because the employes of the Public Service Corporation here are dissatisfied with the treatment they are receiving at the hands of their employers. They consider themselves treated with eminent fairness in the matter of wages and in general in the matter of hours.

There is one grievance, however, in the matter of hours that some of the men hold with a considerable appearance of justice. It lies in the arrangement and not in the number of hours. Many of the motormen and conductors are obliged to go to work at 5 o'clock in the morning for five hours and complete their day's labors in another five hour stretch ending at midnight. This arrangement they claim so breaks into their hours for sleeping as to be a menace to health. But none of them considers this matter of sufficient weight to offset the excellence of their treatment in other respects.

Local employes do not wish to go on strike and will not in any circumstances. That can be stated definitely. But they most emphatically do not relish the company's action in building the structure on West Front street, evidently for the purpose of housing strike-breakers in the event of trouble. The building has already taken on all the appearances of a dormitory with several bunks installed and it is this that has caused the comment and the "undercurrent of excitement" among them referred to above. It is thought that the company's object in preparing to house the strike-breakers in this city is to locate them in the place where they are likely to be best protected, but the men do not regard the action as altogether just to them. Most of the employes in this city are non-union men.

The report from Newark today is that the anti-strike sentiment has won. This was indicated last night by the applause that greeted President Thomas N. McCarter in his address to a Newark union. President McCarter has repeated his statement that he will refuse to recognize the unions.

James Farley, who broke the strikes in Connecticut towns as well as the late one in Richmond, Va., was asked to supply at least twenty-six hundred motormen and conductors for the dozen divisions of the P. S. C. system. This he has done, and has twelve hundred of them scattered through Newark, Paterson, Plainfield, the Oranges, Montclair and other towns. In Philadelphia, Boston and Newark the remainder were last night awaiting the call.

S. L. Fraleigh Dead.

Stephen L. Fraleigh died Tuesday from heart failure at his home in Bound Brook at the age of sixty-five. He lived on Park avenue, here, fifteen years ago. He leaves a son, Harry W. Fraleigh, of West Seventh street, and a daughter with whom he lived in Bound Brook. Funeral services tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Building Permits.

T. O. Donne, inspector of buildings, granted permits this morning to Michael O'Keefe, of Spooner avenue, for a frame dwelling on West Fourth street, and to J. A. Smith for alterations and additions to his house and stable at 315 Central avenue.

Violating Ordinance.

Warren O'Keefe and Daniel C. Harley, who have been peddling in town for the past few days without a license, were brought before City Judge Runyon this morning. They were dismissed with a warning.

—A reading circle has been formed by Miss Elizabeth Stafford, of the borough, among her friends. The circle meets from time to time and spends the evening in reading standard books or in discussion of some of the latest novels.

FIFTY YEARS OF A "GRAND SWEET SONG"

Mr. and Mrs. John Bodine Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary.

LOVED IN CHILDHOOD

FOUR GENERATIONS REPRESENTED AT THE RECEPTION.

Sat Side by Side in School Many Years Ago—Story of Their Courtship and Marriage—Those Present.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bodine, of 38 Grandview avenue, are today celebrating the golden anniversary of their wedding. A family reunion is being held at the home of the aged couple where four generations are gathered to observe the occasion. Relatives are here from Quakertown, Rocktown, Phillipsburg and this city to the number of forty. A reception will be held this afternoon and this evening.

The story of Mr. and Mrs. Bodine's courtship and marriage is a pretty romance. As little children together in Hunterdon County, near Rocktown, they grew to man and womanhood. They attended the little district school and sat side by side as school children. As they grew older their friendship riped into love and on October 1, 1853, they were married by Rev. John Moore, pastor of the Dunkard Church, of Sand Brook, N. J. Soon after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Bodine came to live in this city in North Plainfield. Mr. Bodine was one of the first carpenters in this city and many of the houses in North Plainfield and in the city have been erected by his hands. He retired from active business recently.

Before her marriage Mrs. Bodine was Miss Clara A. Sine, daughter of well-known residents of Hunterdon County. Only one person who was present at the wedding fifty years ago is alive today beside the bride and groom. The survivor is a Newark man who is seriously ill and could not be present today.

Four generations are represented at the celebration. They are: Mr. and Mrs. John Bodine, the celebrants and their children; Mr. and Mrs. John M. Bodine, Mr. and Mrs. David Bodine, Mr. and Mrs. William O. Bodine, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Lawshe, Mrs. John E. Niece and Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Smith. The children of the third generation present are: Miss Olive M. Bodine, John R. Bodine, Pauline Bodine, Miss Bertha Bodine, Miss Kate Bodine, Miss Anna Bodine, Miss Laura Bodine, Miss Elsie Bodine, Miss Beatrice Bodine, Miss Mabel Bodine, Miss Clara Lawshe, Miss Lillian Lawshe and Carl and Miss Agnes Niece, Mrs. Clarence Cooper and Earl Smith. The great grandchildren are John E. Cooper and Dorothy Cooper.

During the afternoon a photograph of the family gathering was taken by William Demarest.

KING'S DAUGHTERS' WORK.

Executive Committee of City Union Hears Reports of Season.

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Willim Ross has taken a position at the Potter Press Company's plant.

Harry Wilby is in Cincinnati putting up a press for the Aluminum Press Company.

Owing to the rush of business, the Aluminum Press Company's works will start night work next week.

George Sheing is setting up a three color press in a large publishing house in Brooklyn, N. Y., for the Aluminum Press Company.

George Laird, of North avenue, has resigned his position with The Daily Press, and taken one at the Potter Press Company's plant.

George Buckley, of the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, was taken to Muhlenberg Hospital yesterday, to undergo an operation.

George Slingland, of the Aluminum Press Company's plant, has returned from Buffalo, N. Y., where he has been for the past month on business for the firm.

As the condition of affairs among the trolleymen stands today regarding the threatened tie-up, no settlement seems possible without a strike, which will involve all the lines of the Public Service Corporation.

Mt. Holly Fair.

To further accommodate those desiring to visit the fair at Mt. Holly, N. J., on Oct. 6, 7 and 8, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets from all stations on the United Railroads of New Jersey Division, in New Jersey, and from Atlantic City, Millville, Bridgeton, Salem, Pennsgrove and intermediate stations on the West Jersey and Seashore Railroad, at reduced rates, including admission to the fair grounds. Special trains will be run as follows: From Philadelphia (Market Street Wharf): On October 6, 7, and 8, at 8:12 a. m., and on October 8 only at 9 a. m., stopping at all principal stations between Camden and Burlington; on October 7 and 8 only at 10:20 a. m., and on October 8 only at 11:10 a. m., stopping at all principal stations except Riverton and Delanco; on October 7 and 8 on the Medford Branch, connecting with train leaving Haddonfield at 7:40 a. m.; on October 7 and 8, from Trenton, Bordentown, and East Burlington, leaving Trenton at 9:50 a. m.; and on the same dates from stations on the Kinkora Branch, leaving Kinkora at 8:05 a. m. THE DEATH ORDEAL

Van Wormer Brothers Prepared For Their Fate.

ALL SHOW GREAT SELF CONTROL.

Preparations Have Been Completed and Precautions Taken That No Mishap May Occur to Inflict Torture on Unfortunates.

DANNEMORA, N. Y., Oct. 1.—On the eve of execution the three Van Wormer brothers, Willis, Burton and Frederick, are in better condition physically and mentally and, in the opinion of their attending priest, spiritually than any of the many others who have met their fate in the death chamber at this prison. They have passed through the most trying ordeal that can befall them prior to the infliction of the extreme penalty. At 3 o'clock the prison barber entered their cells and shaved not only their faces, but a patch on the head of each where one of the electrodes is to be applied. Each of them chatted cheerfully with the barber, and none of the three showed the least perturbation during the very suggestive preliminary. Following this they received in writing from their stepmother by the hand of Warden Deyo the farewell which she had been prevented by their own decision not to see her from delivering in person. To both the warden and their keepers they expressed pleasure at receiving this letter and equally at the fact that they had not been subjected to the ordeal of a farewell face to face.

The most striking exhibition of their remarkable self control was given at their farewell with Warden Deyo, whom they will next see beside the fatal chair. One by one, with outstretched hands, in which not a tremor was visible, they grasped that of the kindly warden, who was himself overcome by emotion. Each in turn assured the warden that they thoroughly appreciated that they were passing their last hours on earth and that they would face death bravely.

Willis, the eldest of the brothers, who has appeared to be the most sensitive of the three, was particularly firm and in response to the warden's goodby said: "Mr. Warden, we are thoroughly prepared to go, and none of us will give you any trouble. We thank you for your kindness, and we know that everything possible has been done for us."

Warden Deyo said afterward: "I never saw another such exhibition of nerve. The two keepers and myself were decidedly more overcome than they were. They were apparently entirely resigned to their fate, and of all the men whom I have seen awaiting death they give the best assurance of being able to go through the ordeal unflinchingly. Willis, the oldest, is especially surprising in this respect. He has appeared all along to be the most appreciative of the gravity of the situation, and we feared it was telling upon his nerve. But in saying goodby he was as steady as could be and is in better condition than he was several days ago."

The first of the condemned men will be led swiftly to the chair. The instant the doctors pronounce the victim dead the second brother will be summoned and then the third, and it is expected that all will be over not later than noon.

It is forty-six feet from the door of the cell room to the chair, a longer distance than in any of the other prisons of the state, but experiments made have shown that the time between the leaving of the cell door until the man was supposed to be dead was but 1 minute and 15 seconds. This rehearsal was the sole object of insuring against the possibility of any mishap or unnecessary halt. Keepers personating each of the three condemned were conducted successively from the cell door to the chair, were swiftly strapped in and the electrodes applied. Every detail save the single one of turning on the current was observed.

New Canal Treaty.

BOGOTA, Colombia, Oct. 1.—Senator Quintero Calderon, who was commissioned by the senate to study the bill authorizing the government to negotiate a new Panama canal treaty with the United States and whose task has been retarded by sickness, promises to make his report this week. Foreign Minister Rico has refused to become a candidate for the presidency in succession to President Marroquin, who refuses to stand again.

Parks' Magic Wand Waved.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 1.—Samuel Parks, walking delegate from New York, waved his magic wand over the delegates to the annual convention of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers and brought peace and harmony out of conditions that seemed only to portend strife and a split that might have meant disruption of the organization.

A Record Shipment.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—What is claimed to be the largest cargo of merchandise ever sent from the United States to the Argentine Republic was shipped in the steamer Hypatia, which goes from this port to Montevideo direct. The vessel carries 11,395 cubic tons of cargo, consisting of harvesting machinery of all kinds, hardware and railway material.

Society Woman's Body Found.

SANTA CRUZ, Cal., Oct. 1.—The body of Bertha Page, a young society woman who disappeared from San Jose three weeks ago, was discovered floating in the bay here about half a mile from the cliff where her jacket and gloves were recently found, giving rise to the belief that she had jumped into the sea.

KODOL
Digests What You Eat

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Kodol

Digests What You Eat

Mrs. Loring Nichols of Penn Yan, N. Y., writes: After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders, and gives the heart a full, free and untrammeled action.

Bottles only. $1.00 Size holding 2½ times the trial size, which sells for 50c.

Mr. Richard Day, of 134 East Front street, says: "I had a miserable pain across my back and a sort of lame feeling over my kidneys. Standing any length of time, or walking any distance aggravated it greatly. I was never sick much in my life and consequently never took much medicine, so when I first began having these attacks I paid little attention to them. They, however, grew worse instead of better, so I had to look about for a remedy. I read quite frequently in our papers about cures brought about by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills so I got a box at L. W. Randolph's drug store and after taking them I felt greatly relieved. I have recommended them to my friends and those who have used them speak very highly in their praise."

TURKISH CLEMENCY.

Bulgarians Warned to Return to Their Homes.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN SLAUGHTERED

Imperial Government of the Sultan Threatens Destruction of Their Habitations if the Rebels Refuse the Mercy Offered.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 1.—The improvement in the Balkan situation seems to be felt at Sofia. Prince Ferdinand has returned here from his country seat.

A report from Monastir says the Turkish authorities are posting a final invitation to the insurgents to return to their homes. The proclamation, after referring to the remarkable clemency thus far shown, concludes:

"Therefore, for the last time, the Bulgarians who have been deceived and who have left their firesides and trades are invited to return to their homes and villages. Those who do not return and refuse to trust to the mercy of the imperial government will be pursued and their homes destroyed in the most severe fashion."

A report issued by the revolutionary committee at Monastir gives details of a long list of atrocities committed by the Turkish troops, including the ruthless slaughter of a number of children, who were hurled from high rocks. It is stated that the Turks killed over 200 peasants in a number of villages and that while taking 130 villagers as prisoners to Nevesko they massacred seventy-five of them. At another place eighteen women were outraged and then shut in a barn, which was set on fire.

A special dispatch from Rila monastery says that troops recently attacked a neighboring village, that the men fled to the forests and that the soldiers beat and tortured the women and children.

A report from Philippopolis says the war department is again buying horses and that a battalion of troops with eighteen field guns has gone to the frontier.

Another dispatch from the Rila monastery gives a report that the whole population of the district of Razlog has been massacred or has fled. Three thousand women and children, fugitives from the Turkish soldiery, have arrived at Rila. Many villages around Razlog are said to be burning. The town itself is surrounded with tents occupied by the Turkish troops, who avoid fighting and, according to the dispatch, attack only innocent people.

LABOR SPEAKS.

American Federation of Labor Issues a Manifesto.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The executive council of the American Federation of Labor has issued the following address to organized labor of America:

"The executive council of the American Federation of Labor has recently addressed organized labor by circular on subjects, including bills, which will be introduced in the forthcoming session of congress in the interest of the wage earners of our country and which were committed to us by you through your representatives at the last A. F. of L. convention. Since then the executive council has held several sessions, and of all legislative measures the eight hour and the anti-injunction bills have received our especial attention.

"The eight hour day, because of the wonderful improvement in the methods of wealth production, by which the needs of man and the luxuries of life can be created in a work day of eight hours, we demand its enforcement not only in private employment, but also on all work performed by or on behalf of the government, whether the employment be direct, by contract or by subcontract.

"While we seek to avoid and avert strikes and industrial disputes, any attempt to cripple the right of labor as a last resort to strike in defense of our rights simply means labor's enslavement, for industrial tranquillity by agreement through the methods of conciliation and fair arbitration is only possible and attainable when the workers are organized and have the liberty to exercise their constitutional rights.

"The writ of injunction in its proper sphere is a right and protection. It was never designed for the purpose to which it is now put in industrial disputes. There is not now upon the statute books of any state or upon the statute books of the federal government a line upon which authority is given the courts for the issuance of injunctions such as have been issued in industrial disputes. It is not the use, but the abuse, by the courts of the writ of injunction against which we protest, which is in direct conflict with the rights guaranteed to our people by the constitution of our country.

"The men in the organized labor movement are law abiding, faithful and loyal citizens. They have no desire for immunity from the laws governing other citizens, but they most emphatically resent and protest against the actions of courts convicting men for acts which they have the legal right to perform and then, too, without the right of a trial by a jury of their peers."

Heavy Cost of a Drink.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Oct. 1.—For trying to break into a barroom to get a drink while returning from a Fourth of July celebration Jacob Ten Eyck, colored, of Ellenville was sentenced to Dannemora prison for fifteen years and six months by Judge Vanetten in the county court. His record showed he had been convicted six times of burglary.

Weather Probabilities.

Fair; fresh southwest winds.

Plainfield, N. J., Oct. 1, 1903.

The Daily Press has a higher circulation rating than is accorded to any other paper in Plainfield.—Printers' Ink.

"Enthusiasm is the vitality of advertising."

The Elizabeth Journal suggests that "what will be needed at Trenton this winter will be law repairers and not law makers."

Never give up as long as there is a spark of life left in your business. Good advertising and hard work will fan the tiniest spark to a flame.—Printers' Ink.

The Jersey City Journal tells of a minister of that city who has the record of performing six marriage services within twenty-four hours. Wonder if his conscience troubles him!

If Plainfield's baseball interests could be united to form one representative team next season and that team a member of a county league, the support of the game throughout the city would undoubtedly be more general and its financial success more assured.

The New Brunswick Home News relieves itself in this fashion:

"The Plainfield Republicans are so put out with the rest of Union County that there is talk of breaking away and forming a new county composed of slices of Middlesex, Somerset and Union counties, thus getting Plainfield and its ambitious neighbors, North and South Plainfield, together at last. Middlesex would probably suffer the least of the three from such a movement. If the plan will stop the eternal political bickering around Plainfield, by all means adopt it."

The Home News has thus decreed, so be it. We would not wish to dispute a message from the morgue.

This comes from the Trenton True American:

"In Union County, the home of Senator Kean, an agreement was entered into prior to the convention between Hamilton Kean and James MacMurray, the Republican boss of Plainfield, or in other words, between the Kean and anti-Kean factions, by which the faction that carried the primary in the imaginary assembly districts of Plainfield and Rahway should control the entire nominations for county offices which fall to that section. The anti-Kean faction on sixteen of the nineteen Plainfield delegates.

"In the convention, however, Hamilton Kean insisted that the agreement was that the party should carry a majority of the entire delegation from the assembly districts, and he refused to allow the Plainfield delegates to name an assemblyman.

"In retaliation for this it is reported that papers pledging the signers to vote for the Democratic assemblymen are being circulated in Plainfield and that in one ward alone one such paper has been signed by more than 150 Republicans."

Talk about manufacturing "news"—this is the richest yet. The alleged are agreements and votes pledges are good reading but make truth to blush.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

Printed matter giving particulars of the Y. M. C. A. star course may be obtained at drug stores and at the Y. M. C. A. building.

The Second Chapter of Hebrews will be studied in the Bible class at the Y. M. C. A. building this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All young men are invited.

The meeting at the Rescue Mission tonight will be in charge of F. A. Grant, of this city. Wm. Jeffery will render a solo. Mrs. Manley will have charge of the music.

The Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will hold its first fall meeting early this month, when plans for the coming season will be discussed.

The quarterly meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church will be held tomorrow afternoon in the chapel. Miss Lee, of South Carolina, will make an address.

Stephen Cahoone will address the Y. M. C. A meeting on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Thomas McDonald, Frank S. Lockwood and Charles L. Lewis will render "Praise Ye," by Verdi. All men are invited.

In connection with the golden jubilee of the Newark Catholic diocese Bishop O'Connor will ask the people under his charge to make special jubilee gifts to forward the work on the new Cathedral of the Sacred Heart, in Newark. In a letter to the pastors of the diocese a strong appeal will be made by the bishops to have them urge members of their congregations to give liberally to a special collection that will be taken up in every church in the diocese the third Sunday in October. It is expected that sums realized will be equal at least to the amount obtained from Christmas collections. The priests have been instructed to make specially strong appeals, and confidence is expressed by the bishop that the people will respond the way he desires.

Communicants of the Episcopal Church will be deeply interested in the plan just reported by the special committee appointed by the Episcopal General Assembly of 1901, which recommends the adoption of a canon establishing provinces of groups of dioceses. The plan recommends, for instance, that the seven dioceses of New Jersey and New York be combined into one province and that the bishops of one of the seven dioceses be made the primate. It also recommends that the provincial conventions be made up of two houses, the bishops forming one and the clerical and lay deputies the other. An outline of this plan was presented to the last convention of the diocese, but no action was taken, the matter being referred, after brief discussion, to the standing committee. The subject, nevertheless, was of great interest, especially to the clerical deputies, and has been often referred to since. It is generally held that the plan represents the desires of the high church, or ritualist element in the Episcopal Church, and that it is in opposition to the the wishes of the broad churchmen. Since the establishment of the Episcopal Church in this country the bishops have always taken pride in the fact that under the canonical law there is exact equality in the house of bishops. All this will be changed if the suggestion of the general assembly's committee is accepted. Provincial primates would take precedence over the diocesan bishop. The logical sequence would be archbishops and a pope. The proposition is an interesting one and will serve to make the general assembly, which meets in Boston a year hence, of unusual importance.—Newark Advertiser.

CLOAKS, SUITS, SKIRTS, WAISTS
READY-MADE. AND FURS. MADE TO ORDER.

High-grade Ladies' Tailoring and Dressmaking Opening.

Women's Costumes That are made to measure are easily distinguishable from the ready tailored sort, just as easily as a man's made to order suit is distinguishable from ready made clothes. We have the materials, the models and the methods to give you the greatest amount of satisfaction for the money you pay us. All we ask is an inspection of our stock and work.

Waists—We have an exceptionally fine assortment for the Fall and Winter season of 1903. The stock embraces the latest styles, by artistic designers, and the selection has been made with the greatest care and taste.

Dress Skirts—We have the latest designs in Traveling, Walking and Dressy Skirts with the proper style for them.

Reduced Prices—Especially on Jackets, Walking Suits, Traveling Dresses, etc.

Remember That you take no risk in dealing with us. Any garment that fails to fit or give entire satisfaction may be returned promptly, and your money will be refunded. We want not only your good will, but your continued patronage.

Furs—Comfort Demands Furs—We have a large supply, and want you to come and examine them. This is the time to buy furs to get the advantage of early season offerings. Attractive and comfortable will be the person so dressed, and the outlay much less than in the height of season, will never be regretted.

Designing—In designing we endeavor to make helpful suggestions in the way of styles and combinations to suit the taste or figure of those who do not care to rely solely on their own judgement.

Orders Will be filled with the greatest promptness. Thanking you for past patronage and hoping for more.

Skirts—Will put on sale for the opening of this Fall and Winter season, 400 Dress and Walking Skirts 50c on the dollar.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Oct. 4—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—Great men of the Bible—What Abraham teaches us.—Gen. xii, 1-5; Heb. vii, 1-10; Rom. iv, 1-9.

With this topic we begin the study of the lives of a number of Old Testament worthies—Abraham, Joseph, Moses, David and Elijah. Biography is one of the most interesting and profitable of studies.

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime
And departing leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.

This is particularly true of sacred biography. The lives of the men of the Bible have had a tremendous influence in uplifting the lives of others. They were given to us for examples, and we should take advantage of this course in sacred biography and learn the lessons that their lives teach us.

Abraham was the son of Terah and was born in Ur of the Chaldees. The first great event in his life was a call from God to leave the land of his nativity and to go to Canaan, which land God promised to give to him and his descendants. Abraham obeyed, taking with him his wife Sarah and Lot, his nephew, and his servants. Living a nomadic life, they went down through Canaan, stopping at various places, and finally were compelled by famine to go to Egypt. After returning to Canaan the herdsmen of Abraham and Lot quarreled about the pasture and the uncle and nephew separated, "Lot pitching his tent toward Sodom" and the cities of the plain, while Abraham pastured his flocks in the lands to the west. These events afterward resulted in the capture of Lot by the enemies of Sodom and his rescue by Abraham. God frequently made covenants with Abraham, promising him a son and seed as the stars of the heaven in multitude. At last Isaac was born, and when he was grown God put Abraham to the severest test of his life when he called upon him to offer up Isaac as a sacrifice unto Himself. But Abraham stood the test and God saved Isaac and pronounced His blessing upon Abraham. Sarah died before Abraham and was buried in the cave of Machpelah, which Abraham bought for that purpose. Machpelah was near Mamre oaks, where Abraham once sojourned for a time. Here Abraham himself was buried, when he "died in a good old age, an old man and full of years." His age at death was 175.

Abraham from time immemorial has been taken to teach especially faith and works; not faith without works, or works without faith, but faith and works.

BIBLE READINGS.

Gen. xvii, 1-8; xviii, 23-33; xxi, 1-8; xxii, 1-19; xxv, 5-10; Isa. li, 1, 2; Matt. iii, 7-9; John viii, 31-40; Heb. xi, 8-10; James ix, 20-26.

Christian Endeavor Progress.

The increase campaign is a concerted movement for the formation of new Christian Endeavor societies and the addition of new members to the old societies. It was set on foot last November, and its success already marks a new era in the Christian Endeavor movement. A roll of honor exhibited at the Denver convention contains the names of many hundreds of societies that have increased their membership since November from 10 to 1,000 per cent, an aggregate of hundreds of thousands of new members. The following table shows the number of new societies formed since November in the various state unions, together with the percentage of gain over the number of societies in those states last November:

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning Oct. 4, "Know and Obey the Word of God"—Text, Matt. xix, 17; Jas. i, 22-25; Ps. cix, 9, 18—Bible Study Rally Day.

Vacations are over. Schools have begun. People are once more back in their homes. The hot weather is past and the season is favorable for more energetic effort. The preparation for the holidays is not yet pressing. Now, if ever, is a good time to push the work of the church. Now, if ever, it is needed.

Routine of church work and home life has been so long relaxed or broken up completely that many will drift away from regular habits and lose all religious life unless special effort is made to reawaken interest and reestablish regular practice of religious duties.

The Sunday school and Epworth League, prayer meeting, class meeting and public worship should all be put in line for progressive work. The plans should be laid comprehensively for the forward movement in all departments for the whole season. Special emphasis should be placed on Bible study. Too little of this is had at the present time. The Sunday school is not in any great measure filling the requirements of our people, nor can it do so completely under its present limitations. No adequate provision is made at the present time in the churches generally for a proper understanding of the Bible. Lesson helps are published in superabundance, and yet the ignorance of the majority of the people who attend church and Sunday school is dense and lamentable. If any one doubts this a few questions put to the scholars of almost any school or congregation, if any answers are received at all, will dispel doubt and add astonishment. This holds true not only on matters of Bible history, biography, geography and the externals of Scripture teaching, but is equally fact in regard to the fundamental principles of divine truth and the rules of human duty.

In consequence of this lack of real knowledge of essential laws of conduct and faith there is a relaxing of effort for righteousness in social, industrial and civic circles as well as apathy in devotional matters.

The danger from the drift of the times is imminent. The tide of popular interest sets strongly away from righteousness, as it always has. There must be determined effort, skillfully directed and persistently maintained, if we are to escape the disaster of an age ignoring, because ignorant of, the divine revelation in the Christian Scriptures.

No solid basis for personal piety can be found except in a knowledge of and obedience to the commands of God found in the Bible. There is no way to arrive at a proper conviction of divine truth except by a persistent study of the Bible. This must be by individual application. When one steadily reads the Scriptures with earnest desire to know God's will and determination to do it when known there come enlightenment to the mind and the thrill of divine power to the soul and a possession of truth which is deeper than intellectual ideas. It is vital experience.

Every revival of devotional piety or ethical righteousness must be based on substantial and fresh knowledge of God's will and work as recorded in the Bible. There is no substitute for genuine, thorough searching the Scriptures.

If you want to know and serve God, search His word.

If you want to help others to salvation, search God's word.

Apply yourself to the truth, and the truth of God shall be applied to your heart.

Every great revival the world has ever known has risen from earnest searching the word.

All Lives Have Their Places.

If all the threads in the loom of the weaver of tapestry were alive they might complain that they are stretched and twisted in a confused and patternless fashion. But the workman would tell them to trust him and he would blend them in the end into an exquisite design. Many a human life seems lived to no purpose and to be only a blemish upon the fair coloring of those with which it is associated. But the Divine Workman can turn it to good use, and we may trust Him to do so. Not infrequently even here we perceive how some life, supposed to be stupid and fruitless, has proved rich in blessing and even in beauty to some other. Can we not believe that all lives have their fitting places and uses in the great design of the Father? Flowers of rare beauty often spring up in the midst of seeming desolation where nobody thinks of looking for them but God and His holy angels.—Congregationalist.

Sunshine and Shadow.

Till a man has learned to be happy without the sunshine, and therein becomes capable of enjoying it perfectly, it is well that the shine and the shadow should be mingled so as God only knows how to mingle them. To effect the blessedness for which God made him, man must become a fellow worker with God.—George McDonald.

Modern Heroism.

Modern heroism does not consist of throwing away our lives on some fanciful field of honor, but in enduring successfully the little trials and temptations of everyday life.—Religious Herald.

Temptation.

When we feel within us rise
Passions that we thought were slain,
When we find the stalwart tares
Growing in our field of grain,
Then, if patiently we toil,
If temptations be withstood,
Then may we be counted good,
If we stand and overcome.
—Lillian Grey.

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark, 14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

COLD WEATHER STYLES.

Attractive Sack Wraps In Two Shades—Brown Accessories.

The sack wraps in coat form, both long and three-quarter length, have quite a chic style and are particularly attractive in blue and scarlet or in navy blue with biscuit, overlaid with small designs in blue braiding. The blue coats lined with champagne silk and trimmed with coarse lace are smart and useful, but black coats are quite in the minority.

The new brown leather foot gear is very dark and has no touch of yellow. It harmonizes beautifully with the brown tones of knapsack frieze and cloth prepared for autumn and winter wear. Earth brown vigogne flecked with dashes of black and white, made up with a little apricot panne and just one touch of vivid turquoise blue, makes a delightfully harmonious gown.

The odd lengths of lace insertion and piece lace bought at the sales make pretty coffee coats, and if there is barely sufficient material it may be eked out in many ways with figured silk or ribbon.

In veils a popular fashion is the pale shade of blue, rose or mauve mousseline or gauze spotted with black chenille and velvet pastilles. These are arranged in a very plentiful fullness. From gathers at the top they puff out in a striking fullness, but are then drawn in a little tightly beneath the chin and disappear up the back of the hair, where a series of tiny quillings seems to finish off the mousseline, combining a continuation of the hat garniture. These are worn with large picture hats and may be considered becoming, but appeal more to those who drive than to the promenader.

The cut shows a plain blue velvet dress, the waist of which laces over an underblouse of guipure.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

FOR STREET WEAR.

Gowns Have Cape Effects—Stoles and Hats Should Correspond.

The gowns made for the early autumn are usually finished with some kind of cape effect, and later on we shall supplement our costumes with large capes of fur. The coatee or blouse will have a deep cape effect finished with fur. Narrow fur trimmings and fur tails will be in great request during the coming winter, for a warm costume always looks well adorned with fur.

So far blue and brown are likely to be the leading autumn colors for gowns, and black will still be in great demand. A very brilliant empire green is to be much used for trimming, and this new tint is more intense than the vivid emerald shade of last season.

When a wide fluffy stole or a huge boa is worn the flat hat condenses the figure and has not a happy effect. The new autumn hat, with the left side turned over on to the crown, is very effective with the bushy stole or boa, and the flat spreading chapeau is most harmonious with the cape effect.

The picture shows a costume of dark and light gray cloth, with the latest double sleeve. JUDIC CHOLLET.

GONZALES' MURDER.

Evidence of Seven State Witnesses Against Tillman.

ANTE MORTEM STATEMENT ADMITTED

Hoyt Testified That Dying Man Said When Shot by Tillman, "Shoot Again, Coward; You Have Killed Me!"

LEXINGTON, S. C., Oct. 1.—During the seven hours devoted to the trial of James H. Tillman seven of the state's witnesses were heard. The state still has a number of witnesses to be called.

Dr. B. W. Taylor, who was on the stand when court adjourned, concluded his testimony. In answer to a question by counsel for the state he said the operation was necessary to prolong life. After an examination of the wound he entertained no hope for the recovery of Mr. Gonzales. Mr. Gonzales was under the influence of an anesthetic when he first saw him at the hospital.

The testimony given by M. C. Wallace, a compositor on the State, who preceded Mr. Hoyt on the stand, was to the effect that Mr. Gonzales told him while lying in the office of the State something to the effect that he could not live.

Judge Gary in ruling that the statement which Mr. Hoyt said Gonzales made to him was admissible held that all the requirements of law relative to the admission of dying declarations had been met. The defense then objected to the introduction of a verbal statement if there were any written statements made by Gonzales. When court reconvened Mr. Hoyt testified that Mr. Gonzales made the following statement to him:

"He said that he left the State office to go to dinner; he was walking along Main street toward the state capitol and he got nearly to the City Railway transfer station when he saw Jim Tillman coming from the capitol with two men whom he did not recognize. He said there were several people standing around the corner and that he saw if he kept on his course along the edge of the pavement he would brush against these men, and to avoid them he cut diagonally across the pavement toward the corner of the transfer station, and as he was going across he saw Tillman pull a big pistol and shoot. He said that he turned and faced him and exclaimed: 'Shoot again, you coward. You have killed me!' He looked Tillman in the face, and Tillman held the pistol toward him, but did not shoot. He said that then some gentlemen ran up and helped him. He said that as he shot—just about the time Tillman shot—that he (Tillman) exclaimed, 'I have done what you said,' or, 'I have taken you at your word,' or something like that."

The statement, he said, was made about half an hour after the shooting.

Q.—(Mr. Nelson continuing.) After the killing didn't you write in the harshest terms of him as a blackguard, a gambler, a drunkard and a murderer?

A.—You will find in the—

Q.—Don't tell what I will find. I am asking you did you write or not.

A.—I didn't write all that.

Q.—What did you write?

A.—I wrote he was a cowardly assassin and signed my name to it in the State of Jan. 16.

Planned Murder With Dynamite.

LANCASTER, N. H., Oct. 1.—Robert Courser, the man who was arrested at Hardwick, Vt., charged with the attempt to dynamite the home of Duncan McKensie at Dalton before daylight Friday of last week, was brought to the jail here, where he broke down and confessed to being one of a party of three men who had deliberately planned to murder Orin Crouch, a boarder at the McKensie home. He refused to disclose the names of the other men.

Steel and Iron Plant Cut Pay.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Oct. 1.—The Empire Steel and Iron company, which operates two furnaces in this city and four at Catasauqua, and the Thomas Iron company, which operates four stacks at Hokendauqua and two at Alburtis, have posted notices of a 10 per cent cut in wages. The reduction affects 900 men at these places.

For First Time In Eighty-two Years.

MARION, Ind., Oct. 1.—For the first time in eighty-two years women were permitted to sit with men in the sessions of the eighty-seventh Indiana yearly meeting of Friends. The convention is largely attended. It was voted that men and women should meet together at all sessions during this meeting.

Quaker City Mail Burned.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 1.—Superintendent of Mails Alexander said that the car burned at Lancaster, Pa., was filled with Philadelphia mail. The letters were mostly those of business houses and through registered mail. His advices are that the contents of the car were totally destroyed.

Wisconsin Train Wreck, Five Killed

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Five persons were killed and twenty or twenty-five others injured by a Wisconsin Central train running into a street car in Fifty-second avenue, on the west side. Most of the dead and injured, it is reported, were men who were returning from the Harlem race track.

Express Train Kills Four.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 1.—Four persons were killed and several others were injured by being struck by an express train at Sharon Hill, a few miles from this city, on the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington railroad.

CZAR AT VIENNA.

No Enthusiasm Such as Was Shown King and Kaiser.

VIENNA, Oct. 1.—The arrival of the czar here was not marked by the same popular enthusiasm as was shown during the visits of King Edward and Emperor William. This was probably due to the military and police precautions, as both sides of the streets were lined with infantry, cavalry and artillery, and behind the hedge of soldiers was a thick line of police facing the populace. The emperor's reception, however, was respectful if not as enthusiastic as might have been expected.

The thoroughfares through which the czar and Emperor Francis Joseph drove on their way from the station to

NICHOLAS II.

Schoenbrunn castle were effectively decorated, but the city proper showed almost no evidence of welcome. This may be accounted for by the fact that the royal procession did not touch the main section of Vienna.

The czar on his arrival seemed tired and on the way to Schoenbrunn castle gave little evidence of interest in the arrangements for his reception. The police precautions were extraordinary. Almost half the Vienna force was concentrated along the route from the station, where a great number of detectives were gathered.

At the state luncheon Emperor Francis Joseph proposed the health of the czar.

The czar, replying, said that the emperor's words of welcome had touched him deeply. He had accepted the invitation with exceptional pleasure and was happy to be able to express his personal feelings. The cordial understanding between Russia and Austria and the complete harmony in the action of their governments constituted a valuable pledge for the success of the great work of pacification on which they were mutually agreed. The humanitarian aim pursued, proceeded the czar, excluded all partiality and must be attained with firmness and perseverance by methods which were most fitted to insure a real and permanent pacification. He hoped, he said, that these efforts would contribute to the strengthening of the general peace.

MORE TROOPS AT SOO.

A Toronto Corps Relieves Local Militiamen.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., Oct. 1.—Street car traffic in the Canadian Soo, which has been suspended during the disturbed condition of affairs here incident to the closing of the Consolidated Lake Superior company industries, has been resumed without demonstration of any kind on the part of the discharged employees.

Colonel Buchan, who arrived in charge of the detachment of troops from Toronto, relieved Colonel Elliott of the local military and assumed command.

Additional troops from Toronto numbering about 200 militia arrived later, and soon afterward a train left over the Algoma Central railroad for Wilde Station to bring back the woodsmen who were left there Monday when the rioting broke out about the company's works. The train was in charge of twenty-five soldiers.

The arrival of the additional soldiers was received in an apathetic manner even by the business men, who have been rather uneasy during the presence in the city of the large number of unemployed men. They were not cheered by the residents, and there was no sign that the former employees of the company did not welcome their arrival. Officials of the company, however, were grateful at their arrival and aided Colonel Buchan, commanding, in placing them at points thought to be in danger of overt acts.

The men, comprising members of the highlanders, grenadiers, dragoons and Queen's own regiments at Toronto, in variegated military dress, presented a picturesque sight as they marched from train to the numerous localities and industries. They were detailed to guard and relieve the sentinels of the small detachment which had been provided before their coming.

Miss Grant Hurt In Runaway.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Oct. 1.—Miss Julia Grant, daughter of U. S. Grant, and Miss Isabel Ingle have narrowly escaped serious and possibly fatal injuries in a runaway accident on Eighth street. Miss Grant's spirited horse overturned her light buggy, throwing both young ladies to the ground. They were bruised about their heads and sides and were removed to their homes in a carriage.

Women Slayer Found Dead.

COWLES, Neb., Oct. 1.—The dead body of Tom Madison, the supposed slayer of the Smith county (Kan.) family of three women, was found in a field near here. He had been shot, supposedly by himself, and had apparently been dead a number of days.

BOYS' CLUB OPENING NIGHT

The Boys' Club, of Plainfield, which is now a fixed and growing institution, will begin the fall and winter season tomorrow night, when the comfortable clubhouse in Sycamore street, will be thrown open. It is hard to calculate the great amount of good accomplished by this club since its inception several years ago, under the wise and careful direction of William B. Wadsworth. A host of boys have not only been kept off the streets, where there are many temptations, but they have been taught many useful things by Olaf Saugstad, the efficient superintendent.

This season many changes have been made at the clubhouse and the whole building has been renovated. The gymnasium has been made better than ever and the place generally is most attractive for the boys.

There are always pleasing features at the opening of the club and no doubt there will be a good time for everyone tomorrow night, when the doors are opened for the season.

SPORTING NEWS.

WILD PITCHES.

This afternoon's game between the newspapermen and lawyers will be called by Umpire Thomas Timbo promptly at 2:30 o'clock on Hope Common.

"Warry" MacLaughlin has not yet decided just where he will play baseball next season. It is understood that he is wanted in New London, while it has been reported that he may re-enter the National League.

Brown, who played short-stop for Alis last Saturday, was the crack short-stop at Cornell during his college course. It was he who made the hit that won a great game played between Cornell and Harvard, still dear to the memory of Cornellians. He was a safe and sure hitter, as well as a fast fielder.

Manager Denman, of Westfield, announces that he has made arrangements with the trolley company to double their service Saturday for the Westfield-St. Mary's game. Cars will leave Plainfield every fifteen minutes between 2 and 3 o'clock and passengers will be carried to Park street, Westfield, without extra charge, instead of being obliged to leave the car at the depot as heretofore.

A baseball enthusiast in speaking of the proposed four or five-club league being talked of, suggests that a New Jersey league be formed with teams in Trenton, New Brunswick, Plainfield, Elizabeth and Paterson, and by way of support of this argument says that teams in these cities would pay. As regards the other league spoken of he says that neither Westfield, Scotch Plains or Rahway are paying baseball towns, that they simply depend for financial support upon the crowds from other cities.

TENNIS.

A general social entertainment and reception will be tendered to the players in the recent Y. M. C. A. tennis tournament next Tuesday, October 6.

—Daniel Shea, who has been assistant telegraph operator at the North Avenue station, has been transferred to Bound Brook for the present.

—Mrs. H. S. Brown and son have removed from Harlem, N. Y., to this city. They will take up their residence on Somerset street. Mrs. Brown is the mother of Peter Emmons, of Grandview avenue.

AMUSEMENTS.

The new musical farce "Widow Dooley's Dream," which presents the jolly Irish character comedian Geo. W. Monroe, the famous Aunt Bridget, surrounded by fifty clever operatic and vaudeville artists, is coming to the Grand Opera House for the week of Oct. 5. It is said to be the most expensive musical play that will be seen here at popular prices this season, and the reason appears to be that the well-known and popular star, Monroe has been given a cast of clever people, a special and elaborate scenic equipment, and a beauty chorus of twenty-four show girls.

Over in Newark at Proctor's playhouse in Broad street, Charles T. Aldrich, America's cleverest eccentric comedian will head the all-star bill. Lewis Simon, Grace Gardner and Company will present Wilhelm Cressy's latest farce, "The New Coachman;" Sidney Grant, comedy acrobats; Josephine Sabel, comedienne; Bloxum and Burns, eccentriques extraordinary; Professor Hampton's trained dogs; Norma Wills and Monte Collins in a travesty entitled "A Night in Madrid" and fifteen other clever acts will complete the bill at this house.

—Bound Brook's tax rate this year is $1.90 on the thousand.

—Marchant Brothers occupied their new barn in the rear of North avenue, this morning, for the first time.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflamed tissues to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tired of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cents. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.

"AL" SHEDD WELL-KNOWN AND POPULAR

Sketch of Railroad Engineer, Who Has Many Friends in This City.

HE IS AN OLD-TIMER

HAS NEVER BEEN IN A WRECK DURING LONG YEARS' OF SERVICE.

Prominent Lodge Man—Tips the Beam at 271 Pounds—He Has Many Years of Service Still Before Him.

"One of the best known locomotive engineers in the East, and the oldest engineer in active service on the New Jersey Central, is A. F. (familiarly known as 'Al') Shedd, of Somerville, who runs a passenger train beween that town and Jersey City," remarks the Railroad Employee. Mr. Shedd is as well-known in Plainefild as well as Somerville and this sketch from the Employee will be of interest:

"Mr. Shedd was born on a farm near Augusta, Me., on March 28, 1843, and at the age of 15 years he found employment as a newsboy on passenger trains running between Skowhegan and Portland, on the Portland and Kennebec Railroad. At the age of 16 years he commenced firing on the Eastern Division of the Maine Central, running between Waterville and Danville Junction, where he remained for one year and one month, when he went with the Portland and Kennebec, where he fired for one year and ten months, when he was promoted to engineer, on May 8, 1862. He ran on that road until April 15, 1865, when he resigned and on May 16, of the same year, was employed by the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey in the passenger service. Mr. Shedd is the oldest engineer in road service on the Central. He is an ardent Brotherhood man and was one of the charter members of Division No. 80, which was organized on November 11, 1865. He was chief engineer of this division for many years and also secretary and treasurer of the insuanroe branch.

"During his long years of service as an engineer, Mr. Shedd has never been in a wreck or received the slightest injury to his person, or has he cost his employers one cent for any damage to their property, through neglect or carelessness, or derelictness of duty on his part.

"Mr. Shedd is one of the heavyweights of the Central and tips the beam at 271 pounds. He has a wife and two grown sons; his oldest being assistant trainmaster of the Choctaw, Oklohoma and Gulf Railroad, with headquarters at Little Rock, Arkansas. His youngest is the manufacturer of the celebrated 'Comfort Oscillating Electric Fans,' at Roselle, N. J., and president of the Shedd Electric and Manufacturing Co.

"Engineer Shedd is a man well preserved, considering his long term of service, and if no accidents befalls him, bids fair for many more years of faithful service with the corporation he has served so long and so faithfully."

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Miss Margaret Johnson has resigned her position at Hill & Shupp's and has entered the Plainfield Business College.

—According to an exchange the price of cement has fallen to such an extent that the output will no doubt be curtailed at some of the Warren County plants. The demand last spring forced the price up to $2 a barrel, but the prices now are quoted from eighty-five cents to $1.

—A. J. Cassatt, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, has tendered his resignation as a director of the Public Service Corporation, assigning pressure of other business. The resignation has been accepted at a special meeting of the Board, and A. B. Carlton was elected to succeed him.

—A rare old relic in the shape of a gold chronometer found on the battlefield of Waterloo by one of Napoleon's body guards is on view in the show windows of C. G. Rochet's jewelry store in Jersey City. The watch strikes the hours and quarter hours and despite its great age, its works are in an excellent state of preservation.

With a week of evangelical services the Reform Club in this city will reopen on October 5. For one week the services will be continued with special services and addresses by prominent religious workers in New York. On Wednesday or Thursday evening a reception is being planned in honor of the members of the East Twenty-second Street Mission, New York. At that time a special programme will be prepared.

The religious services in the club will be conducted by B. W. Hand, William C. Smith, J. W. A. Bauersachs and William S. Richards.

Y. M. C. A. CONFERENCE ON THE BOYS' WORK

Dr. Norman H. Probasco and Martin Stutsman to Read Interesting Papers.

MEETINGS IN NEWARK

PLAINFIELD TO BE WELL REPRESENTED AT SESSIONS.

Organization Effected Here in 1891—Rapid Growth—Programme for Meeting Commencing Friday, Oct. 23—The Speakers.

Kenneth Robbie, secretary for boys' work, at the Y. M. C. A., and the committee in charge of that branch of the local association, will attend the boys' annual conference of the New Jersey Young Men's Christian Associations of the Newark association, beginning Friday afternoon, October 23, and closing with a farewell service in the First Presbyterian Church, Sunday evening, October 25. Dr. Norman H. Probasco will read a paper on "The relation of an association boy to the association from the professional man's standpoint." Martin B. Stutsman will talk on "The relation of an association boy to the boy outside the association.

These conferences have been held since 1891, when forty-five delegates assembled in this city for the study of boys' work. The number in attendance has steadily grown until last year 314 gathered together, from the city and town associations to discuss problems which the association boys have to face.

The programme committee of the State has secured a number of speakers, among them Edgar M. Robinson, the international secretary, who will have charge of an open parliament; George W. Hickley, superintendent of the Good Will Farm for Boys, located at East Fairfield, Maine, will conduct the "Quiet Moments" each session; Rev. Dr. John H. Elliott, of New York, will be the speaker at the boys' meeting to be held in the Second Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon, October 25, when it is expected 1,000 boys over fourteen years of age will be in attendance. Dr. Henry Spellmeyer and Rev. Dr. D. R. Frazer will also appear on the programme.

The theme of the conference will be "The Association Boy," and the committee has endeavored to treat the subject in a broad-minded way, so as to give the clergy, association workers and parents an opportunity to study this all-important and perplexing personality.

The conference will open with a supper served in the commodious gymnasium.

This department of association work has had a remarkable growth, there being 38,812 boys in the membership of the United States and Canada. In New Jersey 2,485 boys are enrolled as members, and during the past year 922 boys were members of the Bible classes, with a total attendance of 15,600. The attendance at the weekly religious meetings was 21,119, and the gymnasium enrollment was 1,780. The growth of this work is due largely to the conferences held each year and the supervisory work of the State executive committee.

Manufacturing Citizens.

Sixty inhabitants of this city were given the privileges of American citizenship last night. They were taken to Elizabeth for naturalization by the Republican naturalization committee consisting of Horace G. Adams, from the First ward; John Keeley, Second ward; John H. Cose, Third ward; and James Morrison, Fourth ward. They were examined by Judge Vail and County Clerk Howard.

We Fail to See the Joke.

There was published in The Daily Press of yesterday announcements of the engagement of Miss Emma Ortleb, of Westfield, and Miss Grace Gaddis, of North Plainfield. The information was given by friends of the young women as a joke. Neither one knowing the young men whose names were coupled with theirs, they properly deny the truth of the statements.

Religious Scruples.

The Hebrews who reside in and about this city were unable to vote on the constitutional amendments as the election took place on their new year day and their law forbids them to vote on holidays. The rule held good all over the State, and as a result very few Hebrews votes were cast. There are over 25,000 Hebrew voters in New Jersey, it is said.

I. C. T. CLUB GIVES A DANCE

OPENING AFFAIR OF THE SEASON FOR POPULAR CLUB.

Rooms Prettily Decorated—Good Music—The Committee on Arrangements.

Attended with usual success a dance was held last evening by the members of the I. C. T. Club in their rooms at the corner of North and Park avenues. The music was provided by Charles Suhr and several new pieces sung in the plays now running in New York were rendered and their popularity as dance music was voted with hearty applause.

The rooms had been decorated with bunting in the club colors and various colored Oronital lanterns. The effect was attractive. The dance was arranged by a committee composed of Leonce Texier, chairman; William Waters, Joseph Robinson, Arthur Caleen and C. H. Bilyeu. The committee, during the intermission, served refreshments of ice cream and cake.

A BURLESQUE ON BASEBALL

ACCORDING TO UMPIRE'S AFFIDAVIT LAWYERS DEFEATED NEWSPAPERMEN.

Score of 28 to 20—The Umpire Revenges Himself on Reporters.

The legal lights and the scribs had a battle royal for supremacy on the diamond yesterday afternoon on Hope Common and provided three or four hundred spectators with a farce comedy exhibition seldom surpassed in baseball annals. After the dust of conflict had cleared in the final round, Umpire Thomas Timbo took affidavit to the fact that the barristers had won by a grand total of twenty-eight runs to twenty and the newspapermen consequently had the pleasure of entertaining their conquerors at dinner at Timbo's. Although no accurate summary of the game was possible, it can be authoritatively stated that no man made more than sixteen errors nor less than that number of hits or bases on balls. The more shining lights of the game were Hetfield, whose base sliding awoke much enthusiasm, and DeMeza, who on one occasion attempted and partially succeeded in stopping the ball with the crown of his derby hat. The newspaper men made a grand rally in the ninth inning and would probably have scored often enough to defeat their opponents had they not grown weary in running bases. Thomas Timbo, who passed decisions on the bases, was the big attraction of the game, especially in the ninth inning, when he narrowly escaped being mobbed for a decision objectionable to the lawyers. Judge William N. Runyon, who umpired behind the bat, gave entire satisfaction "as usual." The line-up: Lawyers—Owens, c and ss; Nash p, and 2b; Hetfield, 1b; Hoyt, 2b and p; Marsh, ss and c; Mc Nabb, 3; Huff, lf; H. Runyon, cf; De Mesa, rf. Newspapermen—Firstbrook, c; Feiring, p and 3b; Hacquer, 1b; Laing, 2b; Shea, ss; Mullen, 3b and p; Hall, lf; McLoughlin, cf; Muir, rf.

REAPPOINTED COMMITTEES.

President of W. C. T. U. Makes No Changes in the Lists.

During the regular business meeting of the W. T. U. yesterday afternoon, the president, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Parse, re-appointed all of the superintendents for the various departments of work and the vice presidents, two from each of the churches, were all re-elected. A report was received from Mrs. John H. French, chairman of the committee, having charge of the plans for the proposed fair the last week of October.

Reform Club's Work.

A committee of the Reform Club announces that the hall will open for the winter months, from October 5. Arrangements have been completed for a week's entertainment, commencing Oct. 5. Superintendents from different New York missions have been secured to make an address each evening. After Oct. 12 the Reform Club will hold their regular meeting, Sunday afternoons and Thursday evenings.

—Roth & Co., the new butchers, 133 East Front street, will have a full line of fish, lobsters, shell fish, etc., for tomorrow's trade.

—Neuman Brothers have 100 baskets of fine white table and canning peaches. A special sale is going on today and tomorrow, at the store, corner of East Fifth street and Watchung avenue.

FOOTBALL SEASON TO OPEN

BATTLE ON GRIDIRON ARRANGED BETWEEN O. F. C. AND WESTFIELD.

First Game Tomorrow Afternoon on Arlington Avenue Grounds—The Lineup.

The real opening of the football season in Plainfield will come tomorrow, when the eleven that represents the Orange Field Club will do battle with the warriors from Westfield. As Plainfield is without conflicting athletic contests tomorrow, the baseball games being played out of town, there should be a large attendance. Both elevens are in prime condition, with several veterans in their make-up, and the contest should be well worth seeing. The teams will line up at 3:30 on the Arlington avenue grounds. This will be the line-up for the Orange Field Club: Emmons, le; McCullough and Slingland, lt; Kenyon and Jennings, lg; Hellyer, c; McCullough, rg; Lake and Bird, rt; Douglass and Bird, re; Hamilton, qb; Cathcart and Todd, lhb; Sherwin, rhb; Smith, fb. The Orange Field Club management has been to considerable expense in preparing a season's sport for this city and lovers of the game should reward them by their presence tomorrow.

PATROL WAGON AN EXHIBIT

PROPERTY OF PLAINFIELD ON DISPLAY AT TRENTON FAIR.

Vehicle Attracting Favorable Attention—To be Brought Here Next Week.

One of the exhibits at the Inter-State fair at Trenton this week that attracts more than its share of attention is the patrol wagon of the city of Plainfield. It is placed conspicuously and its business-like, up-to-date appearance with its attractive lettering, "Plainfield Police Patrol," tells the thousands of visitors at the fair that the city of Plainfield has a wide-awake police department. Police experts at the fair have called the wagon one of the best and handsomest in service today. The wagon was built by the Fitzgibbons-Crisp Company, of Trenton. Its cushioned seats will hold ten people; it has cushioned tires and all the equipments necessary to a modern patrol wagon. The order for its manufacture was authorized by the City Council last June. It will be brought to this city next week after the close of the police convention at Trenton.

WOODEN-MARTIN.

A Former Plainfielder Marries a Newark Girl—Ceremony Being Quiet.

A wedding of interest to Plainfielders took place in Newark last Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Louise Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Martin, of Newark, was married to Alfred B. Wooden, formerly of this city and a son of Mrs. Sarah F. Townsend, of Watchung avenue. Mrs. George Pierpont, of Stafford place, this city, was matron of honor and Charles Faber, of New York, was best man. Rev. T. M. Lee, of the Reformed Church, of Newark, was the officiating clergyman. The bride was gowned in pearl satin with duchesse point lace and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The groom's gift to the bride was a house and lot. Guests were in attendance from New York, Newark, Brooklyn, the Oranges, Morristown and Plainfield. Mr. and Mrs. Wooden will reside at Roseville.

Improving Footwalks.

During the week sidewalks have been laid by property owners in the West End of the borough. The flagging extends from Greenbrook road to the mountain on one side and to Walnut street on the other, making a continuous stretch of over a mile. The expense has been borne by the property holders.

Conference of Boys' Secretaries.

PIANO MAN ATTEMPTS TO ESCAPE TAXES?

Police Swoop Down on Him While Removing Goods Under Cover of Darkness.

A PIANO AS SECURITY

THE CORPORATION COUNSEL MAKES AN AGREEMENT.

Harry G. Everett Loads His Other Eight Pianos on Vans and Starts for Trenton—Quick Action of City Collector.

Harry G. Everett, a traveling dealer in Bradbury pianos, who started in business a few days ago at 138 North avenue, tried to steal a march on the city officials and police last night at about 7 o'clock by removing his pianos from his store with the intention of shipping them to Trenton, supposedly to avoid payment of taxes levied on them by City Collector Frank Smith. The Bradbury Piano Company dealer has not found business profitable in Plainfield.

A few days after the concern opened its doors with the plan of underselling local piano merchants in a "special ten days sale," Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh, in consultation with the city collector, found a law which empowers the Board of Assessors to levy on the stock of transient merchants for the full value for one year, a statute intended for the protection of dealers doing permanent business in the city. Accordingly, the members of the Board of Assessors with Mr. Marsh and Tax Collector Smith visited the store on Monday last and assessed the pianos for an amount between $60 and $70. The agent objected strenuously to this proceeding but was shown the law, and eventually made tacit agreement to pay.

Last night at an hour which he evidently considered favorable for departing undetected, Mr. Everett, the dealer, had two big piano vans backed up to his store and began to superintend the removal of the instruments. He had not worked long, however, before Roundsman Flynn and Patrolman Quaas arrived on the scene, closely followed by Sergeant Frederickson, Roundsman Mattox and Patrolman Higgins. The officers informed Mr. Everett that he could not remove his goods until the tax bill had been settled, but the much badgered agent refused to recognize them until the necessary papers restraining him were produced. These were not long delayed. Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh arrived on the scene and after a few minutes consultation, the agent agreed to leave behind as security one piano, the value of which more than covered the amount of the assessment. Later an attachment issued by Justice Joseph E. Mosher was served by Constable Weaver.

War on Speakeasies.

War has been declared on the "speakeasies" of Dunellen and eighty-seven citizens of the borough have been subpoenaed to appear at the Middlesex County court to testify against the proprietors of the resorts which have been flourishing for the past three years.

Last Days of Pompeii.

The local lodge of Odd Ladies is rehearsing for a grand spectacular production of the "Last Days of Pompeii" to be given in the Casino October 16. The production is under direction of A. E. Willard.

Surprise Party.

A surprise party was tendered Lewis Clark, of Lincoln place, last night by a number of his friends. The affair was arranged by Oliver Collins and Lawrence Fahn, Jr.

Hundreds of Tax Bills.

Tax Collector George F. Brown last night sent out two thousand tax bills to residents of North Plainfield. Tonight the same number will be sent out.

—Henry Windham, proprietor of the Hotel Waldorf, will serve an exceptionally fine lunch tomorrow night.

—The concert given at the Calvary Baptist Church last night was well attended and financially successful. The affair was in charge of Rev. Scott Wallace, the pastor, who took part in the programme by singing several solos, while the women of the church gave vocal and instrumental solos and duetts.

A. L. C. Marsh sails tomorrow for Europe on the Steamship Minnehaha. He will be abroad about five weeks.

BOARD OF TRADE IN SESSION

LITTLE BUSINESS DONE AT FIRST FALL MEETING.

Next Meeting Thursday, November 5—Arrangements for Dinner.

The members of the Board of Trade met last night for the first time since their adjournment for the summer months. The attendance was small owing largely to a misunderstanding of the date of meeting. It was voted to change the time of meeting from the third Tuesday in the month to the first Thursday and the members will accordingly assemble for their next meeting Thursday, November 5. The place of meeting will be, as last night, in the rooms of the Exempt Firemen in the Coward building. It is expected that the committee on the annual fall dinner of the board will report at the November meeting. Alexander Gilbert, chairman; Harry C. Runyon, Chas. A. Reed, Newton B. Smalley and Secretary Frank Smith compose this committee. There was no formal discussion or action taken at last night's meeting although street railway and real estate activities were tentatively considered.

CROSS AND CHILDS HONORED

APPOINTED AS MEMBERS, COMMISSION OF BOARD OF CANVASSERS.

To Go Over State's Vote on Constitutional Amendments—Meetings in Trenton.

Senator Joseph Cross, of Union County and Senator S. S. Childs, of Somerset County, have received their commission as members of the special State Board of Canvassers appointed by Governor Murphy for the purpose of canvassing and estimating the votes of each of the constitutional amendments cast at the election held September 22.

The board, as appointed, consists of five senators, three of whom are Republicans, and two are Democrats.

They will meet in the Senate Chamber, Trenton, on October 13, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and will canvass the returns as submitted by the secretary of the State, who receives them from the county boards of election throughout the State. This State board merely passes upon these certificates, and has no authority to go behind these returns.

It is hardly probable there will be any attempt to have a recount. It will certainly not be asked for by the State Republican organization. The attitude of the Republicans in the State has been clearly presented by ex-Senator Stokes, and they will disapprove of anything that may look like an attempt to modify the expressed will of the people. The returns by the county boards throughout the State, as determined in the canvass yesterday, show that the amendments were defeated by the vote of the people.

WOODEN-WILLIS.

Miss Carrie Willis, of North Plainfield, Bride of William H. Wooden.

Miss Carrie Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Willis, of Johnston avenue, North Plainfield, and William H. Wooden, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wooden, of East Front street, were married yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the bride's home. Rev. C. E. Herring performed the ceremony, which was attended by the relatives of the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Wooden left for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls after which they will reside on East Front street.

Half Million of Runkle's Money.

Harry G. Runkle, of this city, is complainant in a suit for which subpoenas have been issued in the Equity Session of the Superior Civil Court of Boston, in which T. W. Lawson, C. D. Burrage and A. C. Burrage, of that city, are respondents. Mr. Runkle claims that the respondents invested $500,000 of his money unwisely and without consulting him.

Time to Sober Up.

Frank Drake, John Callahan and Edward Parsons were arrested on North avenue at 4 o'clock this morning for drunkenness and using profane language. Drake and Callahan were sentenced this morning by City Judge Runyon to sixty days in the county jail. Parsons was given his choice of $10 or twenty days.

MRS. HENRIETTA PITTIS DEAD

WIDOW OF THOMAS H. PITTIS PASSES AWAY AT SON'S HOME.

Survived by Eight Sons and One Daughter—Funeral Sunday Morning.

Mrs. Henrietta Pittis, widow of the late Thomas H. Pittis, died this morning at the home of her son, Dr. Albert Pittis, at the corner of Craig place and Somerset street. Death followed an illness of several weeks. She died this morning at 6 o'clock. Surviving her are eight sons and one daughter, three of whom reside in this city.

Mrs. Pittis has lived here since her marriage. She was a member of the Grace Church and at one time was prominently identified with the church work.

The funeral services will be held at 9:30 Sunday morning from her son's residence. Rev. E. M. Rodman, rector-emeritus of the Grace Church, will officiate. The interment will be in Evergreen Cemetery.

L. A., NO. 4, A. O. H., ENTERTAIN

RECEPTION AND DANCE GIVEN IN SAENGERBUND HALL.

Eighth Annual Event of the Organization—The Committee in Charge.

Saengerbund Hall was opened last evening for the fall and winter season with a reception given by the Ladies' Auxiliary, No. 4, Ancient Order of Hibernians. It was the eighth annual affair given under the auspices of the society and the attendance was exceptionally large. Many guests were present from Bound Brook, New Brunswick, Elizabeth and Newark.

The committee on arrangements consisted of Miss Lillie Terrell, chairman; Mrs. Mayrice Fitzgerald, Mrs. Katherine Bimble, Miss Winnie Kane, Miss Lizzie Fitzgerald, Miss May Whalen and Miss Sarah Kenney. The women were assisted by Robert McCormick, Michael Cullen, Daniel Guinee and Patrick Connolly. The music was by Eugene O'Reilly.

VIEW HIGH SCHOOL PLANS.

Exhibited at the Board's Meeting—Decision Next Monday.

The Plainfield Board of Education met in the Assembly Hall of the High School last night to examine the competitive plans for the new High School building. Walter Cook, the consulting architect, discussed the various plans with the members of the board. To facilitate comparison, Superintendent Maxson had displayed the fifteen plans about the assembly room. The decision or the contest will probably be made at the regular meeting of the Board of Education Monday night, after which the envelopes will be opened and the architects' names discovered. The date for handing in plans by the architects was extended to give them more time, hence the decision is necessarily delayed a few days beyond the time originally set.

Y. M. C. A. Directors Meet.

The directors of the Young Men's Christian Association met last evening and discussed plans for the year's work. A meeting of the physical work committee was held at the home of John Valiant a few days ago at which time it was recommended that new lockers be provided. The Board of Directors ordered the lockers put in last evening.

Strawberries in September.

A strawberry festival in September was the rather unusual entertainment given by Mr. and Mrs. Estelle Elliott, of West Eighth street, last Wednesday evening. The berries were picked from Mr. Elliott's garden. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Harris and Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Hall among others of their relatives.

No Meters on These Waters.

The Plainfield Spring Water Company, of this city, is a new competitor in the field heretofore exclusively occupied by the Watchung Spring Water Company. It deals in Washington Rock spring water. The old Plainfield Water Supply Company is still in the business.

Preparatory Service.

There will be preparatory service tonight in Trinity Reformed Church at 8 o'clock, followed by the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on Sunday morning.

Sandford-White Nuptials.

Miss White, of Washington, and Percy Sandford, of East Front street, will be married the latter part of October.

HOW SITE FOR NEW SCHOOL IS CHOSEN

Superintendent Weightman Finds Most Populous District in Borough.

NEAR SOMERSET STREET

THE NUMBER OF SCHOOL CHILDREN "ACROSS THE BROOK" IS 1,200.

At the Meeting of Board Monday Night the Location May be Named—The School Registrations Doubled.

Statistics prepared by superintendent of North Plainfield schools, Homer J. Wightman, for the use of the Board of Education in deciding upon the site for the proposed new school building, show in a lucid manner those sections of the borough which have grown in population the most. The figures prepared are based on the school population, which this year is greater than ever.

The Board of Education is desirous of locating the new building in that port of the borough wherein is shown the greatest increase in population. The rapid growth and opening up of the West End, known as Prideville, led the board to believe that it would be necessary to erect the building in that part of the borough, or at a location which would be central to the northwestern and northeastern parts of the borough. This has proved to be the part of the town showing the lowest rate of increase.

The borough was divided off into sections. The boundary lines were from Somerset street, Fairview avenue and Stony brook. Contrary to expectations the biggest increase in the school population of the sections thus marked out was in that part bounded by Somerset street, Fairview avenue and East Front street. The second largest was in the section marked No. 2 in the northeast section, and the third largest increase was shown to be in the third section in the southwestern part, which includes Washington Park.

The total school registration in North Plainfield this year is 1,900, which is one hundred more than has ever been accommodated in the borough educational institutions. The school registrations this year are double the number of any previous year.

As a result of the figures submitted by Mr. Wightman, which will be presented before the board at the meeting Monday night, the selection of the site for the building will probably be decided upon. The building will no doubt be erected somewhere near the present structure on Somerset street.

A DIALOGUE.

Mayor Smalley administered justice last evening in the North Plainfield court.

Enter David Davidson. Mayor Smalley—"Dave Davidson, what have you got to say for yourself?" D.—"Noth'in, only drunk, that's all!" Mayor Smalley—"$8. Next?" Enter Joseph Curran. Mayor Smalley—"Eh eh," been hangin' around some 'er them cider joints again have ye? Cider must have been gettin' hard." J. Curran—"Just so you could notice it, your Honor." Mayor Smalley—"$8." Curtain.

Mr. Pierce Wins Prize.

Announcement was made yesterday that Henry Pierce, of Essex street, a graduate of Union College in the class of 1903, had won a prize of $300 for passing the best examinations for admission to the Union Theological Seminary. Mr. Pierce was valedictorian of the class of '98 in the Plainfield High School.

George Mantz to Wed.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Harris, daughter of William H. Harris, of Rahway, to George Mantz, of East Fifth street. The wedding is to take place at the home of the bride, in Grand street, Rahway, Wednesday evening, October 14.

Miss Clapp's Wedding.

Mrs. John Clapp has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Miss Edith Frances Clapp and Frank Dalton Bennett on Thursday evening, October 22, at 8 o'clock at 84 Mercer avenue. A reception will follow from 8:30 to 10 o'clock.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

The first place you think of when anyone mentions candy or soda is Fowler's store on East Front street.

Did you ever hear of Stanley, the florist? His store on North avenue is one of the best places to select flowers for wedding or funeral.

When in doubt as to your milk supply, call on Marchant Brothers on North avenue and give them an opportunity to serve you with pure milk or cream.

No apothecary in this city can compare with John P. Powers as a prescription druggist. Great care is used in compounding prescriptions and the toilet articles on sale are at reasonable prices.

A carpenter in need is a friend indeed; providing the carpenter is of the right sort. Herman Hansen, Regent street, telephone 2542, is an experienced carpenter. Get a bid from him.

It is all foolishness going to New York for furniture when you can have your wants fully satisfied in Plainfield at Powlison & Jones' store on East Front street. It is one of the best equipped furniture stores in Jersey.

When there is any plumbing or tinning work to be done, a furnace set or required, you want a man who is expert in those matters. A. H. Enander, of Park avenue, is such a person, and he will do your work promptly.

The renown of the Sorosis shoe is world-wide. Everybody who has once worn the shoe wants another pair. In style and making it is unsurpassed. You are invited to inspect the stock displayed by John H. Doane, West Front street.

Boice, Runyon & Co., the coal and lumber dealers, are prepared to take your order for the winter's supply of coal. You will find this coal to be the best in the market, giving an abundance of heat, yet burning free and clean. The firm also handles the best grades of lumber, lime and building materials.

There is nothing in the line of choice groceries that you cannot find for sale by L. G. Ortner, the newly established grocer on the corner of Park avenue and West Fourth street. Quick and courteous service, prompt delivery, and high quality and low prices of goods are increasing the business at the store every day. It will pay you to investigate.

An alteration sale is now being conducted at Hill & Shupp's dry goods store and it should not be understood that these alterations will in any way interfere with the business at the store. The firm is prepared to receive all customers and while the changes are being made there will be a host of bargains offered to the public. An attractive feature is the doll contest which opened on Wednesday. This will interest young and old and full particulars can be obtained at the store.

The Salve That Heals

without leaving a scar is DeWitt's. The name Witch Hazel is applied to many salves, but DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the only Witch Hazel Salve made that contains the pure unadulterated witch hazel. If any other Witch Hazel Salve is offered you it is a counterfeit. E. C. DeWitt invented Witch Hazel Salve and DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best salve in the world for cuts, burns, bruises, tetter, or blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles. Sold by L. W. Randolph.

AMUSEMENTS.

Klaw & Erlangers' revival of "Ben Hur" at the New York Theatre has proved the greatest success made in New York in years. It is staged with all the elaborate scenery and costumes utilized in its presentation at the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane, London, two years ago. The leading parts in "Ben Hur" were never so well played as now. Harry Woodruff, a young and talented actor, is the realization of Gen. Wallace's hero, both in personality and in his interpretation of the role. The "Simonides" of J. E. Dodson, the "Iras" of Miss Annie Irish, and the "Mother of Hur" of Mabel Bert, who played the part 1071 times in the original company, are artistic performers of rare dramatic merit.

Dieting Invites Disease.

To cure dyspepsia or indigestion it is no longer necessary to live on milk and toast. Starvation produces such weakness that the whole system becomes an easy prey to disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that one cares to eat, and is a never failing cure for indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by L. W. Randolph.

ANOTHER TROLLEY PLANNED

LINE BETWEEN DOVER AND ELIZABETH THE PROPOSITION.

Will Open Up Communication Between Springfield and Union's County Seat.

The proposition to include Springfield in the plan of the Morris County Traction Company, which is seeking right of way to Summit has been announced. The object of the company is to build a trolley line from Dover to Elizabeth.

This is the latest proposition for railroad communication for Springfield. At intervals for the past ten years the residents of the place have heard of some company, either railroad or trolley, that wanted a franchise in the town. The plan to connect New York and Philadelphia was the first to include Springfield in its route and a franchise was granted. Then the Elizabeth and Westfield company obtained a franchise for a cross-country line. Both of these franchises were surrendered after several extensions of time.

Then came the Elizabethtown Company, with the Kean interests behind it, going to Summit, and, after a meeting with Frank Bergen, the company counsel, that project fizzled.

The steam roads were the next to try their hand. The New Orange and Four Junction Railroad secured a right of way through Springfield and Summit, and only recently their representative visited the town and secured an extension of time until January 1. The latest move in the railroad line came two weeks ago, when it was said that the Lackawanna would run a branch from Millburn, through Springfield to Scotch Plains, paralleling the Central to Hampton Junction. To date nothing has been done.

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

John Moscow, of Raritan, has taken a position at the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant.

Robert Ellis, of the Potter Press Company's plant, went to Elizabeth last night on business.

Charles Weigman, of West Front street, has taken a position at the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant.

William Carlson, of the Potter Press Company's plant, went to Elizabeth last night to take out naturalization papers.

Samuel Forster, foreman of the pattern shop at the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, was at the Trenton fair yesterday.

Jacob Burkgart, of Brooklyn, who has been the guest of Charles Meyer, of the Potter Press Company's plant, has returned home.

James Humphry has resigned his position at the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant. Mr. Humphry will leave today for Chicago.

William Young has returned to work a the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, after a pleasant sojourn at the Trenton fair.

Ralph Runyon, of the Potter Press Company's plant, has returned to work after being detained at home several days with a badly bruised foot.

Jack Fritts, of West Sixth street, has returned to work in the pattern shop of the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, after being detained at home as a result of an accident in which his hand was badly lacerated.

A laddie full of hot metal fell on the foot of William Ross, while he was at work in the foundry of the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant yesterday. Ross's foot was badly crushed. He will be detained at home for some time.

William Scribner had his eye badly burned while at work in the foundry of the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant yesterday. Scribner was pouring a casting, the hot metal splashed in his right eye, causing him much pain. He will be unable to resume work for several days.

The Plainfield Tool Supply Company has just finished a large contract for the American Cigar Company, which is located in Jersey City. A nineteen hundred dollar contract for dies and taps has been received by the Plainfield Tool Supply Company, from the American Machine Company, of Norfolk, Va.

Michael Mansfield met with a painful accident in the foundry at Pond's yesterday. Mansfield was removing a hot plate from an oven. When the plate was partly out he stumbled and fell, his wrist coming in contact with the hot plate and sticking there. The wound was dressed at the shop and the injured man was sent home.

BALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Pittsburg and Boston Struggle For World's Honors.

SMOKY CITY'S TEAM WINS FIRST

Boston Invaders Put Up an Almost Faultless Game—Phillippe Cast a Spell Over the Hub Players, Causing Their Downfall.

BOSTON, Oct. 2.—The masterly pitching of Phillippe brought about the downfall of the Boston Americans in the first game of the world's championship series with Pittsburg, the National league pennant winners. The score was 7 to 3, and 16,000 people witnessed the battle. So completely were the American league champions under the spell of Phillippe that until the seventh inning only one Boston runner reached third, and then only on an error. In the second inning the Pittsburg pitcher struck out the side. His control was faultless and his method perfect. Barring two errors the Pittsburgs played ball that was clean cut and snappy, while their outfielding throughout was brilliant.

With a big and noisy crowd to excite them, both teams were nervous at the start, and the visitors, going first to the bat, took advantage of an attack of stage fright on the part of Criger and Ferris. The crowd surrounded the field, and hits beyond the ropes went for three bases. Leach got the first of these hits with two out in the first inning and on hits by Wagner and Sebring, helped along by the errors of Criger and Ferris, Pittsburg piled up four runs. They earned another run in the third on Bransfield's triple and Sebring's single.

An error by Ferris gave the visitors another run in the fourth. Stahl quit on Sebring's hit in the seventh, and the ball stopped short of the crowd, Sebring coming home. Young was hit hard all the way, but Philippe never let up until the lead looked safe. In the seventh triples by Freeman and Parent brought in two runs, and from Wagner's error another resulted in Boston's final inning. For Pittsburg, Clarke, Beaumont, Ritchey and Leach excelled in the field, while the batting of Clarke, Leach and Sebring was terrific. Young passed Wagner, apparently with intention. For Boston, Collins, Parent and Lechance fielded cleverly. Score: Pittsburg, 7; Boston, 3. Earned runs—Boston, 2; Pittsburg, 3. Three base hits—Freeman, Parent, Leach, 2; Bransfield. Home runs—Sebring. Stolen bases—Wagner, Bransfield, Ritchey.

Hermis Broke Track Record.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The feature of the racing at Morris park was the good performance of Hermis, who easily won the handicap, one mile and a furlong, from River Pirate. He also broke the track record for the distance by one and a quarter seconds, his time being 1:52⅕. The Hunter handicap, at one mile, was won by the second choice, Mollie Brant, with the favorite, Stolen Moments, second.

Kent Cricketers Beat New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The third game of the tour of the Kent county cricket team was concluded at Staten Island. The visitors won by 124 runs after declaring their second innings closed with 76 runs for four wickets. New York's batting proved disappointing.

Nationals Beat Americans 11 to 0.

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—Four thousand five hundred people witnessed the first game of the post season series between the Chicago National and American league teams. The score: National, 11; American, 0.

Rival Baseball League Clubs Play.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 2.—The Nationals of Cincinnati and the Americans of St. Louis game here resulted in a close win for the home team. Score: Cincinnati, 7; St. Louis, 6.

American Team Wins.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 2.—The American-National ball game here resulted in a victory for the American team. Score, 6 to 0.

Mrs. Shipp Visits the President.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Among the callers on the president was Mrs. Margaret Shipp, widow of Lieutenant William D. Shipp of the Tenth cavalry, who was killed while leading his men in the charge on San Juan hill. Mrs. Shipp was presented to the president by former Senator Pritchard, now an associate justice of the supreme court of the District of Columbia. She wants to be postmistress of Lincolnton, N. C.

Bogus Mine Promoter.

PARIS, Oct. 2.—The police have arrested M. Mutajinski, formerly a member of the Russian mission to Abyssinia, on the charge of having formed a society to exploit mines which, he asserted, he had discovered in Abyssinia, but which, it is claimed, do not exist.

Mails by Transsiberian.

PARIS, Oct. 2.—It is expected by the French postal officials that the American post office authorities will take advantage of the opening of the Transsiberian railroad to expedite the far eastern mails. The French have just inaugurated a service saving twenty days.

Lynching In Ohio.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 2.—It is reported from Oxford that a man has just been lynched as an outcome of a riot at the fair grounds.

Marshall Mob Is at Work.

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 2.—A mob is assaulting the jail at Marshall to lynch three negro murderers.

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

There will be a regular meeting of the Epworth League of the First M. E. church tonight in Vincent chapel.

Commencing next Monday evening and continuing for one week evangelistic services will be held every night at Reform Hall.

The Lord's Supper will be celebrated at the First Baptist church on Sunday morning. Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes will be in charge.

The recently organized Normal Bible Class will hold its first meeting at the First Baptist church Sunday afternoon. A full attendance is desired.

There will be Rally day services at the First Baptist church on Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Sunday-school, with appropriate exercises.

The Y. M. C. A. orchestra will play at the Y. M. C. A. meeting on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Thomas McDonald, Frank S. Lockwood and Charles L. Lewis will render "Praise Ye," by Verdi.

The quarterly meeting of the officers and teachers of the First Baptist Church Sunday-school was held last night in the church parlors, with an attendance of twenty-five. George H. Batchelor, superintendent of the school, occupied the chair. Business chiefly of a routine character was considered. Among the reports was one from Miss Laura J. Runyon, who has charge of the home department, showing that there are now 119 members in that department. The school finances were reported to be in excellent condition, there being a grand total balance of $90. The excursion committee reported that the deficit on this year's excursion was $100. Regarding the Normal Class soon to be organized in the Sunday-school there was considerable discussion. The class work will be started November 1, and a special line of study will be taken up.

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

Two candidates will receive the third degree at the meeting of Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., tonight.

Several Elizabeth councils of the Jr. O. U. A. M. have voted to build a club house in that city to which all members of the order will be eligible for membership.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Roth & Co. open their new butcher shop, 133 East Front street, tomorrow. Full line of fish, lobsters, shell fish, etc.

ANOTHER PROGRESSIVE FACTOR

ROTH & CO., LIABLE AND WELL-ESTABLISHED FIRM.

To Throw Open Its Doors for Business Tomorrow Morning—Up-to-Date.

In connection with Plainfield's steady progress there is no event which will attract more general interest at present than the opening of Roth & Company's new meat market at 133 East Front street, tomorrow. Undoubtedly this concern is a leader in New Jersey, conducting twenty-five retail markets throughout the State.

The new market just established in this city is modern in every appointment, with every possible appliance known to science conducive to cleanliness and comfort, giving the buyer of the smallest quantity advantages the direct result of doing business on such a large scale. The firm has the reputation of straightforward, honest methods and as to the quality of goods, but one grade, the very best, is handled. An inquiry into prices will show that they are of the sort that appeal to the masses. Every effort will be made to caterer to the people of Plainfield and vicinity, giving them the best value for money expended. At all times the firm will keep a full line of meats, fresh killed poultry, including Long Island ducks, rice fed turkeys; also calves and sweet breads.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. David Biglow, of South Plainfield, is visiting Mrs. Harry Tappen, of Lyman place.

Charles Mack, of New York, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Emery, of Watchung avenue.

Miss Mabel Symons, of East Third street, who has been visiting friends in Jersey City, has returned.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN.

Chief Whyhusky called his stalwart fire fighters out for drill last evening and gave them some valuable instructions. After the hose were tried at several hydrants about an hour was spent in practicing with the ladders and chemicals.

Uncalled for letters remaining at the postoffice are these: Mr. and Mrs. John Benson, Miss Mary E. Agoney, Mrs. Alice Dinnes, Mrs. Charles Mack, Charles Krall, W. H. Lant, C. S. Ferw, Hugh O'Donnell.

Frede T. Dickerson and family have removed to Plainfield. This will cause a vacancy in the Board of Education and some one to fill his place will have to be elected at the next meeting.

A meeting will be called at Apgar's Hall tomorrow evening to discuss the prospects of a football team. All those who are interested are invited to attend.

The railroad company is making some needed improvements about the depot park in the way of laying new crushed stone sidewalks.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Pienig, who have occupied apartments in the Kratzel building, moved to Metuchen yesterday.

Do not forget the Christian Endeavor social at the parsonage of the Presbyterian Church this evening.

Jacob Fisher's new house is almost completed and his family expect to move in in the course of a week.

Mrs. Henry Kirchner and Mrs. John Peters are spending the week visiting relatives at Montclair, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Merrill have returned from a visit with relatives in Trenton.

Miss Carrie Heyle is entertaining Miss Fern, of Brooklyn.

Frost and tax bills have visited our borough simultaneously.

NEW MARKET.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis J. Dunn have returned from an extended visit with relatives in the West.

Fred Gaskill has returned to New Orleans to resume teaching school for the winter months.

Mrs. William B. Smith is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Charles Thorton, of New York.

Nelson B. Giles and family are spending a few days visiting Robert S. Pierce.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

W. S. Corey has had his house painted and it is now one of the most attractive places in the village. The work was done by J. M. Cahart, of Park avenue and Second street, Plainfield. Mr. Corey has also improved the appearance of his property by trimming the trees in front of his residence.

The talk of organizing a Central New Jersey Baseball League for next season meets with the general approval of the local fans. Scotch Plains can support a fast team and the cranks are satisfied the locals would be heard from should such a league ever be organized.

The deciding game between the Alis team and locals will be played on the local diamond tomorrow afternoon. Each team has won three games and tomorrow's contest will be a hard fought one. Game will be called at 3:30. Bligh or Cullin will umpire.

Tomorrow's lineup against the Alis team will be about the same as played last Saturday. Notwithstanding the poor game put up then, Manager Johnston believes the material he has is capable of putting up fast baseball, so will try them again.

Chestnuts are beginning to open, but it will take several more frosts before they are open enough to fall from the trees. The crop is not very heavy this season.

Harry Schaffer left Wednesday night for Maine, where he will have charge of the installing of a new press for the Walter Scott Company, of Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Craft and children, who have been sojourning at Glenside Park during the summer months, have returned to their home in Brooklyn.

Joe Alberts, who has been playing the season with the Aeolians, will finish the season with the St. Mary's team, of Plainfield.

Mrs. W. S. Corey, of Park avenue, is visiting her brothers in New York and Brooklyn for a few weeks.

Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., transacted routine business only at its meeting held last night.

The weekly prayer meetings at the Methodist and Baptist Churches will be held tonight.

Miss May Hengler has returned from a visit with friends in Plainfield.

John Rickerson has returned from a visit with friends in Elizabeth.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Harold Hanson, of Plainfield, has the contract for painting the First Baptist Church. The work is under the supervision of Alfred Brundage.

Mrs. Lewis Campbell has not yet fully recovered from a recent illness.

A Cure for Dyspepsia.
I had dyspepsia in its worst form and felt miserable most all the time. Did not enjoy eating until after I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure which has completely cured me.—Mrs. W. W. Saylor, Hilliard, Pa. No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, sour rising, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles are quickly cured by the use of Kodol. Kodol represents the natural juices of digestion combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. It cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach. Sold by L. W. Randolph.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

WHAT IS WORN.

The Serges and Hopsackings—Some Useful Girls' Costumes.

Blue serge and blue hopsack are largely used for fall dresses. Very pretty effects are obtained by introducing bands of blue herringboned ribbon laid over white or pink silk, the slight touches of color thus shown through the dark silk stitchery being effective and serviceable.

The Russian blouse costume is very popular for young girls, and the one front is generally filled in by the lining fastening down the center, while plastrons are arranged to fasten in separately, so that much variety may be obtained. A wide lace scarf can also be worn around the neck and the ends brought down to form a species of vest. In this fashion the blouse costume is more suitable for older girls.

A best frock of white delaine nun's veiling or crape is invaluable, as it answers for quiet evening wear and makes a smart outdoor costume in fine weather.

The black picture hat is very smart with a white frock.

The cut shows a deep red broadcloth gown with fawn and gold braid trimming. The stock and front are of ecru chiffon. The hat is of chinchilla with a deep red plume.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

THE LATEST FASHIONS.

Odd Pointed Toques—Popular Shades of the Season.

Black, of course, is ever popular, but in Paris the leading shades are wine color and cobalt blue or a bright shade of sapphire. This wine shade takes on curiously rich tones in handsome fabrics, but is only suited to the individual few.

It is yet too early to talk of fur hats, but one or two model toques recently seen are close fitting, with a point in front—in fact, the particular pointed toque which Parisian milliners tried to force on us six months ago in straw trimmed with cowslips and violets. It is not a becoming shape even to Parisians, but some very smart models made after this style are in a kind of willow straw plaited with chenille in two or three shades either of wine color, blue or brown. A favorite Paris shade is mushroom, which tones well with autumn browns.

Smart gowns will be worn longer and fuller than ever. Given the right occasion, there is nothing so becoming as a soft froufrouing skirt, but tailor made costumes still clear the ground all around.

In the illustration is shown a mountain or rainy day costume of navy blue cheviot. The coat has the revers and a girdle effect of deeper velvet.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

Bogus Havana Tobacco.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—A number of arrests have been made recently in different parts of the country of persons peddling an inferior quality of cigars made in New York, but having the marks and brands changed so as to make it appear that the cigars were manufactured at Key West from Havana tobacco.

Arrest of Tom Kim Yung.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The Chinese minister does not intend to drop the matter of the arrest of Tom Kim Yung, the Chinese consular clerk at San Francisco, which is said to have been the direct cause of the young man's suicide, until he is fully satisfied that the whole affair has been probed to the bottom.

French Troops Lost in Snowstorm.

ALBERTVILLE, France, Oct. 2.—While the Twenty-second Alpine battalion was engaged in maneuvers near Selongey the troops were lost for a time in a heavy snowstorm while approaching the edge of a precipice. Captain Alzieu, who was in command, fell over the precipice and was killed.

Robbers Got $3,000 in Saloon.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 2.—A mysterious robbery occurred at the saloon of Kurtz & Quinn. The safe was opened by parties apparently familiar with the combination, and $3,000 was stolen. There is no clew to their identity.

BEAVERS AND GREEN

Joint Indictment by Grand Jury In Postal Investigation.

CHARGE CONSPIRACY TO DEFRAUD

George W. Beavers and Senator George A. Green Must Answer—Scott Towers Dismissed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The grand jury of the supreme court of the District of Columbia has brought in three more indictments in connection with the post office department investigation. One was a joint indictment against George W. Beavers, formerly chief of the salary and allowance division of the post office department, and State Senator George A. Green of Binghamton, N. Y.

This indictment was brought under section 5,440 of the revised statutes and is on the general ground that they entered into a conspiracy to defraud the government. This, it is alleged, they accomplished in the sale of time clocks, from which sale they were enabled to reap a reward because of Mr. Beavers' connection with the department by which the clocks were purchased.

The former indictment against Green and Beavers was under another section of the statutes and charged conspiracy against the United States.

The other two indictments were against Scott Towers, who has charge of one of the principal sub-post offices stations in this city. He is accused of having received a commission from the contractors on the sale of book typewriting machines to the government.

The present grand jury will adjourn finally next Monday, and the expectation is that a number of other post office indictments will be returned on that day.

Immediately after receiving information of the indictment of Towers the postmaster general issued an order to Postmaster Merritt of Washington dismissing Towers from office.

In the joint indictment against Beavers and Green the specific accusation is that Green as the agent of the International Time Recording company made an agreement with Beavers to the effect that if Beavers would allow Green to have the contract for furnishing the post office department with time machines Beavers would receive as compensation for his services 10 per cent of the sales.

The two indictments against Towers allege that he received in all about $1,800 for having aided the typewriter company to procure the contract for providing typewriters for various post offices and that he received $50 out of every $200 paid by the government to the company. Henry J. Gensler and Henry J. Gensler, Jr., are named as the agents through whom Towers did business with the typewriting firm, which is a New York concern.

Towers appeared at the city hall with his attorney and gave bond in the sum of $10,000 for his appearance.

Fatal Storm in Paris Suburbs.

PARIS, Oct. 2.—A thunderstorm of the most violent character broke over the northern and western portions of Paris, doing a good deal of damage in the city, while the lightning set fire to the steeple of the famous Gothic church at Boulougne-sur-Seine. Prompt measures prevented great injury to the church. Lightning struck an oak tree in the neighborhood of Libourne, Gironde, under which eight harvesters had taken refuge, killing three of them and severely injuring the others. At Peyraud, in the same district, the lightning ignited a farmhouse, which was utterly destroyed.

Mining Broker Gets Five Years.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 2.—Mining Broker J. Kressly, former secretary of the Lucille Mining company, has pleaded guilty to the charge of obtaining money on forged stock of that company. He was promptly sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. The exposure of extensive stock forgeries of Kressly, formerly a prominent broker and society man, and his flight to Montana and capture created a sensation here during the early summer.

Union of Presbyterian Churches.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 2.—The committees on the union of Presbyterian and Cumberland Presbyterian churches held a joint meeting, when a basis of union was formulated and is being considered. Rev. Dr. W. H. Black, chairman of the Cumberland committee, said, "I think the chances for ultimately effecting a complete union of the two branches are good."

Jealousy Caused Couple's Death.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 2.—After having been reconciled to his wife, from whom he had been separated on account of jealousy, Barney Barnes, a telegraph lineman, fired a bullet through his wife's heart and then shot himself through the brain. The two seemed in the best of spirits when last seen together.

Wealthy Farmer's Suspicious Death.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 2.—Louis Beckman, a wealthy farmer and church member, living a mile and a half east of Alhambra, Ill., is thought to have been murdered, but positive proof of this is not yet forthcoming. He was found unconscious with a wound on the back of his head and died shortly afterward.

Fatal Overhead Bridge.

HOOSICK FALLS, N. Y., Oct. 2.—Edward Murphy, a brakeman on a Boston and Maine freight train, was killed at Hoosick Junction by being struck by an overhead bridge. Murphy was making his first trip.

SPORTING NEWS.

PASSED BALLS.

With but two exceptions the make-up of the St. Mary's Baseball Club next Saturday against Westfield will be the same team that will represent Plainfield in 1904.

In response to the claim of some Alis supports that St. Mary's and Alis have played four games this season, each winning two and leaving the championship still in doubt, the supporters of St. Mary's disclose the opposing claim that the first game played was between the St. Mary's second team and Alis, and cannot rightly be considered to count with the other three.

Manager Denman seemed in excellent sprits last night when seen regarding the St. Mary's-Westfield game. Said he: "Let them bring all the glittering stars they can buy, beg or borrow. We are perfectly satisfield with our Westfield team as being good enough to beat anything that happens along."

The Alis team will journey to Scotch Plains tomorrow afternoon and endeavor to win the deciding game of the series. A very strong lineup will be pitted aainst the 'Plains team, with MacLaughlin and Armbruster in the points. Flynn, who played second base for Alis early in the season, will cover the short field. It is rumored that Ames, the crack swirler, recently secured by the New York National League team, will pitch for the 'Plains aggregation. The managers of both teams are determined to win and a great game may be expected. The contest will be called promptly at 3:30. All Alis "rooters" are requested to accompany the team and cheer the nine on to victory.

GOLF.

The Westfield Golf Club team will play a match with the Westchester Golf Club team at Westfield tomorrow afternoon.

The membership of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club has now reached the limit—300, and there are many on the waiting list. The club has never been in so prosperous condition.

There will be the weekly competition for the Golf Committee cup at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club tomorrow afternoon and at the same time there will be the weekly competitions for the President's and Park Golf Club cups at the Park Golf Club.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

In spite of rumors which have been circulated to the effect that the Park A. C. Club, a juvenile organization, has disbanded, the organization at a recent meeting took in five additional members and arranged for the approaching season's sport. It is probable that no football team will be organized by the club this fall but every effort will be made to have a strong hocky team during the winter.

ROD AND GUN.

The West End Gun Club will hold a shoot at the corner of Fourth street and Rock avenue, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Among other matches will be one for a stake of $25 between Apgar and Emmons.

TENNIS.

The finals in the club championship at tennis will be played tomorrow on the courts of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club.

—Visit Roth & Co.'s new butcher shop, 132 East Front street, tomorrow, full line of fish, lobsters, shell fish, etc.

—Insist on purity in the butter. Buy it at Neuman Brothers and be convinced that it is right. Neuman Brothers' store is the main distributing depot in this city for the famous Rockdale print and creamery butter.

MISS MABEL CARPENTER WEDS

POPULAR NIGHT OPERATOR AT TELEPHONE OFFICE MARRIED.

Secret Leaks Out But Not Over the Wire—C. H. C. Emery Lucky Man.

Announcement is made that Miss Mabel Tier Carpenter, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. F Carpenter, of Park avenue and Charles H. C. Emery, of South Amboy, were quietly married at the home of the bride Wednesday evening. Rev. Cornelius Schenck, pastor of Trinity Reformed Church, officiated. The wedding was a quiet one because of the death of Mr. Emery's mother about a month ago. The groom is a hotel man and has purchased a place at Califon, Hunterdon County, where he and his bride will reside. Mrs. Emery was night operator at the central office of the telephone office. The ceremony was witnessed only by the bride's parents. The couple intended to keep the event a secret until next week.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Fred Canfield, of Somerville, has been visiting Plainfield friends for a short time.

Miss Ada Fountain, of West Fourth street, is visiting friends in Connecticut for a few weeks.

Miss Beerbower, of Chatham, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Staats, of the Hotel Kensington.

Accepted New Pastorate.

Rev. N. J. Sproul, pastor of the Dunellen Presbyterian Church, has accepted the unanimous call of the First Presbyterian Church of Quincy, Mass., tendered to him some time ago.

—John Bicknell, of South avenue, is the second man selected from the Second ward to represent that ward in the board of officers of the Republican Club, of the City of Plainfield.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS PLAN A FIELD MEET

Inter-Class Events Being Arranged for Regular Fall Sports.

COMMITTEE IS AT WORK

TUG-OF-WAR TO BE ONE OF THE FEATURES ON PROGRAMME.

Glee Club Entertainment to Take Place, Tuesday, Nov. 24—Charles Titsworth Appointed Leader —The Plans.

With the tennis tournament completed, the next thing on the programme of the P. H. S. A. A. is the inter-class field meet which will be held the last of this month or the first of next. It is expected that the meet this year will be a greater success than the one of last. To accomplish this every endeavor has been made to arouse class spirit in the matter. The tug-of-war which has been introduced for the first time is to be contested by a team of seven boys from each class and the teams are already training for it. The other events are 100 yard dash, running broad jump, 220 yard dash, 60 yard dash junior, running high jump, 440 yard dash, shot-put, hammer-throw, and pole-vault.

Additional events may be added by the committee later on. The committee is composed of H. G. Thompson, chairman; H. C. Fenno, Howard Craig and Jack Douglass.

Last year a silver medal was given to the one scoring the greatest number of points. The medal was presented by The Daily Press and was won by H. G. Thompson. To the first three in each event appropriate ribbons will be given. Entries are received by any member of the committee at a charge of ten cents an entry.

The Glee Club entertainment for the benefit of the Athletic Association, of the High School will be given on the night of Tuesday, November 24. The chorus will start the practice as soon as possible. The committee in charge is L. T. Koons, chairman; Leon Walters, and Geo. L. Babcock. The entertainment will be on the same plans as the very successful one given last year. Charles Titsworth has been appointed as leader.

VIEWS OF LEO.

Life of the Late Pope to be Illustrated at Casino.

Next Thursday night at the Casino, there will be an exhibition of the greatest collection of photographs ever produced in this city. These pictures show the late Pope Leo XIII as he lived in the Vatican at Rome and were taken especially for the British Mutoscope and Biograph Company, of London and copyrighted by the American Mutoscope Company, of New York. They have been endorsed as wonderfully perfect by pulpit, press and public.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean said: "The pictures consist of a series of views, comprising over 18,000 negatives present the Pope in the performance of his various duties and recreation in the Vactican Gardens."

A programme of illustrated religious songs will also be given and special features are announced for the children's matinee.

Peculiar Accident.

Christian Debele, father of William G. Debele, overseer of the poor in North Plainfield, had his great toe crushed yesterday in a most peculiar manner. He was in the field on his farm on Rock avenue when a calf became fastened between a road scraper, a tree and Mr. Debele. In trying to free itself, the calf gave a sudden jump and overturned the scraper which fell on Mr. Debele. While he is able to walk about the injury is a painful one.

"Billie" Keeler Not to Play.

Manager John Owens, of the St. Mary's baseball team, expected to have "Billie" Keeler, of the New York American League team, play and captain his team with Westfield. The popular little player is not in the best of condition and for this reason he has decided to quit baseball for this season.

Work on Giraud Avenue Bridge.

Wm. Farrier, who has the contract for the stone and mason work on the new Giraud avenue bridge, has completed his work so far as possible until after the iron work arrives. This is expected to arrive next week, when an effort will be made to finish the bridge as soon as possible.

EDGAR ALLAN POE DAY

MONTHLY ENTERTAINMENT IN ST. MARY'S PAROCHIAL SCHOOL.

Father Egan Made Address—The Programme as Rendered—Those Participating.

The monthly concerts at St. Mary's Parochial School were resumed yesterday when the pupils entertained their parents with song, recitation and musical selection. Miss Blanche Skinner delivered a short address to Rev. Father Egan who responded with a few words of encouragement to the pupils entering the year's work and suggested that the watch work this year be "Excelsior." Reports were made of the commercial department. The pupils were congratulated on their high percentages by the pastor.

The afternoon was called "Edgar Allen Poe day" and Miss Elizabeth Casey gave a biography of him. After the reports of the second grammar grades were read, Miss Helen Hanrihan read a selection creditably. John Kyle gave a transposition of "The Raven" and a chorus, entitled "The Bells" was given by the girls of the senior and grammar grades. These scholars were awarded with silver medals for having high percentages: Commercial, Miss Helen Hanrahan, John Kyle; second grammar, Miss Elizabeth Bebout; fourth grammar, Miss Mary Kennedy; fifth grammar, Miss Mary Powers; primary, Miss Nora McManus, Miss Helen McCarty, and John McCarty. A medal for the sewing class awarded to Miss Catherine Kelly, for regular attendance at mass, and Sunday-school, Harry Forrestel and for music, Miss Catherine Galbraith.

WOMEN QUARREL.

Row Among Neighbors Carried Into Justice's Court.

A quarrel of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Glaser and Mrs. Catherine Deitz, neighbors at Dog Corner, was aired in Judge Clark's court at Scotch Plains yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Deitz having sworn out a warrant for her neighbors' arrest, charging them with disorderly conduct. The facts presented to his honor, showed only a quarrel between the defendant and plaintiff children, which had been taken up by the parents. The case was dismissed with the cost on Mrs. Deitz. Walter Hetfield, Esq., represented the plaintiff.

Reception to Retiring Pastor.

A farewell social was held at the parsonage of the Presbyterian Church at Dunellen, last evening in honor of the retiring pastor, Rev. N. J. Sproul, who has resigned to accept a pastorate in Quincy, Mass. An unusually large number of people were present and a pleasant evening was spent.

Notice to P. S. C.

During the recent cool weather closed cars have been operated on the local trolley lines, as well as the main line between this city and Elizabeth. During the day the open cars are not so objectionable, but nights and mornings the atmosphere is decidedly too cold for Summer cars.

BOROUGH COUNCIL'S ROUTINE BUSINESS

Charles Sebring Now Wants to Move His Building to Greenbrook Road.

TAX COLLECTOR'S WORK

WARREN ENGINE COMPANY ALLOWED TO TAKE STEAMER TO SOMERVILLE.

F. M. Whitley Appointed Special Marshal to Collect Over Due Taxes—Claims Ordered Paid—Thirteen Arrests Made.

Charles P. Sebring again petitioned the Borough Council last night to remove a building in North Plainfield. He now desires to transfer the Front street building out Grove street to a point on Greenbrook road. It was referred to the street committee which reported unfavorably. It was referred back and will be again reported on at tthe next meeting.

A petition from Warren Engine Company asking that the fire engine attached to Warren Engine Company be loaned to the company to be taken to Somerville on October 22, at which time the company will parade with the county seat fire laddies, was granted.

Claims amounting to $2,730 were ordered paid. The amount of $232.22 for street work was ordered paid as was $736.19 tfor the fire department bills for the past month. Councilman Lee reported, as chairman of the police committee, that thirteen arrests had been made during the month, $48 has been collected for fines and three prisoners had been committed to Somerville.

Francis M. Whitley was appointed special marshal to collect the personal taxes now overdue. Mayor Smalley, in making the appointment, said that the small number of unpaid taxes in the borough this year was creditable to the tax collector and to the property owners.

Tax Collector George F. Brown submitted his report: Receipts, taxes and interest, $1,906.99; Board of Health, $38.98; special school tax, $1,057.56; sale of brick, $285; recorder's fines, $42; macadamizing, $30; bills payable, note, $2,000; balance on hand Sept. 1, $1,725.96; total receipts, $7,071.44; disbursements, $4,000.51; cash on hand, $3,000.93.

MRS. MARSHAL-SMITH TO RECITE.

Young Women's Mission Band Plans an Entertainment Oct. 20.

The Young Women's Mission Band, of Trinity Reformed Church, held its first fall meeting, yesterday afternoon, in the parlors of the church. Mrs. F. E. Woodruff, the president, occupied the chair, and the attendance was encouraging for a successful season's work. The business was mainly of a routine character, reports from the various committees occupying much of the time. The foreign committee reported progress in the work of preparing useful articles to be sent to mission fields.

There was also an informal report from the committee having charge of the entertainment to be given in Y. M. C. A. Hall on Tuesday evening, October 20, at which time Mrs. Minnie Marshall-Smith, the well-known dramatic reciter, and other talent, will appear.

The latter part of the meeting was occupied in rolling bandages to be sent to the mission hospital in Arabia, and after this work was completed the meeting adjourned.

Clothing Wanted.

The managers of the Children's Home Association are in great need of out grown clothing for the children in their care. Any donations will be greatly appreciated, particularly coats and dresses for those whose ages range from six to eight years.

THOMAS L. BROWN IN BANKRUPTCY COURT

Step Taken by Boniface in United States Court in New York City.

MANY CREDITORS HERE

HALF HUNDRED JUDGMENT CREDITORS IN LOCAL COURTS.

Brown Conducted Hotels for Ten Years, and Last Two Seasons Ran the Netherwood—His Liabilities Large—Actions Taken.

"A petition in bankruptcy has been filed against Thomas L. Brown, hotel keeper, whose office is at 31 Wooster street, for whom a receiver has been appointed in this State as a trustee in New Jersey."

This notice of the action of the United States court appearing in this morning's New York papers indicates that the last chapter in the history of Thomas L. Brown as a hotel man is at hand. Brown's New York creditors are Jules P. Storm, who has a bill of $416 against him for advertising, and Rebecca Soloman and Kniffin and Demarest, who are his creditors to the extent of $106 each for hotel supplies.

Forty-four of Brown's creditors, his employes at the Netherwood Hotel and local tradesmen, have been awarded judgement against him in Justice Huff's court and several others have been awarded judgment in similar suits brought up in the courts of Justices Hand and Mosher. The amounts involved range from $15 and $20 to $350.

Mr. Brown has been in the hotel business ten years. He has been proprietor of the Fernclift Hotel at Greenwood Lake, N. Y., and has held an interest in the Hotel Dorincourt, at Schooley's Mountain in this State, besides running the Hotel Netherwood. The unusually poor season at the Netherwood this summer ruined his entire business. Mr. Brown's inability to satisfy the claims of his employes last month nearly brought on a riot.

ATTENTION, VOTERS!

Although the newspapers throughout the State printed column after column of information concerning the issues of the constitutional amendment election, hundreds of voters went to the polls in ignorance of the questions at stake and large quantities of ballots were thrown out as a result. Now another venture is to be made at the coming regular election. It is the introduction of the voting machine. Very few people in the State have any knowledge of this method of balloting. In order to give The Daily Press readers accurate knowledge in ample time before the election takes place, this paper publishes today complete instructions on "How to vote," accompanied by illustrations. See editorial page.

A WRONG IMPRESSION.

So Mr. Everett Believes Has Been Given of Him in This City.

A much different light is cast on the alleged attempted removal of the stock of pianos, upon which Tax Collector Smith commenced to levy on for taxes at a store in North avenue, by Harry G. Everett, salesman for the Bradbury Company. When seen by a reporter for The Daily Press, Mr. Everett declared that no legal action had been taken and that the pianos removed had been previously sold and that he exercised his own personal right to do with his goods as he saw fit. Consequently he was in the act of preparing for their delivery when the officers visited the store Thursday evening. He says he had no intention of stealing out of town, but on the other hand is arranging to open a store here permanently. He has had much success here.

Plainfielder a Groom.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Reba Arnett, of Lambertville, and Harry J. Northrop, of this city, which will be celebrated in the M. E. Church, Lambertville, Wednesday evening, Oct. 7, at 6 o'clock.

—Warren Engine Company will meet Tuesday evening in rooms over the engine house. Monday evening a drill will be held.

BANK STOCK TRANSFER BLOCKS ASSESSMENT

Borough Loses Large Taxable Value by A. J. Brunson's Action.

THE COUNSEL'S OPINION

FORMER SENATOR C. A. REED ADVISES NORTH PLAINFIELD COUNCIL.

The Result Will Have No Effect on the Present Tax Rate—The Borough Will Miss the $1,000 in Taxes.

The First National Bank stock which was transferred from North Plainfield to Atlantic County by A. J. Brunson, is not assessable by the borough, according to a written opinion submitted by Corporation Counsel Charles A. Reed, at the meeting of the North Plainfield Common Council last evening.

In his opinion Former Senator Reed says: "Bank stock is assessable to the owner where he reqides, according to its ownership on May 20, and where a corporation is the owner it is assessable to such corporation at its office. In the case in question the assessor has power under the statutes to demand from the previous owner the name and residence of the corporation to which the stock has been transferred and it is the duty of the assessor to notify the the assessor of the taxing district in which the corporation'sp rincipal office is located, so that the latter may assess the stock. Of course the taxes would be payable in the district where the principal office of the corporation is located if that be within the State of New Jersey. If it is not owned within the State, then it is assessable in the district in which the bank is located. The result is that unless the principal office of the corporation which owned the stock on May 20 is in the borough the stock is not assessable in the borough.

"I have not the means of ascertaining when the stock was transferred, if at all, but am informed that it was tranferred to a corporation whose principal office is located in Atlantic County, prior to the twentieth of May."

This is somewhat of a surprise to many in North Plainfield who were in hopes that the tax rate could be kept down by taxing the transferred stock of the First National Bank which was taken out of North Plainfield and taken to Atlantic County where a saving in taxes could be secured, amounting to something like $500 a year, by the owner, A. J. Brunson. The opinion of the corporation counsel will not change the tax rate for the coming year which was recently given out by the assessor. Those figures were prepared irrespective of the transferred stock.

Mr. Brunson transferred 861 shares of the stock from the borough. The shares, as they were assessed last year, are worth $65 each, amounting practically to $55,000 for the entire block. They would be taxed something over $1,000.

LOST IN NEW YORK.

Chapter From Real Life of John Kilbride, a Plainfield Youth.

John Kilbride, eighteen years old, of West Fourth street, went to New York City Wednesday for the first time in his life. He landed in the metropolis at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning and did not return to Plainfield until early in the following morning. The intervening time he spent largely in attempting to locate the Liberty street ferry of the Central Railroad of New Jersey. His wanderings started in the Bowery and embraced pretty much all of the territory between 59th street and the Battery. He finally encountered a friend from Plainfield who started him safely on his homeward way in time to render unnecessary the relief expedition that worried parents and friends at home had contemplated.

No Advance in Coal.

Although the price of coal in Elizabeth was advanced 25 cents a ton Thursday, and a similar advance was made recently in Newark, Roselle and Rahway, the price in this city remains the same with no prospect of an advance at any rate in the immediate future.

COMMANDERY ON PARADE

PLAINFIELD TEMPLERS, ALL SHRINERS, AS SALAAM'S GUESTS.

Over 700 Templars in Line—Each Visiting Noble Received Souvenir.

Thirty members of Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., all Shriners, attended the ceremony of granting the charter to Salaam Temple of Newark, last night. The exercises were preceded by a parade in which 700 Templars were in line, led by two bands. George W. Weidemeyer, of Newark, was in charge of the ceremony which took place in the new temple on Belmont avenue. Each visiting noble was presented with a handsome silver watch fob, appropriately inscribed as a souvenir of the event.

REFORM CLUB'S PROGRAMME

DETAILS OF TEMPERANCE MEETING DURING NEXT WEEK.

For Remainder of Year Meetings Will be Held Thursday Evenings and Sunday Afternoons.

The religious committee, of the Reform Club, has announced its programme for next week's series of revivals marking the opening of the year's work of the club. The speakers of the week will be for the most part reformed drunkards who will deal practically with the evils of drink.

The principal part of Monday night's programme will be an address by Charles Sandford, superintendent of a Newark mission. Mr. Sandford will also be the leading speaker Tuesday night and will be assisted by several reformed men who will tell their experiences. At Wednesday's meeting C. T. Roake, of the East 22d Street Mission, Communipaw, will warn against the temptations of the flowing bowl. He will be accompanied by a quartette of male singers. Professor Johnson, of the Crittenden Mission, of New York, will show the effects of liquor in destroying the peace of home life Thursday evening. The last evening of the week will come Friday night, when Miss Bestell, superintendent of the Bayonne Mission, will chargee harge of the exercises. She will bring with her many of the workers in her mission who will take an active part in the programme. There will be special music at all the meetings.

Following the special week of services, the temperance work of the Reform Club will continue through the year at regular Thursday evening and Sunday afternoon meetings. The committee from the club in charge of next week's services consists of William C. Smith, chairman; J. W. A. Bauersachs and W. F. Bichards.

Athletics in the Reform Club will be revived after next week. The basket ball management will begin to get busy making arrangements for the coming season. The gymnasium work will also begin after next week.

MOVE TO ABOLISH SHAVING ON SUNDAY

City's Boss Barbers Petitions Borough Council to Close North Plainfield Shops.

MATTER IS REFERRED

LAWS, ORDINANCE AND TAXATION COMMITTEE TO PASS ON IT.

Edward Maynard and Others Ask Borough Fathers to Act—Husbands Robbed of Excuse for Not Attending Church.

It is probable that Sunday shaves in North Plainfield will be tabooed. The Boss Barbers, knights of the razor, shears and hair oil, in this city, have taken a decided stand to close all shops on Sunday. They insist that Sunday be not defiled by the rasping sound of the razor over the faces of borough citizens who have neglected to have superfluous hair removed from their faces Saturday night.

It will now be the fashion for men to retire at night with their moustaches entwined in curling kids and dampened paper because it is probable that the sign "This shop closed on Sunday" will greet them as they seek their "tonsorial artist" Sunday morning while heir wives are in church where they should be also. There will be no more opportunity for the domesticated husband to steal away from home on the first day of the week to while away time in a shop whose chief adornment is the "pink page pictorial paper."

At the North Plainfield Common Council meeting last night a petition was received, praying the Council to enforce the closing of all barber shops on Sunday. It was signed by Edwin Maynard and others, who belong to the Boss Barbers Association in this city. The matter was referred to the laws, ordinance and taxation committee.

"One reason why so many men remain toilers and poor all their lives is that they have been too careful not to give more than a dollar's worth of work for a dollar's worth of wage," says an exchange. "This thing bars promotion to easier places and higher wages.

A Blow in the Back.

An overcoat is a necessary nuisance and the tendency to take it off on warmish days in late autumn and winter is as strong as it is unwise. A treacherous wind hits you in the back and the next morning you have lumbago. Rub well and often with Perry Davis' Painkiller and you will be astonished to find how quickly all soreness is banished. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.

Ten Thousand Churches

in the United States have used the Longman & Martinez Pure Paints.

Every Church will be given a liberal quantity whenever they paint.

Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for Linseed oil (worth 60 cents) which you do when you buy thin paint in a can with a paint label on it.

8 & 6 make 14, therefore when you want fourteen gallons of paint, buy only eight gallons of L. & M., and mix six gallons of pure linseed oil with it.

You need only four gallons of L. & M. Paint, and three gallons of Oil mixed therewith to paint a good sized house.

Houses painted with these paints never grow shabby, even after 18 years.

R. G. Dun & Co. Report on the Week's Business.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—A week of favorable weather for the maturity and harvesting of crops has done much to relieve a somewhat complicated situation, and it is also encouraging to find that another collapse in the stock market produced no disturbance in financial or commercial circles. Early in the week the average of the sixty leading railway stocks was $34 a share below the high point a year ago. Such a shrinkage in market values would have caused general demoralization had not the business of the country been established on a remarkably sound foundation. These losses restrict industrial expansion to a certain extent, especially as funds cannot be secured at less than the legal maximum limit. The short interest in the cotton market and the slow movement of a late crop made it possible for the controlling interest to advance prices $10 a bale until the close of September, when a return to normal prices occurred.

Narrow fluctuations marked the course of grain, wheat showing no weakness in response to the idle mills at Minneapolis, while the movement of corn indicated that farmers were not eager to sell at current prices. Interior receipts of corn were 4,778,311 bushels for the week against 1,735,072 last year and Atlantic coast exports of 866,130 bushels compared with 249,836 a year ago. Arrivals of wheat were only 7,126,431 bushels against 8,843,749 last year and exports from the United States, flour included, were 3,017,752 bushels compared with 7,302,479 in 1902.

THE TILLMAN TRIAL.

Witnesses Testify That Gonzales Was Not Armed.

LEXINGTON, S. C., Oct. 3.—A vast amount of testimony was taken in the trial of J. H. Tillman, nearly twenty witnesses having been on the stand, some of whom were subjected to lengthy examinations. In addition to this, the reading of the editorials in the State was concluded. The prosecution has progressed rapidly toward the conclusion of its side of the case.

The first witnesses called were among those who were in the office of the State when Mr. Gonzales was carried there after the shooting. L. G. Wood, Jr., of this number testified that he found no weapons in the overcoat Mr. Gonzales was wearing. Dr. W. J. Murray stated that Mr. Gonzales said to him in the State office that he was fatally shot. The doctor opened Mr. Gonzales' clothing and saw no weapons, but on cross examination said he did not examine the pockets.

REPUBLICANS CONVENE.

John L. Bates of Boston Nominated For Governor.

BOSTON, Oct. 3.—After listening to party leaders of national reputation, including United States Senator George Frisbie Hoar and Secretary of the Navy William H. Moody the Republicans of Massachusetts nominated a ticket for the campaign of 1903 and adopted a platform notable for its brevity, in which the administration of President Roosevelt was indorsed and the support of the party for the campaign of 1904 was pledged.

The following ticket was unanimously nominated: For governor, John L. Bates of Boston; for lieutenant governor, Curtis Guild, Jr., of Boston; for secretary of state, William M. Olin of Boston; for treasurer and receiver general, Edward S. Bradford of Springfield; for auditor, Henry E. Turner of Malden; for attorney general, Herbert Parker of Lancaster.

Movement of Japanese Troops In Korea.

TROOPS TESTING THEIR ABILITY

Experiment Made In Regard to Mobilization Owing to the Friction With China Not Directed Against Czar's Plans.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—Information received here through official sources at St. Petersburg shows that the explanation given by Japan of the movement of troops to Korea is calculated to remove suspicion concerning her intention. The number of troops moved is estimated at between 8,000 and 10,000.

Japan explains that the movement is part of a plan of experimental mobilization to show her ability to mobilize a considerable force in connection with the friction between Japan and China. It has no connection with differences between Japan and any other power.

Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister at London, has said in regard to the movement of troops for Korea:

"I am certain that any movements of troops are only the routine relief of the Japanese forces guarding the telegraph line from Fusan to Seoul and Chemulpo. To send a small body of troops to Korea would be no menace to Russia and would have no effect on her plans. A mobilization of the Japanese forces on a large scale is not contemplated for a moment, and Korea's consent would have to be obtained for any such step."

The minister added that he still believed Russia intended to keep her promise to evacuate Manchuria Oct. 8. Until that promise was broken Japan was not likely to make any move.

A DESPERATE FIGHT.

Fugitives From Mehomia Report Bulgarian Massacre.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 3.—According to the reports of fugitives from Mehomia, when the general rising was declared in the Razalog district on Sunday, the Turkish troops in the Pirin mountains hurried to Mehomia and surrounded the town, rendering the escape of the Christians impossible. The Bulgarian population was prepared to join in the rising, several insurgents' agents being in the Bulgarian quarter of the town at the time. Desperate fighting occurred in the streets, bombs and dynamite being freely used. After fighting for five or six hours the Turks gained the upper hand and proceeded to massacre every Bulgarian they encountered.

A late dispatch says that in the neighborhood of Lucovo, on the Servian frontier, 8,000 Turks have engaged five bands of insurgents, and desperate fighting is reported. The insurgents are employing bombs, and the Turks have lost 300 men and several officers. The battle continues. Lucovo is said to be in flames.

Government Favored the Rebels.

SALONIKA, Oct. 3.—It is reported on good authority that documents found on a Bulgarian killed at Razalog, bearing the signatures of Bulgarian officials, tend to show that the Bulgarian government was concerned in the organization of the revolution. The documents are being brought here by special messenger.

American War Ship Sold.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The navy department received a cablegram from Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, commanding the Asiatic station, that he had accepted the bid of Hashimoto, a Japanese merchant, for the purchase of the Monocacy. The purchase price was $11,325. The Monocacy is now at Taku, China. She went to China soon after the close of the civil war and was present at the battle of Taku, in command of Commander F. M. Wise.

Mitchell Reports All Peaceful.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 3.—John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers, has returned to headquarters. "The coal mining situation in this country, in our organization at least, is the most peaceful in its history," said he. "Not in many years have three months passed with fewer disagreements and strikes. There are no strikes in any field that is organized."

Sugar Company Took Water.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Following a long investigation by engineers of his department, Deputy Commissioner of Water Supply Van Iderstine of Brooklyn charged the American Sugar Refining company with taking from the city mains through unmetered pipes without the knowledge of the authorities a vast quantity of water during a period of six years.

Late King Milan's Son.

VIENNA, Oct. 3.—Efforts have been made to put the late King Milan's illegitimate son, Milan, by Mme. Christich, into an Austrian military school, but the government refused the request for political reasons. The boy will, therefore, be sent to a German school.

Dignin Is Dead.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 3.—Henry J. Dignin, the insurance broker who had his skull fractured, is dead. Detectives have found four men who were with Dignin Thursday and with whom, it is said, he had a fight, being knocked senseless by one of them.

Former Senator Morris Dead.

DUNKIRK, N. Y., Oct. 3.—Former State Senator Lorenzo Morris is dead at his home in Fredonia. He was eighty-six years of age. He was president of the board of managers of the Fredonia Normal school.

ALASKAN BOUNDARY

New Contention by Solicitor General Carson.

AFFECTS THE POWER OF COMMISSION

Commissioners Can Answer Questions Submitted In the Treaty of 1903, but Have No Power to Fix Frontier Line.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Sir Edward Carson, the solicitor general, consumed the forenoon session of the Alaskan boundary commission in endeavoring to refute the arguments of David T Watson and Hannis Taylor of counsel for the United States, especially protesting against Mr. Taylor's contention that the term "trend of the coast" could apply only to the political coast line and not to the physical coast line.

He maintained that the principle of acquiescence was not applicable to the present dispute and somewhat surprised his auditors by declaring that under the powers of the treaty of 1903 the commissioners had no authority to define questions submitted to them and that they could neither lay down the boundary nor decide what constituted the coast.

All the commissioners could do was to answer questions submitted to them in the treaty either negatively or affirmatively. If they gave certain answers they might make matters more confused than ever and open up a new series of diplomatic tangles.

The solicitor general concluded with a reference to Great Britain's unwillingness to give up any of her subjects into the control of other nations. He declared he thought the public might think the commission was slow and that counsel were wasting time, but no time and no money would ever be wasted if the long standing dispute between the two great and friendly nations could be solved by the tribunal.

MUCH ADO OVER FLAG.

Italian Banner Causes Trouble In Pennsylvania.

TAMAQUA, Pa., Oct. 3.—About two weeks ago a gang of foreign workmen who have a camp near West Penn, a farming village, raised an Italian flag over their quarters. The farmers became indignant and demanded that the flag be lowered. The Italians refusing to comply, a committee representing the farmers came here and laid the matter before the police officials, stating that unless immediate action was taken they would arm themselves and march on the camp.

Chief of Police Hahn went to the camp and ordered the flag lowered, which was done under protest. The Italian consul at Philadelphia wrote to Chief Hahn asking him for full information regarding the matter.

Hahn has replied, stating that he ordered the flag taken down because he feared the farmers would carry out their threat and that serious trouble would result.

Ran Amuck With Armor On.

BOSTON, Oct. 3.—With his vitals sheathed in a coat of mail and a self cocking revolver in his hand, a Chinaman named Wong Lung carried death and consternation into Chinatown, one fellow countryman being practically shot to pieces, while two others sustained serious if not dangerous wounds. The coat of mail which was found on Lung after his arrest is much in the nature of a life preserver. There are several sheets of pliable steel carefully woven together covered with a fine silken texture and fitted with shoulder straps.

Expedition at Santiago, Chile.

SANTIAGO, Chile, Oct. 3.—The astronomical expedition organized by D. O. Mills is now installed on a hill a thousand feet high close to Santiago. It is receiving every attention and all facilities from the government and private citizens. The mission of the expedition, the observations of which are conducted by University of California astronomers, is to throw additional light on the motion of the solar system.

Are Agreed on Fiscal Policy.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Asked to elucidate certain points in his speech of yesterday, Mr. Balfour told a reporter that the statement that Mr. Chamberlain's opinions did not differ from his own did not refer to the fiscal problem, but merely to the reasons which induced Mr. Chamberlain to resign. He admitted that he and Mr. Chamberlain were agreed in principle on the fiscal problem.

President of Union a Prisoner.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Oct. 3.—Charles G. Kennison, president of the district miners' union, who has been a prisoner in the military guardhouse for fifteen days, was escorted by troops to the county jail and was delivered into the custody of Sheriff Robertson, who served on him a capias charging him with carrying concealed weapons.

President Sees "Sultan of Sulu."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Alice Roosevelt and the Roosevelt children occupied a box at the Columbia theater at the performance of George Ade's attractive and tuneful musical play, "The Sultan of Sulu."

Italian Murdered in Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Following a religious controversy Antonio Ferrara was shot to death, and his brother Frank was seriously wounded by Marrio Navara in South Brooklyn. Navara escaped and is still at large.

Weather Probabilities.

Fair; fresh to brisk northeast winds.

WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP.

Boston Americans Shut Out Pittsburg by Score of 3 to 0.

BOSTON, Oct. 3.—The Boston Americans evened up their initial defeat by shutting out Pittsburg 3 to 0 in the second of the games for the world's championship.

Dineen pitched one of the best games of his career, and Pittsburg could not hit his terrific speed and sharp curves. He gave the outfielders only two chances and the infielders a few that were difficult. The National team got but three hits, and only five men reached first base out of the twenty-seven who faced Dineen. Leever started in to pitch for Pittsburg. He was hit freely, and Vail replaced him after the first inning. Barring wildness, Vail pitched cleverly, although superb support extricated him from several awkward situations.

The batting of Dougherty was the feature of Boston's attack. He drove out a long hit in the first inning which he converted into a home run by fast sprinting. In the sixth inning he tied the record of Hickman, now of Cleveland, by driving the ball over the left field fence, an extremely long distance on the Boston grounds. Boston's second run was scored on a double by Stahl and a single by Freeman in the first inning. Pittsburg's best opportunity for scoring occurred in the fourth inning, when a pass, a single and a virtual sacrifice put men on second and third, with but one out. Wagner drove a terrific liner to Ferris, who held it and completed an unassisted double play.

In the eighth inning Boston had men on first and third, with one out, and again a double play prevented a scoring and closed the inning, Wagner stopping a fast grounder from Collins.

Jersey City Defeats Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—In an exhibition game between the Brooklyn National league team and the Eastern league champions played at Jersey City the local players outplayed and outbatted the visitors, winning by the score of 5 to 2. Garvin pitched for Brooklyn and McCann for Jersey City. The game was called at the end of the eighth inning on account of darkness. Score: Jersey City, 5; Brooklyn, 2.

Nationals Won at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 3.—The Nationals of Cincinnati easily took the last game of the series from the Americans of St. Louis. Harper was in fine form and let down his old teammates with only five hits. Morgan was not hit hard, but most of them came at the right time. Score: Cincinnati, 7; St. Louis, 0.

Racing at Highland Park.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Favorites and second choices divided the purses at Highland park, the winners being well backed. The feature event, at five furlongs, went to Handmore in handy style, beating the odds on favorite, Never Fret, by four lengths. Ladies' day drew out a big attendance.

Aladdin Won at Delmar.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 3.—Aladdin won the feature of Getaway day at Delmar park. Rengaw led for a mile, but could not weather Aladdin's determined bid in the last seventy yards. Denzil, a maiden, in the first and Jigger in the fifth were the heavily played winners of the closing day.

Mr. Rose Came First, Riderless.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Mr. Rose finished first in the steeplechase at Harlem, but came in riderless, and the purse went to John E. Owens. The latter was beaten a length in a hard drive with the riderless Mr. Rose. Alene Abbott was third, a neck in front of Faiella, the favorite.

Nationals Won Second Game.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—The Nationals won the second game by hard hitting in the first and third innings. Weimer held the Americans down to three scattered hits, but gave them their only run on a gift with the bases full. Score: Nationals, 5; Americans, 1.

Looks Like Victory For Kent.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3.—At the end of the first day's play of the second cricket match between the team representing all Philadelphia and the Kent county eleven the Philadelphians were all out for 66 runs. Kent scored 137 runs for six wickets.

Bad News Came In First.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Bad News, leading from start to finish, won the Dixiana stakes at Morris park by half a length, with Reliable second and the favorite, Gray Friar, third. The Manhattan handicap went to Castalian.

Coin For the Philippines.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—The superintendent of the mint has delivered to the war department 2,000,000 pesos for the Philippines. The coin was taken from the mint under military escort and transferred to the transport Sherman.

Robbed of $2,000.

CARBONDALE, Ill., Oct. 3.—J. Loeser, a retired merchant of Paducah, Ky., was knocked down and robbed of $2,000 near the Illinois Central railroad station. The highwaymen escaped.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Yellow fever has increased at Laredo, Tex. Three deaths have occurred thus far.

The University of Chicago has opened with six new buildings and more students than ever.

A forged telegram purporting to be from the president of the United States was sent to the warden of Clinton prison ordering the execution of the Van Wormer boys to be stopped.

AT CAMP YOUNG.

Regulars and Militiamen Join In Military Maneuvers.

CAMP YOUNG, West Point, Ky., Oct. 3.—About 5,000 enlisted men took the field for the first of the series of combined maneuvers for both regulars and militia. The programme also called for considerable work in camp by the Third brigade, composed of the three Michigan regiments.

The work in the field consisted of six detached maneuvers for advance guard. Each of the maneuvers was distinct from the others, the object being to give all the militia regiments which had established camp instruction in the tactics pursued by the regulars alone last Monday.

The lateness of the arrival of portions of several of the militia regiments caused considerable modification of the programme after the troops had taken the field. Instead of spending the whole day in advance guard movements, as intended at the start, it was decided to return after five Indiana battalions and the greater part of the Third brigade, composed of Michigan troops, had been given a brief period of work, the Indiana troops in extended order and the Michigan infantry in close order.

The officers of the state troops spent a portion of the afternoon inspecting the intrenchments thrown up by the regular troops. The engineer officers in charge of the work had provided some specimens of light work known to modern warfare.

MURDER OF SKINNER.

Alleged That Haywood Held Smoking Pistol Leveled at Victim.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 3.—Twenty-five witnesses were examined in the trial of Ernest Haywood for the murder of Ludlow Skinner. With the exception of two witnesses none testified to having seen anything of the killing until they were attracted by the sound of a pistol shot and saw Haywood standing on the sidewalk near the south end of the post office with his smoking pistol leveled at Skinner, who was moving rapidly across the street. As he came near to the center of it the second shot came as Skinner slightly turned, and then he continued stumbling in a half circle till he fell to the ground on his face, dying almost at once.

The last two witnesses of the day were Messrs. Sauls and Woods, who testified that they saw Ernest Haywood and Ludlow Skinner standing talking peacefully at the foot of the south steps of the post office; that then Skinner turned and as he was leaving the sidewalk Haywood shot once and that the second shot came as described by the other witnesses.

EMPERORS CONFER.

Important Decision Made In Regard to Macedonian Reforms.

VIENNA, Oct. 3.—The two emperors held an important conference at Muerzsteg, Count Lamsdorff and Count Goluchowski, the Russian ambassador at Vienna and the Austrian ambassador at St. Petersburg, being present. It was decided at the conference to amplify the Macedonian reform scheme. The two powers still entertain the belief that Turkey will carry out the scheme which will result in the pacification of Macedonia.

The czar and Emperor Francis Joseph will leave Neuberg tomorrow and travel together to Meidling; three miles southwest of Vienna, whence the czar will continue his journey to Darmstadt.

Battery Marched 430 Miles.

ROANOKE, Va., Oct. 3.—The Third battery field artillery, United States army, commanded by Captain C. P. Summerall and consisting of 110 men and 126 horses, which started on a march Sept. 8 from Chickamauga to Fort Myer, has arrived at Salem, Va., having traveled a distance of 430 miles. The soldiers are giving exhibitions of horsemanship along the line of march and are being handsomely entertained by the citizens.

Trying to Reach Canadian Woods.

MALONE, N. Y., Oct. 3.—A bull moose was killed in the town of Westville, a few miles north of Malone, having been mistaken for a deer by a person who is not accustomed to do much hunting. The game protector here has wired for instructions. The animal had doubtless left the Adirondacks in an endeavor to reach its old haunts in the Canadian woods.

Mayor Fajarde Acquitted.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Oct. 3.—Former Mayor Fajarde of Mayaguez has been acquitted of the charge of embezzlement. Judge Irwin (American) dissented. The verdict indicates the acquittal of all those who were involved in the alleged frauds at Mayaguez.

Another Jewish Massacre.

VIENNA, Oct. 3.—The Czernowitz, the newspaper which first announced the Kishineff riots, reports that another massacre of the Jews has occurred at the town of Mohilev-Podolsky, near Kishineff, in which 300 Jews and 100 Christians were killed.

British Embassy Opened.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Mr. Arthur Raikes, secretary of the British embassy, has arrived here to open up the embassy prior to the selection of a successor to Sir Michael Herbert. He paid his respects to Acting Secretary Loomis.

Duke Will Visit New Orleans.

CARACAS, Venezuela, Oct. 3.—A second Italian man-of-war, the cruiser Liguria, has anchored at La Guaira. Her commander, the Duke of Abruzzi, is visiting Caracas incognito. He said he would pay a visit to New Orleans Nov. 3.

THE RAID AT BEIRUT

When Moslems Made Attack the Christians Fled.

MOUNTAIN REGIONS THEIR REFUGE

Thousands Left Their Homes to Be Pillaged—American Squadron's Arrival Assured Safety From Further Raids.

BEIRUT, Syria, Oct. 3.—Particulars of the trouble at Beirut have come to hand from a reliable source as follows.

When the raid of the Moslems began in Beirut the Christians fled from the city, leaving their houses to be pillaged. The great Lebanon district, a Christian province, stretching down to the limits of the city, assured them a place of safety, and thither the Christians rushed in a panic. Thousands soon had gathered on the Lebanon plain, just outside of Beirut, and made their way up into the mountain villages.

While the raid was in progress some of the government officials hastened to the scene and checked the marauders, the full strength of the military was brought out, the streets were soon being patrolled, and the American squadron, anchored in the harbor, placed its men under arms and held them ready for action. As a result no further raids were attempted, and within a day or two all danger had practically departed.

A proclamation was posted on the mosques and other public buildings directing the merchants to open their stores and the people to resume their occupations, but the stores did not open, and the people who had fled showed no purpose of returning. The stampede did not cease after the first fright was over, and with business suspended, with a dread uncertainty in the air and with rumors of every sort flying about, many who had remained in the city, hoping that the city was being pacified, the movement was deferred.

The pasha of the Lebanon province addressed the refugees at Djouni, and the next day he spoke in Dbay. At the latter place he said:

"The government had nothing to do with the Beirut affair. It was between the people themselves. Now order is restored, and the leaders must be severely punished. You can return to your homes and business."

Some one in the crowd exclaimed:

"What guarantee have we?"

"You can remain in Lebanon as long as you like. No one will force you to return to your homes. I have given orders to the governors to protect you, and the rich of Lebanon will provide for the poor among you as long as you remain, but you can return to your homes without fear."

Many in the crowd were heard to say, "We will not go back like this." The advice of the pasha wherever he spoke did not meet with approval, but in a number of cases the second sober thought prevailed, and the train to Beirut was crowded with refugees, apparently eager to return to their homes.

Against Sympathetic Strikes.

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 3.—Jacob Tazelaar, general organizer of the American Federation of Labor, and E. E. Greenwalt, president of the state Federation of Labor, were in conference here with the object of organizing the forty or more building trades councils and organizations in the state into a state alliance, or central body. One of the subjects to be considered at this convention will be that of sympathetic strikes. The building trades, it is said, will vote against this feature of the labor difficulties if the master builders in return will agree to eliminate the non-union man and the employers of non-union men.

Grievances on Baltimore and Ohio.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 3.—Hugh L. Bond and George L. Potter, respectively second and third vice presidents of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, met the four grand officers of the labor unions, the Brotherhoods of Engineers, Firemen, Conductors and Trainmen, and a committee consisting of forty delegates representing the employees, regarding the grievances of the latter. It was stated after the adjournment that nothing had been decided upon, but that the same parties will meet again to discuss the grievances, which the workmen insist must be adjusted.

Emperor and King Reconciled.

VIENNA, Oct. 3.—As a result of a reconciliation recently brought about between Emperor Francis Joseph and the king of Belgium concerning the latter's attitude toward his daughter, Princess Stephanie, whose first marriage was with the Austrian emperor's second son, the late Duke Rudolph, King Leopold will arrive in Vienna in the middle of this month on a visit to the emperor. The announcement causes general surprise.

Four Women Drowned.

BRAINERD, Minn., Oct. 3.—Four women were drowned in Long lake while attempting to ford the Narrows. They were Mrs. Vet Borders, Mrs. Alice Hurd, her daughter, and two younger daughters of Mrs. Borders. The women were driving home, and in attempting to ford a narrow arm of Long lake their vehicle was overturned. Their bodies have not been recovered.

"It would be a shame to wake him up and take him visiting."—New Brunswick Home News.

And you be the guide? "Please go way and let me sleep."

The engagement of a young couple was reported in The Daily Press yesterday, the information being obtained from a person who considered it a practical joke to give false news concerning a friend. There's a statute covering the matter of furnishing false information for publication. It is a contemptible offense and this paper proposes to expose the next guilty person.

When Judge Landis, of Pennsylvania, refused to naturalize a foreigner because he could not read the English language, he performed a duty which every man empowered with this sacred privilege should do. This naturalization business has sunken to a low level in many parts of the country, being principally resorted to in an effort to increase the vote of a particular political party.

HOW TO VOTE A STRAIGHT TICKET.

1st—Move the Handle of the Curtain Lever to the right as far as it will go.
2d—PULL THE STRAIGHT TICKET KNOB bearing the name or emblem of your party over to the right UNTIL THE BELL RINGS.

This turns down all the Pointers of your party to a voting position, exposing an X above the names of the candidates you wish to vote for.

3d—LEAVING THE POINTERS AS THEY ARE, move the Handle of the Curtain Lever to the left as far as it will go.
This will count your vote, and set the machine for the next voter.

HOW TO VOTE A SPLIT TICKET.

1st—Move the Handle of the Curtain Lever to the right as far as it will go.
2d—PULL THE STRAIGHT TICKET KNOB bearing the name or emblem of your party over to the right UNTIL THE BELL RINGS.

This turns down all the Pointers of your party to a voting position, exposing an X above the names of the candidates you wish to vote for.

3d—Turn up the Pointer from over the name of the candidate you wish to cut out:

4th—LEAVING THE POINTERS AS THEY ARE, move the Handle of the Curtain Lever to the left as far as it will go.
This will count your vote, and set the machine for the next voter.

SINGLE CANDIDATE AND GROUP VOTING.

All candidates for an office to which ONLY ONE is to be elected, are arranged in ONE VERTICAL COLUMN, and ONLY ONE of the Pointers in that column can be turned down, as shown in Cut No. 1 for office of MAYOR; while for an office to which two or more are to be elected, the names of the candidates are arranged on AS MANY COLUMNS as the NUMBER OF PERSONS to be VOTED FOR for that office, and the SAME NUMBER of Pointers can be turned down—regardless of position—even if all Pointers are in the same column, as shown in Cut No. 2 for office of CORONER, to which two can be voted for.

TO VOTE ON QUESTIONS

Turn the Pointers over YES or NO and leave them there.

HOW TO VOTE.

CLOSE THE CURTAIN, by moving the handle to the right side of the machine.

PULL THE STRAIGHT TICKET KNOB bearing the name of your party over to the right, UNTIL THE BELL RINGS. This turns a pointer down over every name on your party ticket.

IF YOU WISH TO SPLIT, turn back the numbered pointer from over the name you wish to cut out, then turn down a pointer in another party line, over the name of the candidate for whom you wish to vote for that office.

A vote will be registered for each name and question THAT HAS A POINTER OVER IT, when the voter moves the handle to open the curtain.

He was installed December 20, 1900 and during the time he has had control of affairs of the church the heavy indebtedness has been practically wiped out.

Rev. D. M. Stearns will open the seventh season of Bible study in this city Tuesday afternoon, October 6, at 23:0 in the Y. M. C. A. Hall. Dr. Stearns has classes in Newark, Orange, Elizabeth, Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia. The class will meet on alternate Tuesdays during the winter. Part of the lesson will consist of an exposition of the International Sunday-school lesson.

The Trenton State Gazette, of Thursday, says: "Rev. Dr. W. O. Snodgrass, of Plainfield, will take the place of Rev. Dr. Charles M. Boswell at the Epworth League rally in Pennington tomorrow night, Dr. Boswell having been suddenly summoned to northern New York. Dr. Snodgrass is one of the best known clergymen of the Newark conference. Seven years ago in Central M. E. Church, this city, at a moment's notice, he took the place of Rev. Dr. Potts, of Canada, who had failed to arrive, and he fairly electrified his audience by his wit and eloquence. The Epworthians of this vicinity will surely be glad of this opportunity to hear him again."

Next Friday the twenty-third annual convention of the Union County Sunday-school Association will be held in the First Presbyterian Church at Cranford. There will be sessions at 10 in the morning, 2 and 7 at night. The list of speakers will be as follows: Morning session—Rev. Geo. F. Greene, Cranford; Rev. G. M. Shott, Scotch Plains; Rev. W. B. Hamilton, Elizabeth; Rev. E. Morris Ferguson, Trenton; Rev. P. H. Jacobs, Brooklyn; R. P. Greaves, Westfield; William S. Webb, Westfield. Afternoon session—Rev. J. B. J. Rhodes, Cranford; Rev. Cornelius Woelfkin, Brooklyn; C. D. Meigs, Indianapolis, Ind.; Mrs. J. W. Barnes, Newark; Mrs. Alonzo Pettit, Elizabeth; Miss Edith Cairnes, Plainfield. The music for all the sessions will be conducted by Rev. F. H. Jacobs, the singing evangelist.

—George Conover, of North Plainfield, lost a valuable horse at Springfield Thursday. Colic was the cause of the animal's death.

—The Doremus estate in North Plainfield, consisting of three properties on Prospect place and Rockview avenue, will be sold at public auction by Justice Hezekiah Hand the latter part of the month.

—Miss S. H. Kay, 287 East Ninth street, desires to call the public's attention to the fact that she is a scalp specialist, (Swedish treatment,) facial masseuse, manicure and that gentlemen's scalps will be treated at their own home, evenings, if desired. Her 'phone number is 1906.

Just As a Fire

spreads in dry grass and weeds, so does an inflammation of the throat—the result of a cold—grow down into the sensitive air-passages of the lungs. The cold, like the fire, should be promptly dealt with. When you begin to cough, use Allen's Lung Balsam. It will certainly heal the sore throat and lungs and it may save you from consumption.

CENTER OF NEW YORK

Everything in Gotham Revolves About Wall Street.

IT WAS A "RICH MAN'S PANIC."

The Recent Flurry in the Street Did Not Greatly Concern the Poor—No Sympathy Shown for Keene—Other Items.

New York.—It is in the main true that the troubles in Wall street are a "rich man's panic."

Farmers Are Not interested.

There were poor men who had been lured by seductive circulars to buy stocks "at the top" who were sold out long ago; there were nervous widows who had bought perfectly sound stocks for investment and were frightened into unnecessary sale by sagging quotations which did not hurt them in the least so long as the dividends were paid. But in the main the public, which usually gets hold of the tarred end of the Wall street stick, is having a lovely time just now. It is even languidly nibbling at bargain sales of stocks of sound worth at prices which will hardly be equalled for a generation to come.

The papers have been printing estimates that the fortune of John D. Rockefeller has shrunk by $100,000,000 during the slump. There has, of course, been a great decrease of his wealth on paper. But even if the figures were as big as this it would not prove that Mr. Rockefeller has really lost a cent. Whatever his investments, if they were made with his usual judgment, they are as sound as they ever were.

There are, of course, rich men who have lost more severely than by the shrinkage of paper profits. You can pick them out on the fast steamers that run every afternoon to the Atlantic Highlands, where the "Wall street crowd" takes the train for Long Branch.

The white, haggard faces, the muttering lips, the shaking, palsied movements, the hastily penciled memoranda—those little sums that never will and never can "come right"—it is little enough like a pleasure cruise on the "boat of the brokers" every day.

The Great Bear's Downfall.

Mr. Keene has had his reverses before and has bravely borne them. This time he, too, looks old and worn and haggard. His appearance of physical illhealth is heightened by the difficulty of his walk, owing to a lame leg that has been bothering him for some time.

The Bulls Are the Worse for Wear.

There is little sympathy in the street for Mr. Keene. He has been the most conspicuous example of the "operator" pure and simple. Most men of his wealth become identified with some special property, and at least a large majority of them honestly strive to administer their trusts. The day of the "railroad wrecker" is not quite past, as the experience of Rock Island might hint, but he does not often get hold of an important line, and his prey is apt to be wrested from him, as Mr. Morgan took Louisville & Nashville from the reckless Gates.

Men like Vanderbilt, Gould, Harriman, Hill, Cassatt and the rest do their best to build up and protect their systems. Mr. Gould, for instance, could no more repeat his father's evil exploit of wrecking Erie than could slavery return in the south. So there is some impatience felt with a man who has made his reputation and two or three fortunes by bearing stocks, and who has never done a stroke of work developing any property.

I heard a curious prophecy of the Keene catastrophe two or three weeks before it happened. Up in the Adirondacks Talbot J. Taylor, Keene's son-in-law and head of the shattered stock-broking firm, had bought for $60,000 a magnificent point of mountain land jutting out into Upper Saranac lake. Costly furniture expressed to Mr. Taylor was lying about the dock of the little steamboat, but there was no sign of their owner.

"I guess I know why he isn't building that big camp he talked about so much last year," said an Adirondack guide, pointing out the site selected for a cottage which would have surpassed those of Levi P. Morton and the Lewisohn brothers. "He's lost a million or so through Keene. He's pretty near the end of his rope, I hear."

The Adirondack guide is no fool, and he keeps his ears open.

Enmities in Wall Street.

From the fact that the banks did not greatly exert themselves to help Keene out there have been rumors about financial Titans striking at each other blows which wounded the whole investing public. Mostly bosh.

The Broker's Pleasure Trip.

Wall street is the most pitiless place on earth. Let a hint escape that a certain man or group is in "trouble," and the bears will in an instant pounce upon the stock of which that man or group makes a specialty. As it declines he must go to the wall or throw overboard other gilt-edged securities to placate his pursuers. So Stow, though personally popular on the street, was hounded by the bears on Mexican Central. So Keene was bombarded until his bank loans contracted beyond power to save the situation.

But the big men do not cut off their noses to spite their own faces. Rockefeller never brought on a slump that cut the price of his Amalgamated Copper down from 132 to 38. Morgan never countenanced a drive which has swept away half his fortune and brought North American down from 132 to 71. Whitney never played bear in the street in a campaign which incidentally sold down Metropolitan Street Railway from 269 to 113. Gould never favored a movement that cost Southern Pacific half its market price.

It was the great wave of heedless over-capitalizaion two years ago that caused the trouble. It will take time to get over it. And the promoters who caused the difficulty will not soon be forgiven.

The "Contract Labor" Clergyman.

The death of Rev. Dr. E. Walpole Warren would hardly be a matter of wide interest outside of New York but for the unwilling, annoying, and ludicrous part which the gentleman played in a comedy of the law some years ago.

What Made Warren Famous.

Dr. Warren was the son of Samuel Warren, whose "Ten Thousand a Year" was one of the "six best selling books" of its day. He was English born and was already a man of 48 when, in 1887, he was called to the rectorship of the Holy Trinity church.

Mr. J. Kennedy Tod is a very rich and quite eccentric banker, also of British birth. The contract labor law was then newly passed by congress, and Mr. Tod bitterly resented what he conceived to be an injustice to thrifty men from the old world who secured employment before venturing to the new. The bright idea occurred to him that he could make the law ridiculous by opposing the importation of Dr. Warren as a "contract preacher."

Tod's motive was friendly, though hardly appreciated by its object. He had no objection to Dr. Warren's coming, but thought the preacher should be willing to have the law beaten over his shoulders.

However, the courts know no jokes. The case against the preacher and the church was gravely taken up and considered. Two decisions in the lower courts were given against Dr. Warren, but the United States supreme court finally decided that a congregation in New York could legally "call" a London clergyman. And the constitutionality of the law as to the laborers stood just where it was before, so that Mr. Tod had his labor for his pains, and Dr. Warren his vexation of spirit for nothing.

The Latest International Romance.

The new Lady Bagot, of Blithfield, Rugeley, England, is one of the most beautiful of the many American women in the British peerage.

Lady Bagot.

As Lily May, of Baltimore, she was a favorite with the king and queen of England and with aristocracy for some years past. Lord Bagot is almost 50, and might have been a confirmed bachelor but for the tradition that a lord must marry to "provide for the succession."

The Mays of Baltimore are one of those families which are famous for years for the manly strength of their men and the beauty of their women. It was with a member of that family that James Gordon Bennett when a young man had the celebrated difficulty which resulted in his being caricatured for years with a strip of plaster adorning his nose.

The Jaffrays in New York are such another family. All the sons are big, strapping fellows, all the daughters beauties of commanding presence and of vigorous type.

What it costs America to have its wealthy daughters marry foreign titled men is shown in the court records of the Garner family, recently reviewed.

The father and mother were drowned four years ago. Of the three daughters one is the wife of Sir William Gordon-Cumming and the other two of Parisian noblemen. The entire estate was divided among them. Each got more than four millions, of which part was paid over absolutely and part was represented by several great cotton mills, which were to be carried on as a trust and a part of the profits paid to the heirs. A part of the profits were, however, to be held for a reserve fund of "working capital"—an eminently wise provision, it would seem, but not a legal one, for the daughters have just succeeded in breaking the will, and they are to get the entire profits of the trust. There is to be no working capital reserved, and the management is to be put into the cold, clammy and impersonal hands of a trust company.

Factories may be run in that way, but it isn't the way in which they are usually built up. OWEN LANGDON.

Unfair.

"He deceived me shamefully."

"But you knew he was a liar, you say."

"Yes, but he didn't lie when I expected him to."—N. Y. Times.

An Ideal Location

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark, 14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FASHIONS IN FUR.

Embroidery on Fur Coats—Velvet Mixed With Sable and Ermine.

There will be a good deal of embroidery used on fur coats.

Ermine will be used both as a lining and as a trimming, but not so much on coats or for street wear in general. Sable never comes amiss on any garment. Fur edgings will be seen on a good many of the cloth and velvet frocks. This is good news to people who have had yards and yards of narrow fur trimming laid away for years.

It will be good news to the possessor of sealskin to hear that once more this fur will be very fashionable, especially in the shape of boleros with cape collars and of carriage wraps mixed with sable.

Velvet and panne are often used with fur, and the clever woman can eke out her scanty fur stole by this means.

A SQUIRREL COAT.

Hats are more picturesque than ever, and shaded gray feathers are the latest millinery rage.

The run on navy serge has never been more pronounced than it is this year. The great French houses all favor the time honored fabric and style, the quality in chief request being fine, but of rough surface and incredibly light. The smartest little coats, be they sack or close fitting to the figure, are supplied with vests, these carried to the underarm seams only and held in position by a broad piece of elastic passed round the back of the waist. And it were easier to tell of what these vests are not than of what they are, the fabric composing them ranging from brocades to coarse linens. One particularly effective was of a red and white sort of canvas check, while another was a pale powder blue and white mixture.

The cut shows a squirrel coat trimmed with skunk. The deep yoke is of Irish lace. JUDIC CHOLLET.

SMART MILLINERY.

Beaver Hats Very Chic—New Shapes In Velvet Toques.

First and foremost among millinery novelties stands the beaver hat—the real old fashioned silk beaver. This has returned in many guises. Black and white are the favorites and are mostly of the big picture shape, with high jam pot crowns, though a few show conical crowns. These shapes without any trimming at all are quite expensive. Furthermore, they are trimmed with gold or silver lace and a single plume of rare beauty.

A rough make of beaver will also be used for knockabout hats in the form of toques and small shapes to take the place of the plateau hat we have had so long.

The three cornered, or highwayman, hat will again be seen. Some people always look their best in this shape, and they are becoming to the coiffure of the hour.

TAILOR MADE HAT.

The favorite toque will be of the Tudor shape. This will take the place of the toreador and the turban. It fits closely to the head and is generally made of velvet.

There is a new kind of velvet known as chiffon velvet which is popular on account of its lightness.

The picture shows a hat of gray felt with a white pompon and a black velvet ribbon. JUDIC CHOLLET.

NAVY LOSES VALUABLE OFFICER

Splendid Career of Rear Admiral Melville, Who Has Just Been Retired —Sigsbee Promoted—Gifted Colored Man—Robb's Future.

Washington—In the retirement from active service of Rear Admiral George W. Melville the navy loses one of the bravest men who ever wore its uniform and one of the most striking characters of the generation. For 16 years Melville has been engineer in chief of the navy. He has held the office under four presidents, Cleveland, Harrison, McKinley and Roosevelt; and during his incumbency the branch of the service to which he has belonged has advanced in prestige from a position of little consideration until to-day it stands as high as any other branch. That advance has been due in great measure to his power of concentration, clearness of observation and pride in his work. He has done more to break the medieval traditions and customs of the sailing age than any other dozen individuals in the service or out of it.

George W. Melville

Up to the time he became chief of the bureau of steam engineering the engineers in the navy were looked down upon by the line officers as "greasers." That was the term of contempt which was usually applied in speaking of them. When looking over the complement allowed each warship the new chief discovered that the entire engineer's force was officially designated as "idlers." The officers above deck would not tolerate the idea that the men who were really responsible for the condition of the ship, its speed and control, should be given any consideration.

Melville changed all this. For years he worked for the proper rating and rank of the engineers, until under the personnel bill what he had fought for was won, and an engineer now has the relative rank to which he had long been entitled. It was Melville who forced recognition of the fact that, as Prof. Hutton said at Columbia university, when Melville was honored with the degree of master of science, "the achievements of our fleets are the result in great part of the thought, the planning and the capacity of those engineers who gave them their weapons and who operate for them the battle machines with which their work is done."

Heroism on Jeannette Expedition.

Melville, with his splendid great head and his bushy beard and hair, has often been compared to a Viking, and that description also fits his fine achievements while connected with the Jeannette expedition to the Arctic years ago. Melville is one of the strongest men who has held a commission in the navy for two generations. During the retreat of the crew of the Jeannette there were days when he carried for hours over hummocky ice a blind and helpless brother officer weighing 175 pounds.

Hero of Viking Type

With this man clinging to his sides he would move among the crew, directing affairs, and even helping to launch a boat where the footing was insecure and dangerous. He is heroic in size and shape. Every feature of his face denotes firmness of purpose, intelligence in action and surpassing powers of endurance.

He has been honored greatly for what he achieved on that famous expedition after finding the bodies of Capt. De Long and his companions in the Lena Delta. He was given receptions everywhere at the time, has been admitted to countless learned societies, and for his services in the Arctic ocean he was voted by congress a gold medal and advanced 15 numbers in the navy register.

He has done wonders in his insistence upon the perfection of the fighting machine. The machinery designed under his directions is economical in the use of steam, light in weight and durable even under severe conditions. It was through his persistence that triple screw vessels were built for the American navy.

Sigsbee to Be Promoted.

In the list of promotions to follow the retirement of Rear Admiral Remey occurs the name of Charles D. Sigsbee, who now becomes a rear admiral. It may be doubted, however, whether Sigsbee's new title ever sits easily on him. He won his place in the American roll of fame as Capt. Sigsbee, and thus he will always be remembered.

Charles D. Sigsbee

Sigsbee is known all over the world as commander of the ill-fated Maine when she went down in the harbor of Havana, and he is perhaps the only officer in the history of any navy who received signal honors through the loss of his ship. Yet much was his conduct at that time when, in the midst of appalling disaster, he showed superb nerve and courage, that he has been accorded all the honor that usually comes to a sailor who gains distinction in battles.

It so happened that the fortunes of the war succeeding the blowing up of the Maine did not bring to Sigsbee the opportunity for further achievement in the active service, for he was placed in charge of a big fast steaming scout from which no serious fighting could be expected, but he is one of the men in the service who could be counted on for any emergency and who will be counted on in any emergencies which may come again.

Sigsbee's position in the navy has not been gained simply by his experience with the Maine, although his popular reputation rests on that. He is one of the most thorough-going officers in the entire service, fine-grained and of scientific attainments. For several years before the war with Spain he was at the head of the hydrographic office, and in that capacity he introduced improvements and invented appliances which bear his name and which have been of extraordinary value. Personally, he is one of the most charming of gentlemen, a rare story teller and an artist of considerable attainment.

Gifted Young Colored Man.

At the papal legation in Washington is a colored messenger whose accomplishments have attracted the attention of many of the most prominent people in the capital. During the anxious days of Pope Leo's last illness this colored boy who attended the door astonished the attaches and under secretaries of the foreign embassies who called frequently to inquire about the pope's condition by replying promptly to each of them in his own language with all the purity and accuracy of idiom imaginable.

James J. Mattingly

This colored messenger, who is only 20 years old and whose name is James J. Mattingly, is one of the most accomplished linguist in Washington. He speaks English, Latin, Italian, German, French and Spanish with equal facility, and, besides, he is a skilled musician. He not only sings and plays exquisitely, but he is a composer of no mean ability.

Young Mattingly is a Maryland youth, and he went to work for the apostolic delegation as a house boy eight years ago, just after leaving school. All his accomplishments have been acquired since then, and he has taught himself, with such help as he has had from the priests at the legation, who have taken a great interest in him. He is familiar with the best literature in all languages, ancient and modern, and he is constantly adding to his stock of accomplishments.

Such education as the boy had up to the time he was 13 he had acquired in the Washington public schools, but he is better educated now than nine-tenths of the graduates of universities. He also has an intimate knowledge of church affairs, as might be expected of so bright a lad who had grown up in a priestly atmosphere.

Robb and the Postal Investigation.

Of all the men who have made reputations in the post office investigation none has deserved more credit than the young man who was selected to take the place of Assistant Attorney General Tyner when Tyner was dismissed. The young man's name is Charles H. Robb. He is a Vermonter and he is still some distance under 40. He looks as though he might have just come of age, for his smooth shaven face, with its clean-cut features and keen, flashing eyes, have all the characteristics of eager youth.

Charles H. Robb

Young Robb was a subordinate in the department of justice when the postal scandals began. He had been working away there without any special desire to bring himself before the public for months, but the quality of his mind had attracted the attention of the attorney general, and when Postmaster General Payne asked Mr. Knox to detail somebody to the post office department to assist in the legal features of the inquiry the attorney general promptly suggested Robb. The young man had a feeling that in leaving the department of justice he was cutting himself off from association which would be of value to him in his profession, and he at first begged to be excused. But so great was the attorney general's confidence in him that both Mr. Knox and Mr. Payne insisted on his accepting the assignment, and he agreed. It was with the understanding, however, that when the investigation was concluded he should resign and return to the department of justice if he desired.

It is doubtful, though, whether he demands the fulfillment of that agreement. He has displayed keenness, knowledge of the law, splendid judgment and courage. He has won the regard of everybody in authority and, unless all signs fail, he has lined out for himself a career.

SPORTING NEWS.

SAFE HITS.

The Westfield ball team appears to be not far behind the coal man and mosquito in discovering the approach of winter; the energetic outfit will all too soon for some of us drop into obscurity—until next season.—Union County Standard.

FOOTBALL.

It is hardly likely that Scotch Plains will be represented on the gridiron this fall. Efforts have been made to organize an eleven but have failed up to the present. The village sports apparently have no use for football so long as the baseball season continues.

INJURED ON BIRTHDAY.

Louis Denton Brown Fell From Tree Fracturing His Leg.

Louis Denton Brown, of Prescott place, celebrated the eighth anniversary of his birthday, yesterday, and today he is in the hospital. While playing with his brother, Walter Brown, and other companions, near his home, he met with an accident. The boys were climbing a tree after some chestnuts, when young Brown lost his hold and fell to the ground. His leg was fractured and he sustained other injuries. His companions took him home in a small express wagon and later he was taken to the hospital, where he will be detained for some time.

Attention, Councilman Lee!

Car number 25, of the West Front street line of the local street railway in charge of Conductor Bogel and Motorman Theodore Stites, was continued in service for several hours last night while unfit for use on account of a flat wheel. The noise that the car made could easily be heard two blocks and disturbed a large number of sleepers along its route. Patrolman Flynn reported the nuisance and the company has been notified. This is only one of a number of complaints that have been made against the company for running cars with flat wheels and otherwise unfit for use.

The Mountain Whites.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society, of the Crescent Avenue Church, listened to a talk yesterday afternoon by Miss Anna Lee, a teacher in the mountain districts of South Carolina, who described the Mountaineer of the South.

Miss McComb, of East Orange, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Van Winkle, of 26 Duer street.

MASTER BUILDERS ORGANIZE

ASSOCIATION OF BOSSES IN NEAR-BY TOWNS EFFECTED.

Meeting at Which Preliminary Steps Were Taken to Protect Their Interests.

The Master builders of Scotch Plains, Westfield, Cranford, Roselle and Garwood have perfected a permanent organization. Their association will be known as the "Master Builders' Association of Westfield, Cranford and vicinity." The surburban missionary committee is composed of William J. Fowler, John Dravis, Henry Roolvink and Joseph Eilbacher. At the meeting Wednesday Phillip Jahn, of Scotch Plains, delivered an address.

John Wilson, Roselle, was elected president; John Watterson, Cranford, vice president; Charles French, Westfield, secretary; Alexander Jimerson, Westfield, treasurer. The new organization will be identified with the State Association and a committee was appointed to take action on this matter at once.

CHANGE OF NAME.

Crescent Avenue Church Young People to Drop C. E. Affiliation.

The Young People's Christian Endeavor Society, of the Crescent Avenue Church, at a largely attended meeting last night, discussed favorably a motion to change the name of the society to the Young People's Society. The matter will be acted upon definitely at a meeting next week. Dr. Ellis Hedges, W. D. Murray and F. H. Andrews composed the committee that presented the proposition. Last night's meeting was addressed by Mr. Zelie, the new pastor of the church.

DISTRICT COURT REMOVAL.

Lyceum Theatre to be Occupied Until Court House is Completed.

The district court now being held in rooms on Scott place, Elizabeth, will soon be moved to the Lyceum Theatre Assembly room, to remain there until the new Court House is completed. The change is made owing to the general undignified tone of the present quarters. The lawyers expect to raise $1,000 toward furnishing the new quarters, as they do not expect to get into the new Court House inside of two years.

Tenant Resisted.

Mrs. Helen Gardner was yesterday afternoon evicted from her premises at 303 Madison avenue following the landlord and tenant case of W. D. Manning against Gardner in Justice Moffett's court. Constable Gjetlessen had considerable trouble in carrying out the decree of the court, as Mrs. Gardner resisted stoutly the removal of her household belongings.

Steel Cells Here.

The six new steel cages that are to replace the wooden cells now in use in the city court, have arrived in this city from Cleveland, Ohio, and will be in place and ready for use Monday. William T. Kirk, of this city, is the contractor.

—The adjourned case of Howard Bird, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct, was dismissed by City Judge Runyon this morning.

Umpire Thomas Timbo.

Thomas Timbo denies the report that he insured his life heavily before accepting the offer of the newspaper team to act as umpire in the game against the lawyers. The police are investigating, but have found no clue except an unsoiled volume entitled "The Autocrat of Epicurean Plainfielders" and an "Ah Boy" badge, which were discovered in a pile of bank books. Mr. Timbo has forwarded his affidavit of the game's score to Attorney-General McCarter, who he says is just as good a guesser sometimes.

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Elmer Hoffman, of Scott's Press Works, visited the Trenton State fair yesterday.

William Vogel, of the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, is visiting friends in Newark.

Frank Howard has taken a position in the foundry of the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant.

Robert Parson, of the Manganese Steel Safe Company's works, is detained at home with the grip.

Archie Douglass, a pattern maker at the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, is detained at home by illness.

William Porter, of West Third street, will start work at the Aluminum Press Company's plant Monay.

John Sullivan, a pattern maker at Pond's, has taken out naturalization papers. He is now an American citizen.

Harry Brentnell, a gang foreman at the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, spent yesterday at the Trenton State fair.

Joseph Randall has resigned his position at the Aluminum Press Company's plant. Mr. Randall will take a position with Hill & Shupp.

Notices have been posted in the Carnegie Company mills in Homestead, Pa., announcing that there will be a readjustment of wages January 1.

Daniel Baird, of the Potter Press Company's plant, has just purchased a new piano for his new residence, corner West Front street and Grant avenue.

R. Wilson Derby, who resigned his position at the Pedrick-Ayer plant, has taken a position as superintendent of a pattern shop in a large machine plant in Ramsey, Pa.

George Whitley, of Essex street, has finished serving four years as apprentice draughtsman at the Walter Scott Company's plant. Whitley will start Monday as a full fledged draughtsman.

Men to the number of 900 employed in the extensive piano manufactories at Astoria, Long Island, who were expected to strike this week, have voted to remain at work. There were only forty in favor of quitting.

Louis Alpaugh, of the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, is suffering from a badly lacerated finger. Alpaugh was lifting a heavy arbor in a lathe with a small crane, the chain slipped and the arbor pinned the lads finger against the lathe rest, crushing it badly. The injured diget was dressed at the shop by Robert Gow.

William Mague, of the Potter Press Company's plant, is minus a small part of one of his fingers. Mague was feeling the point of a twist drill, the machine started suddenly, catching the diget between the job and the drill, amputating a small portion. The lad's injury was dressed at the shop by Gang Foreman David Krymer.

There is a fairly circumstantial story among some of the older employes of the Crescent Shipbuilding Company, of Elisabethport, to the effect that the yards will reopen in the present month. It is said that most of the old hands have been advised by the management to remain in the city. The Crescent officials are just now considering the offer of the naval department, by which it is hoped the cruiser Chattanooga and the torpedo boat will be completed in Elizabeth. This also indicates that the plant may reopen soon. It is understood the government will allow its vessels to be completed at the Crescent ship yards if the company will guarantee to have the work done within a specified time. The company has ten days to consider the offer.

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

The Exempt Firemen's Association will meet Monday evening, Oct. 5.

The warriors' degree was conferred at the meeting of Miantonomo Tribe, No. 118, Improved Order Red Men, last night.

The handsome new furniture for the Masonic Hall Association rooms in the Babcock has arrived, and the carpet to be used has been made and is now ready to be laid in the several rooms.

Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., will hold conclaves Monday, October 5 and Monday, October 12, for special drill in Templar tactics in preparation for the field day at Atlantic City, October 14. The manoeuvres will be in charge of Drill Master Right Eminent Sir D. C. Adams. The Order of Malta will be conferred at the drills.

According to the last report of the Grand Recorder of the A. O. U. W., the members in good standing August 1, last, entire ordered, numbered 460,165. The amount of beneficiary fund, paid out in July, $968,775.70. The grand total beneficiary fund disbursed by the order from organization to August 1, last, amounts to $130,891,958.07. There were 4,568 new members admitted in July last.

At a meeting of the committee on resolutions of Salaam Temple of the Mystic Shrine at Newark this week, appointed for the purpose of preparing a fitting expression of thanks to Mecca Temple, of New York, the copy of resolutions decided upon and ordered prepared in original Masonic design in water colors and India ink was received and officially accepted. The resolutions will be presented tonight.

FRIENDS' RECEPTION.

Farewell Affair Held in Friends' Meeting House in Watchung Avenue.

A farewell reception in honor of some Friends who are going South soon to live, was given at the Friends meeting-house in Watchung avenue, last night. During the evening remarks were made by W. D. Williams. In conclusion he read an appropriate poem. In response remarks were made by Mr. and Mrs. Yardley T. Brown and Amos Willis, who are to leave Plainfield.

Mrs. Wilkins Dead.

Mrs. Caroline A. Wilkins, widow of James S. Wilkins, died this morning in this city. The funeral will be held at the residence of Mrs. Mary T. Dunham, 930 Park avenue, Monday morning at 11 o'clock. The interment will be at Newark.

Passed Examination.

Harry Kingslow, son of Henry Kingslow, of West Third street, has successfully passed an examination at Howard University, in Washington, D. C., as a pharmacist and has entered the freshman class.

Reduced His Weight.

PLAINFIELD'S NINES DEFEATED SATURDAY

St. Mary's Nine Beaten by Westfield's Aggregation in An Eight-Inning Game.

SCOTCH PLAINS WON

ALIS' TEAM DEFEATED IN A WELL-PLAYED CONTEST.

McGeehan, St. Mary's Pitcher, Injured—Details of Spirited Games—St. Mary's, 1; Westfield, 4; Alis, 1; Scotch Plains, 3.

The first of the series of three games, between the St. Mary and Westfield baseball teams, was won Saturday afternoon by the Union County champions. The Westfield boys started off in the first inning hitting McGreehan hard enough to make one talley. The Saints nearly scored in the fourth, Burke, the Westfield catcher, had his finger split open by a wild pitch of Waller's, and he was unable to throw to bases well. Westfield scored again in the fifth. With two men out and two strikes on the batter, Rotchford started to steal second, Roth, the Saints' catcher, threw the ball to catch the runner, McGeehan turned to see the result, the ball struck him in the back of his head, and bounded over in the bleachers, he fell to the ground where he lay. Dr. Kempton Browning was among the spectators and he rendered assistance to the injured man. Time was called, and it was twenty minutes before McGeehan was able to face a batter. He then struck out Carey, Westfield's best batter, amid cheers of the large crowd. Westfield crossed the rubber twice in the sixth, making a total of four runs. Alberts scored the visitors' only run in the seventh. The game was called at the beginning of the eighth inning on account of darkness.

The score in detail:

Attendance—1,500.

The Scotch Plains and Alis teams, in the deciding game of their series of seven, which was played at Scotch Plains on Saturday afternoon, gave the baseball lovers one of the prettiest and snappiest contests of the season, fully one thousand people, enthusiastic rooters for the opposing teams, gathering about the diamond.

The snappy plays, and there were many on both sides, were cheered to the echo. Manager Johnston, of Scotch Plains, made no changes in the personnel of the team. "Warry" MacLaughlin and Armbruster were in the points for the visitors and "Lefty" Davis and Brogan for the home team.

For two innings not a man was brought across the plate. It was simply a case of one, two, three and out. In their half of the third Scotch Plains earned a run with Mallay's two base hit in right garden, Brogan scoring him with a clean single to right, which Sporling was slow in fielding. Scotch Plains' rooters went wild, as one run meant much, the way both teams were playing.

Alis evened up the score in their half of the fourth, when Noyes planted a two base hit in center garden, scoring on Williams' wild throw to first base of MacManus' hit to third base. This was the only error of the 'Plains' boys during the game.

No more runs were scored until the eighth, when the home team made two runs. Mallay hit safe to center field, stole second; MacLaughlin walked Brogan. Two men on base and only one out, the hopes of the local fans were high as a good clean hit meant much. Cruisius flied out to second base and gloom began to show itself in the 'Plains camp. Conley had two balls and two strikes and the next moment meant a great deal. "Warry" planted a nice one over the plate, Conley met it and instantly became the hero of the hour, the ball sailed out over the outfielder's heads between center and left and dropped

TRINITY COMMANDERY READY FOR OUTING

Arrangements Completed for Annual Field Day at Atlantic City.

PARADE AS A FEATURE

CRESCENT MILITARY BAND OF RARITAN ENGAGED.

Public Invited to Accompany Local Templars—Date October 14—Day at the Shore—Parade in the Afternoon.

Arrangements for participation in the annual inspection, dress parade and review of the Grand Commandery, K. T., of New Jersey, at Atlantic City, October 14, have practically been completed by Trinity Commandery, No. 17. The local commandery will leave Plainfield at 8 o'clock accompanied by the Crescent Military band, of Raritan, on a special train which returning will leave Atlantic City at 7:30 in the evening. The committee having charge of the arrangements consists of these Templars: Harry W. Marshall, chairman; W. H. Sebring, William Macintosh, Bogart T. Conklin, L. B. Woolston, James A. Stafford and Louis I. VanAlstyne. Samuel Bingaman is eminent commander of Trinity. D. C. Adams is drilling the commandery in preparation for the parade.

After arrival in Atlantic City, the several commanderies will form for dress parade, inspection and review at 2:30 o'clock and will march a distance of one and a half miles through the principal streets. Dinner for the members of the commandery, their wives and guests, will be served at 12:30 o'clock at the Beaumont on South Tennessee avenue. The guests of the commandery will occupy seats on the veranda of the Hotel Rudolf at which point the parade will be reviewed by the Grand Commander. The knights will march in full dress.

The local commandery has had a creditable record in the State in past years and is especially honored this year by having one of its fratres, Dr. D. C. Adams, Grand Commander, and another, Jacob Kirkner, Grand Generalissimo.

The public is invited to accompany the knights on their excursion.

PAY OF ELECTION OFFICERS

THE UNION COUNTY'S BOARD TAKES NEEDED ACTION.

Provision Made for Rental of Polling Places—Board's Next Meeting.

Election officers, who served on the days of registry and election, on the occasion of the special election last week, will receive a compensation of $8 for the two days' work, $3 for registry day and $5 for election day. This has been decided at the meeting of the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders and is in accord with an opinion County Attorney W. R. Codington, of this city, furnished the board as his interpretation of the law.

There is no provision in the law for the amount of rent to be paid for polling places, but Freeholder King suggested that as $30 was the amount paid for the other four days, the special election having taken but two days, the landlords be paid $15 for the two days. This was agreed to. The board will meet again on Thursday afternoon, October 15, at 2:30 o'clock, when the election officers will receive their pay for the special election.

Jim is All Right.

Farmer Orator Martine, since he declared against Cleveland as a candidate for President, has been given some unexpected rebuffs. This newspaper recently told how a Democratic club limited his remarks to three minutes, and now the Plainfield Press prints the following: "Just before going to press, James E. Martine, whose perpetual optimism is refreshing, telephoned that silver pesos in the Philippines are so valuable intrinsically, that they are being sent to mints to be melted into bullion. The farmer-orator rushed into the office three minutes later. We rushed on." The need for a harmony dinner in Union County is evident.—Newark Evening News.

Church Reopening Delayed.

WALTER PETERSON LIKELY CUP WINNER

He Materially Increases His Lead for Hillside Golf Committee Trophy.

MR. REED'S GOOD PLAY

WON FIRST HONORS IN CONTESTS FOR PARK'S TWO TROPHIES.

Samuel Townsend Leads for President's Cup and M. T. Townsend for Club Cup at the Park Golf Club.

Walter Peterson materially increased his standing for the Golf Committee cup at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club on Saturday, and by winning first honors with a net score of 77, he now leads in the competition for this trophy, having a total of eighteen points. Second honors were divided between Dr. B. VanD. Hedges and J. A. Tompkins, each making a net score of 80. There was a goodly number of contestants on the course, which was in fine condition.

These scores were posted for the Golf Committee cup:

Walter Peterson, 83, 6—77; Dr. B. VanD. Hedges, 86, 6—80; J. A. Tompkins, 95, 15—80; Arthur Murphy, 91, 10—81; H. F. Fox, 99, 18—81; H. D. Hibbard, 90, 7—83; J. E. Erickson, 97, 13—84; H. C. Munger, 101, 15—86; D. H. Bowland, 104, 16—88; E. E. Rinehart, 109, 18—91; F. A. Clark, 102, 10—92.

This is the standing by points for the Golf Committee cup at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club:

BAPTIST ASSOCIATIONS MEET

CENTRAL ORGANIZATION TO CONVENE AT SOMERVILLE TOMORROW.

Programme for a Three-Days' Session Prepared—The Speakers.

There will doubtless be a big crowd of Baptists in Somerville from all over the State when the Central Baptist Association holds its seventy-fifth anniversary in Somerville tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday. The sessions will be held in the Baptist Church.

On Tuesday a ministers' conference will be held at 2:30 in the afternoon and again at 7:30 in the evening. At the former session there will be essays and plans of sermons, followed by discussion. In the evening, Rev. Dr. F. B. Thames, pastor of the First Church, Elizabeth, will preach.

On Wednesday at 10 o'clock in the morning, Rev. Burrows Eldridge will preach the introductory sermon. Officers will then be elected. The Women's Foreign Missionary Society will meet from 1 to 2 o'clock in the afternoon for conference. The Sunday-school societies will meet at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Revs. W. W. Case, George Pool and W. H. Spinning will make addresses.

On Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock an historical sketch of the association will be read by H. P. Mason of Somerville. A missionary address will be made on "The Highest Service" by Rev. Dr. Lawson, of Newark.

Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, the various committees will report. At 10:20 Rev. L. E. Wheeler will preach on "The Doctrinal Sermon." The Women's Home Mission Society will meet from 11:30 in the morning until 2:30 in the afternoon.

At 1:30 o'clock, Rev. F. E. Taylor, of Brooklyn, will deliver an address on "Evangelism," which will be followed by a general discussion to be opened by Rev. A. B. Sears and J. B. Losey. It is expected the attendance will be very large.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION

AS SEEN BY COUNTY CHAIRMAN HAMILTON KEAN.

He Asks Elizabeth to Make up for Lack of Republican Majority Here.

That the split in the Republican party in this city is serious has been admitted by no less a personage than County Chairman Hamilton F. Kean, chairman of the Republican County committee. Mr. Kean addressed Friday night's session of the Republican City Central committee at Elizabeth and he was not at all enthusiastic about the prospects at the coming election.

Mr. Kean said that since the convention he had visited this city on several occasions and had investigated the situation thoroughly. He confessed to having found the conditions even less encouraging than he had expected and impressed upon his hearers the fact that Republican supremacy in the county is threatened.

Without mentioning any names, Mr. Kean intimated that the Fowlerites were quite determined to defeat the ticket and he feared that they might succeed unless Elizabeth should make up for the deficiency in the Plainfield vote. He therefore urged the committeemen to canvas their wards even more thoroughly than heretofore has been done with the idea of reducing the Democratic majority in Elizabeth.

HEALTH BOARD'S NEGLECT

CITIZENS INDIGNANT OVER FAILURE TO REMOVE DEAD DOG FROM STREET.

There is much indignation expressed on the streets this afternoon over the failure of the Board of Health to remove the carcass of a dog which has been laying in the gutter on North avenue for twenty-four hours. Though twice notified by this paper an officer of the board gave as a reason for nothing being done that he had telephoned a man to remove it. Why doesn't the health officer hire some one else to remove the carcass?

Wilbur Bolin, of 138 Westervelt avenue, is ill at his home with an attack of diphtheria and the house has been quarantined by the Board of Health.

—Neuman Brothers are still in the lead on fruit display. A choice stock is constantly kept on hand. This week will be marked by a special shipment of late peaches. Neuman Brothers also lead in vegetables.

BOARD OF EDUCATION PREPARES NEW BILL

When Legislature Convenes, State Educators Will Introduce Proposed New Law.

CONTRAST TO M'KEE ACT

LAWMAKERS' SESSION TO BE SHORT, IT IS REPORTED.

No Action to be Taken on Tuberculosis Commission Act—Fight on New School Bill to Come Before the State Senate.

When the special session of the Legislature, for which Governor Murphy issued the proclamation last week, to be held Thursday, October 15, convenes, the State Board of Education will have ready for submission a new educational bill, which it is confident will meet the objections which the court of errors and appeals has just raised to the McKee law. The law committee of the board, at a meeting held in New York last week, went over the McKee law carefully, and revised it in a manner which the board thinks will make it constitutional under the recent decision of the court.

The first alteration is in section 33, which provides for school districts. This now provides that each township, city and incorporated town shall be a separate school district, but each incorporated village and each borough "hereafter created," shall remain and be a part of the school district in which it shall be situate at the time of its incorporation. It then goes on to say that each borough hereafter incorporated which shall not have assumed the functions of a separate school district by the election of a board of education, or which shall not have acted as a separate school district, shall remain a part of the school district in which it was situated at the time of its incorporation.

Then follow two of the fatal amendments which authorize the State superintendent to create a borough, a separate school district and provide that the section shall not abolish any school district which has acted as a separate school district by the election of a board of education prior to the introduction of the act.

This section is changed by striking out of the third line the words "hereafter created," and all of the section after the words "its incorporation," in the sixth line, so that the section will read:

"Each township, city and incorporated town shall be a separate school district, but each incorporated village and each borough shall remain and be a part of the school district in which said incorporated village or borough shall be situate at the time of its incorporation."

The next change is in section 244, which provides that in any district which comprise a municipality and a portion of an adjoining municipality, members of the board of education shall be selected in the same manner as they are selected in said district at the time of the passage of the act, and moneys for the maintenance of public schools therein shall be ordered and collected in the same manner as they were at the time of the passage of the act. In the new bill this entire section will be eliminated.

Section 246 of the present law validates all contracts, bonds and obligations which were incurred under the act of 1900, and all elections or submissions to the qualified voters of any school district of the question whether the board of education should be created by election by the people or otherwise held in compliance with the act of 1900, which was declared unconstitutional.

There is reason to believe that the court of errors and appeals in setting aside the McKee law will hold that while the Legislature has the power to validate contracts and obligations incurred under a law, which may be declared unconstitutional, it has no power to validate an election held under that law. So the part of section 246 which validates the election may be taken out of the new bill.

The Governor is reported to have said that the extra session will be short and that the defects in the McKee law will be quickly remedied. There are those who differ with the executive on that point. They recall the bitter opposition with which the law was confronted when it was before the Legislature, and predict that the same efforts will be made to defeat the passage of a new measure. This they say will precipitate a fight, and unless drastic measures are re-

JERSEY'S A. O. U. W. LODGES TO SECEDE

State Organization to Withdraw Membership in National Order.

REASONS FOR ACTION

NEW JERSEY'S WORKMEN ARE LOSING FINANCIALLY.

Losses in Other States Have to be Made Up by Strong Organizations in This State and Delaware.

The New Jersey branch of the Ancient Order of United Workmen is about to separate from the Supreme Lodge. The action will be taken as a result of a change in the assessment plan voted by the Supreme Lodge last June, the effect of the change being a heavier financial burden for the Grand Lodge of New Jersey.

At the June meeting of the Supreme Lodge, new legislation was enacted affecting the plan of assessments, which established a new class of assessment for men of 55 and over and adopted a level rate plan in addition to the classified plan of assessment, leaving the choice of either for the members of the jurisdiction adopting them.

Immediate legislation of this kind was necessary for some of those jurisdictions of the order which have been receiving relief year after year in order that they might meet more of their claims as New Jersey is doing. Unless the New Jersey Grand Lodge adopts the plan, there will be no change in this State.

A number of the larger States in the order such as New York have been running behind financially for several years and this has borne heavily upon the smaller and self-supporting States such as New Jersey and Delaware. New Jersey has been paying about $1,700 a month into the treasury of the Supreme Lodge and the new laws enacted last June would mean that the sum would be increased to $3,500 a month. To this New Jersey objects and for this she will probably separate from the Supreme Lodge. Similar action has been taken in the past by Maine and other States.

O. F. C. ELEVEN WINNER

DEFEAT OF WESTFIELD IN A SNAPPY GAME—SCORE 12 TO 0.

Losing Team Depends on Mass Plays While Plainfielders Rely on End Runs.

The Orange Field Club opened the football season in this city Saturday afternoon by trouncing the Westfield A. C. eleven 12 to 0. The scoring was all done in the first half. Three minutes after the kick-off the Orange team took the ball on a fumble, and in three plays, including a 30-yard end run, Smith had the pigskin over the line for a touchdown. Smith kicked goal. Shortly after the next kick-off Smith took the ball on a double pass and ran 40 yards for the second and last touchdown, and again kicked goal. In the second half the ball see-sawed back and forth in the middle of the field. Westfield tried mass plays throughout the game and Orange depended upon end runs to advance the ball.

Features of the game were the all round work of Smith for Orange and the superior defensive play of Lake and Helyer in the line. Emmons on one occasion tackled Davis, of Westfield, for a 30-yard loss. Douglass and Hamilton also excelled for Orange. The game was characterized by very little punting and a small amount of fumbling for so early in the season. The new rules had no appreciable effect on the play although Westfield tried a quarter-back end run once with no success. Westfield was considerably the heavier team. The summary:

Westfield, 0—Thompson, re; [Mason, rt; Kenney, rg; Bird, c; Taylor, lg; Whitke, lt; Johnson, le; Messersmith, qb; Walker, lh; Richardson, rh; Davis, fb.

Time—Fifteen and twenty minute halves. Umpire—Phillips, of Orange; referee, ———, Westfield; timekeeper—Mason; touchdowns—Smith, 2; goals from touchdowns—Smith, 2.

MISS M. C. BRUNSON AN OCTOBER BRIDE

Wedded to Elias H. Bonnell, of Orange, at the Brunson Homestead, Hillmer.

A. J. BRUNSON BEST MAN

MRS AUGUSTUS RBUNSON WAS THE MATRON-OF-HONOR.

New York Orchestra Plays During Wedding and Reception—Groom a Bank Officer—To Reside in Orange—On Honeymoon.

Miss Marion C. Brunson, sister of A. J. Brunson, vice president of the First National Bank, of this city, and Elias H. Bonnell, cashier of the Second National Bank, of Orange, were quietly married Saturday afternoon at 5:30 at Hillmer, the homestead of the bride's grand-parents on Greenbrook road. The wedding was attended by only a few friends and relatives of the bride and groom. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Charles Townsend, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Orange, assisted by the Rev. John S. Zelie, pastor of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church. The ushers were M. W. Faitoute and H. E. Moore. Master Albert Foster acted as page.

Mrs. Augustus J. Brunson, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Brunson's brother, Augustus J. Brunson, was the best man. The music was provided by an orchestra and a quartette from New York. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Brunson wore white silk mulle over which hung a train veil. Orange blossoms held the veil in place and she carried a large bouquet of lilies of the valley. Mrs. VanDeventer, the maid-of-honor, wore pink silk of the same material and carried a large bouquet of bridal roses. The front parlor was decorated with plams, Southern smilax and cosmos. The wedding was performed in the front parlor of the house. From the flowers and greens a number of small incandescent lights shown, which gave a pretty effect. The lawn and outbuildings were also decorated with electric lights in honor of the occasion.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding supper was served and a reception was held. None but a few chosen friends and the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present. At 8 o'clock they were driven to the depot and left for a short wedding trip in the South.

A large assortment of presents were received from the friends of the bride and groom. Included in the display were articles of cut glass, jewelry and furniture. The gift of the groom to the bride was a circlet of pearls and diamonds. Upon their return they will reside in Orange, where the groom is well known and is prominent in social circles.

OFFICIATES IN ROBE.

Rev. Dr. Schenck Wears a Geneva Gown During Services at Trinity Reformed Church.

Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph. D., pastor of Trinity Reformed Church, wore a handsome silk Geneva gown at the communion service yesterday morning. The innovation had been planned for some time. It was a gift from the ladies of the church.

His appearance in a robe at the time was quite a surprise to the congregation, which heartily approves of the change. The simple black gown seemed to lend grace and dignity to his bearing and one was impressed by his evident unconsciousness of the innovation. Eight new members were received on confession and two by letter at the service.

KILLED MAD DOG.

Officer Moses Quass Rescues Several Children by Shooting Dog.

A mad dog, followed by an excited mob of men and boys created much excitement on Park and North avenues yesterday afternoon, and before the animal was killed by Officer Moses Quass, several children had narrow escapes from being bitten. The animal belonged to a colored family on West Fourth street. It had been teased and tormented by little colored children.

Officer Quass gave chase to the dog as it turned from Park avenue into North avenue and cornered it in the doorway of VanSickle's butcher shop. One well directed bullet ended the canine's existance. The carcass was still lying in the street this morning.

Stirring a Corpse.

It is apparent that those persons who voted against the amendments intended that their votes should be counted against all the provisions, and that is the view the authorities should take of it.

Hairs should not be split in an effort to save some of the amendments from the defeat that a majority of the voters who cast their ballots plainly intended they should suffer. The amendments were knocked out and ought to be permitted to stay out, thus ending an undertaking badly botched from start to finish.—From the Trenton State Gazette.

"The poor man's friend" is the People's Clothing Company, East Front street. The company has a suite of finely appointed clothing sales rooms on the second floor of the building opposite police headquarters where a choice line is constantly kept in stock. Drop in and get their prices.

For superior workmanship, superior style, superior quality of materials, try M. C. VanArsdale's shoes. The John Mitchell shoe is a low-priced specialty as reliable as its name. It will stand any amount of wear and tear.

Are you feeling blue and don't know the reason. You need a tonic. Hodge's pharmacy, East Front street.

It is high time you were getting in that winter supply of coal. John Johnston, South avenue.

When you wish to be particularly certain of having a successful dinner, telephone to Fred Endress, West Front street, for your meat. If you prefer fish, poultry or game, you can be just as well satisfied at Endress's.

Implausible Story.

The allegation that a woman, who announced herself to be the widow of the victim of a trolley accident in Union County, and who secured from the traction company $3,000 to settle her claim, was a fraud and never was married to the dead man, is hardly believable, when the precaution taken by that kind of corporations is remembered. It makes a person think of the child who declared that she would never marry, but that she would be a widow with an only son. —Newark Evening News.

Veterans to Assemble.

The annual reunion of the Thirty-third Regiment, N. J. Vols., will be held at Morristown on Wednesday, Oct. 7. It is expected that about seventy-five survivors of the regiment will be present. The Thirty-third enlisted in 1863 and remained in the service until the close of the war.

OFFICIAL TRIBUTE.

Government Will Honor Memory of Sir Michael Herbert.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—In a memorial service to be held at St. John's church tomorrow the Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, the rector, officiating, this government will pay official tribute to the memory of the Right Hon. Sir Michael H. Herbert, G. C. M. G., C. B., his Britannic majesty's ambassador to the United States, who died Sept. 30. The president, his cabinet and the diplomatic corps will attend the service.

Mr. Arthur Raikes, first secretary of embassy and charge d'affaires ad interim, has received by cable from King Edward designation to be present as the personal representative of his majesty. In the absence of Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, Senor de Aspiroz, the Mexican ambassador, will be the acting dean of the corps and will rank next to the president. In the event that he is able to reach Washington in time Baron von Sternburg, the German ambassador, who was Sir Michael's closest friend in the corps, will attend as the personal representative of Emperor William.

This service is without precedent. Sir Michael is the only ambassador accredited to this government who has died while absent on leave. The service is in accordance with the wishes of the president, who was for years a warm personal friend of Sir Michael.

Memorial Service For Herbert.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—By the king's command a memorial service for Sir Michael Herbert will be held in Marlborough House chapel, adjoining St. James' palace, tomorrow afternoon.

TOWN WRECKED.

Tornado Strikes St. Charles, Minn. Seven People Killed.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 5.—St. Charles, in Winona county, has been almost completely wiped out by a tornado. Seven people were killed, and twenty-eight were injured, many of them seriously.

The tornado struck the town from the southwest quarter and made a clean sweep through it, following almost entirely the line of the main street and devastating buildings on each side. Then the residences farther back from the business center were struck and many of them blown completely away.

The entire main street of the town was literally wiped out, hardly a business place being left standing. Forty-two residences were destroyed, and the total property damage is estimated at $100,000.

DISTILLERY EXPLOSION.

Seven of Corning Company's Employees Killed.

PEORIA, Ill., Oct. 5.—An explosion in the plant of the Corning Distillery company killed seven of the employees, maimed others and badly wrecked part of the distillery.

A great cylinder of copper crashed through the wall of the cooler room and on through the mill as if bricks and mortar had been tissue paper, shot in an oblique and downward course through the air, cut down a large tree in its flight, scattered a pile of lumber as if beams and timbers had been so many straws and landed 250 feet away.

The remains of J. M. Wilson, the government storekeeper who was buried beneath the ruins, with six other men, have been recovered. It is not thought that there are any more in the ruins.

Irish Election Riot.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—The candidature of John Howard Parnell, brother of the late Charles Stewart Parnell, at the parliamentary election for South Meath, which is deeply resented by the Redmondites, led to a riot when John Redmond and other Nationalists went to speak in support of their candidate, David Sheehy. The rival factions came to blows at Dunshaughlin. Bludgeons and stones were used, and many persons were injured. John Redmond in his speech denounced J. H. Parnell as a traitor to Irish unity.

Four Killed by Electric Cars.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 5.—John Hoss, former postmaster at Catawba, O., was fatally hurt by an electric car here. The accident occurred within a few feet of where the Cameron carriage was struck and the father and one child instantly killed. A second Cameron child died, and the mother is so low her death is expected hourly.

The Tillman Trial.

LEXINGTON, S. C., Oct. 5.—In the trial of former Lieutenant Governor J. H. Tillman for the killing of Editor Gonzales several eyewitnesses of the shooting gave their versions of the affair, and Mary J. Roper, a trained nurse, testifying for the defense, told of alleged derogatory remarks about Mr. Tillman made by Mr. Gonzales.

French Cruiser at New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The French cruiser Jurien de la Graviere, Commander Lemonde, arrived in port from Sydney, C. B., and is at anchor in the North river. She has two military masts and with her four funnels presents an odd appearance.

Sounding Board Works Burned.

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Julius Breckwold's sounding board factory at Dolgeville, the principal industry of that village, was entirely destroyed by fire. The loss is $100,000. Eighty men are thrown out of employment.

First Snow In North Star State.

FERGUS FALLS, Minn., Oct. 5.—Snow began falling here and continued for more than three hours, several inches covering the ground. It was the first of the season and was driven by a high northwest wind.

PEACE IN BALKANS.

Russia and Austria Agree Regarding Macedonia.

WILL INSIST ON REFORM SCHEME

Foreign Ministers Make Statement as to Terms Settled by Czar and Francis Joseph at Vienna.

VIENNA, Oct. 5.—As an outcome of the conferences between the czar and Emperor Francis Joseph at Muerzsteg the governments of Austria and Russia have sent the following identical telegram to the ambassadors of those countries in Constantinople in the following terms:

"You were recently instructed to declare that Austria-Hungary and Russia adhere to the task of pacification which they have undertaken and are resolved to persevere with the programme drawn up at the beginning of the year notwithstanding the difficulties hitherto opposed to its execution, for indeed, while on the one hand the revolutionary committees have provoked disturbances and deterred the Christian population of the three vilayets from co-operating in the execution of the reforms, on the other hand the representatives of the sublime porte intrusted with their application have been generally wanting in the necessary zeal and have not been imbued with the idea which inspired these measures.

"Both powers are united in the determination to show that it is their firm resolve to insist on the execution in their entirety of those reforms which were accepted by the porte and which are calculated to guarantee general security. In this connection you will receive detailed instructions without delay.

"While the powers recognize to the full the porte's right and duty to suppress the disorders fostered by the insurrectionary agitation of the Macedonian committee they at the same time deplore the fact that this suppression was accompanied by excesses and cruelties from which the peaceful inhabitants suffered. It therefore appears to them to be their urgent duty to come to the assistance of the victims of these regrettable occurrences, and the above mentioned instructions will acquaint you with the details of the humanitarian action which they deem necessary with the object of supporting the inhabitants who have been deprived of all means of existence, facilitating their repatriation and restoring the villages, churches and schools destroyed by fire.

"The Austria-Hungarian and Russian governments entertain the firm hope that their continued endeavors to establish a lasting peace in the sorely tried provinces will attain their object, and they are convinced that their impartial advice will be heeded by all to whom it is addressed in their own interest.

"By command of his majesty, my august master, I request you to communicate the foregoing to the Ottoman government after you have arrived at an understanding with your Russian (or Austrian) colleague, who has received identical instructions."

SERIOUS FIGHTING.

Battle at Demir-Kapia Causes Heavy Loss of Life.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 5.—News has been received here from the frontier of serious fighting between Turkish and Bulgarian troops at Demir-Kapia, both sides sustaining losses. It is reported that the Turks attacked a Bulgarian frontier post.

It is asserted that the Turks have frequently attempted to provoke hostilities, firing into Bulgarian territory and crossing the frontier to steal horses and sheep. The war office here is working at high pressure, and 24,000 recruits will be called out three months before the usual time. Prince Ferdinand has sanctioned numerous other measures of a warlike nature.

All the cavalry with the exception of a single regiment which is stationed at Sofia has been sent into the frontier districts, where are also strong forces of artillery. Vigorous efforts are being made to prevent bands from crossing into Turkish territory. Two bands which were sent back have reached Sofia.

Dispatches from the frontier received at the revolutionary headquarters report that the refugees in the mountains are in a terrible condition through their pursuit by the Turks and cold and hunger. Many are dying.

Twenty Turkish villages in the Razlog district have been burned. The large village of Banisko is said to have been destroyed and its 2,000 Turkish inhabitants killed.

From insurgent sources it is reported that the Bulgarian villages of Obiditt and Kremen have been pillaged and burned. Many of their inhabitants were slaughtered. The Bulgarian quarter of Belitza is in flames. Seven hundred refugees from Belitza are reported to have been killed in a Turkish ambuscade near Samakoff, province of Kirk-Kilisse.

The insurgents have received a severe check as a result of their operations in the Struma valley, where, after a decisive fight in the open with the Turks, the insurgent chief, General Zontcheff, was compelled to send urgent messages for re-enforcements.

Archbishop Kain Better.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 5.—Archbishop Kain is much improved, but his condition does not yet warrant the hope that he will entirely recover from the ailments from which he is suffering. Consultations of five specialists and house physicians will be held today.

WORK OF SALVATION

Tour of the Army In Feud Districts Successful.

TWO HUNDRED MILES ON HORSEBACK

Good Service In Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia—Jackson Visited and Soldiers Encouraged In Their Duty.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 5.—The Mountain brigade of the Salvation Army has completed its tour of the feud district and has returned to Cincinnati after having been absent from that city since Sept. 15, traveling through the mountains of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia.

The party that reached this city included Colonel R. E. Holz, Major William O. Hunter, Staff Captain Boyd of Cleveland, Staff Captain Escott of Cincinnati, William Bassett of Cincinnati, Staff Captain Edy White of Pittsburg and Envoy E. A. Zeall of Pittsburg.

Two hundred miles were traveled on horseback from Jackson, Breathitt county, Ky., to Norton, Va.; 15,000 persons were addressed, 250 conversions took place, and the conditions of the people of this section were studied from the standpoint of their moral, religious and peculiar beliefs as to feuds, so that a remedy can be recommended. It is believed by those in the party that the trip has been a success in every sense of the word.

On leaving Cincinnati the party took a train for Winchester, Ky., where services were held in the street. Jackson was reached the same evening.

Jackson has no street lamps, and there was no sign of animation. Captain Longmeir of the provost guard—the town being under martial law—accompanied the party to the courthouse, where the soldiers were camped, and they went into the courthouse and prayed for the success of the work and their safety. The spot on which they knelt in prayer was the one where J. B. Marcum fell with his heart pierced by an assassin's bullet.

The brigade went into the streets and held an open air service. Citizens turned out en masse, but stood off some distance until the soldiers asked them to come nearer. It was different from what the citizens had expected. The singing of martial songs and the playing of sweet music gave them such inspiration that many joined in the services.

Four Champion Fire Horses.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 5.—The four champion fire horses of the world are Buck and Mack and Charlie and Dan, all owned by former Fire Chief George W. Hale, who died suddenly at Atlantic City last week. The four horses saw service in the Kansas City fire department, of which Hale was chief for twenty years until he was ousted by a political revolution last spring. Buck and Mack established all the American records for quick hitching and beat the horses of all countries at an international firemen's tournament in London. Charlie and Dan equaled all the records of Buck and Mack and defeated all foreigners at the Paris exposition.

Two Clerks Commit Suicide.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 5.—George E. Williamson of Chicago and Marvin Welch of Janesville, Wis., clerks in the auditor's department of the Central Union Telephone company, committed suicide by shooting themselves through the head. The two were close friends. The officials are investigating in the belief that the two friends planned the double suicide. Williamson's suicide is thought to have been the result of disappointment in a love affair.

Boston's Quiet Disturbed.

BOSTON, Oct. 5.—The quietness of the Sabbath was broken by the sound of martial music as the Honorable Artillery Company of London and their hosts, the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of this city, marched to Trinity church. The services were arranged by the British residents of this city, and the parade included besides the two military bodies those army and navy veterans of the British service whose homes are in this city.

Anarchists and Socialists Fight.

BARRE, Vt., Oct. 5.—One man dying, another suffering from a serious but not necessarily fatal bullet wound and a third under arrest, charged with firing the shots, is the outcome of the latest clash between the anarchists and socialists of this city. The feeling between the two parties has been intense for many months, and conflicts more or less serious have been of almost daily occurrence.

Fatal Work of Tornado.

PLAINFIELD, Wis., Oct. 5.—A tornado which visited this section tore down many buildings and damaged much property. Mrs. John Fisher was killed and Mark Wood, who was injured, has since died. Much stock was killed or injured, and the farmers are heavy losers.

Francis Bloodgood Hall Dead.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Oct. 5.—The Rev. Francis Bloodgood Hall, for thirty-nine years pastor of the Peristrome Presbyterian church of this city and probably the most widely known clergyman in northern New York, is dead here of bronchitis, aged seventy-six years.

Seven Little Orphans Ate Poison.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 5.—Seven little orphans in St. John Beechman's Female Colored Orphan asylum ate bread smeared with poisonous paste which was intended to kill rats. Two of the children are dead, and the rest are in the hospital very ill.

Kimberley Diamonds.

There will be no dearth of diamonds for many a day, to come. In Kimberley they are being found in vast quantities in what is known as the "blue ground," really a rock which disintegrates on exposure to air and water and thus frees this precious mineral charge.—N. Y. Sun.

Our Colonial Trade.

Uncle Sam's trade last year of nearly $100,000,000 with the Philippines, Porto Rico, Hawaii, Alaska, Guam and Tutuila will do for a beginning. Twenty years hence the figures will probably be multiplied by five.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

CAPSIZED AND SANK

Steamer Hackley Goes Down Off Green Island.

ELEVEN PERSONS FOUND DEATH

Seven Survivors Were Rescued After Drifting All Night In an Exhausted State on the Wreckage.

MARINETTE, Wis., Oct. 5.—During a squall on Lake Michigan the steamer J. H. Hackley capsized, and eleven persons were drowned. The Goodrich line steamer Sheboygan rescued the other seven persons on board the Hackley after they had drifted all night in Green bay, clinging to bits of wreckage, and brought them to Fish Creek.

The Hackley was struck by the squall when off Green island, seven miles from this port. The upper works of the vessel were blown away, and the boat turned over and went down in deep water.

As the Hackley went to the bottom those who would and could seized on floating pieces of wreckage, while the women and three or four of the men, failing to find any object to which to cling, sank in the sea.

The waves were rolling high, and several of those who at first saved themselves from immediate death lost strength and sank. The steamer Sheboygan sighted the helpless survivors and effected their rescue.

The officers of the Sheboygan feel sure that they took aboard every person afloat, but some of the persons who were rescued say that it is possible that one or more of the eleven persons missing may have escaped death. This view is not given much credence by the sailors of the Sheboygan.

The persons saved by the Sheboygan say that with the carrying away of the upper works all persons aboard the Hackley ran on deck. Hasty preparations for a plunge into the water were begun, but before any plans could be carried out the boat listed, turned over and went down like a rock.

Search is still making for any persons who may have escaped death and for the bodies of those who were drowned.

"Deadwood Dick" to Be Guard Again.

DEADWOOD, S. D., Oct. 5.—The announcement that "Deadwood Dick" is to be tendered a position with one of the big express companies as guard on transcontinental trains has served to call public attention once more to the famous scout, bandit hunter and leader of "the shotgun men" who guarded the Wells-Fargo express treasure from the Black hills to civilization a quarter of a century or so ago. "Yes, it's true that I've been talked about for such a job," said Dick, "but I don't know what will come of it. If I do get appointed, however, you may be sure that I shall try to do my duty as faithfully as I did it twenty-five years ago."

Tried to Save the Van Wormers.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 5.—It has been learned here that the message sent to Warden Deyo of Clinton prison asking for a stay in the execution of the Van Wormer boys and signed "By Order of the President" was filed by a stranger who alighted from a West Shore train and who after delivering the message to the operator got aboard the train again. He is described as being well dressed and wearing a Van Dyke beard. The train runs only between New York and Newburg.

Resolution Goes to the Czar.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 5.—A convention of Armenians, representing forty-two Armenian colonies of the United States and Canada, met in this city and adopted a memorial and appeal protesting against the action of Russia in seizing properties of the Armenian church. The resolutions will be presented to the Russian ambassador at Washington by a delegation headed by Bishop Sarajian, with a request that it be forwarded by him to the czar.

Henry Vandyke at Marquand.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 5.—Before the students in Marquand chapel the Rev. Dr. Henry Vandyke preached a sermon from the text "Turn ye not aside." He severely scored corruption in our modern politics. Dr. Vandyke said, "The general tendency in politics is to 'get there' any way you can, and too often the end justifies the means."

Child Burned to Death.

RICHFORD, Vt., Oct. 5.—Ada Bonneau, aged eight years, was burned to death and the other members of the family had narrow escapes from a fire which early destroyed the home of Moses Bonneau at Sutton, Que., eight miles north of here. Mrs. Bonneau was seriously burned and cut by glass while escaping through a window.

Superintendent Dying From Assault.

GREENWOOD, Ind., Oct. 5.—James Rush, assistant superintendent of the electric company here, was found in an unconscious condition and dying from wounds on the head, evidently made by a blunt instrument. Two strangers were seen leaving the boiler room where he was found, but there is no clew.

New Cabinet at Belgrade.

BELGRADE, Servia, Oct. 5.—A new cabinet has been formed, led by General Gruies as premier and Addra Nikolios as foreign minister. The change is apparently due to differences of opinion regarding the policy which should be adopted toward the regicides.

Chief Justice McCollum Dead.

MONTROSE, Pa., Oct. 5.—Chief Justice J. Brewster McCollum of the supreme court of Pennsylvania is dead at his home here after an illness of about two years.

Plainfield, N. J., Oct. 5, 1903.

The Daily Press has a higher circulation rating than is accorded to any other paper in Plainfield.—Printers' Ink.

What's that — a newspaper man robbed? Well, of all things!—Union County Standard.

Couldn't steal much, unless it be his nerve.

If the bachelor Congressman who claims that he knows all about women happens to marry some day, perhaps he will find out his mistake.—Paterson Evening News.

Is this to be taken as expert testimony, brother?

Mayor Carter Harrison, of the Windy City, says that if he could "fire" all the men he suspects of being identified with "grafting" they would be jumping out of all the windows of Chicago's city hall. Probably if Mayor Low would do the same in New York, the windows of municipal buildings would be choked up with humanity.

A Boston man has two advertisements, just alike, running simultaneously in the same newspaper, says the Philadelphia Record. He tried one advertisement and the results were so good that he inserted another. What he considers curious is that after a time the two "ads" brought in more than twice the business credited to the first.

Some criticism has been made on the hasty action of the Public Service Corporation in erecting a dormatory here for the accommodation of men who may take the regular employes' places in case of a strike on the trolley. The local employes of the company are strongly adverse to any strike, admitting that they have but little or no grievance against the company. We can see no reason why they or the public in general should take any offense at the company's act. Strikes are apt to spread and although the company is satisfied that there are no signs of discontent among their men here, it is but natuarl that they should take precautions to cope with a possibility. Let's be fair with the corporation. The only real grievance that can be had in this city against the P. S. C. is that we are afflicted with dingy old rolling stock which should be relegated to the dump heap.

Although the friends of Senator Kean profess to consider the Republican bolt here as but a temporary defection which will be an absent quantity on election day, they are leaving no stone unturned in preventing any general "knifing" when the ballots are cast. This is apparent from the fact that the anti-Fowler men have formed a strong organization, which though it is to be known as the Republican Club of Plainfield, has been brought about for the purpose of polling a normal vote for the majority party's assembly candidates particularly Mr. Kirk. The announcement yesterday of a separate organization here no doubt came as a disagreeable surprise to the members of the party loyal to the local administration. It shows that Senator Kean's friends have by no means given up the fight to control the city. There's going to be a lively time on election day. That much is certain—the result is not.

Miss Freda Kaiser, of this city, has returned from a visit with relatives in Raritan.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dixon have returned from their honeymoon spent in Philadelphia, and are now living on Somerset street, in the borough.

Mrs. George W. VanCamp and daughters, Ethel and Mabel, of Somerset place, have returned from a visit with relatives in Trenton.

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS.

QUESTIONS OF THE DAY DISCUSSED BY THE PRESS.

Treason to St. John.

DeWitt Clinton Flanagan has had the temerity to assert that New Jersey Democrats ought to support Grover Cleveland for the Presidential nomination. If this is not treason to Farmer Orator Martine and Editor St. John, of the Elizabeth Times, it is certainly a notification to them that Mr. Flanagan does not desire a renomination for Congress with their assistance.—Newark Evening News.

Au Revoir But Not Good Bye.

The latest reports about ex-Senator James Smith's United States senatorial hopes recall the valedictory delivered by Mr. Smith in 1899, when he retired from politics "for good."—Jersey City Journal.

Kirk's Contract.

"Kirk has been awarded another bridge contract. He is to bridge over the political breach at Plainfield. The work is to be completed on or before Nov. 8."—Elizabeth Journal.

Mr. Kirk may find such a troublesome "Buckle" in the bridge that he may not be able to complete the contract in time.—Rahway Union Democrat.

You're Naughty.

A New Brunswick woman claims to own the greater part of New York. That's nothing when compared to the Elizabeth people who seem to have the impression that they should boss the earth.—Plainfield Press.

If Elizabeth bosses the earth—or has a desire to, as the Daily Press says—Plainfield proposes to give them—well, just change the w to an h after the dash.—Elizabeth Evening Times.

No Brotherly Love.

We are able to announce upon good authority that there is no foundation for the rumor that Senator Kean and Congressman Fowler are to be starred in the drama of "Damon and Pythias."—Newark Ledger.

Campaign Expenses.

If campaigning in Union County was as inexpensive as it is reported to be in Henrico County, Virginia, coupled with the encouragement the bolt of the fifteen Plainfield Republicans seems to give them, the Democrats could go into the fight for nomination with a great deal of vim. The campaign expenses of all the county officers in Henrico County have just been turned in as provided by the new pure election law. Some of them were unique and contained expense items as low as five cents. None of them were over $300. The candidate for sheriff, who was elected, expended $157.70. He is reputed to have spent many hundreds in previous elections. One account shows that oratory was at a low ebb, and spellbinders received fifty cents for a speech.—Elizabeth Evening Journal.

Sympathize With Bolters.

The Westfield Leader (Republican) in a leading editorial on the Plainfield bolters from the late Republican convention, speaks in somewhat sympathetic terms and reflects upon the Elizabeth bossism that caused this bolt. After regretting this condition, the Leader proceeds:

Whatever the local situation in Plainfield, we cannot help but sympathize with them, and feel that, whether they did wisely or not in leaving the convention, they are right in insisting that this end of the county ought to be allowed to decide for itself who should be its representative on the party ticket. That right was considered by this part of the county in the case of Elizabeth's candidate, Mr. Coyne, and, also in the case of Mr. Tillman, Rahway's choice. It is a matter that appeals to one's sense of fair play. It may be possible to say to the city of Plainfield "You shall not be represented on the ticket by the man whom fifteen of your delegates desire, but the man whom but four want." The Elizabeth end is able to enforce this, but is it right? is it wise? is it good politics?

This has been the condition of affairs for some time. It was so last year, it is so now. It is not a question of men, it is a question of fairness, and unless a different policy prevails among the leaders, the Republican party cannot expect to retain its ascendancy.—Rahway Union Democrat.

LION BRAND YARNS.

If you knit or crochet, use Lion Brand Yarns. We have sold them for the past 15 years, consequently we know their good qualities. They give universal satisfaction. They are rewound after dyeing, which prevents them matting, and leaves them soft, elastic and easy to work. We carry a most complete line of shades in Shetland Floss, Shetland Wool, Pansy, Germantown and Saxony. Also Midnight Zephyr in both 4 fold and 8 fold. Shades can always be duplicated. We have the Lion Brand book of instructions, containing a vast amount of useful information about crocheting and knitting.

About KId Gloves. Nothing adds to a woman's consciousness of being well dressed so much as fine, perfect fitting Kid Gloves. Good Kid Gloves are always most satisfactory and quite as cheap in the end than the less expensive grades, which are necessarily lacking somewhere. The "Fowne's," "Centemeri" and P. & L. make a worthy trio in the Kid Glove world. Fowne's mannish Gloves, with open seams, are ideal for street wear, and possess style and durability in a marked degree. "Fowne's Eugenie" dress kids, made of real kid, will meet every requirement of the Kid Glove trade.

"Centemeri" Kids are too well known to need elaborate comment A well earned reputation for reliability creates a steady demand for them which we are prepared to meet.

P. & L. Kid Gloves are known all over the world as the best $1.00 Glove made. Our experience with them bears out their reputation and we recommend them most heartily to those who will pay out $1.00 for Kids. The fall importation now ready.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN.

The engagement of Miss Annie Eganey to William Stein, of Bound Brook, has been announced. The wedding will take place Oct. 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Malby and son, Robert, have returned to their winter home in Newark, after spending a month in West Dunellen.

The Watchung baseball team reorganized by John McMahan defeated the Plainfield A. C. Saturday afternoon on the Lincoln avenue grounds by the score of 13 to 11. Chitley twirled for the locals but was hit quite freely. McMahan and Abbott distinguished themselves at the bat and John Alberts stole bases in "professional" style. The score by innings was:

Watchung..... 0 2 1 2 1 0 3 1 3—13
Plainfield A. C.. 1 0 2 0 5 1 0 2 1—11

Umpire, Hugh Birch.

Rev. S. K. Doolittle, pastor of the Methodist Church, was assisted by Rev. J. H. Robertson, of Paterson, yesterday morning.

The question of lack of accommodation for the school children in the borough is indeed a serious one. It seems necessary to form two more classes and engage another teacher. The voters of the borough will be given a chance to vote for or against this on Wednesday evening.

Miss Annie Pitkoff, of Raritan, has returned home after a few days visit with Mrs. Clement Dixon.

William Bragg and family, of Lebanon have moved into the Dealaman flat.

NEW MARKET.

Charles Titsworth, who is employed by the P. and R. R. as civil engineer in Pennsylvania, visited his parents here yesterday.

"Mayor" Bill Smith while returning from an auto tour over in New York on Saturday afternoon, had a collision with the machine of John A. Drake. Smith's machine was stopped at the time and he was in no way to blame for the accident. He arrived in town yesterday but the auto is being repaired in New York.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

The town is now partly illuminated by electric lights. On some streets the wires have not yet been placed.

Miss Helen Boice, of New Market, spent Sunday with Miss Nellie Manning.

Mrs. L. Ayers is entertaining her niece, Miss Boylen, who has been spending the summer in another State.

The repairs and painting of the Baptist Church are progressing.

Edward Horn is recovering from a serious attack of rheumatism.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merceirs, of Grand street, have been entertaining Mrs. Merceirs' sister, Mrs. Kelvey, of Elizabeth.

Mr. and Mrs. David Patterson, of Plainfield, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gray, of Front street.

Miss Susie Parse returned yesterday from a pleasant visit with Brooklyn friends.

Edward Kenneth, of Plainfield and a friend by the name of Thompson, were brought before Judge Clark Sunday afternoon for being drunk and disorderly on Park avenue, near the Episcopal Church. $5 or 30 days was the Judge's decision. The fine of Kenneth was paid, Thompson promised to have his later, if not, he will go down for 30 days this morning.

Mr and Mrs. George L. Dunn and family have removed from the Bornmann cottage, on Westfield avenue, to Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hull spent Sunday with friends in Plainfield.

Walter Frasee, of Westfield, who returned two weeks ago, after a mysterious disappearance of thirteen years, spent Sunday renewing old acquaintances in the village of his childhood.

over the fence, Malley and Brogan scoring and Conley was on third before the ball could be fielded.

The game itself was clean and devoid of any arguing. Bligh's decisions were fair and not a kick marred the game. "Lefty" Davis, for Scotch Plains, pitched his greatest game of the season, only allowing the sluggers of the Alis team three base hits and one scratch, while MacLaughlin was touched up for a total of nine hits, including one for three bases and one for two bases. Both were steady, only one man being given his base. This was in the eighth, when "Warry" walked Brogan.

MISS MADELINE'S BIRTHDAY

LITTLE DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. BLAIR HAS A PARTY.

Her Seventh Birthday Occasion for a Merry Time at Parents' Home.

In honor of her seventh birthday, Madeline Blair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Blair, of Duer street, entertained a number of her little friends Saturday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in playing games, singing and other pastimes. A feature of the afternoon was a donkey contest in which Willie Dodd won the boys' first prize, Jubilee Rowley won the first for girls, Madeline Blair, the hostess, won the booby prize for the girls and Craig Blair got the booby prize for the boys. The little celebrant received many presents including two gold opal rings from her father and aunt, Mrs. A. C. Blair, an oak writing desk from her grandmother, Mrs. Thomas Doud, and a silver bracelet.

Mrs. Blair was assisted by Mrs. A. C. Blair, Mrs. E. A. Millard and Mrs. Townley. Miss Carrie Carson played the piano for the singing. At a late hour in the afternoon refreshments were served. Among those present were: Colin Millard, Ray Boice, Craig Blair, Russell and Dorothy Lee, Rayfond Cutter, Harold Pfifer, Willie Dodd, Harold Sharkey, Alfred Townley, Edith and Everett Case, Bessie Case, Blanche and Dorothy McVoy, Jubilee Rowley, Mabel and Lucy Douglass, Ethel Runyon, Marion Blair, Mary Bennett, Ethel and George Webster and Aileen Chandler.

LEICHTENTRITT ACCUSES HIM

GANSLER ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF EMBEZZLEMENT.

Defendant Held in Bail for a Preliminary Examination on Thursday.

Isaac Gausler, of West Third street, this morning appeared in Justice Huff's court charged with the embezzlement of $90 from Meyer Leichtentritt, a West Front street clothier. Until recently Gausler has been employed as a collector for Leichtentritt, his duty being to receive weekly payments on clothes bought on the installment plan. Leichtentritt charges that in so doing Gausler embezzled $90 since January 1 and up to last Monday, September 28. Gausler is now employed by Bear Brothers in the same line of work and it is said the Leichtentritt's action was taken because of this fact. Leichtentritt had previously written a letter to Gausler, stating that if Gausler did business with any of his, Leichtentritt's, customers in Bound Brook, Dunellen, Garwood or Plainfield, he would be arrested.

Gausler was held in $300 bail this morning by Justice Huff to await the action of the Grand Jury. Bail was furnished by Samuel Rothberg. William Newcorn represents Leichtentritt and V. W. Nash, Jr., Gausler. A preliminary examination in the case will be given Thursday morning.

sorted to to curb the opposition, the session will be prolonged.

It is expected by some men that the special session may be called upon to correct the defeat in the tuberculosis commission act and make an appropriation for the work which the Legislature at its last session failed to do, but on the other hand, it has been hinted that the deliberations of the legislators will be confined to the school bill.

MAYOR BILL'S UNLUCKY AUTO.

Wrecked by John A. Drake's Horseless Carriage in New York.

"Mayor Bill" Smith, of New Market, and his new automobile were in trouble again Saturday. When he was stopping at the Harlem Central Hotel, New York, a gasoline runabout owned by John A. Drake, collided with it and Drake's machine was completely wrecked. With Mr. Drake were two women and his driver. All were thrown out, but none was hurt. His auto was also badly damaged.

Mayor Has Removed.

Mayor Newton B. Smalley, of the borough, has removed from the lower part of Mercer avenue to his handsome brick residence on Mercer avenue, between Washington and Sycamore avenues.

RELIGION IN MEXICO

The People Zealously Observe Every Rite of the Church.

Many Forms of Penance That Are Customarily Performed — Feast Days That Are Popular with All Classes of Inhabitants.

Why should we wonder at the religious fervor and superstition of the age of the Crusaders when there is a people at our very threshold who has fostered just such fervor until the priest is the ruler of the man and the cross his weapon?

Nothing is begun or ended without the blessing and consent of the priest, and the emblem of the cross is stamped upon Mexico.

During Lent business is a most secondary matter and in Holy week is suspended altogether.

Every feast day is celebrated with appropriate solemnity and, as occasionally there is a feast, or fiesta, once or twice a week, you may see it makes considerable difference to the busy mine-owner or manufacturer who may be employing scores of those exceedingly religious peons.

THE SYMBOL OF THE FAITH.

On the day of the Feast of the Passover quite a curious ceremony takes place. During the day everyone in the village, man, woman or child, repairs to the church. On this occasion the altars and galleries are draped in purple, significant of mourning, and the priest after brief services, advances to the altar rail to bless the faithful worshiper.

As the suppliant kneels before him the priest, by means of a little powdered charcoal and a rubber stamp, places a black Greek cross upon the upturned forehead.

It is a most curious sight to note the old men and maidens, business men, stately senoras, tattered beggar or babe in arms, each bearing the symbol of the faith.

For years it was a universal custom, and is even yet maintained in some parts of the republic, to crawl upon the hands and knees for miles over thorns and rocks as a penance or as a supplication for divine favor.

At the entrance of the mines you will invariably find a little shrine before which each miner will bow his head and cross his breast before entering to work, and at night the ends of the dripping candles will all be placed in front of the little altar to propitiate the blessed saints and assure goodwill during the coming darkness.

Once a year, on the day of Corpus Christi, early in June, there is a grand procession and the virgin is besought to bring rain and sun to the summer harvest.

A statue of the virgin is carried about the town and then placed in some wayside shrine. Here she stands for ten days, and if it rains during that time it is taken as a token of the goodwill and blessing of this sweet saint.

DOING A PENANCE.

The first of May is the ceremony of blessing the fields. Young girls dressed in white, and each carrying a small image of the virgin, will form a weird procession, dancing backwards and forward over the fields and calling on the saints to bless the harvest.

On Easter Sunday is the greatest feast of the year. Effigies of Judas, stuffed with torpedoes and pennies, are strung over the principal streets of the town, and on Eastern morning the fireworks and shooting at Judas resembles our Fourth of July. At last the effigy will be pierced and, with a great explosion, the remnants of the unfortunate Judas will be scattered far and wide, while all the populace scrambles for the pennies.

FRACTION OF TIME LOST.

Scientists Are Making an Expensive Search for Missing Sixteenth of a Second.

A sixteenth of a second is missing, and despite the work of scores of learned scientists no one can tell where it has gone.

A search for this minute fraction of time that is costing hundreds of thousands of dollars is under way, and it will be continued till the lost is found, for its recovery is of world-wide importance, states the New York World.

If one grain of sand on the shore of the ocean were lost and scientists were to spend years in trying to find it, their search would seem to be little more hopeless and unimportant than this task, upon which the leading astronomers of England and France are now working.

The sixteenth of a second is missing between the sun's time as recorded at Greenwich and as understood in Paris. The failure to discover the discrepancy in observations may change the nationality of thousands of people.

Longitude is calculated on the basis of Greenwich time. The boundaries of countries are determined by the calculations at this famous observatory. If the Paris calculations and not the Greenwich observations are found correct, boundaries may be moved miles.

No expense is being spared to trace the missing fraction. A special building has been erected at Paris, costly instruments installed, a corps of skilled mathematicians engaged and a process that may take years to complete has been commenced.

MASSAGE BY THE BLIND.

London Institution to Open New Occupation for Which They Are Peculiarly Adapted.

There is to be a very new field of work opened for the blind by the London Institute for Massage by the Blind, which is about to be started under a committee that includes many representative medical men. It is not an experiment. It has proved that the blind can become expert in the practice of massage, which in Japan is commonly recognized as their work, reports the Philadelphia Press. The occupations open to the blind are few and rarely remunerative. The difficulty is one of the gravest obstacles to the improvement of the condition of this afflicted class. There are already several blind masseurs in that country. Some £500 is needed, and central rooms are then to be secured under a hospital matron. Blind students must obtain first-class medical certificates in an art which is daily more used, especially by surgeons in sprains and bruises, and masseuses will be allowed to treat only women and children and masseurs only men. The whole scheme needs only to be mentioned to be approved. It is also worthy of note that the blind are usually endowed with a sense of touch exceptionally fine, so that here, and perhaps here alone, is a field in which they may surpass their seeing brothers, massage being dependent for its success upon the nicety of its application, dependent in its turn on the nicety of the operator's tactile sense.

CHEESES OF ALL COUNTRIES.

Some Familiar Kinds That Have Become Well Liked in the United States.

Each country has its favorite cheese. The Swiss make the gruyere cheese. It is made of goats' milk, and is full of holes, caused by the gases in fermentation. The typical English cheese is the cheddar, first made in the English town after which it is named.

Brie is a popular French soft cheese; and camembert, originating in Normandy, is another. These cheeses are cured in caves, where the temperature never rises above 12 to 14 degrees.

Roquefort, a celebrated French cheese, is made from the mingled milk of goats and sheep that browse on the thyme-clad banks of the Arno. These cheeses are also ripened in caves, but the temperature is kept at 40 degrees.

Akin to the roquefort cheese is that called gorgonzola, made in Italy after similar processes. It is milder than roquefort, and not quite so good; but it sold much cheaper. Another Italian cheese, the parmesan, is very hard, and is usually grated.

Limburger cheese, so beloved by the Germans, originated in Belgium. It is extraordinarily rich, being allowed to ripen by putrefaction, hence its horrifying odor to unaccustomed nostrils.

Some persons have a saying: "Gorgonzola is a cheese to swear by, limburger to swear at!"

Name Famine in Denmark.

The Copenhagen correspondent of the Berliner Tageblatt has sent his paper an interesting article on the "name famine" in Denmark. In no nation, he says, is the choice of the family name so limited. It very often happens that four persons unknown to each other sit down to a game of whist, and later present themselves, respectively, as Hansen. He proves this statement by quoting Dr. Krak, the compiler and publisher of the Copenhagen Wegweiser, the largest Danish street directory. According to Dr. Krak, out of a population of 500,000 in the Danish capital, 42 per cent. end their names with "sen." Some 50,000 are named Hansen, which is used by the largest number of persons.

Queer Underclothes.

Eskimo women wear the most curious kind of underclothing, its peculiarity being that it is made of the skins of birds. These skins before being sewed are chewed well by the women in order to make them soft. About a hundred skins are required to make a shirt, and the labor of chewing the skins which form their garments is quite enough to account for the massive, well-developed jaws of Eskimo women.

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark, 14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

INDEPENDENT WOMEN

There Are Too Few of Them

"WHY is it that so many women are failures?" asked the bachelor. "It isn't that they haven't gumption, for they often start out bravely, but before long fizzle out of just remain mediocre."

"It is because half the time they don't dare to think for themselves," answered the wise woman. "They lack independence."

"Humph! Their independence! They are always talking about it," grunted the bachelor. "I thought the new woman was a precious lot too full of it."

"Well, that is your great mistake then. She dares to do certain things—enter trades and professions, for instance—but, once in them, nine times out of ten she will be content to fall into the ruts of other workers and will invent nothing original herself. She lacks initiative, the daring initiative of thought and action. This very difference between the independence of men and women is shown in the art schools even. It is no unusual thing to have a girl work there from four to seven years and never earn a penny during that time. She will, for instance, spend season after season copying plaster casts. You never find the male art student doing this, and I may remark incidentally that it is not from him that the school makes its money. From the first he is anxious to put his knowledge into practice. After school hours he makes little sketches embodying the principles he has learned. He makes headpieces and tailpieces and even letterings—anything that he can sell to the art editors of papers and magazines. In this way he acquires practical knowledge of things and is slowly but surely getting back his tuition money and becoming known even in a small way. The thing he is proudest of and gladdest to cultivate is his originality. The girl, on the other hand, having been told she must go through such and such classes before she can draw, believes it absolutely and slumps down patiently instead of trying every now and then to find out what her own powers will do for her."

But it is in their cringing to the conventionalities that women lose their greatest chances. "What will they think?" This is the greatest bugbear of the average woman, and this nameless skeleton in the closet has prevented more genius, stifled more ambition and ruined more lives than you or I would care to know about.

HER OWN HOME.

We cling to convention until we recognize its hollowness and even long after. It is an inheritance from long generations of downtrodden and oppressed womanhood, but that is no reason why it should stay with us.

You take the girl who feels that she has the ability to act, for instance, and who defers year after year going upon the stage until finally it is too late just for fear of what her friends will say. The question is, Are such friends worth the sacrifice? Is it indeed friendship at all which prevents a friend from doing her very best in whatever direction that best may be?

Then take the girl who won't live alone "because it looks so horrid at my age" and who suffers the tyranny of an exacting relation or the tyranny of a boarding house where she is forced to hold a conversation as best she may with her friends in a parlor occupied by at least a dozen chattering people and where she may not do this and must not do that until it seems as if the world were one collection of don'ts. She might have, if she were wise, a little home of her own somewhere, even if that home were represented only by a studio. In this home she might be supreme with her own books, her piano and her pictures, and there she could give little lunches and afternoon teas and receive her friends as they should be received. She might do all this if she were independent.

Don't depend on any one—not on your relations, not on your parents even, least of all upon your friends. If you know you can do a thing successfully do it even if all your world is against you. You will find another world which will appreciate you. If you are convinced a thing is right do it even if all the world is convinced you are wrong. Dare to be yourself, to be an individual woman.

MAUD ROBINSON.

MISS ANTHONY WINS.

Western Expert Golfer Gets National Championship.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—Miss Bessie Anthony of Glenview added fresh laurels to a uniformly successful golfing career by winning the national women's championship. In the final on the links of the Chicago Golf club at Wheaton the Evanston expert defeated Miss Johanna Carpenter of Westward Ho by 7 up and 6 to play. It was a runaway match, Miss Carpenter repeatedly finding bunkers and the other troubles that beset and fluster a golfer.

Miss Anthony has now won seventeen first cups in open tournaments. This includes three straight victories in the Governors' cup at Onwentsea, considered in 1900, when she first won it, emblematic of western supremacy. The last three seasons she has won the William A. Alexander cup, the championship trophy in the recognized western championship.

On qualifying day Miss Anthony and Miss Carpenter tied for third place at 99 strokes. The following day Miss Anthony had the satisfaction of defeating the Philadelphia woman.

Eastern Champions Beat Hoboken.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The Eastern league baseball champions of Jersey City defeated the Hoboken team on the grounds of the latter, the score being 6 to 1 in favor of the visitors. Garvin of the Brooklyn Nationals pitched for Hoboken, but he was hit opportunely, while the home team only got one safe hit off Barnett.

Cincinnati Nationals Win.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 5.—The Cincinnati National league team took the second game of the series from the Cleveland Americans for the Ohio championship by their timely hitting. Ewing was hit hard, but he kept the hits well scattered. Score: Cincinnati, 7; Cleveland, 3.

Brooklyn Nationals Shut Out.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—At Bayonne, N. J., the Bayside Athletic club baseball team shut out the Brooklyn Nationals by the score of 1 to 0. The Brooklyns outbatted the winners, but poor base running lost them at least two runs.

Americans Turn the Tables.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—The American league team turned the tables on the Nationals and by bunched hitting and clean fielding won their first game of the series very easily. Score: Nationals, 2; Americans, 10.

Americans Win at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 5.—The St. Louis American league team easily defeated the St. Louis Nationals. Sudhoff twirled for the Americans and was very effective throughout. Score: American, 9; Nationals, 2.

Chess Match by Wire.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—The City of London Chess club has sent a challenge to the Brooklyn Chess club for the annual cable match.

King Alfonso Is a Good Shot.

PARIS, Oct. 5. — The Archduchess Augusta, well known as an intrepid sportswoman, has just distinguished herself by killing a magnificent black bear. She was on a deer shooting expedition in the Marmaros mountains, in Hungary. The archduchess brought down the bear at the first shot. Alfonso XIII. is improving as a shot. In a pigeon shooting contest at San Sebastian he carried off trophies in a way that gained the approval of old sportsmen. Shooting for the Casino cup, the king won the trophy against all comers without missing a single bird.

Overdue German Ship In Port.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The overdue German Slovan line steamer Syracusa arrived in port eight days behind her time. The Syracusa left Victoria, B. C., Sept. 5, with a full cargo of coffee. On Sept. 13 her crank shaft broke close to the stern bearings. The chief engineer and staff spent eight days in making the necessary repairs.

Electric Cars Collide.

WALTHAM, Mass., Oct. 5. — Two electric cars of the Newton Street Railway company collided on Main street. Nine passengers were thrown to the ground from one of the cars, and Mrs. John Sterling of this place was internally injured. The others escaped with painful bruises.

New York Central Man Killed.

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 5.—At Carthage O. M. Wood of Lowville, a brakeman on the New York Central railroad, was instantly killed while attempting to jump from one box car to another attached to a moving train.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Mr. Chamberlain in a pamphlet preface has opened his campaign for fiscal changes, attacking the present British free trade system.

Twenty monarchs of Europe will be present at the wedding of Princess Alice of Battenberg and Prince Andrew of Greece at Darmstadt on Wednesday.

The bodies of the three Van Wormer brothers, electrocuted for the murder of their uncle, Peter A. Hallenbeck, were buried in one grave in Kinderhook, N. Y.

Frederick Crawford, arrested in Denver for mail bag thefts in Philadelphia, will be turned over to the St. Louis authorities in a swindling case on which he may be sentenced to a long prison term.

Five masked men who held up a trolley car at One Hundred and Fifty-eighth street and Eighth avenue, New York, were foiled by the motorman and conductor. Three arrests were made.

AT COPAKE LAKE.

Battle For Possession Between Syndicate and Squatters.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Up in Columbia county there is a very pretty little lake over which there is a great deal of trouble. It is Copake lake. Not long ago a syndicate of wealthy New York men bought it. Hence the trouble. The syndicate claims the lake, the islands and a strip of land sixty-three feet wide all along the water front. They posted notices to trespassers to get off and keep off. The people who have been using that water front—and some of them living on it—shot holes through the signs and tore them down. Meanwhile they keep on living there, just as they have been doing for years.

For a generation or two Copake lake has been a sort of free domain. No owner exercised any claim to it. The neighboring farmers used it as they pleased. Then came summer visitors. They built pretty little cottages along the shore and docks for their skiffs. Nobody objected.

Now it is a question of whether the people who have bought it or the people who have built and own houses there are to possess the lake.

THE DEXTER MURDER.

Death of the Adirondack Landowner Still a Mystery.

GLENS FALLS, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Search for the murderer of Orrando P. Dexter has been practically abandoned, and there seems little likelihood that the mystery surrounding the millionaire's death will ever be solved. The reward of $5,000 offered by Mr. Dexter's father resulted in a few spasmodic efforts by amateur detectives at the outset, but the clews they had to work on were blind, and the men were quickly discouraged.

Surprise has been expressed, not that Mr. Dexter had met a violent death, but that he lived as long as he did.

Sheriff Steenberg in touring the country about Dexter lake could not obtain enough facts to warrant an arrest. Farmers, guides and woodsmen with grievances against Mr. Dexter gave the sheriff little or no aid. Even if the murderer was generally known he could rely for shelter and protection upon many who tacitly approve his act. From the very outset residents of Santa Clara insisted that the murderer would never be caught.

Murder at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 5.—Robert Dalton Burdine, a well known young man, was murdered and W. D. Hayes, his cousin, has probably been fatally hurt in a fight with negroes on the river front. The young men, who were members of the Louisville Boat club, went for a sail, accompanied by several fellow club members, and as they were passing Towhead island were attacked by several negroes, who threw lumps of coal into the boat. The occupants started after the negroes, chasing them into a yard, where Will Fletcher, colored, seized an ax and, striking Burdine over the head, killed him instantly.

Fatal Accident From Curious Cause.

MONTREAL, Oct. 5.—Two men were instantly killed in Point St. Charles and another badly shocked by the boom of a derrick they were operating coming in contact with an electric light wire. A. Parent and P. E. Prevost were turning the handle at the time. Prevost had only one hand on the handle and did not receive the full force of the current. Parent was using both hands and was instantly killed. Prevost's cries attracted the notice of T. Curtis, the foreman on the job. He rushed to Parent's assistance and was instantly killed. Prevost will recover.

Is This a Case of Mistaken Identity?

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 5.—Officials of the American Bridge company are interesting themselves in the case of Albert Steiner, a former employee, who went under the name of Charles Lewis and who was sentenced to a term of ten years in the Massachusetts state prison at Charlestown. Steiner claims that his arrest and conviction is one of mistaken identity, and the officials of the bridge company here are inclined to believe his story.

Thanks From Paris.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 5.—National Secretary Anthony Matre of the American Federation of Catholic Societies, has received a letter from Cardinal Richard, archbishop of Paris, in which the cardinal expresses his sincerest thanks to the American Federation of Catholic Societies for the expressions of sympathy which that organization has extended to the bishops and the religious orders of France.

Joseph Smith Conducts Service.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Oct. 5.—The closing sessions of the Massachusetts district conference of the reorganized church of Latter Day Saints were held at the Claflin Street church. A praise service conducted by Elder Joseph Smith was followed by a preachers' meeting.

Theresa Vaughn Dead.

WORCESTER, Mass., Oct. 5.—Mrs. William H. Mestayer, known professionally a few years ago as Theresa Vaughn, is dead at the Worcester insane hospital of paresis. She was a member of the Ott family, famous in theatrical circles.

Service In Honor of Pius X.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 5.—Special services were held at the Baltimore cathedral in honor of the election of Pius X. Cardinal Gibbons preached the sermon at high mass and was attentively listened to by a congregation that filled the edifice.

SPORTING NEWS.

AROUND THE BASES.

A report was circulated about town Saturday that Bender, the Indian crack pitcher for the Philadelphia American League team, was in Plainfield and that he would pitch for St. Mary's team against Westfield. This was untrue, as Bender pitched for his own team against the Quaker City National League team and shut them out by a score of 5 to 0. McGeehan, of the Philadelphia Athletics, pitched for St. Mary.

It is to be sincerely hoped that arrangements can be made whereby St. Mary and Westfield can play the second game of the series on Crescent Oval. It is said that the Oval will be used by Alis Club for a football match, but no doubt satisfactory arrangements can be made to have this game played elsewhere so that the baseball loving public can see St. Mary and Westfield battle for honors in this city. It would be more satisfactory than having all three games played at Westfield.

Next week's Westfield-St. Mary's game will be played at Westfield. It is rumored that the Plainfield nine will be strengthened by the services of several players from the champion Jersey City team of the Eastern League.

"Jack" Burke, catcher for Westfield, had his right hand badly torn while doing the backstop work for Poughkeepsie in a game with the Star A. C., of Elizabeth, at Elizabeth Saturday. Burke hurt his hand while trying to stop a wild throw of Mc Cann, of the Jersey City nine, who was in the box for Poughkeepsie. Burke will be out of the game for the rest of the season and Spboring will take his place on Westfield's team.

At Dunellen the bachelors defeated the benedicts Saturday afternoon in the rubber game of a series by a score of 16 to 9. The unmarried men had the game well in hand from the start and found little difficulty in keeping the lead.

In an exciting game of baseball Saturday afternoon at Berkeley Heights, the Berkeley's defeated the Scotch Plains Seconds by a score of 18 to 3. A number of fans from this city witnessed the game.

FOOTBALL.

The Mono A. C., of North Plainfield, is desirous of corresponding with some out-of-town teams, averaging 100 pounds for football games. Expenses are guaranteed. Address William Heath, 87 Fairview avenue, North Plainfield.

ON THE TRACK.

Under the name of Oakland Farm, South Portsmouth, R. I., Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt has entered several horses for the Morristown Horse Show. Another exhibitor will be Miss Edith Rockefeller, of Tarrytown, N. Y. She is the daughter of William Rockefeller. Her specialty is harness horses and she has entered the handsome chestnut mare Hendresse in three or four classes. The judges for the show were announced recently. They are H. K. Bloodgood, of New York; F. M. Ware, New York, and S. D. Riddle, Philadelphia.

GOLF.

Owing to the failure of certain players in putting in an appearance the golf match between Westfield and the Westchester Golf Clubs was not played on the Westfield Golf Club course on Saturday. The regular match was called off and another date will be fixed for it. Next Saturday the Westfield team will play at Cranford.

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Thomas Owens has taken a position in the drawing room of the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant.

Herbert Gleanzer, of New street, has taken a position at Scott's Press Works.

The employes of the Campbell Press Company's plant had their pictures taken in a group at the plant Saturday.

Charles Leighs met with a painful accident while at work at the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant Saturday morning. Leighs was pouring a ladle of hot babbit, the metal came in contact with water which was in the casting, and splashed in the lad's face. The young man was taken home in a cab.

William Tabb, of New Market, has resigned his position at the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant.

William Loftus, of West Third street, has taken a position in the foundry of the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant.

To the great surprise of everbody, Former President Frank Buchanan has been re-elected president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, by a vote of 43 to 40. Parks declares he was defeated through trickery.

Steamfitters and helpers to the number of 1,600, who have been on strike in New York City for several weeks, have signed the aribtration of agreement of the Building Trades Employer's Association, and taken in as members of the union 139 men who had been employed to fill their places. They will get $5 a day.

After a lookout of over seven months the 600 employes of the plant of the American Corn Products Company, known as the Chicago Glucose Factory, will go back to work under union conditions, with union pay and hours. The strikers were granted 50 cents an hour.

Gus Thomas is suffering from a severe injury which he received while at work in the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant Saturday morning. Thomas had his fingers caught in the gears of a moving planer, crushing them badly. The young lad was taken to Muhlenberg Hospital to have the digets dressed. He will be detained at home for several days.

Giving Away Stamps.

Green trading stamps will be given away at the A. and P. Tea Company's store on West Front street, hereafter. The store has been elaborately refitted throughout and a new stock of goods has been received.

The Misses Kate Woppler and Grace Amerman, of Raritan, have returned home after a pleasant visit with Miss Freda Kaiser, of this city.

Dieting Invites Disease.

To cure dyspepsia or indigestion it is no longer necessary to live on milk and toast. Starvation produces such weakness that the whole system becomes an easy prey to disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that one cares to eat, and is a never failing cure for indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by L. W. Randolph.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

Rev. George L. Lorimer, of New York, one of the most famous preachers of the day in Boston and New York, will be the principal speaker at the Union County Sunday-school convention at Cranford next Thursday. His subject will be "The World's Greatest Teacher."

Rev. George B. Shaw, pastor of the Seventh-Day Baptist Church, has returned from a trip to Rhode Island, much benefitted in health.

The regular weekly prayer meeting of the Whosoever Mission will be held tomorrow evening. An interesting speaker will be present and it is urged that there will be a large attendance. The mission is on Whitewood avenue, opposite Regent street.

The Christian Endeavor Society, of the First Baptist Church, will hold an important meeting tomorrow night, when the question of changing the time of meeting from Sunday night to some other night in the week will be discussed. A social will follow the meeting and a full attendance is desired.

It is expected that Rev. Dr. Pogson, of New Brunswick, will occupy the pulpit at the First Baptist Church next Sunday.

Many Baptists in Plainfield, and in fact throughout the State have learned with deep regret of the recent death of Rev. Dr. R. M. Luther, formerly pastor of a Baptist Church in Newark. He died suddenly of heart trouble, while on a New York ferryboat. It was only a few months ago that Dr. Luther preached at the First Baptist Church, this city. He was considered one of the strongest divines in the Baptist denomination.

The Men's Club, of the Congregational Church, will meet tomorrow night and be entertained by Rev. C. E. Herring, who will give a talk on "Impressions of the West."

The Elizabeth Presbytery will meet at Whitehouse tomorrow, when the call of Rev. John Sheridan Zelie, to the pastorate of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, will be finally promulgated. It is expected that a number of members of the denomination in this city will attend the meeting.

Rally Day services were held yesterday afternoon at the First Baptist Church under the auspices of the Sunday-school. The superintendent, Geo. H. Batchelor, was in charge, and the programme consisted of songs by the main school, primary department, and an excellent address by George A. Chapman, whose words were especially chosen for the boys.

There were nearly four hundred members of the school present, and it was reported that the enrollment had reached that number. There are fifty-two members on the cradle roll. During the past year the school has enjoyed a season of prosperity and is now in a healthy condition in every respect.

Five new members were received by letter at the communion service held at the First Baptist Church, yesterday morning. One was received on confession at a similar service held at Warren Chapel.

Rally day exercises were held yesterday morning at the Junior Epworth League, of the First M. E. Church. The speakers were Robert Fenno, William Symons and Ray Snodgrass. A roll call was a feature of the exercises and it showed that there was a large number present.

Rally Day at Grace M. E. Church was celebrated by a service of song and prayer by the Sunday-school children yesterday. The exercises were in charge of John Valiant, superintendent. Kenneth Robbie, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., addressed the pupils and solos were rendered by Miss Winnifred Carroll. The singing was led by Robert Spear and Dykman Winkler with violins and as an offertory a violin duet was rendered by Mr. Winkler and Mr. Spear.

Mr. and Mrs. Colby's Tournout.

In its account of the tandem parade in Orange Saturday, the New Sunday News says: "Assemblyman and Mrs. Everett Colby, who recently returned from Europe, where they spent their honeymoon, had one of the handsomest turnouts in the parade." It reproduces a large picture of Mr. and Mrs. Colby and their tandem. Mrs. Colby was formerly Miss Edith Hyde, of this city.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Peggy From Paris," George Ade's latest musical hit, invigorating and refreshing, is drawing immense crowds nightly at Wallack's theatre, where it has entered upon its fifth week. One of the most popular numbers in the piece is the "Emmaleen" song, in which the chorus shines to special advantage. "Peggy From Paris" seems to have settled down for a long run at Wallack's.

Miss Mayme Woods, of Raritan, has been the guest of friends in this city.

Jerry Bourke, of Raritan, has been spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. John Reynolds, of this city.

WORKING ON COURT HOUSE

LARGE COLUMNS NOW READY TO BE PLACED IN POSITION.

Building to be Fully Enclosed Before Winter Arrives—Nearly Ready for Roofing.

Work on the new Union County court house building at Elizabeth has been pushed with such vigor since the laying of the cornerstone, July 30, that from present indications, by the end of the present month the massive granite walls will be up to their required height, and the building ready for roofing.

The south wall, facing Rahway avenue, is so near completion that the stone masons began this morning placing in position the massive, handsomely carved Corinthian blocks, which will ornament the upper part of the outerwall on that side.

Work on the front and rear walls is almost as far advanced as that on the south side, while the western wall is up a considerable height above the first floor.

The immense granite columns which will ornament the front of the building at the main entrance have arrived, and the bases on which they will rest are placed in position. The columns as received are in sections.

It is the intention of the contractors to have the building fully enclosed before the winter has so far advanced as to render further outside work impracticable.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The complete returns on the constitutional amendments have not yet been received by the Secretary of State, though returns were received from five more counties Thursday. This makes sixteen of the twenty-one counties which have completed returns.

SUNDAY PAPERS AN EVIL

SO DECLARED REV. DR. SNODGRASS IN SERMON YESTERDAY.

All Local Saloon Keepers Violate the Law He Said—Talk on Present Day Evils.

"The Sunday newspaper is as great an evil as the Sunday dry goods store," said Dr. Snodgrass last night at the First M. E. Church, in attacking and urging his hearers to attack several present day practises. Dr. Snodgrass spoke of the power of talk to put down evil and keep up the good. "Talk is persuasion," he said, "and persuasion is force." He illustrated his theme from instances of the spread of Christianity by "mere talk." The Sunday newspaper and the saloon were among the "evils" that the pastor urged his hearers to "talk down." "There is not a saloon keeper in Plainfield or in the entire country," he said, "that is not a violator of the law."

HORSE'S KICK SERIOUS.

Peter Kestler in a Critical Condition in Muhlenberg Hospital.

Peter Kestler, a farm hand employed by Mr. Snyder at Potter's Crossing on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, was kicked in the forehead by a horse Saturday night, and is now at the hospital in a critical condition. The blow from the horse's hoof fractured a bone and may be followed with fatal results. Dr. T. S. Davis, Mr. Snyder's physician, was summoned, and he had the ambulance removed the man to the hospital, where he is now under treatment. Kestler, who is about fifty years of age and unmarried, had a home in Ohio, but it is said that he has relatives at South River.

Progressive Euchre Party.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC SERVICE CREATED

The Common Council Takes Favorable Action on Mr. Tyler's Resolution.

TELEPHONE SYSTEMS

REPORT MADE BY SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON 'PHONE SERVICE.

New Street to be Opened—City Judge Makes Quarterly Report—Contract for Macadamizing Awarded—Other Business.

In addition to an important move regarding the distressing condition of trolley service, the Common Council at its meeting last night, transacted a considerable amount of routine business. Through the adoption of a resolution offered by Mr. Tyler an important step was taken in regard to certain matters which are brought before the Council from time to time.

His resolution provides that the special committee appointed to investigate and inquire into the various telephone systems with a view to ascertaining whether it would be advisable for the city to have a competitive system, be constituted a special committee to be known as the Committee on Public Service and that its work especially be to consider all matters similar to the seeking of a public franchise and to look after many things which cannot be assigned to any regular committee. Mr. Tyler's idea is to have the committee continued for this work for the rest of the year for the purpose of giving it a test. He says that no harm can result, while it may prove to be such a benefit that it may be considered wise to make the committee a permanent one.

Mr. Tyler stated further that there are certain evils now existing and this committee can consider them in the city's interest and report the same to the Council for future action. The idea was concurred in.

The regular order was suspended while action was taken regarding the matter of macadamizing certain streets in this city. There was only one bid, that of C. M. Meeker and he received the contract for the work. The streets to be macadamized, with the proviso that Darow avenue may be omitted, together with prices on each street and avenue, is as follows:

Woodland avenue, $1.25; East Seventh street, 82 cents; East Third street, 75 cents; Berckman street, 75 cents; Prospect avenue, 75 cents; West Seventh street, 66 cents; West Fifth street, 90 cents; South Second street, 68 cents; Albert street, 65 cents; Dunellen avenue, 73 cents; Rock avenue, 80 cents; Darrow avenue, 90 cents; North avenue, 75 cents.

Another matter of importance was the introduction of an ordinance by Mr. Tolles which provides for the opening of a new avenue, between Dunellen and Compton avenues to the city line at Green brook, the same to be known as Myrtle avenue and to eventually be opened into the avenue in the borough which now bears that name. The ordinance was adopted on first and second readings and ordered advertised. The land to be used for this purpose is now owned by H. C. Compton, Christian C. Spreck, Mary Moore and Caroline R. Moore. The entire width of the avenue including sidewalks is to be sixty-six feet, allowing forty feet for the roadway.

The quarterly report of City Judge Runyon for the third quarter was received and filed. It showed that during the quarter 172 cases were disposed of. Of this number twenty-four were fined, and sentence was suspended on 126. There were fourteen committed to the county jail and complaints were dismissed in eight cases. The sum of $134 was collected in fines and the disbursement amounted to $32.25, leaving a balance of $101.75 to be turned over to the city treasurer.

The Plainfield Electric Light Company reported that three lights, as previously ordered by the Council, have been erected. On the recommendation of Mr. Murphy, chairman of the lights and trees committee, two electric lights were granted, one on Jefferson avenue and the other on Dunellen avenue, in accordance with petitions from Wm. Craig and others. He also recommended that in response to the petition from the Manganese Steel Safe Works asking for fourteen lights to be located between Clinton and Rock avenues, that six lights be allowed. The recommendation was adopted. He also moved that the petition of F. C. Logansbury for a

HIGH SCHOOL PLANS CHOSEN BY BOARD

Boston Firm Submits Successful Design for the $100,000 Structure.

FIFTEEN IN THE CONTEST

ANOTHER FIRM IN THE HUB SECOND IN PRIZE COMPETITION.

New York Architects Capture Third Money Amounting to $300—Current Expenses Can be Obtained From the State.

The contract for designing the new High School at such time as its erection will become possible by the passage of a new school law will be awarded to a Boston firm of architects, Herbert D. Hale and Henry G. Morse, Jr. The plans for the school submitted by this firm were decided to be the best of the fifteen in the contest and the result was announced at a meeting of the City Board of Education last night. These plans were designated by members when they were considered by the committee on architecture and Walter Cook, the consulting architect. The winning number was fifteen and the envelope corresponding was not opened until last night.

Hartwell, Richardson & Driver, also of Boston, submitted the second best plans in the opinion of the examining committee, and Marchand & Haskell, of New York, produced the third best plans. The second and third prizes were $400 and $300.

Other business before the Board was chiefly routine. It was announced that in spite of the declared unconstitutionality of the McKee law, Boards of Education are still qualified to borrow money, engage teachers and do other necessary business. The committee on buildings announced that new doors were needed on the Lincoln building and that the roof of the Irving School needed repairing. The finance committee reported a balance on hand, September 1, of $798.86. An offer of a plot of land on the corner of Randolph road and Park avenue from C. E. Gulick was received from William Jeffrey, agent, and placed on file. The property is given for possible use for a school building whenever one is demanded by the growth in that section of the town.

THE PLAINFIELD MILITIA FIRST

COMPANY K RANKS AS NO. 1, IN SECOND REGIMENT.

Two Expert Marksmen, Two Sharpshooters and Eleven Marksmen.

Company K stands first in the Second Regiment in marksmanship and very near the top in the State. This was unofficially announced at a drill of the company in its West Front street armory last night.

The company contains two expert marksmen, Captain William B. Martin and Private Terbune; two sharpshooters, Sergt. Littell and Corp. Phillips, and eleven marksmen.

The company's new hats, belts and scabbards were given out last night and the new Krag rifles were placed in the racks. It was decided to continue to meet Monday nights for drills. The company will participate in the field day of the Second Regiment at Elizabeth, October 28. Lieut. Lewis was in command of the company last night.

NEW SCHOOL PLANS TIED UP IN BOROUGH

North Plainfield's Trustees Confronted by Conditions Exisiting in Plainfield.

AWAIT BILL'S PASSAGE

SCHOOL BOARD DISCUSSES IDEAS FOR PROPOSED BUILDING.

Matter of Leases Comes Before the Board—Directors Asked to Provide for Entertainment of County's Teachers.

For the purpose of selecting a site for the proposed new school building in North Plainfield a special session of the North Plainfield Board of Education was held last evening. Nothing definite was done because of a letter received from assistant secretary of the State Board of Education, J. C. Betz. He advised the Board that it would be unwise to close any contracts or issue any bonds until the Court of Errors and Appeals gives it decision in the school law case. For that reason no action was taken by the Board at its session last evening.

Superintendent Homer J. Wightman submitted a report of the school attendance arranged according to districts. This will be used in assisting the building committee in selecting a site for the new building which has been proposed. As told exclusively in last Friday's Daily Press, the largest school population in North Plainfield, showing the greatest increase is in that district bounded by Somerset street, Fairview avenue and East Front street. There it is 202, in the section around the Watchung School building a total of 187 was secured, the district known as Prideville showed a total of 121 and in the district in which the present High School building is located shows a total of 156. It is therefore plain that the highest total is in the southeastern district. If the location of the schoolhouse depends on these figures it is safe to say that the new school building will be located somewhere near the present High School building.

Options have been secured on several tracts. The plan most favorably thought of is to erect on the lot on the corner of Somerset street and Park place, a new and more up-to-date High School building with room for a library and Board meeting room and use the new structure for the High School classes and the rooms vacated in the old building for the primary and lower grade children.

It was urged by Mr. Valiant that the matter of erecting a new school building should be discussed with a view to a Greater Plainfield and a further growth of the town. It was suggested that options be secured on property on the western outskirts of the town.

Before adjourning several communications were read. One was from George Kirch, asking that the Board of Education pay $30 a month for the use of the rooms in which one of the outside classes meet, instead of $15 a month as at present. The Board decided that although no lease was held on the room, they could not be dispossessed because the lease of the previous year would be binding for this year as long as one month's rent had been paid. No action was therefore taken.

A communication was also received requesting that the Board of Education provide entertainment for the annual meeting of the Somerset County Teachers' Association, which will meet in the High School building Saturday, October 17. President Joy was appointed a committee of one with power to act.

BOROUGH HEALTH.

The Board Takes Action on Wells in North Plainfield.

The North Plainfield Board of Health condemned six borough wells at the regular monthly meeting last evening. The wells are on Pearl street, Manning avenue and Warren street. Tests show that the contamination is due to surface water sweeping into the receptacles.

Mr. Samuel Titus, who was recently fined $20 for violating a health ordinance, appeared at the meeting and asked to have the amount of the fine reduced. The board refused to take such action.

CITY TO PROSECUTE STREET RAILWAY CO.

Corporation Counsel Receives Explict Instructions From Common Council.

ROBERT LEE'S WORK

ACTION TO BE TAKEN WHEN COMPLAINTS ARE MADE.

Hope Now That Ram-Shackle Cars With Flat Wheels Will be Abandoned—The Resolutions as Adopted by the Council.

The Plainfield Street Railway Company will have to come to time. There must be no more open cars in freezing and wet weather; no more cars with flat wheels; no more antediluvian wrecks of cars foisted upon a long-suffering public. And the reason may be gleaned from these resolutions adopted by the Common Council last night on motion of Robert Lee.

"Whereas certain violations of the city ordinances are persistently continued by the Plainfield Street Railway Company, its successors and assigns in the face of remonstrances on the part of the public, and

"Whereas, it is the opinion of this body that these violations must cease.

"Now, Therefore, be it Resolved, That the Corporation Counsel be and hereby is directed to take proper action under the ordinance of the city and the laws of the State for the prosecution of said corporation in any and all cases of future violations of the said ordinances or laws by said corporation whenever facts sufficient to warrant such action, shall be brought to his notice by any member of the Council, without further resolutions of this Council.

"Further, Resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Corporation Counsel."

NO LAW AGAINST SUNDAY BASEBALL

Justice Gummere So Declared at Union County Court This Morning.

CHARGE TO GRAND JURY

THREE CASES OF DEATH BEFORE THE GRAND JURORS.

Court Opened Today—Justice VanSyckel Absent—Cases to be Tried This Term.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Oct. 6—In the absence of Justice VanSickel, the bench was occupied by Justice W. S. Gummere at the opening of the October term of court this morning. He charged the Grand Jury regarding the death of three persons, one of whom was Joseph Walls, Jr., in this city, last month, and said that if it was proven that the electric light company had not done all in its power to prevent said accident, the company should be indicted for manslaughter.

A long petition from the church people of Elizabeth protesting against Sunday baseball and illegal liquor selling was read. Justice Gummere stated that there is no law to prohibit simple baseball playing on Sunday, only when it becomes a nuisance. He asked the Grand Jury to investigate these matters at once.

Little One's Birthday.

Helen Woodruff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Woodruff, of Duer Street, entertained a number of her little friends at her home yesterday afternoon. The party was held in honor of her seventh birthday. There were eleven children present and games were enjoyed. She received a number of presents.

Dr. Ketcham Seriously Ill.

Rev. Dr. K. P. Ketcham, former pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, is now at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Eugene Hatch, convalescing from a severe illness contracted in Canada. He was accompanied to this city by Miss Rhie Stewart, the trained nurse, who went to Canada to care for him.

Miss Howard Engaged.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Leila Howard, formerly of this city, but now of Brooklyn, to Homer Smith, of this city.

J. B. DUMONT WEDS MRS. J. PARKER MASON

Marriage Ceremony at Bride's Home in Stelle Avenue At Noon.

TWO PASTORS OFFICIATE

REV. DR. WM. R. RICHARDS ASSISTED BY REV. E. V. STEVENSON.

No Attendants—Society People Attend the Ceremony—Bride Given in Marriage by Father—Now on Extended Honeymoon.

Mrs. J. Parker Mason, of Stelle avenue, and John B. Dumont, of East Seventh street, were married today at 12 o'clock noon, at the home of the bride, in the presence of the relatives and near friends of the contracting parties. The affair was simple and quiet. The home was tastefully decorated with flowers and autumnal foliage.

The bride and groom were unattended. The bride was given in marriage by her father, J. Howard Wright, of Lexington avenue, New York. The ceremony in accordance with the ritual of the Episcopal Church, was performed by Rev. Dr. William R. Richards, formerly pastor of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, but now of the Brick Presbyterian Church, New York. Assisting him was Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, rector of Grace Episcopal Church.

Immediately after the ceremony congratulaitons were offered and during the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Dumont left the city. It is understood that their honeymoon will include a trip across the briny deep, and upon their return will take up their residence in Stelle avenue.

An elaborate wedding luncheon was served during the hours of the reception by a New York caterer. The bride was generously remembered with handsome gifts of beauty and use.

Mrs. Dumont has been a resident of Plainfield for many years during which time she has been prominent in the leading social events of the city. She has also been identified with many events of interest in New York society.

Mr. Dumont also has been a resident of this city for a number of years and has always been actively engaged in municipal affairs. He represented the Second ward in the Common Council between eleven and twelve years, serving on all the principal committees as chairman.

Not only in the Council, but in the management of the Public Library, as a director, he has been prominent. At one time he was a member of the vestry of Grace Church. His business is that of a stock broker, with offices in Wall street, New York.

A Fortunate Awakening.

A serious fire was narrowly averted at the home of Mrs. Hattie Denman, who lives just over the line into Watchung, early Sunday morning. An inmate of the house left a candle burning on retiring and was awakened shortly afterwards by the burning of the bedclothes. She was able to extinguish the flames after the bed clothes had been destroyed and a large hole burned in the floor.

W. C. T. U.'s Success.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, Oct. 6. James W. Dwyer proprietor of the North avenue hotel, of this place was refused a license by the Common Council last evening. The W. C. T. U. and ministers of the gospel were present and submitted testimony showing that Dwyer had been fined $21 recently for selling liquor on Sunday.

Westfield Case in Court.

The case of Evelyn Simonson, by Isabelle Simonson, her next friend, against the Central Railroad of New Jersey and the Philadelphia and Reading will be heard in the Supreme Court at Elizabeth, tomorrow. Miss Simonson is seeking to recover for injuries received in the Westfield wreck.

Swackhamer to Talk.

Assemblyman Samuel S. Swackhamer will deliver a speech this afternoon at the Middlesex County Democratic convention in New Brunswick. At the convention one senator and three assemblymen will be named.

Just Punishment.

Walter Butts, colored, was sentenced to $60 fine and twenty days in Somerville jail last night by Recorder Dond, for indecent action. He was taken to jail this morning by Chief Campbell.

TRINITY Y. P. S. C. E. HAS PROSPEROUS YEAR

Met Last Night to Transact Business on Eighteenth Anniversary.

OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

CONGRATULATORY ADDRESS BY REV. DR. CORNELIUS SCHENCK.

Treasurer's Report in Detail—Social Tonight—Rooms Last Night Were Decorated With Autum Leaves—Reports of Other Officers.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of Trinity Reformed Church met in the church last evening for the transaction of annual business. It was the eighteenth anniversary of the founding of the organization. The present officers were re-elected: President, Miss Mabel Wilson; vice president, C. M. Dolliver; second vice president, Francis Bach; recording secretary, Miss Harriet Randall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. S. Potter; treasurer, Miss Abbie VanCleef. The president, Miss Wilson, was in the chair. The reports of the standing committees and the yearly reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and revealed the fact that the society was in a prosperous and influential position. Music was given by the church chorus choir. Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck delivered a short address congratulating the members upon the success of their work. A social will be given by the society tonight in charge of Miss H. M. Kreitling, chairman of the social committee. The lecture rooms were beautifully decorated with autumn leaves.

The report of the treasurer, Miss VanCleef, showed that, in the general fund, the receipts for the year ending September 30, amounted to $90.82, and the disbursements to $69, leaving a balance on hand of $21.28. In the report of the missionary fund, the total receipts were $88.93 and the disbursements $67.04, the balance being $21.89. Of the missionary fund, $30.94 was expended for home missions and the same amount for foreign missions. The total amount raised during the year was $47.14 for the general fund and $61.82 for the missionary fund, making a total of $108.96.

The report of the recording secretary, Miss Harriet C. Randall, showed a membership of 102. During the year fifty-one meetings were held with a total attendance of 2266 and an average of 45. The largest number present at any meeting was 109 and the largest number of active members at any Consecration meeting was 51. Three members were present at all the meetings of the year.

That Dead Dog Again.

Health Officer Leon Thurlow denies his responsibility for neglecting to remove the carcass of a dog which lay in North avenue for twenty-four hours. He says that the first intimation he had was received from The Daily Press at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and he immediately took steps to have the object removed, and it was subsequently carted away. The police officer on the beat notified headquarters. Why wasn't a report sent from that office to the Board of Health bureau?

Mr. Fisk at Board's Session.

The October meeting of the Board of Governor of Muhlenberg Hospital was held last night at the Public Library, but nothing outside of routine business was considered. The members were much pleased to have their president, Charles J. Fisk, with them again. Mr. Fisk has not been able to meet with the board for a long time and he was given a cordial greeting last night. His health is very much improved.

Too Much Mother-in-Law.

Too much mother-in-law brought three colored popole before the city judge this morning. Linda Jackson, the mother-in-law in the question, thought her son-in-law was talking behind her back and vented her wrath by throwing the furniture out of the second story window. She was given $10 or twenty days. James and Annie Bolden, the other parties in the case, were dismissed.

Mr. Burke Injured.

Thomas Burke, a contractor, was thrown from a trolley car at the corner of West Front street and Grant avenue last evening at 6 o'clock and was cut and bruised about the face and body and was rendered in a semi-conscious condition.

TIE VOTE DEFEATS A CONSOLIDATION

Strenuous Effort Made to Unite City and Borough Public Schools.

NORTH PLAINFIELD IDEA

JOHN VALIANT AND JAMES R. JOY FIGHT FOR RESOLUTION.

A. V. D. Honeyman and Dr. J. H. Cooley Oppose Scheme—Purpose is to Accommodate Overflow Pupils.

A plan to join the educational systems of Plainfield and North Plainfield is the latest phase of the much discussed annexation scheme. This plan was broached last evening at the meeting of the North Plainfield Board of Education and resulted in the defeating of a resolution offered by President James R. Joy and created a stormy discussion which lasted almost an hour. The plan suggested was to ask the Board of Education of this side of the brook for a proposition to receive the overflow pupils of North Plainfield in the new High School building when that has been completed.

The resolution:

"Your preparations to enlarge the facilities for High School instruction in Plainfield prompt us to address you in a matter of common concern.

"The policy of duplicating accommodations, efforts and expense by maintaining a separate High School organization in North Plainfield has frequently been questioned, but up to the present time no other course has been open to us. We would now, however, respectfully invite you to make a proposition offering a practicable basis for a union of the two High Schools. Inasmuch as such an arrangement, if consummated, would relieve our pressing needs for a new primary building, we would value an early reply."

The session was a special one called for the purpose of discussing the question of whether or not to erect a new schoolhouse to accommodate the increasing demands being made on the present facilities.

The discussion, which lasted an hour, was started when A. V. D. Honeyman, after looking at the resolution, declared that he would not vote for such a measure. He declared that one reason why he was against the proposed measure was on account of the distance which would have to be covered by the children going to and from school. Educational facilities at the door is what is needed in North Plainfield and he declared that it would be an outrage against the public if pupils were sent to this city to school. John Valiant, in defense of the resolution, said that he would vote for the measure on the ground that the school facilities would be better if an amalgamation was effected and to back up his argument cited cases which he knows of in Baltimore where the same conditions, practically, prevail. In reply to Mr. Honeyman's remark that it would be necessary to have a special legislative act passed to make such an arrangement permissable, Mr. Valiant said that such a thing would not be necessary.

Murray Burtis asserted that he would oppose the resolution on the ground that he did not favor dependence on the neighbors. The discussion waxed warm and fully an hour was taken up before the matter was put to a vote.

President James R. Joy said in defense of his resolution that the object of sending such a communication to the Plainfield Board of Education was to avoid any criticism which might fall upon the Board when the public was asked to vote an appropriation for a new school building. He said that he was anxious to avoid spending such a large amount of money if there was any possible way of avoiding it even for a couple of years.

Dr. Justus J. Cooley threw some light on the matter when he said that if the communication was sent it would relieve the present need only temporarily because at the end of two years the same condition confronting the Board today would exist. He advised putting up a building in North Plainfield and keeping the children at home. He remarked that if the one hundred extra children could be accommodated in Plainfield today the vacant room which would result in the schoolrooms in the North Plainfield school buildings could be immediately filled. The borough is

WHAT PEOPLE ARE DOING

SOME BRIEF PARAGRAPHS OF A PERSONAL NATURE.

Many Folk of Greater Plainfield Are Entertaining or Being Entertained.

Mrs. Matilda Higgins and daughter, Mrs. Williamson, of South Branch, have returned home after a visit with Plainfield friends.

C. E. Boss, formerly principal of the North Plainfield Public Schools, was in town yesterday, the guest of friends.

Miss Mamie Havener, of Basking Ridge, is the guest in town for a few days.

Mrs. Albertus Swalm, of West Front street, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Dr. W. F. Swalm, of Brooklyn.

Miss Jennie Masterson, of New Brunswick, is visiting friends in this city for a few days.

Miss Smith and Mrs. James D. Harned, of Jersey City, are visiting the Misses Saunderson, of Fairview avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mercer, of Riverside, New York, are the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Manning, of East Front street.

Miss Susan Daniels, of East Orange, who has been the guest of relatives in this city for the past week, has returned home.

Mrs. George Voehl, of West Front street, is quite ill at her home.

Mrs. William Perrine, of New York, has returned home after a visit of several weeks with Plainfield relatives.

Edward Vail, of the fire department, who has been very ill at his home in Elmwood place, was able to be out for the first on Saturday. He is steadily convalescing, although it will be some time before he can return to duty.

Mrs. George Cooke, of Lambertville, spent Sunday with her brother, Stephen W. VanHorn, Summit avenue.

A WAY OPEN.

Many a Plainfield Reader Knows it Well.

There is a way open to convince the greatest skeptic. Scores of Plainfield people have made it possible. The public statement of their experience is proof the like of which has never been produced before in Plainfield. Read this case of it given by a citizen:

Mrs. W. W. Mills, of No. 86 Summit avenue, says: "I suffered at times with a severe pain across the small of my back and in my hips. If I did any lifting or stooping my back became lame and sore and though I used plasters they only helped me for the time being. I was feeling very badly when I had my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills. They were so highly recommended for troubles like mine that I got a box at L. W. Randolph's drug store. I felt their good effects in a few days. When I had finished the treatment my back was better and stronger and I had much more energy to attend household duties."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

AMUSEMENTS.

David Warfield is at his best in "The Auctioneer," which is running at the Montauk. He is always a drawing card and this is one reason why the popular playhouse is enjoying great patronage at present.

"Pretty Peggy," with Grace George as the chief attraction, was splendidly received at the Madison Square Theatre last night. It is one of the best things to be seen this fall and is bound to prove a big success.

At the Harlem Opera House, Marie Cahill made her appearance last night before a "standing room only" audience. "Nancy Brown" is the piece in which are interpersed eleven new whistleable songs. It is a top notcher among the list of attractions.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCE FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

There is no place in the city like W. W. Dunn's Park grocery store to trade at. Groceries the finest and prices reasonable. Trade there and be content.

Smalley Brothers, North avenue, butchers, are enjoying the reputation of being the leading meat dealers because their prices and their stock are right. Everything the best.

James R. Blair, haberdasher, of Park avenue, has a stock equal to any New York store. His prices are just as low, too. He is the agent here for the Hawes, famous $3 hat.

Do your curtains get out of order? If they do telephone to Shirley & Johnson, West Front street, they can fix them for you at small cost. If you ever need a trunk, satchel or dress suit case, talk to Shirley & Johnson. They are the leading carpet dealers in this city.

The Miller oil heaters all sizes and kinds are specialties at J. W. Gavett's novelty store on West Front street. Gas logs and Barker's heaters will also be found worth inquiring about. You are always sure of getting your money's worth at Gavett's.

W. W. Warnock, West Front street, does a larger business than any other baker in town because his goods are the best.

The melancholy days are come, also the days of the pigskin chaser. When you want footballs or football suits or any other necessities for playing the popular game, go to Harry Dreier's sporting goods store on West Front street.

All kinds of express and trucking business promptly attended to by H. J. Wierenga, the popular North avenue expressman.

The Boston Cloak and Fur Store on West Front street, is the centre of attraction for the women these days. A handsome line of suitings, cloaks, shirt waists and separate skirts in the latest style and finish is being shown. In comparing prices you will find that you can do just as well at this store as in New York.

In selecting a place to purchase drugs, toilet articles or medicines of any kind you will make no mistake in going to L. W. Randolph's drug store in West Front street. His prescription work is the best, being prompt, accurate and reasonable.

A. M. Harper, of Park avenue, is showing an attractive line of the latest stationery in all the popular shades and best quality. This is the doll's hospital and for anything in the toy line you will find this store to be headquarters.

Putnam & DeGraw, the West Front street dry goods merchants, are prepared for the fall and winter trade. You will find the firm's stock of goods just the thing you want and at right prices.

LITERARY.

Scribner's Magazine for October contains a remarkable narrative written by a brilliant woman. It is a graphic account by Mrs. John Quincy Adams, wife of the President, of her perilous journey by coach from St. Petersburg to Paris. In February, 1815, she stared alone with her six-year-old son (the afterward-distinguished Charles Francis Adams,) to join her husband (then a member of the Peace Commission) in Paris. Her journey was along the trail of Napoleon's army, and glimpses of the recent battle-fields appear in the journal. On the borders of Germany rumors of the return of Napoleon from Elba were heard, and it was only by subterfuge that Mrs. Adams reached Paris in safety. Brooks Adams, her grandson, writes a brief introduction to this vivid, human document.

SPORTING WORLD.

Fiddler, Winner of Morris Park Race, Is a Speed Marvel.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—The Fiddler, who won the big race at Morris park and who was supposed to have been a "ringer," was paraded in the paddock after the race, when many well known horsemen were satisfied that he was The Fiddler and not MacNamara, as had been reported. The horse is a "speed marvel" from Arkansas.

Lost $20,000 on Dick Bernard.

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—Dick Bernard was defeated in the second race at Worth by Allista. Arnold K. was third, a head in front of Auditor. With Don Domo scratched, the race looked like a gift to Dick Bernard, and Owner T. T. Smathers is said to have wagered as much as the bookmakers would take, his total losses being estimated at $20,000. Golden Rule won the Flyaway handicap. St. Tammany was second and Judge Himes, an added starter, third.

Old Stone Won by Three Lengths.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 6.—Old Stone, equal favorite with Major Pelham in the betting, won the William J. Lemp Brewing company stakes for two-year-olds and the feature of the card at the fair grounds. Major Pelham was well played to win the event, but Old Stone came on when ready and won galloping by three lengths. Don O'High was third. Captain Gaston, heavily played to win the third race, was beaten by Dolly Gray, the favorite, by a nose.

Highland Park Upsets.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 6.—The races at Highland park furnished plenty of upsets for the talent, as all favorites except Showman were beaten. Wild Het beat Onannetta and Jane Oaker in the six and a half furlong event. San Marias and Hindilene fell in the first race. Jockey A. Hall, who had the mount on the latter, sustained a broken collar bone.

Close Game at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—The American league team won their second game of the series, a ten inning contest, by pounding Wicker for fourteen hits and playing a perfect game in the field. The Nationals were unable to do much with Altrock's left handed curves with men on bases. Score—Nationals, 3; Americans, 4.

Myopia Polo Team Won.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 6.—The Myopia polo team defeated Point Judith on the Rumford grounds by a score of 8 to 4½ in the semifinals for the Rumford cups.

American League Won.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 6.—The interleague game at Philadelphia resulted in a defeat for the Nationals by a score of 6 to 1.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 6.—The Brooklyn Nationals were defeated by the home team here by a score of 6 to 3.

TRIAL OF HAYWOOD.

Schmitz Testified to Seeing Haywood Shoot.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 6.—The defense, in the trial of Ernest Haywood for the murder of Ludlow Skinner began the examination of their witnesses. Willis Briggs, a Raleigh newspaper reporter, saw only the second shot when Skinner was in the street. R. N. Simms, a lawyer of Raleigh, testified that he was close to the men and saw Haywood and Skinner in conversation at the end of the post office on the day of the tragedy. Skinner struck Haywood and sprang back about eight feet and left the sidewalk, with his back to Haywood, at the time of the first shot. He did not see Skinner at the second shot, as he had passed behind a wagon.

Bernard Schmitz, lawyer, of Baltimore, testified that he saw Skinner grasp Haywood by the coat and then strike him. Skinner then sprang back, and at this time Haywood shot while Skinner was using his hands as if trying to draw a pistol and had started to advance again.

Austrians Serenade Roosevelt.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—A serenade was tendered the president and his family at the White House by the Imperial Boy Hussars' Band of Austria, who are members of the Lew Dockstader Minstrel company. Miss Alice Roosevelt, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George Howard, Captain Harry Leonard, Major McCauley and Miss Hunt, witnessed the minstrel performance at the New National theater. Today the boys' band will serenade the Austria-Hungary minister.

Tillman Juror Better.

LEXINGTON, S. C., Oct. 6.—Milton Sharpe, the juror in the case of J. H. Tillman, who was taken sick, is better, and it is said that if he continues to improve through the night he will be able to be in court today.

PAYNE IS SATISFIED

Conclusion of Postal Investigation Implicates Many.

TYNER AND BARRETT ARE INDICTED

Trials of A. F. Machen and Daniel Miller Will Be the Next Steps. Bristow's Report Will Be Out In Ten Days.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Fifteen new indictments were brought in by the grand jury for the District of Columbia as the final result of the investigation in the post office department.

The new indictments involve James N. Tyner, the late assistant attorney general for the post office department, and his assistant, Harrison J. Barrett; James T. Metcalf, superintendent of the money order system of the post office department; Norman Metcalf, son of James T.; Harry C. Hallenbeck, president and general manager of the Wynkoop, Hallenbeck & Crawford company of New York, the firm which for several years supplied the department with its money order blanks, and William D. Doremus, who is connected with a house which has been supplying a stamp canceling machine to the department.

Postmaster General Payne expressed great satisfaction at the conclusion of the post office department investigation. He said that he expected to have the report of Mr. Bristow in his hands within ten days and that it undoubtedly would shortly thereafter be given to the press. The next steps now, he said, were the trial of August F. Machen, former head of the free delivery service, which is to be in this city, and the trial of Daniel Miller, formerly law clerk in the post office department, and Attorney Johns, who was indicted with Miller, that trial taking place in Cincinnati.

The case of George A. Christiancy, who was acting assistant attorney general during Mr. Tyner's prolonged absence and who was given an indefinite leave of absence as the result of permitting Mrs. Tyner to remove papers from the safe in his office, will be disposed of soon. His resignation has been in the hands of the postmaster general for months, but action was deferred until the conclusion of the investigation. Mr. Payne will call upon Assistant Attorney General Robb for a report on that case, and it will be decided then whether Mr. Christiancy's resignation will be accepted.

Mr. Payne said that all the evidence secured in the investigation had been placed before the grand jury and passed upon and approximately thirty different persons indicted as the result of the probing that has been in progress since last spring.

Mr. Tyner has been connected with the postal service in many important capacities for years. He is from Indiana. He was postmaster general from July 12, 1876, to March 12, 1877, and subsequently he held the offices of first assistant postmaster general and assistant attorney general, from which latter office he was dismissed by Postmaster General Payne last pring following Mrs. Tyner's abstraction of papers from the department safe.

Mr. Barrett is a nephew of Mr. Tyner and was appointed from North Carolina.

The Hague Tribunal.

THE HAGUE, Oct. 6. — Mr. MacVeagh before the tribunal recalled that Great Britain accepted arbitration in the Alabama case during the American civil war, which was analogous to the present case, when a British vessel assisted the Venezuelan insurgents, and the Venezuelan government entered a protest. Instead of arranging this matter Great Britain and her allies sent a twenty-four hour ultimatum to Venezuela, demanding the immediate payment of $380,000. Counsel claimed that the blockading powers were not entitled to preference, because they raised the blockade without imposing other conditions and accepted the Venezuelan proposition that all other claims should be paid on equal terms. To recognize her claim for preference now, Mr. MacVeagh said, would be to encourage extortion.

Chinaman Smuggler Arrested.

OGDENSBURG, N. Y., Oct. 6.—Government officers at Waddington arrested John Pruner of Morrisburg, Ont., the alleged leader of a band engaged in smuggling Chinese into this country from Canada. Roy Hatch, a farmer of Waddington, was also arrested while driving two Chinese who had been turned over to him by Pruner to Norwood to put them aboard a train for New York. He will be held as a witness against Pruner. It is believed many Chinese have been brought across the border by this route.

Like Real War.

CAMP YOUNG, West Point, Ky., Oct. 6.—After bivouacking in the woods nearly 7,000 troops awoke to a day of strenuous work at the game of war. The forces were astir early, and as the morning advanced the intermittent cracking of rifles as skirmishers from the opposing forces felt out the positions of "the enemy" was drowned in the roar of general firing by the main bodies and the heavy discharge of cannon.

Senator Graham Claytor Dead.

ROANOKE, Va., Oct. 6.—Hon. Graham Claytor, state senator from Bedford county and a brother of M. H. Claytor, proprietor of the Roanoke Times, died suddenly of heart failure at his home in Bedford City, aged fifty years. He was a prominent lawyer.

ARMED WITH PISTOL

Peter Olsen Elliott Desperately Tries to See President.

PHYSICIANS ADJUDGE HIM INSANE

Guards at the White House Were Alert and Kept the Maniac From Doing Injury—He Was Locked Up.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—A desperate hand to hand encounter with an armed insane man who was determined to see President Roosevelt occurred in the vestibule of the White House.

The man, who gave his name as Peter Elliott and his home as Minneapolis, Minn., was overpowered by the officers on duty at the White House entrance and carried to a police van which had been summoned. He was placed in the van in the custody of two officers. Seeming to realize then for the first time that he was under arrest, Elliott began a furious struggle with his captors.

He drew a revolver from the right side pocket of his trousers and attempted to shoot Officer James Cissell. The officer grabbed his hand and wrenched the weapon from his grasp. Elliott's struggles were so fierce, however, that the two officers in the cramped quarters of the van were unable to overcome him. Officer Cissell then drew his revolver and fired two shots to attract attention.

Chief Usher Thomas Stone and Officer Parker of the house force, who had assisted in carrying Elliott to the van, attracted by the shots, rushed back to the vehicle and assisted in overpowering him.

The police surgeons after a careful examination of Elliott have certified that he is insane. An order was issued immediately for his removal to the St. Elizabeth Hospital For the Insane.

Elliott declared he went to the White House because the president asked him to come and see him. He said he carried a pistol to protect himself and did not intend to do any harm to the president.

Elliott gave his occupation as that of a machinist. He said he had lived in this country for eleven years, most of the time in Minneapolis, Minn. He said he came to Washington from Paterson, N. J.

WHITE HOUSE CRANK.

Peter Olsen Elliott, Well Known In Minneapolis.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 6.—Peter Olsen Elliott, also known as Peter Olsen, who was taken into custody at the White House, is a well known South Minneapolis character. Two weeks ago he told friends that he was "going to Washington to occupy the White House." They thought he was joking. He disappeared, and nothing was heard of him until it was made known that he had attempted to see the president.

Elliott is of Danish birth and speaks the Swedish language. His name was formerly Olson, which he changed about a year ago for personal reasons. He is a strong socialist, an anarchistic talker and was a well known sight on street corners.

Yellow Jack Not Fatal.

LAREDO, Tex., Oct. 6.—An official bulletin shows there have been twenty-two new cases of yellow fever, with no deaths. This makes the total number of cases to date eighty-three, while the total deaths have been five. While a very large increase of yellow fever cases has developed, both Drs. Guiteras and Tabor concur in the opinion that there is no cause for alarm. No new cases or any deaths have been reported from Minera, a mining town twenty-eight miles up the river, and it is thought the disease will not gain a foothold there.

Storm Destroyed Washington.

CHATFIELD, Minn., Oct. 6.—Latest returns indicate that the damage by the storm was greater than first reported. The little village of Washington was completely destroyed. In the township of Summer the home and buildings of John Harwood were destroyed, also the large barns and warehouse of Seibert Leonard. The old Summer church was completely demolished. In Elmira township the storm covered a strip eighty rods wide and did much damage, besides injuring several persons.

Lightning Killed Moore.

GROVE CITY, Pa., Oct. 6.—John Moore was killed and two others perhaps fatally injured at Eakins Corners by a bolt of lightning. The three men were returning home when a storm came up and they took shelter under a large tree. Neither of the two survivors has recovered consciousness, and it feared that they cannot recover.

Archbishop Kain's Condition.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 6.—According to statements made by the physicians in attendance upon Archbishop Kain of St. Louis, who is a patient at St. Agnes' sanitarium, this city, his condition remains unchanged. The patient took and retained liquid nourishment during the day.

Charged with Shortage of $35,000.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 6.—Edward J. Smith, charged with a shortage of $35,000 as an employee of the Merchants' bank of Newark, failed to appear in the United States district court to plead. He has been missing since Saturday.

The President Cannot Lost.

MAASLIUS, Holland, Oct. 6.—The French lugger President Carnot has been wrecked off the West of Holland. Thirteen persons were drowned.

WILL RUSSIA GO OUT?

Japanese Government Will Be Patient, but Firm.

POPULAR CLAMOR MAY FORCE WAR

British Government Does Not Fear Strife In the Far East Over the Evacuation of Manchuria.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—No apprehension exists in the mind of the British government or the diplomatists in London that the far eastern situation will bring forth any immediate serious developments. This feeling of temporary security on the eve of the date that Russia should, but admittedly will not, evacuate Manchuria is due to assurances on the part of Japan that so long as the negotiations now proceeding between herself and Russia present a reasonable prospect that a settlement will be reached Japan will take no action hostile to Russia in the matter of Manchuria.

It is further learned that these negotiations looking to a final settlement of the Russo-Japanese spheres of influence in the far east and especially dealing with the situation in Korea are progressing satisfactorily at Tokyo. No treaty, however, has yet been signed, and it is unlikely that the negotiations will be concluded by Oct. 8, the date on which Russia was to evacuate Manchuria.

Russia's failure to evacuate Manchuria on that day, however, will not precipitate a diplomatic crisis, as Japan rather than break off the negotiations covering broadly all the issues between herself and Russia is willing to strain a point regarding Manchuria in the hope of arriving at a satisfactory settlement. In all of this the British government acquiesces. Such elements of immediate danger as the far eastern situation presents appear to be confined solely to the popular agitation in Japan against Russia after Oct. 8.

This, however, is being taken into consideration by the Japanese government, whose diplomats have warned Russia that, while the Japanese government will not allow its hand to be forced to the extent of entering into hostilities over the Manchurian evacuation question, it cannot indefinitely prolong the present negotiations at Tokyo in face of the expected popular clamor.

From the Japanese embassy in London the following statement of the prevailing conditions has been made:

"We are forced to believe that it is physically impossible for Russia to fulfill her promise to evacuate Manchuria by Oct. 8, but we do not anticipate a crisis on that account. It would be a case of making the lesser include the greater were we to break off the negotiations now in progress at Tokyo because of Russia's failure to keep her promise on the exact date. So far as is known here no naval or military preparations have been undertaken by Japan to meet any expected emergency. Obviously we have made no representations to Russia regarding the evacuation of Manchuria because these would be distinctly out of order until Russia has actually broken her promise. We have hopes that a final settlement may be reached between Russia and ourselves that will settle once for all our outstanding disputes."

The Russo-Japanese negotiations have been transferred to Tokyo, and Baron von Rosen, the Russian minister, has received plenary powers in behalf of his government.

Banquet to London Artillery.

BOSTON, Oct. 6.—In a spacious hall bowered in green, illumined by myriads of electric lights and with a golden crown shining over all were banqueted eight score members of the Honorable Artillery Company of London by their hosts, the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston. Sumptuous in every detail and with nearly a dozen of Massachusetts' representative men as after dinner speakers, the entire affair proved a magnificent climax to the stay of the Londoners in this city.

Will Represent King Edward.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Acting Secretary of State Adee has been advised that Arthur S. Raikes, the British charge d'affaires, has received the command of King Edward to represent his majesty personally at the service to be held today in memory of Sir Michael H. Herbert, the late British ambassador to this country. Major Maude, military secretary to the governor general of Canada, will be present as the representative of Lord Minto.

Death of General Johnson.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 6.—General Bradley T. Johnson is dead at the home of his son, Bradley S. Johnson, at Rock Castle, in Goochland county, Va., of Bright's disease. The body will be conveyed to Baltimore for burial beside the grave of his wife. A Confederate veteran escort of honor will accompany the remains to the place of burial.

WESLEYAN PROFESSOR ON LONDON IN 1780

Mr. Winchester Dwells on Master Minds Before Monday Afternoon Club.

GREAT MEN DESCRIBED

AN ENTERTAINING AND INSTRUCTIVE DISSERTATION.

He Describes Boswell's Johnson, Sheridan, Goldsmith, Burke, Garrick, Gibbon, Reynolds and the Reigning Monarch.

London in 1780 was the subject of an interesting address before the Monday Afternoon Club yesterday afternoon at the Casino by Professor C. T. Winchester, of Wesleyan. It was the first in the series of addresses to be given before the society this year and the members of the club and their guests occupied every available chair in the hall.

Professor Winchester discussed entertainingly the London of 1780, so prolific in great men of affairs; in men distinguished in letters, paintings and the other arts. George III, the reigning monarch, he considered from an unaccustomed view-point, describing his life in his home and with his family as in every sense worthy of admiration. He discoursed instructively about the men who made the time notable and who gathered in London, many of them in intimate association. He described Dr. Samuel Johnson who dominated the world of letters, uncouth in manners, gentle of heart; Richard Brinsley Sheridan, fascinating, brilliant, master of whatever he undertook, too versatile for his own lasting good; Oliver Goldsmith, lover of nature and her ardent spokesman, honest delineator of the truth in poem and drama and story.

He pictured Sir Joshua Reynolds, painter of portraits, genial gentleman, universally beloved; David Garrick, greatest Shakespearian actor of his age if not of the ages, of happy and lovable disposition; Edmund Burke, master of speech, one of the four great orators of all time; Edward Gibbon, one of the few great historians, author of the colossal work, "The Decline and Fall" written in language strong and sonorous if sometimes inflated. Upon all of these and others the speaker shed a truly illuminating light completely charming his hearers with his straight and beauty of description.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION DATE.

Minority Party to Hold City Convention on Monday, Oct. 19.

The Democratic City Committee discussed the present political situation last night at a meeting in the Democratic headquarters on East Second street. The date of the city convention was sent for October 19, the Monday following the county convention of October 15. A committee to choose candidates for nomination in the city convention was selected.

light on the northwest corner of Plainfield avenue and Second street be granted, which was done. Since April 1 last and up to, and not including last night, seven lights were granted and the Council is allowed thirty for the year. This information was given by Mr. Murphy at the request of Mr. Daniel.

Building Inspector T. O. Doane reported that during the past month twenty-eight permits were granted. Mr. Daniel reported back the communication from Assessor H. C. Runyon asking that the assessment on the property at 608 West Fourth street for the years 1901-02 be cancelled, and he offered a resolution, which was adopted, recommending that this be done. The assessment was in error.

Mr. Daniel offered a resolution which provides that $2,500 received from the Martin Act collections be added to the regular street appropriation of $24,000 for the coming year. By way of explanation he stated that the cost of street sprinkling was partially responsible for the increase asked for.

Mr. Tolles offered a resolution, which was adopted, which provides for the laying of sidewalks where property-owners have failed to comply with the ordinance, the cost of which is to be charged up to the property. Another resolution by the same member called for the laying of a sidewalk on Arlington avenue in front of the City Park. This resolution was adopted.

On Mr. Lee's motion the amendment to the ordinance to regulate the fire department was adopted on final passage. This amendment changes the title of foreman in the department to "captains."

Mr. Tyler reported for the special committee which has been investigating the various telephone systems with a view to ascertaining whether it would be advisable to allow a competing company to come to Plainfield. He said that the committee had experienced considerable trouble in getting facts from the telephone company which asks for a franchise in this city. This he considered very essential, for unless the company was willing to give the desired information it could not hope to get a franchise. Mr. Tyler said that in spite of the fact that he had written to the attorney for the new company he had not yet received any answer.

Mr. Tyler hoped to be able to report at a future meeting the result of the committee's investigation. He seemed somewhat puzzled over the lack of interest manifest in the new company about giving information concerning its operations.

In conclusion, Mr. Buckle complimented Mr. Tyler for the excellent work accomplished by him in getting certain facts regarding various telephone systems and stated that he had spent a great deal of time in this investigation. There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Attention is called to the advertisement of the first entertainment in the Y. M. C. A. Star Course.

—City Judge Runyon this morning suspended sentence on Samuel Michler, arrested for being helplessly drunk last night.

—Tomorrow Neuman Brothers will have on hand fifty baskets of fine quinces. These will be sold at special prices by the basket. They are of the best variety and the price is right.

—Louis D. Brown, of Prescott place, who fell from a tree last week, fracturing a leg, continues to improve at the hospital, where he is under treatment. It is believed that on account of his age the bones will knit rapidly.

—C. M. Burt, the genial passenger agent of the New Jersey Central, who is now a resident of North Plainfield, has changed his appearance to such an extent that his most intimate friends have hesitated about speaking to him. It was only the removal of his moustache, but it effected a wonderful change.

PERSONAL.

E. C. Searing, foreman of The Daily Press composing rooms, is detained at home by illness.

Mrs. E. F. Ege has returned from Europe, where she spent a pleasant summer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Selters have returned to Plainfield and taken up their residence at the Park Avenue Hotel, after a pleasant summer at Amityville, L. I., and Lake Mohonk.

We carry a most complete line of shades in Shetland Floss, Shetland Wool, Pansy, Germantown and Saxony. Also Midnight Zephyr in both 4 fold and 8 fold. Shades can always be duplicated. We have the Lion Brand book of instructions, containing a vast amount of useful information about crocheting and knitting.

About Kid Gloves. Nothing adds to a woman's consciousness of being well dressed so much as fine, perfect fitting Kid Gloves. Good Kid Gloves are always most satisfactory and quite as cheap in the end than the less expensive grades, which are necessarily lacking somewhere. The "Fowne's," "Centemeri" and P. & L. make a worthy trio in the Kid Glove world. Fowne's mannish Gloves, with open seams, are ideal for street wear, and possess style and durability in a marked degree. "Fowne's Eugenie" dress kids, made of real kid, will meet every requirement of the Kid Glove trade.

"Centemeri" Kids are too well known to need elaborate comment. A well earned reputation for reliability creates a steady demand for them which we are prepared to meet.

P. & L. Kid Gloves are known all over the world as the best $1.00 Glove made. Our experience with them bears out their reputation and we recommend them most heartily to those who will pay out $1.00 for Kids. The fall importation now ready.

Special Attention is called to our Lace Curtain showing which greatly excels that of all former seasons. Ruffled Suisse Curtains 50c to $3.00 pair. Net Curtains 98c to $9.00 pair. About 15 odd Curtains at half price.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN.

The Borough Council held its regular monthly meeting in the town hall last evening. The sidewalk committee reported that considerable progress had been made since the last meeting and that they had instructed Contractor Farrior to lay the walks on Prospect avenue. The committee which had been appointed to secure the tower for the new fire bell reported that same was expected to arrive this week. Mayor Whykoff stated that the old lease of the ground adjoining the town all would hold good but that the railroad company did not care to sell the land at present. It was unanimously decided that the Council would discourage the granting of any more licenses for the bottling or selling of intoxicating liquors in the borough. The meeting then adjourned.

Engine 805, while backing down with some coaches Sunday night, jumped the track at the Washington avenue crossing. It took two hours to get the engine back in place, but this was accomplished without the aid of the wreck train.

The Literary Circle met last evening and discussed the writings of the "Puritan Age" of the English language. Several papers were read.

October devotions were held in St. John's Church last evening.

The question of how to remedy the crowded condition of our two schools is indeed a serious one and worthy of consideration. The Board has proposed making up two more classes and hire another teacher. An opportunity will be given the voters to vote for or against this arrangement on Thursday evening.

John McMahon was in New York on business yesterday.

W. K. Smith has returned home after spending a week visiting friends in Trenton and Phialdelphia.

Mrs. John Moynihan is visiting relatives in Newark this week.

The Board of Education will meet this evening.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Mrs. David Bigly is visiting with her friend, Mrs. Harry Tappen, of Plainfield.

Monroe Pyatt is now employed by Oscar Thorne.

M. W. Payne is laying the stone wall foundation of the horse sheds at the Baptist Church.

The Democratic County convention will meet at New Brunswick today.

Alexander Manning examined the work on the Maple avenue macadam road yesterday with a view to a final settlement with the contractor, five per cent. of the contract price having been retained on account of the work having been considered unsatisfactory.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Mundy, of Camden, are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Mundy.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

John Gillotti, of Forest avenue, lost a valuable horse last week from lockjaw, which was brought on by an old injury the animal sustained some time ago.

John Frazee has returned from a visit with Newark friends.

Miss Nancy Wade, of Springfield, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Wade.

Scotch Plains' fans believe Lefty Davis has pitched all other twirlers to a standstill through this section this season. He has pitched eighteen of the twenty-two games played and has only lost four games. Manager Johnston will do well if he can hold Lefty for next season.

Conley, the popular left fielder for the local ball team, is to be married next week to one of Brooklyn's fair daughters. From the way he hit the ball in Saturday's game with Alis, one would hardly think he had a trouble in the world.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. L. Hand have been entertaining Newark friends over Sunday.

Rev. G. M. Shott spent Monday with friends in New York.

Summons has been issued in Judge Clark's court in the contract case of Keen against Werring. Summons returnable Oct. 9.

Fred Johanson, who has been detained at home for a week suffering from a severe cold, resumed his position with Sheelen Bros., on Monday.

William Alexandra, formerly of the village, but now of Plainfield, has been visiting friends in town.

J. Edwin Fancher, who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. F. W. Westcott, of the borough, has returned to his home in Newark.

Mrs. A. D. Shepard and Miss Mead, of The Gables, returned from Cedarhurst, where they have been enjoying several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bartle, of Glenside Park, have been entertaining Mr. March, of New Brunswick, over Sunday.

Mrs. DeForest Thomae was the guest Monday, of friends in Plainfield.

The local baseball season closes Saturday afternoon. As a special attraction and a fitting final to a successful season, Manager Johnston is negotiating with the genuine Cuban X Giants, the champion colored team as well as the most amusing combinations of ball players in the country. If he is successful, the price of admission will not be raised and the lovers of the game can rest assured that they will get their money's worth. If this deal falls through, some other strong team will be substituted.

NEW MARKET.

The Y. M. A. met for monthly meeting last evening. It was decided to hold a number of dances during the winter months.

Mayor Bill's auto is expected home today. It was pretty badly broken, but as the fault was entirely Mr. Drake's, he has had the machine put up in good shape.

The Liquor Dealers Association of Middlesex County held their monthly meeting yesterday afternoon at Dent's Hotel. A report of the last year was read.

growing in his opinion and the Board in planning to meet the conditions of today must look ahead to the conditions which will exist five years hence.

When the matter was put to vote it resulted in a tie and was consequently lost. President Joy and Messrs. Valiant, Burtis and Woodruff voted for the resolution, while Messrs. Honeyman, Cooley, Overton and Fountain were in the negative.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Neuman Brothers' fruit and vegetable display is exceptionally fine. Save money by trading at Neuman Brothers. Telephone No. 146.

—Charles Jackson, colored, of East Fourth street, was knocked down by a carriage on East Fifth street Saturday night, but was not injured.

—The members of Warren Engine Company are planning to attend the firemen's celebration at Somerville, Thursday, October 22. They have been granted permission by the Common Council to take with them the steamer.

—Louis Volz, of Johnson's drive, celebrated his thirty-eighth birthday last week when a number of his friends gathered at his house and enjoyed a social time. About sixty were present from this city, Newark, Jersey City and Bernardsville. Music and refreshments were enjoyed. He received a number of handsome presents.

—The members of the Park Club hope to get into their new quarters somewhere about the first of November. In consequence of the improvements being made at the clubhouse there has naturally been a delay in the plans for the coming social season.

—During the month of October, H. J. Wierenga, the popular expressman, of 114 North avenue, removed from the freight depot and handled for different parties, 138 pianos, and it was all done without any accident of any kind. Mr. Wierenga, owing to his largely increasing business, has purchased another rig which makes three rigs he has now in constant use.

THE PALMA TROPHY

Recently Taken from England by American Riflemen.

An International Shooting Prize That Has Been Won by This Country, Canada and England—Presented by America.

The Palma trophy, donated by the riflemen of the United States to the riflemen of the world, comes back to the United States by the prowess of our soldier sharpshooters. The crack shots of our army and national guard recently met the cracks of England, South Africa, Canada and Australia at the rifle range of the English army at Bisley, and have returned to this country the victors in one of the hardest fought contests of skill at rifle shooting ever witnessed.

While the Palma trophy has figured in several of these international rifle contests but little is known of it by the public, the contest being considered an army affair in which the civilian is but little interested.

The National Rifle Association of America was organized in 1873 by members of the army and the national guard. The following year a challenge was issued to teams from the military service of other countries, and the challenge was accepted by a team from Ireland. Both teams did some wonderful shooting, and it was not until the last shot was fired that the winner was known. That last shot was a bull's eye, and had it been a miss Ireland would have won, as it was the final score stood 934 points for America, and 931 for Ireland.

In 1876 the riflemen of the army and national guard in this country conceived the idea of an international shooting competition as a feature of the centennial celebration of that year. To encourage teams from other countries to come to America and participate in this memorable competition the Palma trophy was purchased. The American team won it and the trophy stayed in America. The challenge to the world remained upon to all comers, but it was not until 1901 that the trophy left the hands of the first winners and passed beyond our borders.

In that year the glove thrown down by the American riflemen was covered by the Canadians, whose champions proceeded to Sea Girt, N. J., on September 5, and won an exciting match by 29 points, the winning team scoring 1,522, and the trophy defenders 1,493.

As one of the conditions under which the trophy is competed for renders it obligatory for the following year's competition to be shot in the country of the holders, in 1902 the challengers, a British team, under Maj. the Hon. T. F. Freemantle, and an American team, under Brig. Gen. Bird Spencer, proceeded to Ottawa, and on September 13 brought off a finely contested competition under not altogether ideal meteorological conditions.

On that occasion the British team won, and the trophy was carried to England. But the English Tommy was permitted to view the result of his prowess for but one year, for the American team, captained by Col. Leslie C. Bruce, of the old guard of Boston, crossed the water this year, and have brought the trophy to America again.

With respect to the trophy itself, which is fashioned "after the style of the battle flags of the Roman Legions," at the suggestion of Gen. Martin McMahon, chairman of the trophy committee in 1876, it is perhaps more remarkable than beautiful. Standing seven feet six inches in height, this unique banner is composed of gold, silver, copper, steel and iron. The eagle—that is neither Roman nor American, but a combination of both—is one foot high, and is composed of burnished copper, while the bar upon which it perches is of solid iron, copper edged, the word "Palma" (almost obliterated by a silver wreath) being written in raised silver letters. The banner, apart from the fringe, which is of gold, the inscription, which, and the gold tracery, is made of solid iron, as, indeed, is the staff, which, however, boasts copper fillets.

CANNING INDUSTRY

The United States Leads All Other Countries in It.

More Than Two Million of Our People Interested in the Trade—California Furnishes the Greatest Output.

Back in 1795, the French government offered a prize for the best method of preserving foods, and this prize was won by one Appert, who used glass vessels in his process. Then an Englishman taught the world to use tin cans in place of the jars, and finally the Yankee put his wits at work and propelled the canning industry to its present improved form. To-day, as a consequence of the progress in this industry, foods of far countries are to us all as everyday matters, and one of surprising cheapness.

Now, the United States leads all other countries in the canning industry. More than 2,000,000 in this country are directly interested in the canning industry, and the cans of fruits and vegetables sold every year are valued at close to $60,000,000. Figures that bespeak the vastness of the industry.

The state that furnishes the output of canned goods of greatest value (canned goods not including meats), is California. Maryland leads in the canning of vegetables, but California is ahead in fruit canning. The value of the canned product of California for 1902 was over $13,000,000; 1,750,000 cases of fruit were canned, and it was not considered a good year, either. Pears, apricots, peaches and cherries were the principal fruits of the California canneries; berries, grapes, plums, quinces, currants and other fruits, constituted the smaller quantities put up. Not more than 12 per cent. of the fruit grown in California is canned, so much fresh fruit being sent out, and a great deal preserved by burying. The tomato crop is becoming very important in California, and California canned tomatoes are fast growing in fame. Great Britain has long been a large buyer of the California canned goods, but now demands are pouring into the Pacific state from nearer home; in China, Siberia, the Philippines, and all through the Pacific islands are scattered tins bearing pictures of the gigantic fruit and vegetables grown and canned in California.

Yet the center of the canning industry is Baltimore, where more vegetables and fruits are canned than in any other city in the world. The season for both vegetables and fruit is longer in Maryland than in any of our states; and the canning products rotate the year round, the climate being so favorable for both raising products and packing the imported crops. The canneries put up oranges and pineapples in the spring, fruits and vegetables in the summer, peaches in autumn, clams, oysters and crabs in the winter. In Maryland as well as in California the canned tomato is an important output from the factories. In addition to the usual canned goods, factories in this state put up beets, greens in general, sweet potatoes, sauerkraut, and pretty nearly everything edible. The value of the canned product of Maryland is over $11,000,000 yearly.

The canning of vegetables is a comparatively recent industry. It began to come into prominence in 1856, in connection with Dr. Kane's Arctic expedition, when the experiment was made of preserving for the voyagers fish, meats and vegetables, as well as fruits. Those early methods seem very crude to-day.

Over 500,000,000 cans of vegetables and fruits are handled by the packers every year. The states having the largest number of establishments and furnishing the greater part of the output are California, Maryland, Illinois, Indiana, New Jersey, Ohio, Delaware, Iowa and Maine; the value of the yearly product ranging from something over $13,000,000 in California to something over $1,000,000 in Maine.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

THE NAGGING WOMAN.

She Does Her Irritating Work In a Variety of Ways.

Heaven save me from the woman who nags! There are several types of her, but all types resemble one another in this respect—none of them minds its own business.

Who has not seen, or, rather, heard the querulous whine of the woman who perpetually asks you why you don't do this and why you did do that? She worries over you as well as over her own wretched self, is afraid you won't get here in time or that you'll get there too soon. She fears lest you may take cold; lest—oh, any number of things, and they fill her days. She can be most annoying, too, this well meaning woman. She can whisper, "Your turn now," and prod you in the ribs sharply when it isn't your turn at all. She can make you commit countless mistakes, and she never, never admits that she is wrong.

SHE SURVEYS YOU THROUGH A PERPETUAL LORGNETTE.

Perhaps the most ordinary and annoying type is she who insists on asking you whether you won't have more of this and more of that at table, spoiling any attempt at conversation and driving you almost wild with her nagging politeness.

Then the woman who never says much, but from her attitude leaves you in no doubt that she is surveying you through a perpetual lorgnette and that not one of your failings will escape her eagle eye. She raises an eyebrow or shrugs a shoulder, and that is worse than a torrent of reproaches.

The worst tyranny is that of tears, and the woman who bursts into perpetual fits of weeping when things go wrong will soon have neither husband nor friends.

But it is the gentle "nagger" who irritates me most, so that at times I would cheerfully bump her gentle head against the hard, hard wall. She is always suggesting things in a manner a thousand times more irritating than if she spoke right up. "Wouldn't you rather do this?" "Hadn't you better do that?" These are her stock phrases, and, if you will excuse my saying so, people have been slain for less.

Why is it that we have comparatively few men "naggers?" Answer: Because men have too much of importance to occupy their time. When a man nags he is either retired from business or an invalid.

Women, if you have time to nag, then you have time for some useful employment.

beading, and the effect is paneled. The brocade window curtains—or they can be of less costly material—are green, and the minor ones are of sheer china silk.

The carpet is in red and green. The furniture is empire, mahogany inlaid with lighter wood. The fittings of the desk under the window are of brass. The round table is dainty as well as useful, for it can be used between meals for books, etc. The chairs are simple in design, with wide upholstered seats.

R. DE LA BAUME.

SOFIA IS DOUBTFUL.

Bulgarian Government Wants Work of Reform, Not Words.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 6.—The Austro-Russian note to the porte has been received somewhat skeptically in official circles here and among the Macedonian organizations with utter disbelief that any good can come from it. One point on which all parties are agreed is that action is the only satisfactory pledge of reform that the Ottoman government can give. The Bulgarian government is anxious to see the promised details of the new measure, but it is feared that if they are too stringent Turkey may prefer war to accepting them, while if they are not stringent they will certainly be useless.

Dr. Tartacheff, the president of the Macedonian committees, says that he does not regard the new note more seriously than the former ones. He declares that any system of European control is useless unless it has the power to enforce the reforms entirely independent of the porte.

According to a dispatch from the Rila monastery, a large party of fugitives from Razlog and Godlevo, while crossing the frontier, were continuously fired upon by the Turkish post at Aiguedik. The Turks followed the fugitives into Bulgarian territory and killed two of them.

Sofia Y. M. C. A.'s Appeal.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—The appeal from the Young Men's Christian association of Sofia, Bulgaria, to the association branches in Europe, America and elsewhere asking assistance in behalf of the Macedonian revolution and refugees has been received here. It asks the association members to arouse public opinion by agitation through the press and public addresses, to induce the European powers to take measures as soon as possible for the freedom of the Macedonian people, that bloodshed may be stopped.

Turkish Minister Denies Reports.

PARIS, Oct. 6.—The Turkish ambassador here publishes a note received from the porte declaring that Bulgaria has falsely represented to the powers the situation in Macedonia and that the reports of villages destroyed and massacres are untrue.

NEW BRITISH CABINET.

Duke of Devonshire Resigns—Lyttleton Succeeds Chamberlain.

LONDON, Oct. 6. — The Duke of Devonshire, who was leader of the Conservative party in the house of lords, has resigned the office of lord president of the council, and the king has accepted his resignation.

Following the announcement of the Duke of Devonshire's resignation came one giving the makeup of the new cabinet. It is as follows:

Mr. Brodrick, formerly secretary of war, succeeds Lord George Hamilton as secretary for India; Austen Chamberlain, postmaster general, succeeds Mr. Ritchie as chancellor of the exchequer; Alfred Lyttleton, recorder of Oxford, succeeds Joseph Chamberlain as secretary for the colonies; H. O. Arnold-Forster, secretary to the admiralty, succeeds Mr. Brodrick as secretary for war; Graham Murray, lord advocate of Scotland, succeeds Lord Balfour of Burleigh as secretary for Scotland, and Lord Stanley, financial secretary of the war office, succeeds Austen Chamberlain as postmaster general.

The three weeks' cabinet crisis has ended in a manner more remarkable and dramatic than that of its inception. Mr. Balfour's new ministry affords a measure of the enormous difficulty he has had to contend with in the task of reconstruction, and its composition seems to indicate that the premier himself can have little belief of its durability. The most sanguine supporters of the government express the smallest hopes of such an administration living many months, and the prevalent idea is that there will be a general election before parliament reassembles.

Sheehan Supports McClellan's Ticket

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—The only decisive move in the political campaign was taken by the convention of the Greater New York Democracy, led by John C. Sheehan, which unanimously adopted resolutions denouncing the course of the Citizens' Union and Republican conventions, declaring that the organization now stood on a purely party basis and pledging its support to the Democratic ticket headed by McClellan, Grout and Fornes.

Guarding Against Dynamiters.

BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 6.—Despite the fact that the date set by the blackmailing dynamiters who ask $50,000 from the Northern Pacific has expired without violence, the greatest precautions are taken here. All hunters outward bound are deprived of their guns, as the detectives fear the dynamiters might enter a train as sportsmen. It is thought that if nothing is done today the dynamiters will be no longer feared.

Sawed a Way to Freedom.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 6.—Five white prisoners sawed their way from the county workhouse. They were long term men, and rewards have been offered for their capture.

German Ship's Cargo Burns.

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 6.—The German steamer Erica, from Galveston and Wilmington to Liverpool with cotton, is in port with her cargo afire. One man was badly injured.

WHO SHALL IT BE?

Speculation as to King's Nominee For New British Ambassador.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—While the government is endeavoring to maintain their resolve not to consider the question of a successor to Sir Michael Herbert at the Washington embassy at present, there is reason to believe that considerable wire pulling is already going on, and several ladies prominent on both sides of the Atlantic are becoming interested in the matter.

It is known that after the death of Lord Pauncefote the appointment of Sir Michael Herbert was opposed by several well known New York people, and a prominent Englishwoman, then visiting America and who was supposed to have the ear of the king, was enlisted on their side and that it was only with great difficulty that the king's consent was obtained to Sir Michael Herbert's appointment.

Now Sir Henry Howard, the British minister at The Hague, is reported to be the king's choice for the post of ambassador at Washington. Lady Howard was formerly Cecilia Riggs of Washington.

The king alone will make the selection, and it is unlikely that the premier or the foreign office will be requested to nominate the ambassador. The next likeliest selection from the service is said to be Sir Arthur Nicolson, British minister to Morocco, who is regarded as being in line for an embassy. Either of these appointments would please the service.

It is well understood, however, that the king may go outside the regular service, as he did in sending Sir Francis Bertie, then assistant undersecretary for foreign affairs, as ambassador to Rome, an appointment that annoyed several ministers.

FATAL COLLISION.

Southern Pacific Work Train Crashed Into Flat Cars.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 6.—Four railroad laborers were killed and thirteen injured, two of them probably fatally, in a collision at a tunnel on the Southern Pacific railroad.

The train left Driver Station and proceeded to Chatsworth, where 100 men were taken aboard the first car, which was loaded with railroad steel and construction material. The engine was placed behind the train and pushed it out on the new cutoff. The engineer for some unknown reason did not slacken speed, and the first car, laden with the laborers, crashed into two "dead" cars on the track.

The impact doubled both cars up like jackknives and threw the men into the air on all sides. The majority saved themselves by jumping, but many were injured by the flying pieces of steel.

St. Thomas Will Be Ruined.

ST. THOMAS, D. W. I., Oct. 6.—The Tidende, an influential paper here, says the report of the Danish royal commission on the Danish West Indian islands is a great disappointment, and if its proposals are carried out St. Thomas will be ruined.

Raleigh Voted Down Saloons.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 6.—Raleigh by a majority of 194 voted against the saloons and in favor of one dispensary. The law goes into effect on Jan. 1, and twenty-three saloons will then be closed. The contest was a hard one.

Bishop on Investigating Tour.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 6.—Bishop Grafton of Fond du Lac, Wis., is visiting Russia with a view to investigating the conditions under which a union of the Anglican and Orthodox churches might be accomplished.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

Rev. William E. Davis has been pastor of the Lebanon Reformed Church for twenty years, which event will be celebrated next Sunday, with special services. The pastor will preach an historical sermon in the morning. Prior to going to Lebanon Mr. Davis was pastor of the Reformed Church at South Branch for several years.

Rev. Dr. David H. Greer, rector of St. Bartholmew's Church, New York, has formally accepted the office of bishop coadjutor of the Episcopal diocese of New York. He will resign from one of the wealthiest churches in the Western Hemisphere.

Rev. D. M. Stearns will teadh the Union Bible Class at the Y. M. C. A., this afternoon. In connection with the Sunday-school lesson he will take up studies in Genesis and Revelations.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. John Justin, at the service of the German Reformed Church, Sunday evening, Christian Debele, a member of the consistory, conducted the services.

Rev. G. B. Shaw preached at the First Presbyterian Church, Sunday evening, for the pastor, Rev. C. E. Herring, who was detained at home by illness.

R. Wilson Derby, of the First Presbyterian Church choir, having secured a position as superintendent of the pattern department in a large machine works in Pennsylvania, has given up his position in the choir. William N. Runyon has consented to take his place until a successor is found.

Under the auspices of the Whatsoever Circle, King's Daughters, of Trinity Reformed Church, there will be a demonstration of a popular food in the lecture room of the cnhrch on Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

The members of the Woman's Society for Christian Work, of the Seventh-Day Baptist Church, will meet tomorrow afternoon in the parlors of the church.

The Ladies' Aid Society will hold a meeting at the First Presbyterian Church tomorrow evening to complete plans for a Japanese social to be held in the near future.

Y.M.C.A EDUCATIONAL WORK

FORMAL OPENING OF DEPARTMENT TAKES PLACE AT ASSOCIATION HALL.

Large Classes Generally the Rule—The Corps of Instructors in the Various Branches.

The formal opening of the year's work in the educational department of the Y. M. C. A. took place last night. Addresses were made by Ira W. Travell, principal of the Plainfield High School, and Stephen Cahoone, president of the association. Thirty-two pupils reported for work in the department of mechanical drawing, which will be in charge of Clarence L. Rogers, a graduate of the Rennsalaer Polytechnic Institute. Instruction in German will be given by Miss K. B. Santee, a graduate of Smith and instructor in the city High School. Miss M. E. Benedict will instruct eight pupils in the English department. In mathematics, Noble C. King will have charge of 36 pupils and in bookkeeping Albert L. Schomp will have 17 pupils. Spanish and stenography will also be included in the curriculum. Rev. L. T. Lindholm will give instructions to such Swedes as desire to learn the English language.

PLAINFIELDERS AT WILLIAMS.

Six Young Men Pursuing Courses of Study There.

Alden E. Moore, '08, of the City High School, is now a freshman in Williams' College, Williamstown, Mass. The freshman class this year is 156 strong, enough keep the terrible "soph" at a respectful distance. Plainfield is represented there by Kerro Knox and Alden Moore, in the freshmen class and six in the entire college: Walter Squires, who is captain of this year's track team; Erwin B. Leland, Harold A. Nomer and Brockholt K. Miller.

Elizabeth Importing Goods.

The Veteran Firemen's Association, of Elizabeth, has placed an order with Harry Werner, the West Front street clothier, for forty-five pairs of blue trousers to be worn by the members at the firemen's parades to be held at Wilmington, Del., and Allentown, Pa. This order speaks well for the Plainfield manufacturer.

Surprise Party.

Mr. and Mrs. James McInnes, of Grant avenue, were pleasantly surprised last night on the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding. The host and hostess received many handsome and useful presents.

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Charles Pawson, of Greenbrook road, who has been employed at the Scott Printing Machine Works, has resigned to take another position in a printing machine works in Dayton, O.

Clarence H. Bilyeu has resigned his position at the Perrin Frere glove factory.

Herbert Demarest has resigned his position at the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant.

George Sheing has returned to the Aluminum Press Company's plant, after being in Brooklyn on business for the firm.

Joseph Bolby, of the Belmont Manufacturing Company's plant, has returned from a visit with friends in New York.

The Aluminum Press Company have a number of rush orders for their latest design of three color press.

Several large side frames are being casted at the Potter plant for the Aluminum Press Company. The castings are so large that the Aluminum people are unable to handle them in their foundry.

Bert Ford, of the pattern shop of the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, has returned from a visit with Elizabeth friends.

Adam Fauss, who has been connected with the Pond Machine Tool Works for some time, has resigned his position to enter the employ of the trolley company on the Plank road between Newark and Jersey City.

Four agents of the Public Service Corporation narrowly escaped serious injury in New York at the hands of hundreds of angry men who had been hired as strike breakers. The men demanded money they said was due them. The agents were arrested. The complainants alleged that they were hired to take the places of the striking motormen and conductors in New Jersey. They claimed that the agents promised them $1.50 per day while in New York, and $1.75 a day when they were employed in New Jersey.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The New York Tribune publishes a story this morning to the effect that it is rumored that William T. Kirk, of this city, may withdraw as a Republican candidate for assembly and that James F. Buckle, of this city, will take the vacancy in order to restore harmony in the Republican party in Union County. Mr. Kirk was out of town today and the story can not be verified. Mr. Buckle said that he had heard nothing of it.

WETUMPKAH TRIBE'S ANNIVERSARY PLANS

Its Third Year of Existence to be Appropriately Observed Soon.

COMMITTEE'S SCHEMES

A COUNTINUOUS PERFORMANCE TO BE RENDERED BY LOCAL TALENT.

Play as a Feature—The Caste—Music and a Dance—Iona Council's Part in the Exercises—Other Details.

The third anniversary of the institution in Plainfield of Wetumpkah Tribe, No. 229, I. O. R. M., will be observed in a notable fashion by one of the best entertainments of the kind that will be presented in this city this year. A continuous performance of more than two and a half hours' at the Casino on the evening of October 28 will conclude with the presentation of the farce, "Hector," by the following competent cast:

Frederick Long, a merchant, A. E. Willard; Louise, his wife, Mrs. A. E. Willard; Oscar Spencer, a young student, Mortimer Slater; Jacob Einstein, a pawnbroker, C. E. Stott; August, a colored servant, Matthew D. Sweeney; Watson, a confidential clerk, Walter Emmons; Fanny, a maid, Miss Ethel Reynolds; a messenger boy, Master Harold Willard.

Of this cast, C. E. Stott is a professional performer, of New York city, who has just returned to this county from a European trip. He is a sleight-of-hand performer and ventriloquist, as well as an actor and will contribute much to the vaudeville part of the programme. There will be several specialty teams on the stage and Mrs. Willard will give serpentine and fire dances seldom seen on any stage. Master Harold Willard will contribute some Irish specialties.

One of the oddest and funniest numbers on the programme will be the enactment of the saving of Captain John Smith by Pocohontas in which the star parts will be taken by the red men themselves and their sisters in Iona Council. The evening's entertainment will end with a dance. Music will be by Dreier's orchestra.

The committee of red men in charge of the affair consists of R. H. Humphrey, chairman; A. E. Willard, general stage manager and coach; Fred Firstbrook, R. Scott, M. Leichtentritt, W. A. Westphal and J. Clark. The speaker of the evening will be the Great Incahone of the United States.

On October 27 at the Casino, one of the greatest spectacular production yet staged in Plainfield will be presented. The dramatization of Edward Bulwer, Lord Lytton's famous novel, "The Last Days of Pompeii," will be given at that time by members of Mispah Lodge, No. 1, United Order of Odd Ladies, under direction of A. E. Willard. Mr. Willard has managed a professional presentation of the play on many stages.

The electrical effects in the presentation of the play will be something never equalled on a local stage. The fire scene and the bursting of Mt. Vesuvius will be pictured in full splendor. The fancy dances will border on the marvellous and costumes for the performers to the value of $2,000 will be provided. Two hundred people will appear on the stage at one time or another. A feature of the dancing will be a "Carnival of Trade" in which each of the local merchants will be represented by a girl in costume. The "Columbia Drill" and the "Flight of Buterflies" will be other dances of especial beauty.

Iona Council, No. 14, Degree of Pocohontas, will give an anniversary celebration tonight in the Red Men's hall on Park avenue. The entertainment will consist of music, recitations and dancing.

PLAINFIELD IS IN GOOD HEALTH

Sanitary Conditions Reported Excellent at Meeting of Board of Health.

BETTER MILK PROVIDED

VITAL STATISTICS FOR THE MONTH SHOW TWENTY DEATHS.

Thirteen Marriage in September—Nuisances Abated—Harberger's Dump at Front Street and Giraud Avenue Ordered Closed.

Business chiefly of a routine nature was considered at the October meeting of the Board of Health, yesterday afternoon, President C. J. Fisk, Drj B. VanD. Hedges, Dr. T. S. Davis, Fj W. Dunn and Charles Dunham being present. The sanitary condition of the city as shown through the various reports is excellent. There were 138 inspections and visits to the houses with contagious diseases and forty dairies were visited. Twenty-one samples of milk were analyzed during the month and all showed an improvement over the preceding month, especially in the number of bacteria which was materially less. One dairyman was discovered watering his milk and this source of supply was closed to the city. Two complaints were made of violation of the ordinance and the men appeared before City Judge Runyon.

This is a statement of the mortality for the month of September, 1903, compared with the preceding month and the corresponding month of 1902.

The death rate being computed on an estimated population of 16,000.

	Sept. 1903	Aug. 1903	Sept. 1902
Total deaths	20	32	19
Annual death rate per thousand	15	24	14.25
By sexes
Males	9	14	13
Females	11	18	6
By ages
Under one year	3	9	3
Between 1 and 5 years	0	6	4
Over 60 years	4	10	4

During September there were received thirteen marriage certificates, thirty-four birth certificates and one still-birth certificate. A special report read on the question of the city's garbiage collection and disposal, was ordered sent to the Common Council. Rules relating to the manner of keeping a quarantine were adopted and will soon be published.

These permits were granted: Frank Moore and P. J. Haines, to sell milk; T. M. Ingraham, to carry on business of scavenger; Theodore Glazer and W. T. Banks, to collect offal and to Mrs. Noah Terry to collect garbage. The plumber's bonds from John L. Miller, of Westfield, and W. H. Kirch, of this city, were filed.

The question of opening the Harberger dump was discussed and finally referred to the nuisance committee, which has decided that, on account of the nuisances which have previously come from this dump, it is a matter of public safety and comfort to keep it closed.

Leo XIII Depicted.

The New York Mail and Express speaking of the Pope Leo pictures that will be shown with other interesting features of illustrated songs, etc., at the Casino tomorrow afternoon and evening, said: "Carnegie Hall was filled, and the exhibition in every respect was successful. The pictures displayed with remarkable accuracy every change of the Pope's expression. His benignant smile, and, on one occasion, his hearty laugh, were as natural as life. The Pontifical blessing was again and again given from the canvas, and those present who had never been enabled to make the pilgrimage to Rome, felt that at last, Rome had been brought to them." Reserved seats are on sale at Armstrong's pharmacy.

NO EPIDEMIC.

False Report That Diphtheria is Raging in City and Borough.

There is no epidemic of diphtheria in either Plainfield or North Plainfield. This statement is made on the authority of the boards of health, a report being in circulation that there are at least nineteen cases of the disease in the city alone. There are a few scattered cases about the city, and but three in the borough.

Little Visitor.

There arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shepherd, in Manning avenue, today a seven and one-half pound girl.

SUPT. MAXSON'S ANNUAL REPORT

He Tells the Board of Educa- That the Increase in Attendance at Schools is Large.

CROWDED CONDITIONS

PROVISIONS FOR ACCOMMODATING PUPILS IN THE SEVERAL SCHOOLS.

Presence of Out-of-Town Pupils an Advantage—Probably Possible to Get Through Year With Present Accommodations.

In presenting his report to the Board of Education at the meeting Monday night, Superintendent Maxson said that "the total attendance for last year in Plainfield schools was 375,875 days, which is an increase of nearly 33,000 days over the attendance last year. The average number of pupils in attendance was nearly 150 more than for the previous year."

Continuing his report on the subject he said: "When the schools opened this fall, it was soon apparent that there would be a still farther large increase in numbers. The reports of attendance for last week show an increase of more than 150 over the attendance at this time last year. This increase is distributed among the various schools but is greatest in the Irving School and in the High School, in each of which there are over fifty pupils more than last year. Thus far we are able to provide for all the increase by instituting half day classes in the lowest primary at the Bryant and Washington Schools, and afternoon classes in the kindergartens of these schools and at the Irving, but the afternoon session has been lengthened for these classes so that while the arrangement is not quite as desirable as the two session plan for these young children the loss is very small. In this connection the question may be asked by those not familiar with the situation, why not exclude pupils that are from out of town now that the schools are so crowded.

"Their number in any one class is so small that their exclusion would make very little, if any difference in the crowding. On the other hand, the tuition which they pay the city amounts to over $2,000, while their presence costs the city very little. Their presence is therefore a decided advantage to the city.

"By having one or two small classes recite in my office, the High School will probably be able to get through the year with the present increase of pupils."

DEVOE'S WEATHER PREDICTION

THUNDERSTORM FOR NOVEMBER AND RAINING WINTER.

To be Little Skating in December—Not Much Ice Until March—Other Predictions.

Professor Devoe, the Hackensack weather prophet, has cast his eye over he signs for the next few months, and he doesn't think that the coal barons and the top coat makers will be overworked this winter. Said the prophet yesterday:

"New York and New Jersey, especially on and near the coast, will have a warm fall and early winter, with a dry October and a wet November. Thanksgiving month promises to be characterized by the unusual phenomenon of severe thunder showers.

"December will show a falling temperature, but it will not be sufficiently cold to please the farmers or ice skaters. In fact, my calculations out out heavy snows and material ice formations until March. I don't believe there will be any ice stored hereabouts until that month, when the severest cold will prevail for some days, if not weeks.

"Last year my predictions of a warm March were fully verified, and you will find that just the opposite weather conditions will prevail next March. There are not likely to be many heavy wind storms this winter, but carry your umbrellas pretty constantly, for rains will be numerous."

Hard on Smokers.

In some of the trolley cars on the main line, between this city and Elizabeth, the smoking compartments have been removed.

Republicans to Meet.

There will be a meeting of the Republican city executive committee, tonight, to fix the date for the city convention.

NEW DRAMATIC CLUB FORMED

YOUNG PEOPLE BAND TOGETHER TO LEARN ACTING.

Organization to be Limited to Membership—Plays to be Produced.

An amateur dramatic club is to be formed among some of the young people in this city and within a few days a meeting will be held at which time an organization will be effected. The name of the organiastion is to be the Willard Dramatic Club. It is being promoted by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Willard, of West Front street.

Among the members of the club are Miss Ethel Reynolds, Mortimer Slater, Walter Emmons and Matthew D. Sweeney. The total membership of the club will be limited to thirty. The object of the organization is to give the members practice in elocution and so far it has proved to be a popular association. The meeting for permanent organization has been called for Friday evening.

The club is to assist in the production of the drama, "The Last Days of Pompeii," which is to be held under the auspices of the local lodge of Odd Ladies some time during the week of October 26. Another play is to be given in the Casino on the evening of October 28. This will be a one act farce comedy entitled "Hector." It will be produced under the auspices of one of the local lodges.

During the winter the club will give little plays which will be invitation affairs. It is planned to have an enrollment of between twenty and thirty members who have some ability for acting.

MISSING WATCH RECOVERED

W. W. WARNOCK'S WATCH FOUND BADLY BATTERED.

Masonic Charm Not Attached—A Child Discovered the Timepiece.

A remarkable case of the loss of property presumably through theft and its recovery by accident came to light yesterday. Several months ago William Warnock, the West Front street baker, was at work in his bake shop and hung his vest containing his watch and a Masonic charm on a peg. He forgot about the vest and later went to get it and found that the watch and charm were missing.

It was suspected that the watch had been stolen but the identity of the thief could not be positively established. Yesterday afternoon a little boy, playing marbles in the back yard crawled under the barn to recover a marble which rolled under the structure. While there he discovered a shining piece of metal and bringing it out with him found it to be the long lost watch. It was battered and mutilated. The jewels had been extracted. A search failed to reveal the whereabouts of the charm and it is presumed that the chief took that, extracted the jewels, consisting of diamonds, rubies and emeralds and pawned them.

EXEMPTS' DOINGS.

Belt Presented to Local Organization—Members Suspended for Non-Payment of Dues.

The regular monthly meeting of the Exempt Firemen's Association was held Monday night in the association rooms on Park avenue. The gift of a chief's white hat and belt from the Exempt Association of the Elizabeth department. B. A. Mumford delivered a eulogy on "Tinker" Smith and George Butscher, former members, who have died recently. V. W. Nash, representing the board of trustees, reported on the conditions of the order and offered several amendments to the by-laws which will be considered at Monday's meeting. The amendments have to do with the rules regarding sick benefits. Several members were suspended for non-payment of dues.

A Cure for Dyspepsia.

I had dyspepsia in its worst form and felt miserable most all the time. Did not enjoy eating until after I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure which has completely cured me.—Mrs. W. W. Saylor, Hilliard, Pa. No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, sour rising, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles are quickly cured by the use of Kodol. Kodol represents the natural juices of digestion combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. It cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach. Sold by L. W. Randolph.

EIGHTEEN YEARS OF CHURCH SOCIETY

The Christian Endeavorers of Trinity Church Celebrate Anniversary of Organization.

PROGRAMME RENDERED

INTERIOR DECORATIONS A FEATURE AT THE AFFAIR.

Social Committee Assisted by the Flower and Reception Committees—Those Taking Part in the Proceedings.

Under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society, of Trinity Reformed Church, a social was held last night in celebration of the eighteenth anniversary of the organization. A musical and literary programme made the evening an enjoyable one. There were fully two hundred people present. The rooms were decorated with autumn leaves and in the front part the figures in silver colored numerals "1885-1903" were conspicuous.

Miss Jeanette Young and Miss Frida Gray gave several piano duets and these were followed by a game in which it was necessary to guess the name of cakes by written descriptions. This proved to be a novel form of entertainment. A musical trio was perhaps the most pleasing of the renditions during the evening. Kenneth Shupp, Arthur Mosher, E. P. Wheeler and Miss Charlotte Conger, accompanist, favored several times with selections and they were loudly applauded. Miss Florence Bennett, a member of the choir, gave several pleasing selections. This was followed by another game which was somewhat of an author guessing contest. Refreshments were served.

The social committee which had charge of the arrangements is composed of Miss H. M. Kreitling, chairman; Miss Minnie Wyman, Miss Jeanette Young, Miss Kate Bodine, Miss Emma Lindsley, Miss Bessie Martin, Miss Elizabeth Davenport, H. S. Humes and Clarence Rittenhouse. The social committee was assisted by the flower committee, consisting of Miss Anna Searing, chairman; Miss Anna Bodine, Miss Anna Randall, Miss Jean Lindsley and Mrs. W. J. Trembath and the reception committee composed of E. P. Wheeler, J. W. Trembath, John VanHorne, Chauncey F. Colthar, Julius Williams and Fred Bach.

During the evening Rev. Dr. Schenck, pastor of the church, made a few remarks congratulating the society on its growth.

DUNELLEN BOTTLER DEFEATED

THE CITIZENS SUCCESSFUL IN FIGHT AGAINST LICENSE.

Strange Words of Judge W. Strong, Who Heard the Remonstrants.

The people of Dunellen were represented in New Brunswick yesterday by members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, ministers, and president of the Levering & Garrigues Company, in a fight against the granting of a liquor license to Joseph F. Soukup, for a bottler's permit. Soukup was represented by Former Judge C. T. Cowenhoven. H. Brewster Willis, Esq., was counsel for remonstrants.

Judge Woodbridge Strong in refusing the license said that he did not think a large number of saloons is responsible for vice. He declared he was often surprised at the number of liquor places in New Brunswick and of the little crime. New Brunswick, said he, is a good city, one of order, morality and decency, in spite of the 208 saloons. He used this as an illustration that the multiplicity of saloons in any locality does not necessarily increase disorder and intemperance.

CHURCH TO REOPEN.

Celebration at Mt. Olive Baptist Church to Mark the Occasion.

The repairs which have been in progress at the Mt. Olive Baptist Church for some time are completed and the pastor, Rev. E. E. Jackson, is making an earnest effort to wipe out the church debt. There will be a re-opening celebration on Thursday night, October 22, when several colored divines from various parts of the State will be present and make addresses. Rev. Mr. Jackson says he sincerely hopes that all persons who have subscribed money for the repairs will respond as soon as possible.

MISS TITSWORTH MARRIES MR. VARS

The Wedding Takes Place at Home of Bride's Parents in Dunellen.

THE ATTENDANCE LARGE

REV. L. E. LIVERMORE, OF NEW MARKET, OFFICIATING MINISTER.

Miss Grace Hildebrant Maid-of-Honor and Ralph B. Titsworth Best Man—The Groom is a Civil Engineer.

Miss Mildred Titsworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis T. Titsworth, of Dunellen, and Alexander Wilson Vars, of this city, were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride on Prospect avenue, Dunellen, in the presence of a large gathering of friends from this city and other places. The officiating clergyman was Rev. L. E. Livermore, pastor of the Seventh-Day Baptist Church, of New Market.

The ceremony was performed in the prettily decorated parlor of the home at 5 o'clock. The rooms were adorned with palms, autumn leaves and ribbons. In the front of the room a bank of greens and flowers was arranged and before this the ceremony took place. Miss Grace Hildebrant, of Lebanon, N. J., was the maid-of-honor and Ralph B. Titsworth, Dunellen, was the best man. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The ushers were Ferdinand Titsworth and Charles M. Titsworth.

Miss Titsworth wore white silk mulle trimmed with rare lace and a veil hung from her head fastened with orange blossoms. The bridesmaid wore a gown made of the same material and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. Immediately after the ceremony had been performed a reception was held, which lasted until late in the evening. At the wedding were guests from Plainfield, Dunellen, New Brunswick, Jersey City, Newark, New York State and Pennsylvania. Mr. and Mrs. Vars left for an extended honeymoon and upon their return they will reside in this city where the groom is employed as chief assistant to H. C. VanEmburgh, of North avenue.

The bride was formerly teacher in the public school at Lincoln and is well known in Dunellen.

PARK CLUB'S MEETING.

Annual Business to be Transacted in May Instead of October.

The annual meeting of the Park Club was held last night with a large attendance. The report of the treasurer, Nelson A. Miller, showed the condition of the organization to be the best in years.

The constitution was revised, making the annual meeting on the first Tuesday in May instead of October, as heretofore. The terms of all officers now in office were extended six months in consequence of this change.

Charles L. Nichol's term as president having expired, he resigned and three members were elected to the board of governors: Joseph B. Yerkes, Henry A. McGee and E. H. Ladd, Jr. After the meeting of members the board of governors met and these officers were chosen: President, Samuel St. John McCutchen; vice president, George T. Rogers; treasurer, Nelson A. Miller; secretary, Allen B. Laing.

At a meeting to be held next week Tuesday night, the committees for the coming year will be announced, after which plans will be made for the season's work at the club.

PERSONAL OATHS.

Bar Association of Union County Advocates a Reform.

The Union County Bar Association met yesterday at Elizabeth and a committee consisting of Craig A. Marsh, of this city, Judge Edward S. Atwater, and James C. Connolly, Elizabeth, was appointed to wait on the judges and ask if there could not be a change made in the method of administering the oath to the members of the grand jury.

At present the foreman is sworn in and the others are asked if they will do the same as the foreman. It is proposed to change this so that the foreman shall be sworn in first and then the other members, either individually or collectively, with the full oath in detail.

Judgment for Plaintiff.

Judgment for $60 and costs was rendered yesterday in Justice Hand's court for the plaintiff in the contract case of Robert Murphy against Peter W. McDonough.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE DOING

SOME BRIEF PARAGRAPHS OF A PERSONAL NATURE.

Many Folk of Greater Plainfield Are Entertaining or Being Entertained.

F. S. Osgood and family and A. C. Barnhart and family, of Fanwood, have taken up their residence for the winter at the Park Avenue Hotel.

Louis E. Eaton, formerly of Plainfield, but now of Brooklyn, was the guest of friends in this city on Sunday.

L. W. Niles, foreman at the Sabbath Recorder office, has returned from Alfred, N. Y., where he has been spending a pleasant vacation of ten days.

Miss Beerbower, of Chatham, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Staats, of the Hotel Kensington, has returned to her home.

Miss Daisy Williams, who has been the guest of J. D. Spicer, of West Fifth street, will soon leave for Berkely, California, where she will spend the winter.

Miss Ethel Reynolds, of Duer street, entertained friends from Elizabeth Sunday.

Mrs. James Martin and family, of Somerset street, are visiting friends at Summit.

Miss Emma Droll, of the West End, who is at the hospital under treatment for appendicitis, still continues to improve and her physician now entertains hopes for an early recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. McKillop, of Easton, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell McKillop, of Somerset street.

Miss Jeanette Douglass and Miss Bia, of Hoboken, are spending the week with Mrs. William Gray, West Fourth street.

William MacIntosh, of Arlington avenue, entertained a number of friends Monday on the occasion of his twenty-sixth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Mali have returned from their European trip and are occupying their country place on East Front street.

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

The Coachmen's Union held a smoker last night in its rooms on Second street.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., will hold a communication tonight and confer the third dergee on two candidates.

Trinity Commandery, No. 71, K. T., held a conclave last night, a portion of the time being spent in drilling.

The initiatory degree was worked on six candidates by Plainfield Lodge, No. 44, last evening.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—The annual meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers will be held in New York on December 1.

—General Passenger Agent Charles Lee, of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, recently presided at a banquet given at Buffalo in honor of John T. Keith, the company's new superintendent at that point.

—Jacob Blimm, Jr., of Somerset street, entertained a party of friends at dinner Sunday at Morristown.

Democrats in Sports.

The Democratic Club met last night in its headquarters on Second street. Plans were made for entertainments during the coming year. The club has practically decided to put a basket ball team in the field. A pinochle tournament will be a feature in the near future. The club is making arrangements to place a pool table in its rooms.

Herbert Chamberlain Discharged.

Herbert Chamberlain, who a few weeks ago was the victim of an assault, was discharged from the hospital yesterday.

Miss Stackhouse to Wed.

The engagement of Miss Elizabeth Stackhouse, of East Sixth street, and R. Wilson Derby, formerly of this city, is announced.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh or drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

The New York Bargain store, on West Front street, presents some special bargains Saturdays only in boys' knee trousers that are worth the most careful investigation. They give away red star stamps with every purchase.

The man who wants good catering promptly attended to should call upon John Wirth, the West Front street baker.

The Hotel Kensington has all the equipments of a first class hostelry. It is the place to go for comfort.

The Hotel Waldorf, "the place with the illuminated front" is one of the few strictly first class hotels in this city. Nothing but the best for patrons who have fastidious tastes.

Electric light and power wiring done reasonable by A. B. Laing on North avenue. Contracts a specialty.

M. C. Dobbins, Park avenue, makes a specialty of fine cigars. A specialty is also made of all kinds of smoking and chewing tobacco and twenty-five varities are constantly kept on hand.

In selecting a present for a wedding, birthday or anniversary it is desirable to get reliable presents. One can get a fine assortment to select from if a visit is made to L. Moraller & Sons, Park avenue.

This is the month of weddings and many persons will be in search of a suitable gift for the bride. Charles E. Vail, the Park avenue jeweler, will be able to offer you some valuable suggestions, besides from his choice stock he can sell you something to please.

A first-class pharmacy is a necessity in a community and Dudley Miller, the Park avenue druggist, keeps such an establishment. His stock is complete and his prescription department is considered one of the best in the State.

S. Scheuer & Co.'s trade is increasing so rapidly that the firm has found it necessary to seek large and better quarters. That is why such elaborate improvements are being made to the firm's new store on West Front street. In the meantime the business continues at the old stand, where all patrons will receive the same generous treatment and service as in the past. Those who trade at this store know the quality of goods sold and advantage in prices.

TenEyck & Harris, the coal dealers, handle nothing but the best quality of fuel and the firm will be pleased to take your order for a winter's supply and deliver it at your convenience.

AMUSEMENTS.

Long runs are the ambition of a theatrical manager's life. "Two hundred nights" is a sign one often sees on three sheets. What kind of a poster would they use if they could say "Five hundred Weeks?" When the Union Square Theatre is thrown open on next Monday it will be the mark of the beginning of the five hundreth week that it has been devoted to "continuous vaudeville" under the management of B. F. Keith.

Dieting Invites Disease.

To cure dyspepsia or indigestion it is no longer necessary to live on milk and toast. Starvation produces such weakness that the whole system becomes an easy prey to disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that one cares to eat, and is a never failing cure for indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by L. W. Randolph.

LITERARY.

The issue of Collier's Weekly of October 3d, in a new form, is a brilliant number. It has a sea story by Kipling and a character sketch of Joseph Chamberlain by Frederick Palmer. Norman Hapgood's Comment is as witty as ever. A new department of "Seven Days," illustrated by striking photographs, clearly and authoritatively written, gives the main facts and the real significance of all important events.

The Salve That Heals

without leaving a scar is DeWitt's. The name Witch Hazel is applied to many salves, but DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the only Witch Hazel Salve made that contains the pure unadulterated witch hazel. If any other Witch Hazel Salve is offered you it is a counterfeit. E. C. DeWitt invented Witch Hazel Salve and DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best salve in the world for cuts, burns, bruises, tetter, or blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles. Sold by L. W. Randolph.

You Cannot Change

the course of a storm by tearing down the signals that give warning of its approach. Neither can you cure a cold by temporarily stopping a cough with opium-laden "medicines." Allen's Lung Balsam, in which there is no opium, cures sore throats and sore lungs because it allays the inflammation and rids you of the mucus that stops up the air passages.

Tour to Pacific Coast.

On account of the meeting of the National Bankers' Association, to be held at SanFrancisco, Cal., October 20 to 23, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company offers a personaly-conducted tour to the Pacific Coast at remarkably low rates. This tour will leave New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and other points on the Pennsylvania Railroad east of Pittsburg, Wednesday, October 14, by special train of the highest grade Pullman equipment. A quick run westward to SanFrancisco will be made, via Chicago, Omaha, Cheyenne and Ogden. Five days will be devoted to SanFrancisco. Returning, the special train will run to Los Angeles, where two days will be spent among the resorts of Southern California. Santa Barbara, Del Monte, Salt Lake City, Colorado Springs, Denver and St. Louis will be visited on the journey eastward. The party will reach New York on the evening of November 4. Round trip rate, covering all expenses for eighteen days except five days spent in SanFrancisco, $190. Rates from Pittsburg will be $5 less. For full information apply to ticket agents, or Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, Pa.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

President Roosevelt's Family and Staff Were Present.

TRIBUTE TO HERBERT'S MEMORY

Service Held at Washington Was the First Official Service of the Kind Ever Held Under Like Circumstances.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—President Roosevelt, accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Roosevelt, Secretary Loeb and Colonel Symons and Commander Cowles, respectively his military and naval aids, attended the Herbert memorial services held here. They were received by the distinguished assemblage standing while the thrilling cadences of Chopin's funeral march pealed from the organ.

The president and Mrs. Roosevelt were met by Arthur S. Raikes, first secretary of the British embassy, who had been designated by King Edward as his personal representative at the services. They sat in the first pew on the right side of the main tier of pews and directly in front of the chancel. At the left of Mr. Raikes sat Major Maude, military secretary of Lord Minto, the governor general of Canada, and his personal representative.

Opposite the main tier of pews sat R. T. Wilson, father of Lady Herbert, accompanied by his daughters, Mrs. Ogden Goelet and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, and his sons, M. Orme Wilson and R. T. Wilson, Jr. Across the aisle to the right of the president the pews were occupied by Admiral Dewey and Lieutenant General Young and their staffs. The members of the diplomatic corps occupied pews directly back of the president, while officers of the army, navy and marine corps occupied seats in the body of the church.

The services were the prescribed funeral services of the Episcopal church. Dr. Smith was assisted by the Rev. Dr. Randolph H. McKim, rector of the Church of the Ephiphany.

The musical programme was rendered by the choir of St. John's and the string orchestra of the Marine band, under the direction of H. H. Freeman, the regular organist of the church. The three hymns rendered were sung at the cabled request of Lady Herbert and are the same as those rendered at the funeral services in Great Britain. The hymns were "Hark, Hark, My Soul!" by Sir Joseph Barnaby; "Lead, Kindly Light," and "Fight the Good Fight With All My Might."

Two anthems were chanted by the choir, "Lord, Let Me Know My End and the Number of My Days" and "I Heard a Voice From Heaven."

The only deviation from the funeral services prescribed by the church ritual was the insertion of the name of King Edward in the prayer for the president of the United States.

Sir Michael Herbert Buried.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The remains of Sir Micheal Herbert, the late British ambassador at Washington, have been interred in the family burial ground at Wilton, Wiltshire. King Edward and the Prince of Wales sent representatives. Ambassador Choate, Secretary White and Second Secretary Carter of the American embassy represented the United States. Simultaneously there was an impressive memorial service in the Marlborough House chapel, St. James' palace.

Tillman Trial Postponed.

LEXINGTON, S. C., Oct. 7.—The continued illness of Milton Sharpe, one of the jurors in the case of J. H. Tillman, caused an adjournment of court. Judge Gary said if the juror was not able to do duty today it would be determined what would be done. The case could proceed with eleven jurors if both sides consent and the defendant waives his rights as to the twelfth man.

Bought In Sage Farm and Andre Plot

NYACK, N. Y., Oct. 7.—A farm owned by Russell Sage at Sickletown, Rockland county, was sold at the county tax sale for nonpayment of taxes, amounting to $118. It was bought in by the county. The county also bought in the Andre monument property at Tappan, where Cyrus W. Field erected a monument to mark the spot of Major Andre's execution.

The Uncertainty of Life.

RICHLAND CENTER, Wis., Oct. 7.—Rev. Jacob Marks, aged seventy-four, while attending the semiannual conference of the Richland Union church at Excelsior, fell into a chair and died at the close of a few remarks to the conference in which he had dwelt on the uncertainty of life. Death was due to heart failure.

President Will Visit Australia.

BOSTON, Oct. 7.—In response to repeated and urgent letters and cablegrams Dr. Francis E. Clark, president of the World's Christian Endeavor union, has decided to accept invitations to visit New Zealand, Australia and Tasmania, and he will sail in a few weeks.

Carmine Gaimari Must Die.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 7.—The court of appeals affirmed the conviction and sentence of death against Carmine Gaimari for the murder of Josephine Santa Petro in New York. The two quarreled over money, and Gaimari used a pistol, with fatal result.

Guilty of Manslaughter.

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 7.—Ariosito Perisico was found guilty of manslaughter in causing the death of Andrew J. Hallisey and was sentenced by Judge George W. Wheeler to no less than eight nor more than ten years in state prison

THE WORLD'S RECORD

German Electric Car Makes Quickest Time.

A SPEED OF 125 MILES PER HOUR

Electric Force Was Capable of Driving the Car 200 Miles Per Hour. Heavy Life Insurance For Those on Trial Trip.

BERLIN, Oct. 7.—An electric car on the Marienfelde-Zossen experimental line reached a speed of 125 4-5 miles per hour, or a kilometer more than the highest previous record, at a trial just made.

The machinery and roadbed were unimpaired. The engineers are determined to try for still higher speeds and venture the opinion that they will be able to attain the rate of 140 miles per hour.

The current was between 13,000 and 14,000 volts, capable of driving the car at the rate of over 200 miles. This power is reduced by transformers to about 450 volts. The car used had four motors having together about 1,100 horse power. It was constructed on the Siemens-Halske system.

The lives of all on board the experimental car were heavily insured.

A large party of engineers, military men and civilians gathered at Dallwitz, where the highest points of speed are reached in these experiments. A French observer remarked that the new sensation of the power of velocity inspired by the car's flight was worth traveling from Paris to see.

There were twelve or fourteen persons on board the car, all technical men. They affirm that the motion of the car was no greater than that of an ordinary express train.

A curious phenomenon accompanying the car was the continuous sparking of electricity from the six trolley arms.

While the engineers do not believe a speed of 125 miles is practicable at present on the state railroads, they are prepared to recommend a speed of ninety-three miles an hour between Berlin and Hamburg.

Alleged Murderer Looked On.

BARRE, Vt., Oct. 7.—In the presence of an immense throng, but without the band of music which usually accompanies an Italian funeral and the formality of priestly rites, the body of Eli Corti, who met his death in a clash between the bands of socialists and anarchists at Socialists' hall, was consigned to a grave in Hope Protestant cemetery. From a cell window overlooking the cemetery Alexander Garretto, the alleged murderer of Corti, watched the funeral procession as 200 Italians followed the bier of their anarchist leader to his last resting place.

Charges Against National Guard.

DENVER, Oct. 7.—In connection with rumors that a scandal of wide proportions had developed in the management of the Cripple Creek campaign of the Colorado national guard Governor Peabody gave out the following statement: "Charges and specifications against certain men and officers in the Colorado national guard have been filed with me which will be immediately inquired into. They are charges of a most serious nature, and I shall order a court martial to investigate them thoroughly."

Insane Man's Curious Suicide.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 7.—James Haldane, an inmate of the insane asylum, was not considered of a dangerous class and was permitted to have charge of a team. He drove the horses to the reservoir, where he fastened a logging chain to a four inch pipe at the side of the pond and placed the other end of the chain around his neck. He attached another chain to the doubletrees and fastened the end of it around his neck. He then whipped up the horses, and they sprang forward. He was decapitated.

Nineteen New Cases of Yellow Fever.

LAREDO, Tex., Oct. 7.—The number of new cases of yellow fever as compared with previous figures shows a slight decrease, nineteen new cases having developed. The experts say there is no cause for alarm over the late increase, as it but indicates the beginning of the end. The latest reports from Minera, a mining town up the river, state that there have been three deaths out of five cases.

General Pearson's Sudden Death.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—General Robert N. Pearson, assistant city paymaster, dropped dead of heart disease in his office in the city hall here. The decedent entered the civil war as a private and came home with a brevet title of brigadier general in command of the old regiment once commanded by John A. Logan.

Endeavorers Capture Barre.

BARRE, Vt., Oct. 7.—This town was given over to Christian Endeavorers, who came here to attend the eighteenth annual convention of the State Christian Endeavor union. The services were held in the Baptist church, which was decorated with the colors of the society.

Sultan Grants Royal Edict.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—The royal edict granting the University of Chicago the right to excavate at Bismya, in Babylonia, has just been issued by the sultan of Turkey. The edict, or "firman," is the result of negotiations carried on at the porte by President Harper.

Horse Thieves Must Beware.

RICHMOND, Ind., Oct. 7.—At the session of the National Horse Thief Detective association here a membership of 1,160 was reported

THE MORMONS ARE POLITE

REV. C. E. HERRING DESCRIBED THEM TO MEN'S CLUB LAST NIGHT.

Congregational Church Organization Elected Officers—First Meeting of Year.

Rev. C. E. Herring, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, gave an account of his travels through the west during the past summer to the members of the Men's Club of the Congregational church last night. One of the interesting features of his journey he said was his experience with the Mormons in Utah. In spite of his lack of sympathy with the tenets of the religion, he stated that he could not but admit that, as a people, the Mormons were the most courteous encountered by him in his travels.

These officers were elected: President, W. B Wadsworth; vice president, Alexander Millar; secretary, J. A. Powlison; treasurer, Charles E. Steiner. Sidney Dunning and Samuel Harper were elected to the executive committee.

INSTALLATION PROGRAMME.

Elizabeth Presbytery Arranges Details for Mr. Zelie's Induction.

Preparations were made at the session of the Elizabeth Presbytery at Lemington, N. J., yesterday, for the installation of Rev. John Zelie as pastor of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church on Thursday evening, October 15, at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church. Rev. Dr. Cornelius Mott, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, Elizabeth, will preach the sermon. Rev. Dr. A. V. V. Raymond, of Schenectady, N. Y., formerly pastor of Trinity Reformed Church, of this city, will deliver the charge to the pastor, and Rev. Dr. William R. Richards, of the Brick Presbyterian Church, N. Y., Mr. Zelie's predecessor here, will deliver the address to the people. Rev. Dr. Bliss, of New York, a former pastor of the Crescent Avenue Church, Rev. C. E. Herring, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church and Rev. J. O. McKelvey, pastor of Warren Chapel, will also officiate at the services. Gilbert Lovell, son of Leander Lovell, will be ordained that evening as an evangelist and will leave shortly for the mission fields in India.

Rev. N. J. Sproul, pastor of the Dunellen Church, was given letters of dismissal to the First Church at Quincy, Mass. The Presbytery adjourned to meet in this city Thursday, October 15.

PUBLIC LIBRARY MEETING.

Directors Transact Purely Routine Business at Regular Session.

The library committee reported at a meeting of the Public Library directors last night that it had passed favorably on the application of Prof. Leonard, of Chicago University. All bills against the institution were ordered paid from the general and Babcock funds. The applications of Miss Hartridge, of the Randolph-Cooley school, and Miss Hertzel, of Westfield, for library privileges, were referred to the library committee with power as was also the matter of fixing the price of the new class lists. The librarian's report was ordered received and placed and on file.

WILL SUSTAINED.

The Court Dismisses Caveat Filed Against Mr. Waldron's Testiment.

Judge Connett, of Lebanon, yesterday dismissed the caveat filed by Mrs. Mary Hall in her effort to break the will of the late Henry C. Waldron who died here in April, leaving an estate valued at $8,000. George Waldron, of West Fourth street, is the executor. It was contended that the will was loosely drawn and undue influence had been brought to bear. The property was left to the son and one daughter. The daughter is Mrs. Fanny Wygand, of Lebanon. Hetfield and Hetfield appeared for the validity of the will.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—A cup of coffee is a joy forever if it is made of the right kind of bean. Neuman Brothers' famous Java and Mocha and Old Government Java is the standard. It can't be surpassed.

—Frank Shepherd, of Manning avenue, while at work at Westfield a few days ago, got a piece of lime in his eye and he is now in danger of losing the sight in the optic.

—The Leo XIII moving picture exhibition at the Casino Thursday, will be, it is said, the most perfect of any before presented here. Clergy, press and public commend them, and under the direction of expert operators with latest improved mechanism and lense, the biograph projects a large and steady picture.

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

At the prayer-meeting to be held in the chapel of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church tonight, "Some Elements of our Religious Life and Thought which connect with Jonathan Edwards," will be the subject of an address to be made by the pastor, Rev. John Sheridan Zelie.

MRS. JOEL MANNING DEAD.

Aged Women's Career Ended by Paralysis.

Mrs. Joel Manning, of South Plainfield, died this morning following a second stroke of paralysis. Since the first stroke several months ago, Mrs. Manning has not enjoyed good health. She lived in the vicinity of where she died most of her life. She was a member of the First Baptist Church and a regular attendant there.

Mrs. Manning was seventy-six years of age. Surviving her a husband and two daughters, the Misses Sarah and Harriet Manning. The funeral services will be held from the late home Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock and the interment will be in Hillside Cemetery.

Wreck Case on Trial.

The only case of interest to Plainfielders which came up in the Circuit Court at Elizabeth today was that of A. M. Line, whose daughter, Mary, was injured in the Westfield disaster last January. Craig A Marsh, Esq, represents the Plaintiffs, and W. A. Barkalew, Esq., Counsel for the Central New Jersey Railroad.

AN ORDINANCE

to amend an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to Establish, Regulate and Control a Fire Department in the City of Plainfield," approved May 6, 1889.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That Section 10 of said ordinance be and the same is hereby amended, by striking out the word "Foremen" in said Section 10, and inserting in place thereof the word "Captains."

Adopted by the Common Council Oct. 5, 1903; approved by the Mayor Oct. 5, 1903.

OLIN L. JENKINS, Mayor.

Attest: J. T. MacMurray, City Clerk.

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that an ordinance, entitled an ordinance for the laying out and opening of Myrtle Avenue, from the center line of Compton Avenue to the city line in Green Brook, a copy of which is subjoined to this notice, has been introduced before the Common Council, read the second time, and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the Common Council to adopt such ordinance at the regular meeting of the Common Council to be held in the Council Chamber, No. 149 North Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, N. J., at eight o'clock p. m., on Monday, the Second day of November, A. D. nineteen hundred and three, at which time and place prior to the adoption of said ordinance, said ordinance will be considered by the Common Council, and all persons interested may be heard before the Common Council with reference to the proposed ordinance.

By order of the Common Council,

JAMES T. MACMURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., October 5, 1903.

AN ORDINANCE

for the laying out and opening of Myrtle Avenue, from the center line of Compton Avenue to the city line in Green Brook.

Whereas, the Common Council have judged and do hereby judge that the public good requires that Myrtle Avenue should be laid out and opened between the points named in the title to this ordinanc, therefore

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That a public street, to be known as Myrtle Avenue, be and the same is hereby ordered laid out and opened in said city as hereinafter specified, that is to say:

The center line of said street shall begin at an an iron manhole head, marked, being the intersection of the center lines of Dunellen and Compton Avenues as now laid out and opened, and running from said point in a magnetic course of north fifty-nine degrees and three minutes east over lands now or formerly of Halstead C. Compton and Christian C. Sprech, a distance of three hundred and thirty-four and fifty-one one-hundredths feet to a point of curve; thence curving to the left, with a radius of one thousand feet, over lands now or formerly of Christian C. Sprech and Mary C. Moore and Caroline R. Moore, a distance of three hundred and fifty and twenty-three one hundredths feet to a point of tangent; thence in a course of north thirty-eight degrees and fifty-nine minutes east, over lands now or formerly of the said Mary C. Moore and Caroline R. Moore and Halstead C. Compton, a distance of ninety-seven and fifty one hundredths feet to a point in the center line of Green brook, said point being also in the city and county line and there to end. Said street shall be sixty-six feet in width, that is to say, thirty-three feet on each side of said center line and the roadway shall be forty feet in width, that is to say, twenty feet on each side of said center line. Said center line and also the side and curb lines of said street are delineated on a certain map filed with the City Clerk October 3d, 1903, entitled "Map showing proposed laying out and opening of Myrtle avenue, from Compton avenue to Green brook, Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 1903," to which reference is hereby made for greater certainty.

The lands real estate and appurtenances to be taken for the laying out and opening of said Myrtle avenue on the northwesterly side of said center line of said center line of said proposed street from the center line of Compton avenue to the city line in Green brook, are all those lands, real estate and appurtenances included between said centre line and a line thirty-three feet distant therefrom and parallel therewith and includes all that part of the land, real estate and appurtenances now or formerly of Halstead C. Compton, Christian C. Sprech, and Mary C. Moore and Caroline R. Moore which lies within said lines.

The lands, real estate and appurtenances to be taken for the laying out and opening of said Myrtle avenue on the southeasterly side of said center line of said proposed street from the center line of Compton avenue to the city line in Green brook, are all those lands, real estate and appurtenances included between said center line and a line thirty-three feet distant therefrom and parallel therewith, and includes all that part of the land, real estate and appurtenances now or formerly of Halstead C. Compton, Christian C. Sprech and Mary C. Moore and Caroline R. Moore, which lies within said lines.

The lands, real estate and appurtenances to be taken and the lines of the proposed street as the same is hereinbefore ordered to be laid out and opened, are shown on said map on file with the City Clerk, hereinabove referred to and made a part hereof.

LION BRAND YARNS.

If you knit or crochet, use Lion Brand Yarns. We have sold them for the past 15 years, consequently we know their good qualities. They give universal satisfaction. They are rewound after dyeing, which prevents them matting, and leaves them soft, elastic and easy to work. We carry a most complete line of shades in Shetland Floss, Shetland Wool, Pansy, Germantown and Saxony. Also Midnight Zephyr in both 4 fold and 8 fold. Shades can always be duplicated. We have the Lion Brand book of instructions, containing a vast amount of useful information about crocheting and knitting.

About KId Gloves. Nothing adds to a woman's consciousness of being well dressed so much as fine, perfect fitting Kid Gloves. Good Kid Gloves are always most satisfactory and quite as cheap in the end than the less expensive grades, which are necessarily lacking somewhere. The "Fowne's," "Centemeri" and P. & L. make a worthy trio in the Kid Glove world. Fowne's mannish Gloves, with open seams, are ideal for street wear, and possess style and durability in a marked degree. "Fowne's Eugenie" dress kids, made of real kid, will meet every requirement of the Kid Glove trade.

"Centemeri" Kids are too well known to need elaborate comment A well earned reputation for reliability creates a steady demand for them which we are prepared to meet.

P. & L. Kid Gloves are known all over the world as the best $1.00 Glove made. Our experience with them bears out their reputation and we recommend them most heartily to those who will pay out $1.00 for Kids. The fall importation now ready.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN.

One of the seven firemen on the Central who were promoted to engineers last week, was Fireman Nealy, of the borough. He has for some time fired for Engineer Whynkoop.

Mrs. Catherine Dealaman has returned home after spending a week visiting her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Dealaman.

The large number of witnesses from the borough who have been subpoened to appear at the Supreme Court at New Brunswick in the case of the alleged "speak easies," made another trip to the county seat yesterday. The case has not yet been decided and it may be necessary for them to appear again.

Regular weekly prayer meeting will be held this evening in the Presbyterian Church.

The Watchung baseball team, under the management of John McMahan, will play the Plainfield A. C. again on Saturday. "Jack" is getting together a good team and expects to finish the season with a victory.

A special school election will be held tomorrow evening to decide whether to appropriate $400 for the fitting up of another school room. This is indeed an important question, and the men should certainly be interested enough in the education of their children to come around and vote.

Mrs. Lydia Vail has returned home from a visit with friends in Lancaster, Pa.

An additional gang of men has been added on the new factory of the Aluminum Press Company at West Dunellen, and the work on the foundation and trestle is progressing rapidly.

A letter has been received from Lewis S. Thomas, who is now at Manila, stating that he will not return this fall as expected.

NEW MARKET.

The wedding of Miss Lizzie Dolliver to William Rowland, of Metuchen, will take place this evening at the home of the bride.

Sam Dent and Charles Ward visited friends in Somerville last evening.

Charles Kelly's new house on Prospect avenue, is rapidly nearing completion and is expected to be ready for occupancy by the first of November.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Mrs. Emeline Dunham, of Cranford, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Brantingham.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brantingham will remove soon to Plainfield.

The semi-annual meeting of the Woman's Baptist Foreign Mission Society of the East New Jersey Association will be held Friday at Scotch Plains. Members from here will attend.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The regular monthly meeting of the trustees of the Baptist Church was held last night.

Miss Alice Shott, who has been visiting friends at Yonkers, N. Y., has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gray have been entertaining Mr. Gray's brother, from New York, for a few days.

John Patterson, who has been spending a week with friends and relatives in town, has returned to his position at the Morris Plains State Hospital.

The Women's Baptist Mission Circle, of the East New Jersey Association, held their annual meeting in the Baptist Church Friday of this week. Two sessions will be held during the day, the morning meeting being at 10 and the afternoon at 2. The delegates will be entertained at dinner, by the ladies of the local association.

Owing to the Sunday-school convention at Cranford tomorrow night, no teachers meeting of the Baptist Sunday-school will be held.

Miss Bella Mercein has returned from a visit with her sister in Plainfield.

Dr. James McDonough, who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Wm. McDonough, has returned to his home at Montclair.

Nicholas Alberts is enjoying a week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Cruse, who have been boarding at The Homestead, have rented the Barnhart cottage in the borough.

Arthur Kelley, formerly of the village, but now of Rahway, has been visiting friends in town.

The Union County Sunday-school Association hold a convention meeting at Cranford tomorrow. Three sessions will be held, morning afternoon and evening. In the evening the speaker will be Rev. G. C. Lorimer, of New York. A number of the local Sunday-school workers will attend.

William Earl, who has been quite ill for a week, is reported as improving.

The members of the Amity Club enjoyed one of their interesting weekly meetings for reading and study last night.

Manager Johnston, as a closing attraction for the lovers of baseball, has arranged Saturday's game with the genuine Cuban X Giants, the champion colored team of the world. The attraction comes high but the club wishes to make its closing game of the season one of the best the fans have had this season. Game called at 3:30.

The Board of Education met in the school parlors last night. Routine business was transacted.

Isaac Farley, a well-known local character, was haled before Judge Clark Tuesday afternoon, charged by his father, Andrew Farley, who is nearly 80 years of age, with disorderly conduct and assault and battery. Isaac has given the father a great deal of trouble through his drinking. When he arrived home Monday night under the influence of Jersey lightning, his sire remonstrated with him. Ike retaliated by attempting to clean house, knocking the old gentleman down and breaking things up in general. Patience had ceased to be a virtue with the father, so he decided to swear out a warrant for the son's arrest. Judge Clark decided, and the public agrees with him that $10 and costs or 60 days would about fit Ike's case. As the money was not forthcoming he is enjoying Warden Dodd's hospitality for a time.

W. A. OF U. V. U. ENTERTAIN.

Programme Presented at Meeting in G. A. R. Hall.

Under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Union Veterans' Union, an entertainment and social was held last night in the G. A. R. rooms in East Front street. Several recitations by Miss Try Mattox and Mrs. Andrew Cox and the appearance of two black-face artists, who gave a selection of popular solos and duets, were features.

A Perfect Painless Pill

is the one that will cleanse the system, set the liver to action, remove the bile, clear the complexion, cure headache and leave a good taste in the mouth. The famous little pills for doing such work pleasantly and effectually are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Bob Moore, of Lafayette, Ind., says: "All other pills I have used gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers are simply perfect." Sold by L. W. Randolph.

Ten Thousand Churches
in the United States have used the Longman & Martinez Pure Paints.

Every Church will be given a liberal quantity whenever they paint.

Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for Linseed oil (worth 60 cents) which you do when you buy thin paint in a can with a paint label on it.

8 & 6 make 14, therefore when you want fourteen gallons of paint, buy only eight gallons of L. & M., and mix six gallons of pure linseed oil with it.

You need only four gallons of L. & M. Paint, and three gallons of Oil mixed therewith to paint a good sized house.

Houses painted with these paints never grow shabby, even after 18 years.

These celebrated paints are sold by
WOOLSTON & BUCKLE, Plainfield.
H. C. MEYER, Scotch Plains.

THE UNION BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION
PLAINFIELD, N. J.,
offers exceptional inducements to small investors. Our earnings last year were nearly 9 per cent. You can subscribe for one or more shares at 50c per month. Each share will be worth $100 when they mature. These shares may be withdrawn at any time and after one year with interest at the rate of six per cent.

A new series will be opened on Monday evening, Oct. 12, at 146 Park avenue.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

Wardrobe Hints—The New Light Weight Velvets.

A tea gown or tea jacket or two are delightful to slip on for an afternoon tea.

Some variety in simple evening toilets is desirable, and trimmings, collars and fichus whereby these may still further be varied may be made in odd hours out of remnants.

A really gorgeous evening cloak will probably last several seasons, but such a garment is not one that will do duty for outdoor as well as for indoor wear.

Velvet of a light make with a beautifully soft finish known as chiffon velvet will be without exception the favorite material for winter modes. Consequently no one can do better than use this lovely material for a wrap combining warmth, lightness and considerable beauty. The old stiff mantle velvets do not appeal to many of us. They are too harsh to drape in the classical folds demanded in the wrap of the moment.

MOUSSELINE DRESS.

Bell sleeves are very popular for long wraps, and many are gathered into a wide cuff which is amply loose to slip over the sleeve of the gown and still protect the wrists.

A complete frock in brown is perhaps the smartest costume. A recent model had a round skirt with about six rows of gaugings below the waist. The blouse bodice was also gauged and fastened on the side with acorn buttons. It showed an inner collar of wash muslin and a silk tie of pink and black spotted foulard.

The picture shows a gown of mousseline de soie trimmed with medallions of lace. JUDIC CHOLLET.

SMART MATERIALS.

The New Friezes and Hopsackings. Decided Colors.

The new friezes and hopsacks with bright coloring irregularly powdered over the surface are already being used for early autumn gowns, and when trimmed with velvet and small silk studs or buttons the effect is very elegant. The trimming must be of the lightest description, as too much colored velvet is a great mistake. Small tabs here and there, a belt, a collar and cuffs are all effective, but should be applied with discretion or the effect is patchy and amateurish.

In the new mixtures the colors are decided, but so deftly arranged that the effect is elegant and subdued. Green will undoubtedly be fashionable, but no great popularity for green materials is anticipated. It will be more generally used as a "relief" color and is sure to be a prominent feature of autumn and winter millinery.

A long straight effect is conspicuous in autumn skirts, and smart walking toilets are made with a skirt which just reaches the ground at the front and sides and is quite long at the back. Cloth visiting gowns and those intended for smart wear have insertions of lace and passementerie bands.

Very fine net (which is usually taken for tulle) is strewn with embroidered motifs or lavishly diamante, while bold applique scrolls of elaborate embroidery are used on satin gowns. Oriental embroideries are very chic on white or black gowns, and the tiny cup paillettes are used on net and lace robes, though in light, trailing designs instead of heavily massed as of yore.

The picture shows a white felt hat trimmed with ribbon rosettes and doves. JUDIC CHOLLET.

JAPAN IS READY.

Yokohama Reports Say Army and Navy Are Well Equipped.

YOKOHAMA, Oct. 7.—With the approach of Oct. 8, the nominal date for Russia's evacuation of Manchuria, great attention is observable among the Japanese populace, but in diplomatic circles it is reaffirmed that hopefulness prevails of an amicable settlement of the imbroglio between Russia and Japan on the basis of minor concessions by Russia in Korea and Manchuria, though officials do not profess to expect that the evacuation of Manchuria will be effected on the exact date.

Baron von Rosen, the Russian minister to Japan, has returned here from a conference with Viceroy Alexieff at Port Arthur and had a short conference with Baron Komura, the Japanese foreign minister. Baron Komura has given out a hopeful interview, but the Japanese ministers for war and navy thereafter had long conferences with the emperor, Marquis Ito, president of the privy council, and Viscount Katsu, the premier, indicating that preparations are going on to meet any eventuality. The fleet and the army are both without question in readiness, and large supplies for both the army and navy have been accumulated. The arsenals have been quietly at work for a long time past, and the defenses have been minutely inspected.

Popular feeling in Japan is exasperated at Russia's dilatory tactics, and the excitement has been aggravated by the sensational press, which is constantly circulating rumors of fresh Russian aggressions.

WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP.

Pittsburg Now Leads in the Series Three to One.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 7.—Notwithstanding showers and threatening weather the first game on the home grounds of the world championship series between Pittsburg and Boston was played, resulting in a victory for the local team, 5 to 4.

Philippe again pitched for Pittsburg, and again was his great work mainly responsible for the downfall of the American league champions. His control was perfect and his support superb, a dropped thrown ball by Bransfield being the only misplay. Only four singles were made off his delivery up to the ninth inning. However, in this inning the visitors developed a batting streak and for a moment seemed likely to tie the score, but he steadied down and retired the side after three runs had been scored.

For Boston Dineen was hit rather hard at times. His support was also of the best.

Boston did not score until the fifth, when Lachance's single, Ferris' sacrifice and Criger's single gave them one run. This was the extent of their run getting until the ninth, when Collins, Stahl, Freeman, Lachance and Ferris all hit safely and aided by Farrell's long fly netted them three runs.

The series now stands three to one in favor of Pittsburg.

An Irish Girl Golfer.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7.—For the first time on record a foreign woman athletic star began a test of her prowess against American girls in her chosen sport, that of golf. Men champions of tennis, golf, cricket and what not have crossed the Atlantic to win if possible new trophies in this country, but Miss Rhona Adair, golf champion of England and Ireland, is the first of her sex to follow their example. Miss Adair came as the guest of Mrs. Clement A. Griscom, whose daughter, Miss Frances Griscom, is an expert golfer, in order to play in an invitation golf tournament tendered to her by her hostess.

Grenade an Easy Winner.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Warm weather and a good card drew a fair crowd to Morris park. Grenade, heavily played, easily won the Rancho del Paso stakes from Wotan, who was a head in front of Adriutha. Grenade lead from start to finish. The Meadowbrook Hunters' steeplechase went to Almanzor. Manilian and Almanzor were the pacemakers for about two and a half miles, when Manilian weakened, and Almanzor drew away and won easily by five lengths from Manilian. Morelitos Chief was third.

Racing at Worth.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Through another one of her sensational stretch runs Delagoa won the feature event at Worth by a neck. She was the even money favorite and heavily played. Burnie Bunton, second choice in the betting, set all the pace, but was no match for the winner at the end and finished second. Big Ben was five lengths back in third place and a head in front of Harry McDaniel.

Two Lick Won by a Nose.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 7.—Two Lick, heavily played, won the handicap at the fair grounds by the smallest margin. Mimo was second and Elastic third. Two Lick got away in fourth position, but went to the front quickly and led into the stretch by six lengths. Halfway down the stretch Mimo engaged Two Lick in a hard drive for the wire, and the latter barely won by a short nose.

Close Game at Columbus.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 7.—The Cincinnati Nationals defeated the Cleveland Americans in the third game of the series, which was played here. An error by Gochnauer in the sixth inning gave the Cincinnatis a chance to make their two runs which won the game. The game was characterized by fast fielding. Score—Cincinnati, 2; Cleveland, 1.

Nationals' Better Play.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—The Nationals defeated the Americans by all around better play, getting their hits at the right time and lining out long flies with men on third that scored them easily. Score—Nationals, 5; Americans, 2.

Americans Three Straight.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 7.—The Americans again won from the Nationals. This makes it three straight games for the American league. Score—Americans, 10; Nationals, 2.

Moody Merrill Again Indicted.

BOSTON, Oct. 7.—Moody Merrill, formerly a prominent business man here, who was arrested in New York last May on an indictment warrant issued from this state ten years ago and who is now under $10,000 bonds to answer to the charges, has again been indicted by a Suffolk county grand jury. The new indictment contains all the counts in the old one and has several new counts and alleges embezzlement amounting to about $28,000. Merrill is now in Mexico.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

The Berlin police report an average of one arrest daily for suspected plots against the kaiser.

The Brazilian government has made a $25,000,000 contract with a London firm for harbor and dock improvements at Rio Janeiro.

Joseph Chamberlain has started for Glasgow to open his fiscal campaign. Birmingham gave him a popular godspeed.

British opinion is that the new cabinet is weak and that the government cannot last long. It is rumored that the Marquis of Londonderry may retire.

The advantages of entrusting the care, management and ultimate distribution of an estate to a Trust Company, rather than to an individual are obvious.

First—The trust company is governed by stringent laws, especially designed to safeguard the interests of its customers and, second, its capital is pledged as security for the faithful administration of its trusts.

SPORTING NEWS.

FOOTBALL.

Alis will play her first game of football Saturday afternoon against the Columbia Field Club eleven of Jersey City. The game will be called at 3:30 on Crescent Oval.

The Carlton A. C. eleven will practice at the Carlton avenue grounds Thursday night. The team will play Orange F. C. Saturday on Orange Oval.

The Eagles is the name of a new football team which promises to make the scream heard throughout the city this fall. The team is composed of members of the Eagle baseball team and they are desirous of booking games with out of town teams averaging 135 pounds. The team is to be managed by William F. Walters and it will be captained by Frank M. Mague. The line-up is Frank Mague, lhb; Harry Manning, re; James Emery, rt; James Nanisky, rg; James Pangborn, c; Norman Barnes, lf; William Mague, rt; Martin O'Laughlin, le; J. Martin, qb; James Scott, fb; Adam Scott, rhb. Communications should be addressed to W. F. Walters, Lee place.

IN FANDOM.

About three hundred people from this city attended Saturday's game at Elizabeth between the Star A. C., of that city and Poughkeepsie.

Burch, second baseman, and Noyes, third baseman, for Alis, attracted considerable favorable comment by their work Saturday in the game with Scotch Plains. No hit was safe that landed anywhere within their jurisdiction. They also did clever work with the stick. Armbruster's backstop work was also a feature of Alis' play.

Undoubtedly the second game of the series between St. Mary and Westfield will have to be played at Westfield as the management of the Plainfield team cannot arrange for the use of Crescent Oval. It is to be regretted that the Plainfield people cannot see these teams play in this city.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

An attraction at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club Saturday will be an afternoon tea and musical by a New York orchestra. The affair will be continued from 3 to 6 o'clock and an effort will be made to have a very enjoyable time.

There will be a business meeting of the Alis Club Friday night instead of tonight. Football practice will take place after the meeting.

The Alis Club has closed its baseball season. Next Saturday the club will open the football season.

The first meeting of the Girls' Olympia Club, of the North Plainfield High School, will be held at 2:30 this afternoon.

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Employes at Walter Scott's press works had a half day off yesterday afternoon owing to the breaking down of the engine.

Typographical Union, No. 399, will meet tonight in Washington Hall for the transaction of monthly business.

John Little, foreman of the Campbell Printing Press Company, is in Plainfield on business for the firm.

George Gould, of the Campbell Printing Press Company, is spending the week in Philadelphia.

George Smith, formerly of the Potter Press Company's plant, has taken a position in the blue print room of the Pond Machine Tool Company's works.

Joseph Courian has been transferred from the foundry to the machine shop at the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant.

One hundred marble cutters and setters, employes of the Grant Marble Company, quit work Tuesday, at Milwaukee. This is a step in the fight between the National Marble Workers' Association and the National Union.

ANNUAL MEETING OF TEMPERANCE WORKERS

Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson Presiding at Yearly Session of Union County W. C. T. U.

PLAINFIELDERS THERE

MORNING, AFTERNOON AND EVENING SESSIONS.

Miss May S. Voorhees Offered Prayer—Mrs. E. Craig to Recite—Reports Read—The Present Officers.

Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson, of East Seventh street, called to order this morning the nineteenth annual convention of the Union County Woman's Christian Temperance Union in the Park M. E. Church at Elizabeth. A large delegation of Plainfield white ribboners are attending the session. Following a scripture reading and hymn, prayer was offered by Miss May S. Voorhees, of this city. Mrs. E. S. Baker, president of Elizabeth Union, No. 2, delivered the address of welcome, and the response was by Mrs. F. R. Baker, of Westfield.

Mrs. Tomlinson made the president's annual address which was an able review of the year's work and exposition of the objects of temperance. The reports of the corresponding secretary, Mrs. M. L. Rarick, of Dunellen, and the treasurer, Mrs. Mary T. Cox, of Cranford, were presented. The election of officers was followed by Bible readings by Mrs. Anna M. Hammer, of Bayonne, the National evangelist. The morning festivities closed with the noontide prayer, and luncheon was served immediately after.

The session this afternoon began at 3 o'clock with devotions by Mrs. Scriven Stoddard, of Elizabeth. The reading of the reports of the superintendent and committees and informal discussions will occupy most of the time. Mrs. L. Ussing will read a paper describing the work accomplished among foreigners.

This evening the programme will consist largely of recitations in competition for a medal. Mrs. E. A. Craig, of this city, will recite "Good Night Papa." Other contestants will be Mrs. G. T. Schencke, of Dunellen, Miss Florence M. Brewer and Miss Laura Wilcox, of Westfield, Miss M. Louise Underhill, of Rahway, and Miss Grace Hummer and Mrs. J. Lowder, of Elizabeth. Music and speeches will complete the exercises.

The county officers are these: President, Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson, of this city; corresponding secretary, Mrs. M. L. Rarick, Dunellen; recording secretary, Mrs. G. M. Mosher, Westfield; treasurer, Mrs. Mary T. Cox, Cranford. Honorary vice presidents: Mrs. Scriven Stoddard, Miss Julia A. Barker.

WEDDING AT HIGH NOON

CHARLES M. DOLLIVER, OF THIS CITY, WAS AN USHER.

Rev. O. M. Voorhees, of Three Bridges, Officiated—Many Guests Present—Mr. and Mrs. Rowland to Reside in Metuchen.

The marriage of Miss Lizzie Dolliver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Q. Dolliver, of New Market, to William M. Rowland, of Metuchen, was celebrated at the bride's home at high noon yesterday. Rev. O. M. Voorhees, of the Reformed Church, of Three Bridges, the bride's former pastor, performed the ceremony.

The bride was gowned in pearl colored cloth trimmed with white silk and carried a bunch of bridal roses. She was attended by Miss Edith Rowland, of North Branch, who was dressed in blue silk and carried a bunch of white chrysanthemums. George Dolliver, the bride's brother, was best man and the ushers were Charles M. Dolliver, Esq., of this city, a cousin of the bride, and Jacob E. Mattison, of Three Bridges.

The house was decorated in green and white. The bride was the recipient of many pretty and useful gifts. Guests were present from Three Bridges, Neshanic, North and South Branch, Pluckamin, Metuchen, Harlingen and New Market, as well as this city. Mr. and Mrs. Rowland will reside in Metuchen.

DEMOCRATS CHANGE RULES

TERMS OF SOMERSET'S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEEMEN EXTENDED.

Heretofore Custom Has Been for Them to Serve From January to December.

For some time it has been the custom in Somerset County for the Democratic voters to select at their fall primaries members of the county executive committee. Such committeemen were to serve for one year, their term of office to begin January 1 following and end with December of that year. At the meeting of the executive committee it has been resolved that the present members continue in office until September, 1904, under authority of the provisions (Sec. 6) of the new primary election law printed below:

"In any county in this State the county or city committee of any political party may adopt a resolution declaring its desire to have the members of such county or city committee thereafter elected for; and upon filing a copy of such resolution, signed by the chairman and secretary of such county or city committee, with the clerks of the several municipalities within such county, it shall be lawful thereafter to elect the members of such county or city committee at said primary elections in the maner provided in this act for the selection of party candidates to be voted for by the voters of a single ward or township."

The Boulevard.

Work was begun yesterday morning on Dunellen avenue to macadamize that thoroughfare from Compton avenue to Clinton avenue. This is the first step toward making of that thoroughfare a boulevard between this city and Dunellen. The road will be continued by the North Plainfield Common Council in the near future. It will connect with Myrtle avenue and will terminate at Pearl street and Watchung avenue.

Pythian Building Plans.

The plans and specifications for the proposed new Pythian building to be erected in this city, will be exhibited at the lodge rooms of Perseverance Lodge tomorrow evening. The plans have been prepared by A. C. Pope.

Masquerade Ball.

A masquerade ball is being planned by the young people of Warrenville for Saturday evening. Many people will be in attendance at the dance from this city.

TWO MINISTERS OFFICIATE AT WEDDING CEREMONY.

Nuptial Event Was Attended by Many Guests—Handsome Gifts—The Couple to Reside in This City.

Miss Margaret VanDeveer Beekman, of Clinton avenue, and Edwin Henry Beekman, of East Third street, were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Sarah Beekman, at 7:30 o'clock last night. Rev. Garrett Beekman, of Boston, an uncle of the groom, officiated. He was assisted by Rev. John McMurray, pastor of the Monroe Avenue M. E. Church. The home was tastefully adorned for the occasion, particularly the library, where the ceremony took place. Palms and potted plants were principally among the decorations.

Miss Bessie Bloomfield, of Somerville, and Miss Lucinda Beekman, a sister of the bride, were the bridesmaids. The groom was unattended. Horace McWilliams, of Bernardsville, and Arthur Beekman, brother of the groom, of this city, were ushers. The wedding march was played by Miss Charlotte Aldrich. The bride was gowned in white mousseline trimmed with lace and carried a bouquet of bridal roses, while the bridesmaids were gowned in simple white with pink sashes and carried pink carnations. The gifts were particularly numerous.

After the wedding ceremony a reception preceded the departure of the couple for their honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Beekman will reside in this city.

REGALIA FOR MISS BURKE

GIFT TO BOROUGH SCHOOL

COLLECTION OF BOOKS PRESENTED BY UNKNOWN FRIEND.

Volumes Placed in Auditorium of Somerset Street School.

Homer J. Wightman, superintendent of the North Plainfield High School, stated that a person, whose name he could not announce, has generously presented a large collection to the library of the school. The addition is a valuable one and consists of works of fiction and general literature by standard authors.

The State of New Jersey has for several years duplicated in cash all donations to school libraries and this recent gift will enable the school to secure many more books which are much needed. The volumes have been placed in the case in the auditorium and the reference books formerly kept there have been transferred to the main library room in the Superintendent's office.

Little Progress on House.

On account of the difficulty in securing the iron work for the roof of the new fire engine house in North Plainfield, work has been temporarily suspended on the building. The structure is practically completed excepting for the roof work which is to be of tile. The work of erecting the drying tower and the tall chimney on the side of the building has been almost completed.

SECOND-STORY MAN ARRESTED AT WORK

Servant Holds Man by Neck Until Mayor Smalley Arrives.

TAKEN TO THE LOCKUP

PRISONER FOUND IN HOUSE OF T. U. DUDLEY, JR.

Housemaid Effects Capture—Act Took Place This Afternoon—Caused Much Excitement—No Weapon on Person.

Behind the bars in the North Plainfield lockup is a man who is believed to be a clever "second story man" and the one who has committed several daylight robberies in North Plainfield during the past year. He is believed to be the man who robbed the home of Charles Matthews last spring. The fellow was arrested by Mayor Newton B. Smalley, who happened to be at his new home when the fellow was discovered ransacking the bureau drawers of the sleeping apartments in the home of T. U. Dudley, at 109 Sycamore avenue, a few doors away, shortly after noon today.

Mattie Strother, a nurse girl, was alone on the second floor of the house when she heard a noise in the front room. She looked in the door and saw a strange man ransacking the jewelry case. Thinking the fellow was Mr. Dudley, who had come home early, she started to walk away when the man turned and made a dash for the front door. The girl ran after him and at the foot of the hall stairs he was met by the cook, Eva Fisher, colored. She screamed and grappled with him. He fought hard but she held him tight and screamed. Augustus Mobus and Harry Johns were passing and they ran into the house and interviewed the fellow. They called to Mayor Smalley who was in his new house a few doors away and he rushed over and took the fellow to the lockup. He would not give his name but said that he was a bartender in New York. He said he had been in North Plainfield before.

In his possession was a fine gold watch of great value. When he was searched at the station house no weapons were found in his possession.

KIELY ON A COMMITTEE.

Local Chief Given Prominent Place in Superior Officers' Protective Association Affairs.

Chief of Police Patrick S. Kiely, of this city, was appointed a member of the committee on legislation of the Superior Officers' Police Protective Association of New Jersey at the seventh annual convention at Trenton yesterday. Leading police officials from all parts of the State were present. Assemblyman William Newcorn, of this city, was present as a guest at the evening entertainment. The festivities include a trolley ride to Princeton and a banquet. Newark was named as the place for the next convention.

REVIVAL SERVICES.

Many Speakers at Last Night's Meeting in the Reform Hall.

The revival services which have been successfully held at the Reform Club during the week were led last evening by C. T. Roach, of Bayonne, Robert White, of Jersey City, and Mrs. Robert Ross, of Bayonne. Remarks were made by Robert Love, William Richards, J. W. A. Bauersachs, Mark Lees, George Belcher and Mrs. Gilbert VanNess. Solos were rendered by Joseph Moon.

Henry Johnson, of the Florence Crittenden Mission for Fallen Women, New York, will lead the meeting tonight. August Barr will be the principal speaker tomorrow night and Sunday afternoon the Gospel Mission of Bayonne will have charge. The meetings will be continued next week.

Helping the Hospital.

ANTIETAM COMMAND ENTERTAINS WELL

Song and Story Features of Affair Given by Union Veterans' Union.

SOME SPEAKERS THERE

MAYOR SMALLEY AND ASSEMBLYMAN SWACKHAMER TALK.

Meeting in G. A. R. Hall—The Programme in Detail—Committee in Charge of the Affair.

A successful social gathering and entertainment marked the opening of the season's work of Antietam Command, No. 8, Union Veterans' Union, Third Regiment of New York and New Jersey, last evening in G. A. R. Hall on East Front street. Prominent citizens from this city and borough were present and made addresses and a pleasing programme was rendered. The hall was decorated with flags and bunting.

A prayer by Commander John Goodwin opened the exercises followed by a vocal trio consisting of Horace J. Martin, William Jeffery and Joseph Martin. They sang "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground" in a manner which brought much applause. John Manley sang as did John Goodwin, who also whistled "Listening to the Mocking Bird." A few remarks were made by Assemblyman Samuel S. Swackhamer, of North Plainfield, and by Mayor Newton B. Smalley. Speeches were also made by John Naylor, of this city, and Dr. W. A. Conover, of Red Bank. A cornet solo was rendered by E. E. Townley, accompanied by Mrs. John Manley and Fred Goodwin entertained with several selections on the piano. A feature was a trio of children's voices. Little Miss Evelyn Manley and her brothers, Alfred and John, sang "The Song of the Whip-poor-will." They were loudly applauded.

Master of Ceremonies Henry C. Drake told of the work of the order and reciting some of the incidents of soldier life during the war. Miss Levenia Seader favored with some piano selections. The committee in charge consisted of John R. Naylor, chairman; Henry C. Drake, Louis Willett, Edward VanderWeg and John Wagner, assisted by Mrs. E. E. Townley, Mrs. Louise Willett, Mrs. John W. Wagner and Mrs. John R. Naylor.

The members of the Women's Relief Union were present in a body and assisted materially in the success of the evening's entertainment. Late in the evening refreshments were served by the committee.

RUTGERS EXTENSION.

TRINITY ENDEAVORERS' ONE YEAR'S WORK

Annual Report of Reformed Church's Y. P. S. C. E. Encouraging.

WORK AS ACCOMPLISHED

GOOD DEEDS CONSPICUOUS DURING TWELVE MONTHS' SERVICE.

List of Those Lending Aid—The Donations Made—The Hard Tasks of the Various Committees.

The helpful work accomplished by the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of Trinity Reformed Church during the eighteen years since its founding, the anniversary of which was celebrated Monday night, is indicated by the report of the secretary, Miss Harriet C. Randall, submitted at that time. Some of the meetings of the past year, which have been of particular interest, were those in charge of the missionary and temperance committees and three led by honorary members. The members were assisted in many of their meetings during the year by E. E. Anthony, F. H. Andrews, Rev. N. J. Sproul, of Dunellen, Judge William N. Runyon, E. R. Taylor, Robert Love, Francis E. Whiteside, F. H. Martin, Robert Clark, Jr., Mr. VanEmburg, Miss Sara Currie and Mrs. F. E. Woodruff.

In addition to the regular meetings, a watch night service and an Easter sunrise prayer meeting were held, to which the other societies of the city were invited. These services were well attended. The lookout committee did good work in increasing the attendance during the year.

The missionary committee conducted several meetings which proved highly entertaining and instructive, stimulating the interest in both foreign and domestic missions. They also dressed eighteen dolls and provided 156 bags for Miss Currie's birthday party.

The members of the music committee have been especially active during the year. Under their direction a chorus choir was formed from members of the society. The choir has sung at the Y. M. C. A., and twice at the Netherwood Fresh Air Home. The song service at the Muhlenberg Hospital on the first Sunday in each month has also been continued under the direction of the society.

Two socials have been held by the society thus far this year and both have proved successful. Bouquets sent by the flower committee to the members of the society and church who have been sick have been greatly appreciated. The flower committee has also provided flowers for the church and decorated at the socials.

Donations were made during the year to Miss Currie's Day Nursery, the Netherwood and Westfield Fresh Air Camps and the King's Daughters' Fresh Air camp, and meetings were held at the Fresh Air camp and the East Third Street Mission. Systematic Bible study was taken up during the year.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—One of the voting machines is placed on display in Robert Trewin's barber shop, on Somerset street.

—Summons has been issued from Justice Huff's court in the case of Shreger against Foreman, landlord and tenant. Papers are returnable October 9.

—We make no charge to determine if your eyesight may be improved or headache relieved by wearing properly adjusted glasses. Stiles & Company, Philadelphia eye specialists, 107 East Front street, Thursday.

—It is expected that the Park Club members will be able to occupy a portion of the clubhouse during the latter part of the week, the work having progressed that far. The annual meeting of the club will be held tomorrow night.

—Repairs are being made to the blacksmith shop of Frank Hand on the Somerset street bridge. The building was partially destroyed by fire recently. What was formerly occupied by Nicholas Martone as a fruit store will be rented as a restaurant.

—The Mendelssohn Club, of New York, consisting of Charlotte Maude Miller, soprano and pianist; Douglas Lane, basso cantante; Ruby Gerard Brun, violinist and accompanist; and Robin Ellis, dramatic expressionist and dialect reader, will be the attraction at the first entertainment of the Y. M. C. A. Star Course, Monday evening, Oct. 12.

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Michael Mack, of Pond's foundry, is laid up at home by illness.

William Gredit has resigned his position at the Aluminum Press Company's plant.

Morris Fitz Gerald has taken a position at the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant.

Painters at Washington City will demand an increase in wages from $3 a day to $3.50.

Blast furnace workers of the United States will demand an eight-hour day on May 1, 1904.

John McClellan, of the Potter Press Company's plant, is in New Bedford on business for the firm.

Furniture workers at Grand Rapids, Mich., have demanded a nine-hour day with ten hours' pay.

The United Garment Workers of America has increased its membership from 8,000 to 60,000 in twelve years.

The Amalgamated Rubber Workers' Union of America will meet in convention at Akron, O., on October 12.

Joseph Bolby, of the Welmont Manufacturing Company's plant, visited friends in Roselle last evening.

A co-operative grocery has been launched at Elkhart, Ind., the Lake Shore shopmen being the prime movers.

A settlement of the strike in the building trades at Albany, N. Y., is in site. The strike has been on over two months.

It requires the labor of about 10,000,000 men and women for nine months of the year to harvest all the crops of the world.

Rioting has taken place among the discharged employes of the Consolidated Lake Superior Company, at Sault Ste. Marie.

Typographical Union, No. 899, initiated two new members at last night's meeting. Regular routine business of the month was discussed.

Jim Parent has resigned his position at the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant. Mr. Parent will take a position at the Rushmore Dynamo Company's works.

Samuel Warner, of the foundry of the Pond Machine Tool Company's works, is detained at home with a badly burned wrist, which he received at the plant this week.

George Rhinehardt was badly burned with a ladle of hot metal while at work in the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant yesterday. Rhinehardt was taken to his home in Dunellen, where he will be confined for a few days.

George Muir, of Essex street, is suffering from a badly lacerated finger. Young Muir was shifting a belt while at work in the Pond's plant yesterday. A piece of wire belt lacing caught in the lad's hand, cutting one of his fingers badly. The wound was dressed at the shop by Robert Gow.

Charles Utter, of the Potter Press Company's works, is suffering from a badly lacerated thumb. Utter runs a radial drill, and while working about the machine yesterday, had his thumb caught between a moving counterbore and a casting, cutting it badly. David Krymer dressed the wound at the shop.

While a laborer was moving a large casting in the foundry of the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, it slipped from him and fell on the right hand of Charles Greene, who was working on the floor. The hand was badly crushed but no bones were broken. The injured man will be unable to resume work this week.

John Martin, of the Aluminum Press Company's plant, is detained at home from the result of a fall at the shop last night. Martin was leaving the works at dusk and stumbled over a casting, cutting an ugly gash in his chin. Four stitches were taken in the wound. It will be several days before he will be able to resume his duties.

President Lynch, of the International Typographical Union, in the next issue of the organ of the union, will reply to charges that the oath subscribed to by members of the Union is antagonistic and paramount to religious obligations. He denies that the Typographical Union oath commands illegiance to that body above any duty to church or State.

Joe Robinson, of the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, and Jack Kelly, of the Aluminum Press Works, gave an exhibition foot race for a wager, Saturday afternoon. Both young men played football at Elizabethport. After the game they had ten minutes to catch a train from Elizabeth, to come to this city. It is a mile and a half from the Port to Elizabeth. Robinson made a wager that he could beat Kelly to the station. Kelly won the race.

Efforts are being made by the trades and labor unions of the South to eliminate child and female labor. The latest move made by the unions is to practically adopt the children employed in the mills. The unions pay to the parents the amount per week of wages that the child would earn in the mill on the condition that the children are taken out by the parents and sent to school. Thousands of children in the manufacturing centers of the South are thus now provided for by the unions.

Hoagland's express delivers promptly and with the goods always in first-class condition exactly as received.

If it's plants you want or any products of the gardener's art the place to go is the Belleview Avenue Nursery Company. They guarantee satisfaction.

Buy your fish for tomorrow's dinner at the Rogers Seafood Market, West Second street and it's diamonds to dog-biscuits you'll trade there permanently.

Sun, moon or rain can not injure a house painted with Woolston & Buckle's paint. It is made of pure white lead and fine linseed oil. The best is cheapest.

Peck's bad boy was a winner. So is Peck's merino underwear. West Front street. Visit the store and see for yourself. You will always get your money's worth at Peck's.

If you have not yet placed your order for painting or papering, give I. N. Wyckoff, of West Front street, an opportunity to bid for the work. He will give entire satisfaction.

Hardware specialties and furnishings are being offered by A. M. Griffin in a wide variety and at low prices. The goods purchased at this store can always be relied upon, being backed up by the best guarantee.

The wise woman who lives in the West End shows her wisdom by trading at Fred Firstbrook's grocery store on Liberty street. There money can be saved on each article bought. The famous red ribbon brand of coffee can be secured at Firstbrook's.

When it is a question of moving household furniture the owner wants the goods moved with all possible care. Wm. Hand & Son, of East Second street, are experts at this business and they will be glad to do your work either in this city or elsewhere.

Mrs. Augustus Meissner, hand laundress, of 432 Watchung avenue, makes a specialty of doing up fancy laces and delicate fabrics. At this time of the year it is generally customary to have the lace curtains laundried. By taking them to G. Meissner they are carefully done and are returned without being torn or injured. All work done by hand.

Among the specialties at Woodhull & Martin's store this week are the Lion Brand Yarns, considered to be the best in the market. The firm has sold these yarns for many years and they have always given perfect satisfaction. This is also true of the several standard makes of gloves sold by the firm. They represent the best quality and manufacture and will wear to the satisfaction of the purchaser. Another department worthy of a visit is the housefurnishing. A sale of white enameled beds is attracting many buyers.

A WAY OPEN.

Many a Plainfield Reader Knows It Well.

There is a way open to convince the greatest skeptic. Scores of Plainfield people have made it possible. The public statement of their experience is proof the like of which has never been produced before in Plainfield. Read this case of it given by a citizen:

Mrs. W. W. Mills, of No. 86 Summit avenue, says: "I suffered at times with a severe pain across the small of my back and in my hips. If I did any lifting or stooping my back became lame and sore and though I used plasters they only helped me for the time being. I was feeling very badly when I had my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills. They were so highly recommended for troubles like mine that I got a box at L. W. Randolph's drug store. I felt their good effects in a few days. When I had finished the treatment my back was better and stronger and I had much more energy to attend household duties."

NEW CONSTITUTION FOR N. J. Y. P. S. C. E.

Proposed to Introduce It at State Convention to be Held Next Week.

SESSIONS IN ORANGE

REPORTS TO BE MADE BY VARIOUS COMMITTEES.

Arthur N. Pierson to Tell of Fresh Air Camp Work — Treasurer's Report—The List of Vice Presidents.

The New Jersey Christian Endeavor executive committee has made final arrangements for the State convention to take place in Orange next week. The place of Rev. Charles A. Cook, who had been asked to conduct the open parliament on Bible study, will be taken by William Russell, superintendent of the Essex County Union.

The proposed new constitution will be submitted for adoption at the convention. There are a number of radical changes, the most important being the division of the State societies into districts, each to be under the direction of one of the vice presidents, as follows: Northern — Essex, Union, Hudson, Bergen, Passaic and Sussex counties; Central — Mercer, Ocean, Monmouth, Middlesex, Somerset, Hunterdon and Warren counties; Southern — Camden, Gloucester, Salem, Cumberland, Cape May, Atlantic and Burlington counties. Theodore Bellis, of Flemington, has been appointed chairman of the nominating committee to report at the convention.

Report of the State fresh air work has been made by Arthur N. Pierson, of Westfield, who tells of the homes in Glen Ridge, Westfield, Plainfield and Atlantic City where hundreds of children were given outings last summer. The work will be enlarged next season. R. A. Alberts, of Jersey City, has the report of the missionary department, showing increased activity along that line during the year. The Junior superintendent, Rev. George C. Horton, of Camden, has visited the junior societies throughout the State and will give his report in full at the Orange meeting. The evangelistic work is by Rev. F. C. Klein and Rev. Charles A. Cook, who is absent from the State, has submitted his report in writing. The latter also tendered his resignation, owing to leaving New Jersey. The treasurer, Rev. Titus E. Davis, will report for $913 received, and a balance on hand of $805. Miss Ida B Stephens, the State secretary, states that 119 societies had made a gain of ten per cent. in membership. Her report will also be presented at Orange. Mrs. Florence Randolph, owing to other duties, asks to be relieved of the supreintendency of the colored work.

THE FALL PIANO TRADE.

Although pianos are always in season; yet with the increasing fall there is an impetus in sales following the return of families from their summer vacations. Teaching is resumed in the various conservatories and studios, and the old piano gives place to the new. The warerooms of J. & C. Fisher have been stocked with a varied assortment of pianos in the latest designs of case, architecture, and beautiful and choice woods. No matter how critical the taste may be, here it can be suited, and on reasonable terms. The reputation of the Fisher piano can be judged from this fact alone. Over 120,000 are to be found today in homes. It is an honest, trustworthy piano, conscientiously made down to the slightest detail, and this is the reason for its hold upon the public confidence.

Suspicious Fire.

What is believed to have been a fire of incendiary origin was called to the attention of Chief T. O. Doane Tuesday by Edward Apgar at his home on 305 Johnston avenue. The fire started while Mr. and Mrs. Apgar were away from home. Chief Doane is investigating.

Chief Was There.

Chief of Police Patrick S. Kiely attended the annual convention and banquet of the Superior Officers' Police Protective Association of New Jersey at Trenton Tuesday afternoon.

Reception to Players.

The tennis players in the recent Y. M. C. A. tournament were given a reception and musical entertainment in the association rooms Tuesday night.

—The building at 117 to 119 East Second street, known as Democratic Hall and as the Crescent Club house, will be sold at auction October 29 by Joseph A. Blatz and Charles M. Ulrich, executors of the estate of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Ulrich.

Henry H. Bergen, formerly of this city, but now of Elizabeth, has bought a house on Arlington avenue and will move to this city shortly.

ENGINE HOUSE AS CITY HALL

BOROUGH MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT TO BE HOUSED.

Warren's Old Headquarters to be Utilized—Many Alterations to be Made.

North Plainfield is to have a municipal building as soon as the new fire engine house has been completed. The need of such a building has long been felt and as soon as the Warren Engine Company moves out of their present quarters no time will be lost in remodeling that building for use as a city hall for the borough.

Many changes are needed in the borough lockup and it is very necessary to have all the city offices in one building. It is proposed to move the present office of Tax Collector George F. Brown into the lower floor of the engine house, have the office of the Recorder in the rear of that and build out the back of the lower floor to the cells and present court room in the rear, thus making one building of the two. Upstairs it is proposed to have the Council chambers and Mayor's office, doing away with the present Council rooms at the corner of Somerset street and Craig place.

It is said that the amount of money which would be saved in the rent for the present Council chambers and the office of Tax Collector Brown, would more than pay the interest on the engine house bonds which are $10,000. The interest on the bonds amounts to $450 a year and the $350 saved on the Council chambers and the $200 a year on the rental of the tax collector's office would more than pay the interest.

The entire front of the building will be torn out and where the large swinging doors are now located a plate glass window will be substituted and up stairs several more windows will be installed. The cost will be less than $2,000.

There is some discussion as to what will be done with the inscription block on the front of the building on which are the names of the members of the Council at the time the contract was awarded for the erection of the house and the name of the chief engineer, Andrew L. Carney. Some are of the opinion that it should be left where it is while others say that it should be taken from its present position, and placed in a position in the wall of the new house.

FUNNY INVITATIONS FOR DANCE

I. C. T. CLUB INVITES THE 400 TO ITS FIRST SOCIAL EVENT.

Unique Decorations Planned — V. W. Nash in Charge of the Arrangements.

The I. C. T. Club country dance of Thursday, October 29, will be one of the most unique affairs of the season. Four hundred invitations will be issued, printed on butchers' wrapping paper and wall paper. The hall will be decorated with Jack-'o-lanterns and scarecrows and numerous signs formed of vegetables. The refreshments will consist of doughnuts, pie and cider. The invited guests will attend in costume, and it is probable that the grand march will be one of the humorous features of a lifetime. A quartette will sing country songs during the intermission and several "rubes" will perform a break-down.

V. W. Nash, Jr., president of the club, Judge William N. Runyon and Leonce Texier are the leading spirits in the undertaking. The committee consists of Leonce Texier, chairman, William Waters, C. H. Bilyeu, Raymond McVoy and Burlin Banks.

The invitation as given below tells its own story:

Hay thar, Rubes! to cellybrate the closs of A succesfull farming seasin The I. C. T. agricultural associashun will hold a jinuine country shindig & old fashioned Husking Bee in their outbuildings by the hickory post cor. of North Lane and Cherry turnpike, Pinchgut, East Jersey, on the twenty-ninth evening of Harvest month, 1903. Candles will be litted at 9 o'clock. Fellers $1 a head to get in the hay loft. No biled shirts admitted. Come in overalls & ginghams. Sures Frogtown fifers will fiddle.

In Firemen's Parade.

Plainfield, N. J., Oct. 8, 1903.

The Daily Press has a higher circulation rating than is accorded to any other paper in Plainfield.—Printers' Ink.

Mr. Bryan has not yet signified his choice for the mayoralty of New York.

It's enough to make Benedict Arnold turn over in his grave to have people liken Grout unto him.

Politics is all a game and at present is being classified as a Chinese puzzle. The candidate as well as the voter is asking "where am I at?"

The Secretary of State has received the official returns from all counties from the recent election on the constitutional amendments. The majority against the amendments is 1,688.

The appearance of Rev. Dr. Schenck in a gown during divine service, following the example set among the various denominations by Rev. Dr. Richards, is but a sign of the times. There is more uniformity in the mode of public worship than there was ten years ago and there is bound to be more still ten years hence.

Trinity Commandery, No. 17, Knights Templar, has made elaborate preparations for the annual Templar field day at Atlantic City a week from tomorrow. There is reason to believe that the Plainfielders will be at the head of the line, but whether they are or not the Queen City of New Jersey will have reason to feel proud of its Masonic representation at the shore.

One step won't take you very far,
You've got to keep on walking.
One word won't tell folks what you are,
You've got to keep on talking.
One inch won't make you very tall,
You've got to keep on growing.
One little ad. won't do it all,
You've got to keep 'em going.—Col. W. C. Hunter, in September Judicious Advertising.

There's our friend Mr. Tyler introducing another good resolution in the Common Council. A committee on public service will be a good thing. There is a lot of work ahead for it and there is a reason to believe that it will prove one of the most important committees in the Council. We feel sure that President Buckle will exercise his usual wise judgment in selecting its membership. The public is realizing its "fondest expectations" in Mr. Tyler.

A New York firm of clothier offered various prizes, says an exchange, for answers to this simple question: "How can the retail clothier gain the best and the largest trade in his vicinity?" Thomas Johnson, formerly of New Bedford, and now the ad writer of the Lexington (Ky.) Morning Herald, submitted this answer: "By honest treatment of every customer—by advertising every day in the year. By selling men what they want—not what the merchant thinks they ought to have. By employing such method as to make it easy for men to trade at that store."

Saving Funeral Expenses.

"Count" VanNest, a distinguished resident on "Aldermanic Hill," East Front street, reported to the authorities this morning that some person had turned out an old horse on the hill and that the animal was slowly dying. Mr. VanNest said that he got the poor creature on its feet, but he was afraid that before he returned home he would find him dead. The owner of the animal is not known.

MAN STRUCK BY A FLYER

PRINTER RUN DOWN BY FAST TRAIN AT WESTFIELD.

Hurled in Front of a Local—Injured Man Brought to Hospital.

Walter Campbell, thirty-five years old, whose home is said to be in Lancaster, Pa., was struck by the Philadelphia flyer which passes through this city every afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock, at Westfield, yesterday afternoon. He was hit on the head and on the shoulder by the pilot of the engine.

Campbell had been employed in New York as a printer. Ten minutes before he was struck by the train he was in the office of the Westfield Standard seeking employment. He was told there to come to Plainfield and it is presumed that he was on his way here when the accident happened. The unfortunate fellow was about to cross the railroad tracks at the crossing at Westfield and was passing behind the rear end of a stalled coal train directly in the path of the flyer. He was picked up and thrown directly in front of a local train which was following the express.

The engineer of the local saw the man thrown in front of his train and he clamped on the air brakes with such force as to throw some of the passengers from their seats. The train was brought to a standstill about two feet from the man's body.

The injured man was brought to this city on the local train and was taken at once to Muhlenberg Hospital. There it was discovered that he was hurt about the head and arms. It is probable that the fellow will be injured for life

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

The offering to be received at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church next Sunday will be for the Board for Education of Ministers.

C. W. Hummer, of this city, will lead the meeting at the Rescue Mission, tonight. There will be speaking, singing and good music.

Rev. Fred B. Newman, formerly of this city, is a vice president of the Mercer County Sunday-school Union, which meets at Princeton today.

The Young Ladies' Society, of St. Peter's German Lutheran Church, will hold its first fall meeting on Friday evening at Miss Ebel's, 95 Duer street.

There will be a business meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society, of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, on Friday evening after the prayer-meeting.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society, of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, will hold its first meeting for sewing on Friday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock, in the church parlors.

Rev. John Sheridan Zelie, pastor of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, will speak, and the choir of the Crescent Avenue church will render special music at the Y. M. C. A. meeting on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The bi-centenary of the birth of Jonathan Edwards, one of the greatest of American Theologians, is to be celebrated this week at Andover, New Haven and Princeton Seminaries. On Sunday last Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards preached the sermon on Edwards, at Andover Seminary.

Rev. Dr. Snodgrass, pastor of the First M. E. Church of Plainfield, says that the country boy usually has four necessary qualifications: "He is not afraid of work; he depends upon his own resources instead of looking for influence; he has overcome one environment and has had courage enough to face another; and he does not depend on the city's institutions but on his individuality." The marked success of the country boy who goes to the city is believed by the minister to be attributable to these qualifications, and he is doubtless right. It is certain that a large proportion of successful business and professional men come from rural homes and it is the strong traits of character engendered on the farm that have made this possible. Superintendent Griggs in making an address to the Second Reformed Sunday-school on Sunday, stated that it was work and character which made men advance. We wish that this could be impressed upon the mind of every young man. — Somerville Unionist-Gazette.

LION BRAND YARNS.

If you knit or crochet, use Lion Brand Yarns. We have sold them for the past 15 years, consequently we know their good qualities. They give universal satisfaction. They are rewound after dyeing, which prevents them matting, and leaves them soft, elastic and easy to work. We carry a most complete line of shades in Shetland Floss, Shetland Wool, Pansy, Germantown and Saxony. Also Midnight Zephyr in both 4 fold and 8 fold. Shades can always be duplicated. We have the Lion Brand book of instructions, containing a vast amount of useful information about crocheting and knitting.

About KId Gloves. Nothing adds to a woman's consciousness of being well dressed so much as fine, perfect fitting Kid Gloves. Good Kid Gloves are always most satisfactory and quite as cheap in the end than the less expensive grades, which are necessarily lacking somewhere. The "Fowne's," "Centemeri" and P. & L. make a worthy trio in the Kid Glove world. Fowne's mannish Gloves, with open seams, are ideal for street wear, and possess style and durability in a marked degree. "Fowne's Eugenie" dress kids, made of real kid, will meet every requirement of the Kid Glove trade.

"Centemeri" Kids are too well known to need elaborate comment A well earned reputation for reliability creates a steady demand for them which we are prepared to meet.

P. & L. Kid Gloves are known all over the world as the best $1.00 Glove made. Our experience with them bears out their reputation and we recommend them most heartily to those who will pay out $1.00 for Kids. The fall importation now ready.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Oct. 11—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—Great men of the Bible—What Joseph teaches us.—Gen. xli, 14-16, 42, 46.

The life of Joseph reads almost like romance, and yet it is true, and one of the lives that illustrate that truth is stranger than fiction. The favorite son of his father, he was treated with unusual consideration. The jealousy and envy of his eleven brethren were aroused, and after a determination to take his life they did sell him as a servant to merchants traveling to Egypt. Here he started in a lowly position, and was even subjected to a false charge and to a false imprisonment. But, wonderful to tell, he was, in the marvelous providence of God, raised from the prison to the palace. He became second only to the king, and saved both Egypt and his people, the Israelites, from starvation during a famine of seven years' duration.

1. Joseph teaches us trust in God. Undoubtedly, in all his years of adversity, Joseph must have kept his trust in God firm and secure. His life must have seemed a hard one at times, his future must have looked dark and foreboding, yet God watched over him, and when he trusted Him he was not put to shame. All have their adversities. No pathway in life is strewn alone with flowers. Let us learn from Joseph to trust God along the rough ways.

2. Joseph teaches a lesson in purity. His act in resisting the advances of the wife of Potiphar, even at the risk of his life, demonstrates the great purity of his heart and life. This lesson needs to be impressed upon us today. Impurity in thought, word and deed abounds all about us in life, and many, many people make no effort to restrain their passions and appetites. Let us follow the example of Joseph, remembering the words of the Master, "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God."

3. Joseph teaches a lesson in forgiveness. His forgiveness of his brethren stands as one of the most conspicuous illustrations of Old Testament forgiveness. It bears a likeness to the spirit of the Master when He prayed, "Father, forgive them; they know not what they do." It is hard to forgive sometimes, but we should forgive one another, "even as God for Christ's sake has forgiven us."

4. Joseph teaches a lesson in God's providence. "It was not you, but God, who sent me to Egypt," said Joseph to his repentant brethren. God was working out his plans in the life of Joseph. So he is in all our lives. Our God is a sovereign God. He moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform, but He moves and performs His will. Our lives are in His hands. Let us rejoice over that fact and then strive more and more to come into complete harmony with His will.

BIBLE READINGS.

Gen. xxxvii, 28-36; xxxix, 1-4; x, 23; xiv, 1-15; i, 22-26; Josh. i, 7; Ps. xlvi, 1; Matt. v, 8; Rom. viii, 28-39; Rev. ii, 10.

A Director of the Training School.

Christian Endeavor has always had in President George B. Stewart, D. D., of Auburn Theological seminary a warm friend, a loving admirer and an untiring supporter. Before his call to Auburn seminary and while he was pastor of a large and influential Presbyterian church he met the exacting demands of the office of president of the Pennsylvania state union, filling the position with marked distinction. He is much in demand as a convention speaker and never fails to interest and instruct an audience. He recently formed the Christian Endeavor Correspondence School For Training Christian Workers.

REV. GEORGE B. STEWART, D. D.

Sparks.

The Presbyterian society of Bement, Ill., composed of forty-five members, last year gave $150 to missions.

In a post office of northern Japan the clerks have formed themselves into a Christian Endeavor society to win their Buddhist companions to Christ.

Rev. Dr. Jacob Chamberlain says that undoubtedly the Christian Endeavor society will advance the evangelization of India by a full generation.

Suggested by an Endeavorer.

Martha Washington's face is on the new eight cent postage stamp at the suggestion of a Christian Endeavorer, Miss Julia Fraser of Oakland, Cal. Assistant Postmaster General Madden has acknowledged in a letter that her article in the Ladies' Home Journal, "Why Not a Woman's Face?" suggested the idea to him.

South Dakota Enthusiasm.

Field Secretary Eberman writes of a South Dakota minister who rode ninety miles on his bicycle to attend a convention.

104. O. D. N., Binghamton, N. Y.—Have regular stated times for your business meetings and committee meetings. Order is the first law of successful Christian endeavor.

105. S. M. P., Dunmore, Pa.—You can get an illustrated story of the Denver convention for 50 cents at the United society headquarters, Boston.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning Oct. 11, "Put First Things First." Text, Matt. vi, 24-34.

"But seek ye first His kingdom and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you."

What one would best do when the house is on fire depends on circumstances. It is all right to try to save the goods if there is time. Considerable risk of pain and injury may well be run if there is a reasonable chance to save valuables. But many have lost their lives in trying to save things. Deeds and diamonds have value, but not to the dead. One is unwise to try to save an empty jewel case and leave untouched gems of great value. In the excitement of the time many have done such things. Better let the clothes burn rather than the body. It is not uncommon to see notice of fire in a hotel and the statement that the guests were obliged to escape in their night clothing, losing all else in the fire.

We feel pity for their loss and at the same time congratulate them on their escape. Scarcely a month passes without news of some marine disaster in which passengers and crew escape from sinking vessels in scant clothing and are glad to get off so well.

The matter of first importance is life, after that goods and then comfort.

No one's life consists in the abundance of things he possesses. It is more than health; it is higher than reputation and honors.

The life itself is more than breathing and acting through a body. It may be in a body, but it is, more than all, physical powers and experiences. The value of life lies almost wholly in the unseen inner things of spirit. A wounded spirit is worse than a broken arm. Heartache is the hardest pain to bear. A joyous heart will make a person unmindful of cuts or bruises on the body. A resolute spirit often makes a weak body live for years beyond its natural limit. What a lesson to the world of worrying mortals was the life of Pope Leo XIII.! Indomitable will and concentrated purpose compelled a frail bodily frame to bear for long years beyond the ordinary limit of physical endurance tasks under which a stronger one might bend or break if not sustained by such powers of spirit.

The comforts and luxuries of the world, the pleasures of bodily existence, are valuable just in so far, and so far only, as they help the inner spirit to come to its best attainments.

Purity, righteousness, peace, have no equivalents. If not obtained no other gain will make up for the lack. If lost no other thing saved can fill their place. Fire and flood may strip us of every other thing and leave us destitute of any lands or goods, may even take friends and health, but if through all we still keep a soul united in faith and love to God we have saved that of most value and shall find all the rest in due time.

This lesson means far more than this, however.

Young people must learn to make their way in this world, become skilled to gain a living and do the world's work. What tasks must be mastered, what time and effort are required to learn the lessons and train the powers to do the work! How shall time and strength be found for anything else? If we are faithful in this, can we not gain the whole that is to be had? Not by that road. Serve Mammon and gain his gain you may, but no coin of heaven's mintage pays the wage of his workmen.

If you think character and heaven of any value then seek them first, and God, who made and owns and rules all worlds, will pay His workmen their wage in coin of righteousness here and hereafter, now and ever.

The Sweetest Homes.

The sweetest and happiest homes—homes to which men in weary life look back with yearning too deep for tears; homes whose recollections linger round our manhood like light and the sunshine and the sweet air, into which no base things can intrude—are homes where brethren dwell together in unity; where, because all love God, all love their brothers also; where, because all are very dear to all, each is dearer to each than to himself.—Frederick W. Farrar.

A Beautiful Sight.

It is a beautiful sight to behold all the towering, spiritual figures of the past turning to Christ for the message to guide their age, as some of our flowers turn to the sun before they can reveal their own true beauty. No message of redemption, no panacea for sin, no gospel of salvation, no strong winged hope has sounded from any lips not touched by the finger that opened the blind man's eyes.—American Friend.

We Shall Know.

"We shall know each other there."
'Tis a pleasant strain to sing,
For our friends are very dear,
And we do not cease to cling
To each form, each face, each name.
Love is there and here the same.

"We shall know each other there."
Years may pass and changes come,
But forever, everywhere,
Love is changeless, and by some
Sign or bond or token true
It will every tie renew.

"We shall know each other there"
By the fellowships of years,
By a thousand memories fair,
Features, glances, smiles and tears.
Recognition follows love
Here and in the home above.

"We shall know each other there."
Tender thought and blessed hope;
Cheering all our grief and care,
Mingling every bitter cup,
But—it strikes a deeper chord,
This question—Shall we know our Lord?

Will He know us when face to face
We meet Him on the other shore?
He trace in us the lines of grace,
And we in Him the wounds He bore—
Wounds which on Him our sins had made,
Grace which in us His love displayed?
—Rev. A. Parke Burgess, D. D.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,400,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL, PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

THE FORUM.

Communications from readers of The Daily Press on all subjects of local interest are invited. All such communications must be stripped of personalities, and must be signed by the writer. His name will not necessarily be published. The editor is not responsible for views expressed in this column.

Editor, The Daily Press:

Your paper has been agitating in favor of the Board of Trade's efforts to advertise and build up Plainfield by getting large employers of labor to locate in town. It may therefore interest your paper to know that a large Newark manufacturer of patent leather is negotiating for an option on a piece of property in the West End of the borough recently put on the market. Their plans are, if the property is secured, to erect, as fast as possible, a large factory and homes, which it is their intention to sell to as many of their employers as possible, on the most easy terms, so as to allow the builders only about 4 per cent. per annum on the money invested. The employers of this company are at present working under a co-operative plan, whereby each has an interest in a per cent. of the profits of the year's business. This interest is graduated and is determined by length of service.

At a meeting of the employers and employes held early in the year, it was determined to move to a cheaper locality, one where its employes could have their own homes. A committee was appointed to look for a proper site, and Plainfield was thought to have the most natural advantages for their purposes. The only block in the way is to secure the desired property and begin building operations. It is hoped that ground may be broken and their plant well under way before the new year. Until things get into full swing and their customers are thoroughly initiated into their change, the Newark factory will be continued. The entire plan of operation is most interesting and its universal adoption would go a great way toward building up and cementing into firmer and pleasanter relations the interests of manufacturers and their employes.

The profits of the company are to be taken from the co-operative fund and spent on home building, and an abortage therefore will be made up by estimating in a conservative manner the profits of the business (based on past years experience) for the necessary time in the future—so as to bring the amount up to the sum required for the proper number of homes, and any necessary money will be borrowed on easy time paper at rates of 4 and 4½ per cent. The employes will each forgo his share of the profit so long as necessary, to pay interest and principal on his home, when, after all is paid, he will get a deed therefor. After a limited time employes will be allowed to put balance unpaid in a straight outside mortgage if they care to, so that they may realize on their property at pleasure. The co-operative plan also covers life insurance so that at death, the house is the property of the purchaser's estate free and clear.

Their plan has been in operation some time in a modified form, so that the practical workings of it is assured. Let us hope that we succeed in getting this organization amongst us and study its workings with, it may be hoped, profit to ourselves and others and its extension to other lines and factories. Diligence.

AMUSEMENTS.

Keen wit and sharp repartee abound in The Earl of Pawtucket, one of the most amusing plays on the boards. It continues to enjoy the great patronage at the Princess theatre which characterized its long and successful run at the Manhattan. Plainfield commuters will find in it the opportunity to relieve themselves of hearty laughs.

Orrin Johnson and his play, "Hearts Courageous," have achieved a veritable triumph at the Broadway Theatre, New York, and could doubtless be continued there indefinitely, were it not that previous bookings at the Broadway Theatre will compel its withdrawal on Saturday, Oct. 24. This is the first time that an American dramatist has been able to successfully treat the stirring incidents that immediately preceded and followed the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—A complete assortment of the choicest vegetables to be had at L. C. Ortner's, Park avenue and Fourth street.

—Summons has been issued from Justice Nash's court in the landlord and tenant case of Brown against Dahlie which will come up for a hearing Saturday, October 10.

—Choice building lots will be sold at public auction at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The tract to be sold is bounded by Westervelt, Grandview and Summit avenues. P. H. La Tourette is the auctioneer.

—The trolley car service to Scotch Plains and Westfield on Saturday, was fairly good but after the baseball games there were long waits between the cars and the Plainfield people had some trouble in geting home on time.

SIDE LIGHTS ON TIMELY TOPICS NOTED IN PASSING.

William Ruckman, the mail carrier, who carries the pouches between the postoffice and the railroad station narrowly missed catching the mail train at noon Tuesday through a singular accident. He had just time enough to get from the postoffice to the depot to catch the train when at the corner of Park avenue and Second street his horse fell. Without waiting to look after the animal he picked the mail bags out of the wagon and made a sprint for the depot, arriving there just as the train was about to pull out. He caught the train and hurried back to look after his fallen horse which bystanders had raised to its feet.

"On her eightieth birthday last week," says the Newark Evening News, "Mrs. J. S. Poulison, of Plainfield, received 106 letters containing best wishes, congratulations and expressions of love in as many different ways. One, a cousin, Rev. N. H. VanArsdale, of New York, editor of The Christian Intelligencer, said: 'You can now tell your friends how it feels to be an octogenarian. I wonder how it feels to be a centenarian? May you live to tell us twenty years hence.' A former pastor wrote her: 'I was about to write 'My dear old friend,' but I remembered in time to correct myself that on this day you are eighty years young.' Another novel and unique letter of congratulations was written her by a nephew of New York in the shape of the figure 80. A nephew, a minister in Pennsylvania, says: 'Some one has written, 'God could not be everywhere so he made mothers.' Eighty years of living self-sacrifice and an eternity of bliss beyond.' She received letters from ten different States and thirty-five cities and towns."

In speaking of the cause of so many confusing alarms when a fire occurs in the borough, Chief of the Fire Department J. J. Stahl said to a reporter for The Daily Press a few days ago: "Much time is lost by people relying on the telephone in case of fire. This is especially true in the Park district. No one is at the headquarters during the day and a greater part of the night and consequently a call is received at any store in the neighborhood. During the excitement box 149 at the corner of Somerset street and Manning avenue is rung. The firemen, instead of responding to the box nearest the conflagration assemble at the corner of Manning avenue and Somerset street and then before they get to the scene of the blaze, it is beyond control.

"It is advisable," said the chief, "that all residents of the park familiarize themselves with the location of their fire alarm boxes which are scattered plentifully about the borough, and in case of fire use them instead of depending on the telephone."

CITY JOTTINGS.

—The W. T. Kirk Company has been awarded the contract to build a bridge near Charles Greulock's place in Bernards township.

—Charles M. Dolliver, Fairview avenue, attended the session of the Sixth United States district court of southern New York yesterday.

—Michael Higgins has purchased the property on West Front street, occupied by himself and family and he will make extensive repairs.

—The New Jersey Central has placed an order for 1,000 box cars with steel frames and thirty tons capacity. They will be built at Berwick, Pa.

—The social life at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club on Saturday was a feature. During the day there were a number of small, but delightful luncheons.

—George Turbert, of Newark, has been appointed chief operator at the local office of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company for a term of two months.

—Harry Leek, of Richmond street, has sold out his business and will leave for the South in a few days. He has been forced to make a change on account of ill health.

—George Edelmeier, a diminutive German of Plainfield avenue, was arrested last night by Patrolman Hall, charged with drunkenness. Sentence was suspended this morning by City Judge Runyon.

—A surprise party was held Monday night at the home of William L. Sharkey, 61 Whitewood avenue, in honor of his birthday. A large number of people gathered at the house and not only surprised the celebrant but heartily congratulated him on the event.

—A cement floor is being laid at police headquarters in preparation for the reception of the new steel cells. One cell is already in place and it is expected that the others will be within a week. The stable for the patrol wagon and horse is almost completed.

DOCTORS MEET.

Plainfield Medical Society Held Quarterly Session Last Evening.

The local fraternity was well represented at the quarterly session of the Plainfield Medical Society last evening. An elaborate dinner was a feature of the meeting.

Dr. Arthur H. Dundon read a paper on Eclampsia and in it were some valuable suggestions. This was followed by a general discussion on the topic. A few of the members were unable to be present, among them being Drs. E. W. and B. VanD. Hedges, who had an important case at Muhlenberg Hospital, as well as the vice president, Dr. Peter B. Oregar.

Among those in attendance were: Dr. J. P. Probasco, Dr. Norman Probasco, Dr. Albert Pittis, Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan, Dr. A. F. VanHorne, Dr. A. H. Dundon, Dr. N. W. Curry, Dr. J. H. Carman, Dr. F. C. Ard, Dr. Frederick Hughes, Dr. C. B. Lufburrow and Dr. J. T. Fritts.

APPRAISERS APPOINTED.

Examination in Wm. H. Brokaw Bankruptcy Proceedings Begun.

The examination in the bankruptcy case of William H. Brokaw, carpenter, who filed bankruptcy papers September 11, began yesterday afternoon before Recorder Atwood L. DeCoster, of Newark. The examination was partly finished when an adjournment of two weeks, to October 21, was taken in order to secure additional witnesses. W. A. Coddington, Esq., represented two creditors of Brokaw, D. C. Ivins and J. G. Burdick. V. W. Nash, Jr., Esq., represents Brokaw. John McIntyre and William H. Albert were appointed appraisers.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. J. D. Brown, of Prescott place, is detained at home by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ferero, of Somerset street, have returned from a visit to Buffalo.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jackson, of Watchung avenue, are spending a few weeks visiting friends at Albany, N. Y.

—P. Ludwig Conde has opened a studio in the Babcock building.

—An important meeting of the Gesang and Turn Verein will be held this evening in Saengerbund Hall.

—Fred Long, of 222 Somerset street, left his bicycle standing in front of Roth's meat market, on East Front street, yesterday afternoon, when one of the horses belonging to that firm knocked the wheel over and stepped on it. The animal made an attempt to run away but was captured. The bicycle was broken beyond repair.

—Assemblyman Samuel S. Swackhamer will try a case in Bernardsville Saturday morning in attachment proceedings between Ephriam Chambers and sons, William and Edgar and Griffen Brothers. The case is a complicated one. N. M. Culberson bought the Chamber's farm. After he has purchased it Griffen brothers issued an attachment on the farm before he had paid the full price for the property. The suit is to find whether the Chambers or Culberson is the owner and liable for the debt. The case will be tried before a jury.

False Alarm.

The alarm of fire from box 42, Grove and Front streets, this morning was caused by the accidental moving of the tapper by William Chamberlain who was painting the box.

Arrangements have been made to hold business meetings in the club rooms in the Babcock building on [the first Monday evening of each month and to give an entertainment, to which friends of the members will be invited, on the last Monday evenings of the month. The other Monday evenings are to be devoted to informal entertainments. The club parlor contains a piano, while the kitchen is equipped with a complete set of utensils. New members are desired.

FOR BAND CONCERTS.

Fair to be Given to Raise Money for Next Summer's Musical Feasts.

Preparations are being made for the fair which is to be held in Saengerbund Hall during the week of November 16 for the purpose of raising money for band concerts in the borough next summer. The arrangements are under the care of Benjamin La Vere, the bandmaster, and already he has received assurances of the support of members of the Common Council and residents of the borough. It is planned to give a concert each week for three months. It is planned to raise $1,000.

Contributions for this purpose will be gladly received and Mr. LaVere can be seen at his home, 32 Bank place. Mr. LaVere's full band will play one evening at the fair.

Leo XIII.

An event of some interest to all desirous of good entertainment, will be the presentation at the Casino, this afternoon and tonight, of the moving pictures of Pope Leo XIII, recently taken at the Vatican in Rome and reproduced with life-like effect by the biograph. They are said to be very superior, and highly commended by Cardinal Gibbons and leading church people' A full programme of illustrated songs will also be rendered, and other pictures shown. Reserved seats will be on sale at Armstrong's until 7 o'clock this evening.

In Union County's Court.

The case of Allison M. Line and daughter, Mary L. Line, against the P. and R. R. R. Co. for damages as a result of the Westfield railroad wreck in January. The summing up will probably take place this afternoon and will be given to the jury. The Simonson case will probably come up this afternoon.

At the regular meeting of Somerset Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., last evening, five applications were received and four candidates were admitted to membership.

HARRY J. NORTHROP NOW A BENEDICT

Marries Miss Reba Arnett, of Lambertville, in Methodist Church at That Place.

R.W. CHRISTIE AN USHER

MR. AND MRS. NORTHROP TO RESIDE IN THIS CITY.

A Trenton Girl Maid-of-Honor—Four Bridesmaids — Two Hundred Guests Present.

Miss Reba Arnett, daughter of George W. Arnett, of Lambertville, and Harry John Northrop, of East Front street, this city, were married the Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church, at the former place Wednesday evening. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Sherman G. Pitt, of Lambertville. The bride, who was given away by her father, was gowned in an imported duchess lace robe and veil over peau de soi satin, and carried a bridal bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

John Turnbull Minugh, of Jersey City, was best man. The maid-of-honor was Miss Minerva Brumstead, of Trenton. She was gowned in green silk mull over white taffeta silk trimmed with real lace, and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas, carnations and asparagus ferns. The bridesmaids were Miss Olivia Librers, Miss Matilda Akers, Miss Blanch Finger and Miss Laura Gordon, all of Lambertville. They were gowned in white silk mull over green taffeta silk trimmed with cluny lace, and carried shower bouquets of white sweet peas, carnations and asparagus. Mildred Hazen Margerum was flower girl and wore a dainty gown of white silk trimmed with val lace, and carried a basket of carnations and asparagus. The ushers were Frank Arnett Hazen, of Lambertville, cousin of the bride, Fred Howell, of Trenton; D. Hunt Fischer, of Philadelphia, and Ralph W. Christie, formerly of this city, but now of Jersey City. Miss Stella Black, organist of the church, played the wedding march from Lohengrin.

About two hundred guests were present at the reception at the home of the bride. The decorations at the church and house were green and white. Hill, of Trenton, was the caterer, and Amwell's orchestra furnished the music.

The couple left for Denver, Colorado, and upon their return will reside in this city.

ALLISON M. LINE GETS $2,500

VERDICT IN HIS FAVOR IN SUIT AGAINST JERSEY CENTRAL.

Mary L. Line, His Daughter is Awarded $500—Both Injured in Wreck.

In the case of Allison M. Line and his daughter, Miss Mary L. Line, of East Front street, against the New Jersey Central, for injuries in the Westfield disaster, the jury returned a verdict yesterday afternoon at Elizabeth in favor of the plaintiffs, who were represented by Craig A. Marsh, Esq. Mr. Line received $2,500 and his daughter, $500.

The case was a hard-fought one and occupied all of yesterday morning and was concluded about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The railroad company was represented by R. V. Lindsbury and he and Mr. Marsh had many sharp tilts during the trial. Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan, of the borough, proved to be a good witness for the plaintiffs.

The case of Miss Eva Simonson against the Central was called during the afternoon and the trial is going on today.

Italian Democrats to Organize.

DEMOCRATS WILL NOT DEAL WITH BOLTERS

Scheme for An Union Between That Party and Bolting Republicans Defeated.

THE TERMS OF THE DEAL

DISCUSSED AT A MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

Andrew Nolan Says Party's Honor is at Stake and It Can Not Afford to be Compromised—No Formal Overtures Made.

No deal will be made between the Democrats and bolting Republicans in this city. Although no overtures have been made by the discontented faction of Union County Republicans, the matter has been discussed on the street and it was generally supposed that formal steps would be taken about unity of action in the present campaign. During the session of the Democratic City Executive Committee Monday night two of the members broached the subject and the proposition, if such it may be called, was thoroughly discussed. With the exception of these two members, the committeemen were strongly adverse to such a move, and it can be taken as settled that no such deal will be effected.

When seen by a reporter for The Daily Press, Andrew J. Nolan, formerly chairman of the local minority party, said that the honor of the party is at stake when such a scheme is considered and that it could not afford to amalgamate with the bolters for such selfish purposes. He says that the party is now well organized and will fight for the principles it upholds. The betterment of the city, county and State governments is what Democrats are working for according to Mr. Nolan

As far as can be learned the deal in question is the support of the Democratic candidates for Assembly by the bolting Republicans and the support of Tax Collector Frank Smith by the Democrats. The Democrats do not seem to place much faith in Republican promises and doubt whether the latter would carry out the deal if it were adopted.

TROLLEY COMPANY AT WORK

RENOVATING SOME OLD CRRS AND ABANDONING OTHERS.

Improvements Specially Noticeable on Main Line—Repairs on Local Line.

Since the last Council meeting when resolutions were adopted to take summary action against the trolley company if the cars which are operated in this city are not changed for new ones or the old ones repaired, it has been noticed that the company is at last taking some action to better the condition of the local rolling stock, not only in this city but on the main line between here and Elizabeth.

The cars have been repaired and renovated throughout. Some of the vehicles which have passed their days of usefulness have been consigned to the junk heap and in their places new cars appear. Instead of the old red cars on the main line the company has in operation some of the new ones recently ordered. They are painted yellow and are upholstered in rattan.

Smokers have noticed that the apartment set aside for them in the old cars on the main line is missing in the new cars. This is because of the fact that men and boys at night time get in that apartment and being separated from the rest of the car where the women are seated, become disorderly and give the trolley men much trouble.

The cars on the local lines are being repaired and fitted up in most approved fashion as rapidly as possible.

Storm Postpones Meeting.

On account of the storm it was impossible for the Plainfield Children's Home Association to hold a meeting, yesterday afternoon. There were only two of the officers present and it was decided not to attempt to consider any business. Arrangements will be made in a few days for another meeting.

TROLLEY EXPRESS SERVICE ARRANGED

Through Cars Between Jersey City and Camden the Plan.

OFFICIALS VISIT CITY

IN A PRIVATE CAR THE PROMOTERS PASSED THROUGH YESTERDAY.

Preparing a Time-Table—Edward H. Radel Explains the Scheme —It Is Only a Temporary Arrangement.

Edward H. Radel's private car, "Annie R," passed through this city yesterday afternoon on its way across New Jersey on the first trial trip of a new cross State trolley service from Camden to Jersey City. The motorman was Mr. Radel himself, and as his guests were officials of the various trolley lines which the projected route covers.

It is planned to operate a daily service between Camden and Jersey City. The Camden and Trenton Railway Company, the Trenton and New Brunswick "fast line," the Middlesex and Somerset Street Railway Company and the Public Service Corporation will be the lines over which the trolley expresses will run The heavy traffic between Jersey City and Camden during the summer has led the officials of the various lines to arrange for the operation of a through car service across the State and the trial run of the "Annie R." yesterday was for the purpose of forming a basis for the arrangement of a time table.

Mr. Radel, who is the vice president and secretary of the Middlesex and Somerset lines, was seen by a Daily Press reporter and he declared that he believed that the scheme could be made to pay well. He said that the trial trip had been completed to this city from Camden in a little less than four hours, which was much better than had been anticipated. This time was taken on continuous travel and good connections. He would not say whether the system would be put in operation this winter or not but he did say that unless something unforeseen happens the new scheme would be in working order by next spring.

Another official said that the Trenton and New Brunswick line had been quietly securing options on property on almost a straight line from New Brunswick to Jersey City, with the intention of operating a through line between Trenton and New York. He declared that as a temporary arrangement, cars would be operated over the lines of the New Brunswick and Plainfield systems.

SIX INCHES OF RAIN FALL

MUCH DAMAGE DONE BY SWOLLEN STREAMS.

Culverts Washed Out and Sewers Blocked Up—Dams in Danger.

Six inches of rain fell in this city yesterday afternoon and this morning. Weatherman John Naegle states that between 2:30 yesterday afternoon and 11:50 this morning 5.81 inches of rain fell. 2.47 inches fell in 12 hours and 1.78 in four hours; records which have not been equalled in this city in several years.

The rain has swollen the streams in this vicinity to an extent that this morning they were higher than they have been in six years. Green brook at Somerset street and Clinton avenue was very high. At the latter place the bridge was endangered. The water at Tier's dam is so high that it was feared the dam will be weakened.

Mountain brook is very high and early this morning it was washing over the bridge at Greenbrook road. Several culverts are reported to have been washed out. The sewers in some places were stopped up on account of the leaves at the man holes, causing the streets in borough and city to be flooded. It is reported here that the trolley power house at Cranford was in danger of being flooded by the rapid rising of the stream which flows by the power house.

CO. K'S CRACK SHOTS WIN A LOVING CUP

Elston M. French Offered the Trophy Prior to Sea Girt Range Work.

CUP NOT YET SELECTED

BY CAPTURING FIRST PLACE, LOCAL SOLDIER BOYS WIN IT.

Mr. French Offered to Present Trophy Provided Co. K Would Retain Its Position as Leader in Marksmanship.

Several months ago Elston M. French, of Somerset street, offered a handsome silver loving cup to Co. K, of this city, providing the members should win the regimental honors this summer on the range at Sea Girt. It was a doubtful question as to whether the Company would win out as the conditions for rifle shooting this year were changed considerably, making it much more difficult to attain high scores.

In spite of the adverse conditions, Co. K did win the shooting honors for the Second Regiment and finished in the lead of the other companies, thereby winning the silver cup offered by Mr. French. It is the general opinion that the local company is entitled to much praise for this work as the members did not have their captain, W. B. Martin, with them during the time to coach them as he was in England with the Palma cup team. However, the boys showed the result of good training and careful preparation.

The cup which Co. K will receive has not been selected as yet, but Mr. French will no doubt make the gift one worthy of the honors won and the members will view with much pride this trophy won in competition against so many crack marksmen.

MRS. E. A. PARSE CHOSEN DELEGATE

To Represent Union Connty W. C. T. U. at National Convention of Organization.

UNIFORM DIVORCE LAW

TEMPERANCE WORKERS FAVOR ADOPTION OF ACT NATIONAL IN SCOPE.

Medal Competition at Evening Session of Body—Several Addresses Were Made—Plainfielders Participating.

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Parse, president of the local W. C. T. U., was chosen a delegate to the National convention to be held at Cincinnati, at the annual meeting of the Union County Union held in Elizabeth, yesterday. Despite the severe storm there was a large representation from the various Unions in the county and the convention was considered to be one of the best held in years.

Possibly one of the most important acts of the convention was the adoption of a resolution offered by Mrs. Sarah E. Rainear, asking Congress to pass a National divorce law. This resolution caused considerable discussion, in which all of the women favored the provisions of it.

Last night a large part of the session was devoted to a medal competition, in which several members from different parts of the county gave recitations. There was also a programme of music and several stirring addresses along the line of temperance.

The Plainfield delegates did not return home last night, but were entertained by members of the Elizabeth Union.

Democrats to Confer.

The Democratic County committee meets tonight in Elizabeth for its regular weekly discussion of the political situation. It is said that some business of unusual importance will be transacted the exact nature of which could not be learned this morning.

Agent of P. C. C.

The question as to who is the local agent for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children has been recently asked many times by Plainfielders. Former Mayor Charles Place, of Grove street, is the man.

PLAINFIELD FIREMEN SEE BIG PARADE

City and Borough Laddies Attend Firemen's Parade at Allentown, Pa.

RAIN MARS THE AFFAIR

PLAINFIELD'S OLD HAND ENGINE AN OBJECT OF CUROSITY.

One Hundred and Forty-three Bands of Music and Sixty-four Drum Corps in Line—New Brunswick Steamer There.

The Plainfield delegation in attendance at the firemen's parade in Allentown, Pa. returned last night in an unpleasantly moist condition. Preparations had been made for the biggest firemen's parade in history but the weather man interfered. There were 283 companies, of from fifty to three hundred members each, 143 bands and 64 drum corps ready for the march but only 113 companies paraded. Much of the apparatus was not unloaded from the cars.

Plainfield's old hand engine was in line in charge of the Elizabeth exempts and was one of the most admired of the exhibits of old time fire fighting machines. The new steamer of the New Brunswick department also caused favorable comment. The night electrical display in the town was said by the Plainfield delegates to be the most remarkable they had ever seen.

Representatives from this city at the parade were Sidney Frazee, from fire headquarters; George Feiring, from Engine Company No. 1; David Rogers from the local Exempt Association, and Jacob Blimm, who marched with the New York Exempts. Delegates from North Plainfield were Augustus Feiring and Louis Bimble, from the West End Hose Company; Foreman L. B. Bodine, George H. Hansen and Albert DeCamp, from the Warren Engine Company and Chief Julius J. Stahl. Next year's parade will be held in Erie, Pa.

SCHOOL BILL OUT ON MONDAY

BOARD MEETING AT MR. M'CUTCHEN'S OFFICE TODAY.

In Only Two Instances Will Act Vary From the McKee Law.

Members of the Law Committee of the State Board of Education are in session today at the offices of S. St. John McCutcheon, at Williams and Liberty streets, New York, to complete the new school bill to be submitted to the extra session of the Legislature. A part of the new measure is already in the hands of the printer, and the whole production is expected to be ready for distribution Monday. It is the purpose of those interested in the immediate adoption of remedial legislation to give out copies of the bill at once.

The most important change in the make-up of the new bill, as compared with the McKee law of 1900, is that the measure, now being prepared, will have no exceptions in the division of districts, adhering most strictly to the general classification of all cities in one class and all other municipalities into another and entirely separate class.

Another important alteration, if not the only other alteration of importance, is that the new act will legalize the State assessment of school monies and re-establish the method of apportioning the sum under practically the same basis as that upon which the classification of the school districts is rearranged. Some of the sections may receive more and others less than they would under the McKee law, but this cannot be remedied now, and will not make a very great difference when the whole apportionment is complete.

Except in these two instances the new act will be substantially the same as the one which was said to create illegal classifications.

Storm Postpones Social.

Owing to the very stormy weather the Christian Endeavor Society social scheduled to be held at the First Baptist Church, last night, was postponed. There were just a few of the members present, but not a sufficient number to accomplish the object of the meeting, that of discussing the advisability of changing the night of meeting. Another date for a meeting will be determined upon later.

ALLEGED CROOK'S HEARING POSTPONED

Supposed Second-Story Man's Story Not Believed by Authorities.

INVESTIGATING RECORD

SAID THAT HE WAS FOUND IN MR. GROENDYKE'S HOME.

New York and Pinkerton Police to Examine Prisoner—Probably Had Accomplice—Locked Up in Borough Jail.

A thread of damaging evidence is being woven about the alleged burglar who was found in a second story front room of the residence of T. U. Dudley, Jr., on Park place, yesterday. It has been discovered that he was in the front hall of the residence of D. N. Groendyke, at 91 Mercer avenue, a short while before he was captured and that a man supposed to be his pal was seen about the lockup after the fellow had been placed in jail. The story he told last evening was a plausible one and has led many to think he is innocent. This morning he tells a story which differs in some respects and this fact has led the police to believe that he is a clever criminal. For that reason no hearing was given him last evening and none will be held until a representative of Pinkertons' agency in New York comes to this city to try to see him.

Alice McClermont, a domestic in the employ of D. N. Groendyke, appeared at the borough lockup this morning and identified the prisoner as the man whom she found in the hallway of her employer's house. She was positive in her identification. To the police she told a story which will probably have some weight at the hearing. She said that she heard a faint knock at the front door at about 11:30. She was busy and could not answer at once. By the time she reached the door she saw the fellow in the front hall. She declares that the fellow seemed confused and asked whether "Mrs. Williams" lived there. The girl declared she knew of no one of that name residing in that locality. She sent him to a house across the street and saw him walk up on the front porch. He did not ring the bell, she said, but knocked. The next she heard of him he had been captured in the front room of Mr. Dudley's home.

It was said last evening that the fellow had an accomplice. William Sharkey and Lewis Clark saw a stranger acting in a suspicious manner on the outside of the lockup after the man had been arrested. Lewis Clark, who was in Warren Engine Company's engine house at the time, declared he saw the stranger at the door of the lockup conversing with the prisoner. He could not catch what was said.

Clark then went back to the engine house and telephoned to Mayor Smalley and notified Chief Marshal Campbell. He then secured Sharkey's services and started to go towards the lockup. When the fellow saw them coming he shot out of the narrow hallway and was gone. He is described by Sharkey and Clark as being a tall man, wearing a dark pair of trousers, and a dark mackintosh, and a slouch hat. Chief Campbell and Clark visited the railroad station and trolley waiting room in the hopes of seeing the fellow but their efforts were in vain.

The prisoner gives his name as Peter Christian Sorensen. He says he is a bar tender at Michael Michelson's saloon at Thirty-third street and Third avenue, Brooklyn. A telegram sent to that address failed to bring any reply. He said he is married but will not give his residence.

Chief Kiely, of the city police department, saw the prisoner this morning. He has asked Mayor Smalley to remand the fellow until tomorrow afternoon. In the meantime the police of the borough and of this city will communicate with the police of other cities, believing that the prisoner is wanted elsewhere.

NON-SUIT ENTERED IN SIMONSON CASE

Error of Court Postpones Trial of Suit Brought by Miss Evelyn Simonson.

FREEMAN CASE SETTLED

REIGHTON SUIT GOES OVER UNTIL NEXT TERM OF COURT.

No More Trials Until Monday, October 12—Another Suit to be Brought by Miss Simonson.

The suit of Miss Evelyn Simonson, of North Plainfield, against the P. and R. Railroad Company, was voluntarily non-suited this morning in the court at Elizabeth, on a motion of Craig A. Marsh, counsel for the plaintiff. The motion was made because of an error of the court in accepting a juror, who was over sixty-five years of age, against the objection of the defendant's counsel. The case will be brought up again at the next term of court and among the witnesses called was Mrs. Harkins, the heroine of the wreck.

The case of James H. Freeman, of this city, against the P. and R. R. Company, was settled. Neither side would say how much the railroad settled for but Mr. Marsh says it is entirely satisfactory. It was announced that the case of George W. Reighton against the P. and R. R. Company is off for the term. Court has adjourned until Monday.

MISSION AT ST. JOSEPH'S

PASSIONIST FATHERS ADDRESSING BOROUGH ROMAN CATHOLICS.

Monks From Hoboken Are in Charge of Special Services This Week.

A mission is being conducted at St. Joseph's R. C. Church this week by the Passionist fathers of the Monastary at Hoboken and will be continued until Sunday night, at which time a special service will be held marking the close of the week's special services.

Father George and Father Phillip, of Hoboken, assisted by Rev. Father Joseph Miller, have been addressing the parishoners during the week. Large attendances have marked each service and the interest displayed has been wonderful. Both morning and evening the church has been filled to its capacity. Masses are said at 5 and 8:30 in the morning and a service is held at 8 o'clock in the evening. A feature of the closing services will be the pronunciation of the Papal Blessing to the people of the church.

AGED RESIDENT DEAD.

John C. VanHorn's Career Ended This Morning.

John C. VanHorn died at the home of his son, Stephen W. VanHorn, in Summit avenue, this morning. He was seventy-seven years of age. Death was due to a general breaking down of the system. Born at Lambertville he came here many years ago and has lived here ever since. He is survived by three children, Stephen W. VanHorn, Frank VanHorn and Mrs. George Cook, all of this city. The funeral arrangements have not been completed but the interment will be in the family plot at Lambertville.

HILLSIDE TO ENTERTAIN.

The Hillside Tennis and Golf Club will give an afternoon tea tomorrow. The members of the Park Golf Club have been invited and they will be welcome to the clubhouse and links all day.

The finals in the tennis championship matches, women's singles and men's singles, will be played in the afternoon.

The wives of the trustees will receive the members and their guests.

Miss Waring Bridesmaid.

Miss Florence Waring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Waring, of Park avenue, was one of the bridesmaids yesterday at a brilliant wedding in New York, when Miss Elizabeth Lefferts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Raymond Lefferts, was married to Captain Frederick Winchester Sladen, of the Fourteenth Infantry, at the Church of the Incarnation.

Tour to Pacific Coast.

On account of the meeting of the National Bankers' Association, to be held at San Francisco, Cal., October 20 to 23, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company offers a personaly-conducted tour to the Pacific Coast at remarkably low rates. This tour will leave New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and other points on the Pennsylvania Railroad east of Pittsburg, Wednesday, October 14, by special train of the highest grade Pullman equipment. A quick run westward to San Francisco will be made, via Chicago, Omaha, Cheyenne and Ogden. Five days will be devoted to San Francisco. Returning, the special train will run to Los Angeles, where two days will be spent among the resorts of Southern California. Santa Barbara, Del Monte, Salt Lake City, Colorado Springs, Denver and St. Louis will be visited on the journey eastward. The party will reach New York on the evening of November 4. Round trip rate, covering all expenses for eighteen days except five days spent in San Francisco, $190. Rates from Pittsburg will be $5 less. For full information apply to ticket agents, or Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dieting Invites Disease.

To cure dyspepsia or indigestion it is no longer necessary to live on milk and toast. Starvation produces such weakness that the whole system becomes an easy prey to disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that one cares to eat, and is a never failing cure for indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by L. W. Randolph.

George Fletcher, formerly of this city, but now of New York, has returned after spending a few days with friends here.

The Daily Press has a higher circulation rating than is accorded to any other paper in Plainfield.—Printers' Ink.

Strange how these doctors can stay up late and feast and yet not feel any bad results.

Send for the ambulance. Mr. W. J. Bryan is in New York and modestly refuses to talk politics. What a blow to the Cleveland boom!

Buoyed up in spirits by his success in the political game, Senator Platt is going to make another venture, in which he won't be "boss."

Judging from the recent additions to the North Plainfield High School library collection, there's a lot of little Carnegies "over the brook."

While the London Honourables may be able to stand a night of the bowery, the people of New York should be careful to keep Devery and Grout hidden away during the Englishmen's stay.

Thanks are due the W. C. T. U. for its successful fight against the granting of a license to a bottler in that borough where it was shown that the application should be refused in the interests of the community.

Mayor Smalley appearing in the role of a police officer yesterday furnished another chapter for his biography. Cleaning house seems to be his specialty, however, according to the neat way he has of turning things upside down in Somerset County.

Jim Martine tells us that he doesn't care much who wins in New York, but he would like mighty much to know whether they are going to enforce the three minute rule for stump speakers about these diggings during the coming campaign. Jim is a regular union man when it comes to shorter hours of work but he draws the line when a political speechmaking time limit is brought into question.

According to the report of Superintendent Maxson the city is making a net profit in the shape of tuition received for allowing children from other municipalities the benefit of Plainfield's excellent school system. So long as their presence does not deprive any child in this city of the privilege of attending the schools, we believe it to be decidedly to the advantage of the taxpayers to continue the present plan.

Professor Walter D. Scott, of the Northwestern University, for years has been studying the leading advertising mediums, both periodicals and daily newspapers. He has made these deductions:

Successful advertising is a form of hypnotism.

All men are naturally obedient.

Use the form of direct command.

Make the ad. contrast with its environment.

Place the ad. near what will give a pleasant impression.—Exchange.

The Newark Evening News says that "ball playing in a sufficiently retired spot, and without the influence of liquor, can be indulged in on Sunday without becoming a nuisance to the public." Without considering what bearing liquor may be deemed to have on the question, Sunday ball playing is a nuisance in the sense that it is detrimental to the preservation of the proper moral standing of a community. The Christian religion preaches a high standard of morals. It declares that the Sabbath day must be kept holy, which can not be done when boistrous pleasure is allowable. One of the greatest evils of Sunday ball playing, and it is entirely overlooked by the Newark News, is the harm done to immature youth in permitting games to be played on Sunday. It sets a bad example for young America and is but the forerunner of the European Sunday—something obnoxious to the people of this country.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

There will be an all-day missionary meeting in the Baptist Church, Scotch Plains, tomorrow, under the auspices of the East New Jersey Baptist Association.

Rev. Dr. Pogson, of New Brunswick, will occupy the pulpit at the First Baptist Church, Sunday morning and evening. He will give a talk in the morning on mission work.

The Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church will probably hold its first fall meeting next week, when the president will be home from a visit in Connecticut.

It is expected that the First M. E. Church will be reopened for worship, Sunday, Oct. 18. During the past few weeks the edifice has been undergoing many changes and there is no doubt but what the members of the church and congregation will be pleased with the improved appearance of the interior.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Adams & Chapman have a special line of trimmed $3 hats for Saturday. Green trading stamps given with all purchases.

—Neuman Brothers have the finest assortment of vegetables. Everything the best and sold the cheapest. Trade at Neuman Brothers and know what you are getting.

—Charles Graves, of West Fourth street, is contemplating the erection of a double house near his own dwelling, and is now working on the plans for the structure.

—It was unfortunate for the people who were traveling in the Plainfield trolley cars yesterday afternoon during the heavy downpour of rain. Open cars were in use and riding was decidedly uncomfortable.

—There is an urgent need that the gutter on the northside of West End avenue, between Front street and the brook, be properly opened to the brook. At present the gutter is only opened part way and in a heavy rain water backs up and floods the street.

—The Mendlessohn Club of New York will give the patrons of the Y. M. C. A. Star course Monday an enjoyable evening of music, song and story. The programme consists of humorous and dialect readings, ballads and character songs. Popular and classical violin solos, musical scenes and plays. Special Scotch and Irish songs, ballads, music and readings in costume will be given.

—Recently, newspapermen from New York and other cities were taken over the Baltimore and Ohio system by James H. Moddy, that they might see the work of improvement at various points. In the party were several foreign writers and, as an evidence of their appreciation, they presented Mr. Moddy with a loving cup. Another group who went out on a like journey earlier in the season, under Mr. Moddy's pilotage, sent him a "grandfather's clock. The truism that "seeing is believing" is understood in its value and significance by President Loree and his associates, and they have used Mr. Moddy's services and his experience as a well-trained newspaper man to advantage.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN.

Owing to the weather the special school election was rather poorly attended last evening. The polls were left open for an hour and nearly all the votes cast were in favor of the appropriation asked for by the Board of Education to arrange for two more classes and hire another teacher.

The culvert in front of the Kuldoshes residence on North avenue, became stopped up yesterday afternoon during the storm and as a result the whole road was flooded. The pipe was opened this morning and the water was allowed to pass off.

William H. Tabb has accepted a position with a manufacturing house in New York City.

Albert Lake, of Metuchen, was in town yesterday on business.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Tomorrow will see the closing of the local baseball season. Manager Johnston, as a special attraction, has arranged to have the original Cuban Giants, the champion colored ball team of the country, cross bats with the local team. The lovers of baseball should appreciate Manager Johnston's efforts to give good baseball and turn out in large numbers. The only original "Pop" DeVoe will be on the coaching line for the Cubans team. Game called at 3:30.

The lineup for tomorrow's game against the Cuban Giants will be the same as last Saturday against Alis. This is it: Batch, lf; Mallay, 2b; Brogan, c; Crusius, ss; Conley, lf; Allen, 1b; Davis, p; Flannery, cf; Williams, 3b. Umpire Bligh will not.

A valuable hound dog belonging to Jessie Ryno was killed several days ago as a precaution against the rabies. The animal was bitten last week by the dog that was supposed to be mad.

THE FORUM.

Communications from readers of The Daily Press on all subjects of local interest are invited. All such communications must be stripped of personalities, and must be signed by the writer. His name will not necessarily be published. The editor is not responsible for views expressed in this column.

Sunday Baseball.

Editor, The Daily Press:

At the time of that wonderful outburst of can't, fanaticism and hysteria on the subject of Sunday golf a few months ago it was openly stated that golf was illegal on Sunday in common with baseball or any other sport, and that persons playing would be liable to prosecution. The gentlemen—one in particular — who advanced this argument knew it was false, but it was good enough for the purpose and they were not squeamish about their methods.

In your paper on Tuesday it was reported that a petition had been presented to the Supreme Court for this suppression of Sunday baseball, and that Judge Gummere had replied that there was no law against playing baseball on Sunday and that no one had a right to dictate to others as to their social and religious views. Comment is unnecessary. X. Y. Z.

Judge Gummere said that Sunday ball players can be punished under the public morality act. It was not reported and we are not aware that the Judge made any such statement as "no one had a right to dictate to others as to their social and religious view.—Ed.

Baggage Smashing.

Edtior, The Daily Press:

In my experience there is not another station where baggage is handled so roughly as in Plainfield. Every day one can see heavy trucks filled with valuable property dropped from the car level to the ground without the least attempt to break the fall. Even when a truck is used it is about two feet below the car level and the trunk is simply dropped out of the car. This is outrageous. I do not know whether the fault lies with the parties who neglect their duty, or with the company who fail to provide a level platform and proper trucks, but the abuse should be remedied some how or by some one. If a passenger would present a bill for a broken trunk, the company would soon find a remedy. O.

Cabs at the Station.

Editor, The Daily Press:

May I ask the Central R. R. Co. why they will not allow cabs to stand at the east-bound station? Passengers arriving from Trenton or Philadelphia cannot get a cab or a baggage man without shouting, or taking a troublesome walk through the tunnel to the North Avenue station. I suppose we can assume that the company in minor matters is anxious to please its patrons. If this is correct it seems to me that here is an instance in which they could work a great improvement with no detriment to themselves.

A Perfect Painless Pill

is the one that will cleanse the system, set the liver to action, remove the bile, clear the complexion, cure headache and leave a good taste in the month. The famous little pills for doing such work pleasantly and effectually are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Bob Moore, of Lafayette, Ind., says: "All other pills I have used gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers are simply perfect." Sold by L. W. Randolph.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.

An Ideal Location

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark, 14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

SPORTING NEWS.

WITH THE ROOTERS.

The Scotch Plains team will meet the famous Cuban Giants on the home grounds tomorrow. This is the only original Cuban Giants and a great game can be expected.

Manager Owens, of St. Mary's ball team, declares that his team will defeat Westfield tomorrow, and a prominent backer of the team says that if the Saints do not win tomorrow they might as well give up playing the National game.

The Aeolian Athletic Association, of Garwood, has just closed a most successful season. The general summary shows that the ball team scored 194 runs against 69 for its opponents, and out of nineteen games played Aeolian won sixteen and lost three. In the pitching department Maurer won nine, lost one and Hegerman won seven and lost two. Two games were forfeited, one with Scotch Plains and the other with Rahway A. C.

FOOTBALL.

A practice game of football was played yesterday afternoon by the members of the North Plainfield A. C. for the purpose of selecting members to represent the club in football this season. It is said that it developed that in the club membership was good material for a team.

The Orange Field Club eleven was obliged to postpone practice last night on account of the rain. A doubly hard practice will be held tomorrow night in preparation for the game with the Carlton A. A., Saturday. Captain Smith, of the Orange, says that he expects a hard game the following Saturday with the Nonpareil Club. The Carlton A. C. will engage in a stiff practice tonight for their game with the Orange F. C.

ROD AND GUN.

Game Warden Hawkins, of Elizabeth, took from Lindenmeyer's pond, in Brookdale, on Wednesday, one of the largest trout ever captured in the State. It weighed a trifle more than five pounds and measured twenty-four and three-eighths inches in length, five and five-eighths inches in width and three and one-quarter inches across its back. The pond was being cleared of carp and the trout became enmeshed in the net. The fish made frantic efforts to escape, and when it discovered that it could not it lay perfectly still until Game Commissioner Johnson took it out of the net. Evidently preferring death to captivity, the trout leaped out of Mr. Johnson's hand and landed on its head on a flat rock, injuring itself so badly that it died despite efforts to revive it.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

The gymnasium classes in the Y. M. C. A. have been formally opened. The attendance is the largest in the history of the association.

Work in fitting up a new locker room in the Y. M. C. A. began yesterday. The room will be in condition for the reception of the lockers the first of next week.

An afternoon musicale and tea will be the attraction at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club, tomorrow afternoon, in addition to the regular events on the course.

GOLF.

In the invitation golf tournament in honor of Miss Rhona Adair, champion of Great Britain, which, began yesterday at the links of Merion Cricket Club, Philadelphia, Mrs. N. Pendleton Rogers, of Baltusrol, is paired with Miss Harvey, champion of Canada.

BASKET BALL.

It is probable that a Y. M. C. A. basket ball league of three or four teams will be formed. It is not expected that the association will join a city league.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

Y. M. C. bowlers will have the advantage of the services of a pin boy during the entire coming season.

—President Baer, of the Philadelphia and Reading, received many congratulations recently, when he celebrated the sixty-first anniversary of his birthday.

—Clarion, Pa., is to be connected with the Pennsylvania lines, after twenty-six years of continued disappointment. A company has been organized to build a connecting link of seventeen miles.

The Salve That Heals without leaving a scar is DeWitt's. The name Witch Hazel is applied to many salves, but DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the only Witch Hazel Salve made that contains the pure unadulterated witch hazel. If any other Witch Hazel Salve is offered you it is a counterfeit. E. C. DeWitt invented Witch Hazel Salve and DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best salve in the world for cuts, burns, bruises, tetter, or blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles. Sold by L. W. Randolph.

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

William O'Laughlin, of West Second street, whose hand was injured, is improving. Seven stitches were removed from the cut yesterday.

Tin platers in forty-two plants in Wales are on strike on account of the refusal of their employers to discuss terms until the demands of the men have been withdrawn.

Elevator constructors from all over the country have held a convention in New York City, formed an international union and decided to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor.

There were 253 strikes in Austria last year, involving 36,304 working people, of these there were successful, seventy-one; partly successful, sixty-eight; failed, ninety-two; result unknown in eighteen cases.

The Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers limits the amount of production of the mills over which it has control in accordance with the amount of work it believes its men are capable of performing. The present limit is about 320 sheets in eight hours, which is considered a fair day's work.

After remaining on strike for two months about fifty employes of the Summit Silk Mill yesterday returned to work. The men were allowed to resume with the understanding that they were to be recognized as individuals, and not as a union. It is also said that the mill owners have made a reduction of one and a half cent a yard. The mill in which, previous to the strike, 700 hands were employed, will now be conducted as an open shop.

Led by thirteen-year-old Joe Smith, acting business agent of the Western Union Messenger Boy' Union, of Chicago, seventy messengers walked out. The boys let their work because their wage demands had not been granted. The messenger asks $6 per week, with $1.25 for Sunday work and 20 cents an hour for overtime, the work day to be eight hours. The boys are now getting $3.75 a week, with $1 for Sunday work, nothing for overtime and the days are about nine hours.

James Long, of the Aluminum Press Company's plant, met with a painful accident while at work in the plant this week. Long was working about a turret lathe. A piece of steel bar got stuck in the head of the machine. He bent over to see what caused the bar to stick. A new man, who was being "broke in," pushed the bar through, hitting Long in the right eye. It was thought the eye was knocked out, but a close examination showed only a bad cut. The lad was taken to his home and a doctor summoned. He will be unable to resume work for some time.

THREATENED STRIKE COST P. S. C. $20,000

Professional Strike-Breaker Came in for Good Share of the Amount, It is Said.

JAMES FARLEY THE MAN

HOW HE DOES BUSINESS WHEN EMPLOYES ARE FIGHTING A CONCERN.

Account of the Methods He Would Have Adopted in All Liklihood Had There Been a Tie-Up on the Trolley Lines.

The threatened strike on the lines of the Public Service Corporation, which controls the Plainfield Street Railway Company, cost that company $20,000, says the Newark Evening News. One of the largest items in this amount, it is said, was paid to James Farley, the well known strike breaker.

Farley has gained prominence as a strike breaker and it is said he was employed as a last resort by the Public Service Corporation when that company was confronted by a tie up. During a strike he takes full charge of the lines.

He created the strike-breaking industry. He saw that the road must be operated, and on distinctly different lines from its ordinary service. The operators must be armed themselves and be protected by forces. Farley and martial law reign.

Had a strike occurred on the Public Service Corporation's system a few weeks ago and any attempt made to tie up traffic, Farley would have become president, general manager, superintendent — everything for the time being. President McCarter himself would need Farley's permission before he could run out a car. Farley would have arranged the schedule to suit himself, and directed all the time table experts.

When there is a particularly nasty job to perform this man does it himself. If a car is to be taken through a mob Farley becomes the motorman. In Richmond last summer, during the worst of the troubles there, he ran a car through volleys of bricks, rocks and bullets. He received a shot in the chest in that riot.

When a strike was threatened on the New York elevated lines, a few months ago, Farley had 3,200 men together inside of 30 hours, all railroad men, ready to take the places of strikers the moment the jobs were empty.

In the eight years he has been in the business he has dealt with the big strikes in Waterbury, Scranton, St. Louis, Providence, Boston and New Haven.

Farley lives in Plattsburg and owns a farm in the Adirondacks, which it is his pleasure to cultivate. He has made money breaking strikes, and his commissions have made him independent. He is described as a young man of mild address, not the sort of a fellow one would imagine in the thick of a fray. But he has an iron will and indomitable energy, and, it is said, a grudge against the labor unions.

Archdeacon to Speak.

ALL-CITY VS. ALL-BOROUGH

GAME BETWEEN BALL TOSSERS OF TWO COMMUNITIES.

Proposition for Contest on the Diamond—Plenty of Good Material.

As an appropriate climax to the baseball season there is no doubt that a game between an All-Plainfield team and an All-North Plainfield nine would be of unusual interest. There is plenty of material in both the city and borough to make up two aggregations and undoubtedly such a contest would attract the largest crowd of the season.

In the borough there are such players as George Bolsteri, "Warry" Mac Laughlin, John MacLaughlin, George Cathcart, Charles Dupee, George Dupee, Bert Moore. And in this city there are any number of good players who could be depended upon to give a good account of themselves. The game could be played on Crescent Oval, where the best accommodations are now to be had.

CASES TO BE TRIED MONDAY

CALENDAR OF UNION COUNTY COURT CASES.

Actions in Which Plainfielders Figure—Suits Against Railroad.

Voorhees, Esq., defendants; Leo O'Brien, by next friend, against the Central Railroad of New Jersey, Edward Nugent, Esq., plaintiffs and George Holmes, Esq., defendants; Thomas F. Burnett and wife against the North Jersey Street Railroad Company, Robert M. Clark, Esq., for defendants, Howard MacSherry, Esq., defendants; Carrie Pangborn, by next friend, against the Central Railroad of New Jersey; Francis J. Blatz, Esq., plaintiff; George Holmes, Esq., defendants; Theodore L. Beck against John A. Hicks, LeRoy A. Gibby, Esq., plaintiffs, Corra N. Williams, Esq., defendants.

SISTERS QUARREL.

Dispute Over Clothes Has Its Climax in Justice Huff's Court.

Miss Emily Sutterlein and Mrs. Anderson, sisters, of Summit avenue, had a difference of opinion about their clothes last week that brought them into Justice Huff's court Thursday. Miss Sutterlein discovered that her wardrobe was giving out and concluded to replenish it from her sister's. She accordingly helped herself to a large supply of garments and thereafter astonished her friends by her gentle appearance during the greater part of a week, Mrs. Anderson not unnaturally objecting. Justice Huff admonished the errant sister to return the "glad rags" and upon her promise to do so dismissed the case.

George Ord to Marry.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Clara Hoffman, of Lebanon, Hunterdon County, and George Ord, of 746 West Front street. The marriage will take place at the home of the bride's father on Wednesday, October 14.

INDOOR RIFLE RANGE SCHEME OF CO. K

Plan to Permit Members to Practice During the Winter Months.

ACTION AT EARLY DATE

NEW FLOOR TO BE PLACED IN TEMPORARY ARMORY.

The Members Preparing to Hold Dances—The Disadvantages Under Which Company Has Labored.

There is a general discussion among the members of Company K about the advisability of installing an indoor range in their temporary armory in the Scheptlin building on West Front street. Some dissatisfaction has been caused in the past by the fact that the company has not had the means for winter practice as have many of the rival companies in the Second Regiment. In addition to this, until recently, the members have been obliged to use old rifles which have been a hindrance to the best possible work.

In spite of these disadvantages Company K has invariably won a high place in the regiment, its record last summer being the best in the regiment and very nearly the best in the State. With facilities for winter practice and the improved Krag rifles that were issued last Monday further honors would seem easy. The matter of installing a range will be formally considered at the next meeting of the company.

It is also announced that Company K is receiving bids for the contract of laying a new floor in the armory for purposes of dancing which will be a feature of the social life of the club during the coming winter.

COLORED CHURCH TO OBSERVE

SPECIAL SERVICES TO BE HELD AT MT. ZION A. M. E.

Order for the Day — Officers of Society Have Charge of Arrangements.

The observance of women's day will be held at the Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church, West Fourth street, on Sunday, November 15. Sister Martha Ivins, an evangelist, will have charge of the services for the day. In the morning at 11 o'clock there will be a preaching service and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon there will be a consecration service. In the evening at 7:45 there will be preaching by Sister Ivins.

There are the officers and executive committee of the society having the service in charge: President, Mrs. Henrietta Grove; treasurer, Lucy J. Henry; secretary, Aletha Maynard; executive committee: Sarah Marsh, Henrietta Grove, Aletha Maynard, Rebecca Voorhees, Matilda Dunham, Lindora Brown, Lucy J. Henry, Mary Henson, Sarah Beach, Sarah Wood, Emeline Selby, Sarah Riely, Mary Strinalp, Frances Strinalp, Abbie Bounds, Fanny Olden, Mary Johnson, Mary Lane, Mary J. Mitchell and Laura Cole.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

Union County Sunday-School Association Chooses Managers.

At the twenty-third annual convention of the Union County Sunday-school Association held in the Cranford Presbyterian Church these officers were elected: President, Rev. G. M. Shott, of Scotch Plains; vice presidents, Rev. H. H. Sleeper, of Elizabeth, E. L. Taylor, Westfield; secretary and treasurer, Richard P. Greaves, Westfield; recording secretary, Rev. W. B. Hamilton, of Elizabeth; home department superintendent, William S. Webb, Westfield.

Mrs. Manning's Funeral.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Joel Manning, whose death occurred Wednesday morning, took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence in South Plainfield. Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes, pastor-emeritus, of the First Baptist Church, was the officiating minister. Rev. J. A. Cubberly, of South Plainfield, assisted and offered prayer. The interment was in Hillside Cemetery. The pall bearers were: Fred Vanentine, Daniel Snowden, William Sanford, Joel Randolph, J. B. Coward and Willis Foote.

STORM DELUGES THE ENTIRE STATE

City and Borough Receives Share of Water Which Causes Much Damage.

RAIN A RECORD BREAKER

RICHMOND STREET UNDER WATER A SIGHT.

Bound Brook Suffers Greatly—Trolley and Railroad Service Tied Up—Telephone and Telegraph Service Injured.

Plainfield suffered much damage from yesterday's storm. Streets were flooded, cellars filled with water, bridges weakened, trolley cars stopped, traffic delayed and the telephone and telegraph systems crippled to some extent. In fact it was one of the worst storms which has visited this city in years.

People stood in the driving rain at the Watchung avenue bridge expecting every minute that the antiquated dam in Tier's pond would give way. The torrent, which washed down the stream, carried with it all kinds of debris which piled up at the Clinton avenue bridge and for several hours threatened to carry that structure away. At Watchung avenue the water was nearly two feet above the top of the dam.

The employes of the Scott Press Company's works had great difficulty in getting out of the shop on account of the water on South avenue and Richmond street. The men had to break down a picket fence in the rear of the factory and climb through to the railroad tracks and walk along the embankment to Washington street.

Small boys in Richmond street rowed up and down the thoroughfare in a boat, the water being almost three feet deep. Fifty trolley poles, stored in a lot at the corner of Richmond street and South avenue, were to be seen floating merrily down East Fifth and Sixth streets and Cottage place.

South Plainfield was almost inundated by the water in the pond rising to a heighth which entirely submerged the bridge on Plainfield avenue. It was expected that the structure would be washed away. Much damage was done to property along the route of the stream.

Stony brook did some damage in North Plainfield. Greenbrook road was awash and the water flowed over the bridge. The culverts and small bridges on the property of John Y. Wilson were washed away or damaged. At the Watchung Ice Company's lake the damage to the buildings was considerable.

The trolley service between this city and Elizabeth was at a standstill. The cars would not pass beyond the river of water on Richmond street and at Elizabeth it was impossible to get through some of the streets. At Westfield and Cranford the water was deep enough to float a row boat.

During the storm yesterday the trolley cars on Somerset street could not proceed farther north than Summit avenue. There it was necessary to carry the women from the stalled cars to the sidewalk. This act of gallantry was performed by conductors, the women preferring to have them carry them than several passengers. The conductors were loudly applauded by pedestrians who rushed out of near by houses to witness the sight.

Bound Brook this morning was six feet under water. No trains were able to leave that place to take out Plainfield commuters until after 7 o'clock. The streets were washed in places to such an extent that it will be necessary to rebuild some of the roads. The trolley traffic between that city and New Brunswick was still impeded this morning. It is said that the level of the water in nine inches lower than the level of water in the streets during the freshet of 1897.

The southern section of Elizabeth was converted into an inland lake and the terrified inhabitants of houses in that district were taken from their flooded dwellings in wagons and rowboats. All the factories along the Elizabeth river were obliged to close their doors. Business in some parts of the city was entirely suspended. The printing plant of the Elizabeth Evening Times was flooded and the edition was printed by the Elizabeth Journal. In the basement of the building where the presses are located the water was almost up to the ceiling. The fire engines are at work pumping out the flooded cellars.

CHARLES W. BUCKELEW MEETS HORRIBLE DEATH?

Body Supposed to be That of Plainfielder Found Terribly Mangled.

NOT YET IDENTIFIED

TRAINMAN MAKES GRUESOME DISCOVERY IN JERSEY CITY YARDS.

Family Here in Awful Suspense—Commutation Ticket to New York Bearing His Name Found on Body.

The badly mutilated body of a man, young and well dressed, was found last night in the yards of the Central Railroad of New Jersey near the cross-over switch in Jersey City. Though terribly mangled, the man's face and body were not unrecognisable. Near the body was a commutation ticket for October between New York and Plainfield and inscribed the name of Charles W. Buckelew. The station agent at this city was notified this morning and promptly called at the house of Charles W. Buckelew, of this city, who lives at 126 West Fifth street.

Mr. Buckelew's sister and his aged mother, Mrs. C. H. Buckelew, who is an invalid, were the only ones of the family at home this morning when a representative of The Daily Press called. Both were terribly excited by the news they had received which they had been unable to verify. It was discovered that Mr. Buckelew had been expected home last night and had failed to arrive. He had been away on a four days' cruise up the Hudson to Nyack acting in his capacity of marine architect. His absence had caused no alarm as frequently before he had overstayed the time limit set by himself. The incident of the commutation ticket was the only definite piece of evidence they had that their son and brother was the dead man.

The manner in which the man met his death could not be learned. The dead body was picked up by a trainman evidently some time after death had occurred. From the position of the body there seemed little room for doubt that the man was killed by a train. A representative of the Buckelew family, Mr. Bacon, went to Jersey City this noon for the purpose of identifying the body if possible, but the result of his investigation has not yet been learned.

Charles W. Buckelew, of Plainfield, is a marine arthitect, of great promise in his profession. He has offices at 121 Liberty street, New York City. He is the son of Charles H. Buckelew, manager of the Ashton Valve Company, with offices at 110 Liberty street, New York. He is about twenty-five years old.

MISSIONARY WORKERS' MEET

BAPTIST SOCIETY OF EAST NEW JERSEY ASSOCIATION IN SESSION.

Semi-Annual Meeting at Scotch Plains—Mrs. B. J. Shreve Speaks.

The semi-annual meeting of the Woman's Baptist Missionary Society of the East New Jersey Association was held in the Baptist Church, Scotch Plains, yesterday, but the severe storm prevented a large attendance. Words of welcome were spoken by Mrs. A. D. Beeken and the response was made by the president, Mrs. J. A. Cubberley.

Mrs. B. J. Shreve, of the First Baptist Church, this city, told of the needs and work of the educational department. The society is now defraying the expenses of educating four young women for the foreign mission field, two in the Woman's Medical College, of Philadelphia, and two in other schools.

After a delightful social hour at the luncheon table, the afternoon session opened with a devotional service led by Miss Florence Bogart, of Roselle Park. Mrs. Waterbury, of Boston, addressed the meeting on the subject of "Investments," and Miss Fife, of Tokio, Japan, told of the progress of Christianity in Japan, and of her special work in kindergarten schools.

Miss Josephine Toner, of High Bridge, has been spending several days with Plainfield friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Smoyer, of Stroudsburg, Pa., are visiting their niece, Mrs. Joseph Martin, of Duer street.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR BOYS

COURSE ARRANGED FOR MEMBERS OF JUNIOR DEPARTMENT.

James R. Joy and Ernest R. Ackerman Among Those Who Will Instruct the Youth.

A course of entertainments has been scheduled for the boy's department of the Y. M. C. A., which will be opened to the public. These entertainments compare favorably with the Star Course of Entertainments and include some of the best entertainers to be secured. Among them are Rosani, manipulator and jugglist, October 26; James B. Joy, lecture on "Yellowstone Trail," November 20, Charles R. Taggart, impersonations and ventriloquist, December 7; Ronald Reeder, humorist, cartoonist, impersonator and prestidigitator, January 22; Ernest R. Ackerman, lecture, Glimpses of Foreign lands, stereopticon, February 15; Prof. A. E. Hebrickson, magician, March 18. The tickets for this course of entertainments will be on sale at Hodge's drug store after October 19.

W. C. T. U. CHOOSES OFFICERS

MRS. T. H. TOMLINSON RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT OF COUNTY UNION.

Plainfielders as Members of the Standing Committees—Reports Read.

Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson, of this city, was re-elected county president of the Union County W. C. T. U., at the convention held in Elizabeth. These were the other officers chosen: Corresponding secretary, Mrs. Morris L. Rarick, of Dunellen; recording secretary, Mrs. G. M. Mosher, of Westfield; treasurer, Mrs. Mary T. Cox, of Cranford; honorary vice presidents, Mrs. Scriven Stoddard and Miss Julia A. Barker.

On the standing committees are these: Legislation and petitions, Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson, of Plainfield; railroad men, motormen, firemen, soldiers, sailors and policemen, Mrs. M. C. Dobbins, of Plainfield; Christian citizenship, Mrs. Stephen Caboone, of Plainfield.

The treasurer's report showed that the receipts for the year amounted to $345.42; disbursements, $347.25, leaving a balance of $7.17. Mrs. Morris L. Rarick, corresponding secretary, reported a total membership of 513 in Union county. The medal contest scheduled for the evening session was postponed to Tuesday night, October 20.

It Was Ever Thus.

Silas D. Drake is happy over the fact that the Middlesex Board of Freeholders is building a $1,200 bridge over Ambrose creek, on Lincoln boulevard, and that thoroughfare will soon be opened from Lincoln to Bound Brook. As this road parallels the Central Railroad it will be the shortest highway from Lincoln to that borough, and in time is likely to prove a very important route of travel.

Attachments Delayed.

The attachments served in behalf of the employes of the Hotel Netherwood against Thomas L. Brown, the proprietor, are held up pending the bankruptcy proceedings in which Brown is petitioner. These attachments will be the first considered in the case. The employes are represented by William Newcorn, Esq.

Judgment for Plaintiff.

Judgment for $33 and costs has been rendered by Justice Huff for Edward F. Myers and Charles Frank against Samuel Klein, in a suit on contract.

Case Dismissed.

The case of the State against Agnes Young, charged with assault and battery, was dismissed yesterday in Justice Huff's court.

NEW HIGH SCHOOL, HANDSOME STRUCTURE

Building for Which Appropriation of $125,000 Has Been Made.

STATELY APPEARANCE

DESCRIPTION OF INTERIOR ARRANGEMENTS OF NEW SCHOOLHOUSE.

Modern in Appointments — To be Erected at Arlington Avenue and West Ninth Street—Work to Commence Soon.

As soon as a new school law is enacted to supplant the McKee act, preparations for the erection of one of the handsomest high school buildings in the State will be resumed here. It will cost no less than $100,000 and will be located at the corner of Arlington avenue and West Ninth street. It will be a building which will harmonize well with the excellent school system in this city. Herbert D. Drake and Henry G. Morse, Jr., of Boston, are the architects. At present the construction of the building is delayed on account of the unconstitutionality of the McKee statute. Some time ago the Common Council made an appropriation of $125,000 for the purpose and this week the design was selected.

The plans and specifications for the new structure which are on exhibition at the Stillman High School need a square of 140 feet frontage and a depth of 128 feet. A light court in the center thirty-two by sixty feet will light the gymnasium in the basement and the halls and laboratories in the first and second stories. The main portion is about fifty-five feet high with a flat roof surrounded by heavy balustrades. The scheme of lighting is that followed in Germany, and the best school authorities in this country. It places all the windows on one side of the room, the window surface of each class room being equal to one-fifth the floor area.

In the basement, in addition to the provision for heating and ventilation, there are two large rooms for manual training, each twenty-five by forty-eight feet square; a storeroom in which the entire supply of school books and supplies for the city may be kept; two large playrooms, one for the girls and the other for the boys each twenty-two by fifty-nine feet; with provision for a lunch counter between the two, so that simple lunches may be supplied to the pupils at cost, as is the custom in most cities; also a bicycle room and laveratory for each sex and a large gymnasium. The later is placed in the center of the building, the floor being sunk below the rest of the basement, and is lighted overhead by a flood of light from an interior court.

The first floor is entered by three large entrances, one in front and two at the sides. There is also provision for two smaller entrances or exits at the rear for use in case of extra need. At the left of the main entrance is the board room for the board of education, with the clerk's office adjoining. At the right are the offices of the superintendent and the principal of the school. On each side of the building are three large classrooms with cloakrooms or wardrobes between them. Each room is arranged to seat forty-two pupils, making a seating capacity of 252 on this floor.

Between the two wings of the building is situated the auditorium which is fifty by sixty feet running up two stories and having a gallery, entered from the second story, round three sides of the hall. The combined seating capacity of the floor and gallery is about 800. The stage has a semi-circular recess

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

Whenever you feel the need of some especially fine candy ask for Fowler's, East Front street.

If your roof leaks, or repairs are needed to the house see Herman Hansen, Regent street. His work is good and his prices are right.

Have you tried John P. Powers' honey of colts foot and tar? It is a sure preventive for colds and coughs and also cures the most aggravated cases.

Now is the time to have the lawn treated preparatory to winter. C. L. Stanley, of North avenue, does this kind of work at most reasonable prices.

If A. H. Enander, of Park avenue, looks after the sanitary work in your home you can rest assured that it will be done properly. He is an expert at his trade and can always be relied upon.

Boice, Runyon & Co., handle but one grade of coal, the best, and if you want to be sure of the quality of the coal you intend burning this winter now is the time to place your order with this firm.

The quality of the milk and cream sold by Marchant Brothers, of North avenue, is above criticism. It represents the best obtainable and a postal card will bring this milk to your door at your convenience.

For the largest stock of Sorosis shoes in Central New Jersey go to John H. Doane's store on West Front street. Sorosis shoes are unsurpassed. All other shoes in every shape and style are for sale at Doane's.

Elgin creamery butter is a specialty at L. C. Ortner's grocery store on Park avenue and Fourth street. It is the best butter you ever tasted. Ortner has all the other staple and fancy groceries of the best and at lowest rates. Give him a trial.

It is folly to waste time and money going to New York for furniture when you can buy it at prices so reasonable in Powlison & Jones' store on East Front street. You can also get a big and varied assortment. Best equipped furniture store in this part of the State

The handsome new show windows at Hill & Shupp's dry goods store has made a notable improvement, and when the alterations in the store are completed this will be one of the most attractive dry goods houses in the State. The large show windows have been lowered and inside they are inclosed. In each window will be several electric lights. The firm is constandtly receiving its fall and winter supply of goods and an early inspection is desirable. An effort will be made to increase the stock and at the same time continue to give the best values in the trade.

WANTS ALL ERRORS CORRECTED

GOVERNOR FAVORS SPEEDY ACTION AT SPECIAL SESSION.

To Pass Tuberculosis Bill, Long Branch Measure and School Act.

Governor Murphy does not share in the opinion expressed by senators and assemblymen that at the special session, which will meet next Thursday, the Legislature should transact no business beyond passing the school bill, made necessary by the recent decision of the Court of Errors and Appeals, declaring the McKee law unconstitutional.

When Governor Murphy was apprised of these expressions of opinion he took issue with them at once. He says he thinks that the Legislature should remedy without delay, as soon as the opportunity was offered, any mistakes it made last winter.

He says he can not see where any harm can come from that, and he thinks the people of the State would criticise the members for failing to do so much more severely than they would for doing what it was plainly their duty to do. In his opinion there are two matters of remedial legislation which the special session should consider—the tuberculosis sanitarium bill and the measure incorporating Long Branch. The last session, he says, made the appropriation for the sanitarium, but failed to pass the measure making it available. This sanitarium is a project which was commended in all parts of the State, the Governor says, and of all the letters which he had received from citizens in all sections upon it not one had spoken in opposition to the project.

As to the failure of the constitutional amendments at the recent election, Governor Murphy says, that he favors a constitutional convention, and that he will do all he could to bring one about.

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Edward Texier, of the Perrin Frere glove factory, will spend Sunday in New York.

Frank McCabe has resigned his positon at the Aluminum Press Company's plant.

Forty-five hundred men, employed in the Mountain Ash Colliery district, England, have tendered notices to cease work as a protest against the employment of non-unionist miners in the pits.

Efforts of the organizers of the American Federation of Labor to form the farm hands of Indiana into unions, with the purpose of increasing farm wages and systematizing the work done by their members, has been attended to successfully.

Herman S. Helfer, of New York, has taken a postion as assistant mechanical draughtsman in the works of the Potter Printing Press Company. Mr. Helfer is preparing for Cornell University. He is a graduate of a trade school and has been employed in a machine shop for a year and a half.

Machine Shop molders at Quincy, Ill., have asked for a nine-hour day and an increase of twenty-five cents a day. The machine shop molder question will be "passed up" to the respective presidents of the Stove Foundrymen's National Defense Association and the Iron Molders' International Union for settlement.

Three Plainfield men, employed by the Campbell Press Company, were sent to New York the week to erect a press in the Herald building. A walking delegate representing the International Association of Machinists refused to allow the men to do the job. The men had union cards but, it is said, they were not getting union wages.

News has reached this city of the death in Chicago of Willis Henry Garretson, who lived here six months ago. The details are meagre but letters received from Martin Garretson, the dead man's brother, state that death was due to consumption. Interment will be in Albany where the dead man's relatives reside. Garretson was employed in this city at the Aluminum Press Company.

AMUSEMENTS.

Fay Templeton and her enthusiastic fellow workers in "The Runaways" keep the fun and tunefulness of the gorgeous production at the top notch of joyful entertainment. The pretty Casino has never held more pleased audiences than have filled the famous playhouse continuously since May 11th last. All the big song-hits, twenty in number, are encored just as spontaneously and as enthusiastically as they were when introduced on Broadway.

The success that has attended Klaw & Erlanger's revival of "Ben Hur" at the New York Theatre is a most striking evidence of the remarkable hold this truly wonderful dramatic production has taken on public favor. The great chariot race in the fifth act, with four chariots and sixteen horses, is the most impressive reality ever seen on the stage. But notwithstanding its remarkable merit, it does not surpass in realism the pathetic miracle scene in the sixth act, in which a chorus of over 200 voices render touching anthems.

Doctors' Trust.

Upwards of one hundred fixed charges were adopted by the New Jersey State Homœpathic Society this week at the annual session held at Atlantic City. The minimum office charge for ordinary cases was placed at fifty cents and the maximum $1. The minimum house call is $1, the maximum $2. In special cases where operations are necesesary and in contagious disease cases higher rates were fixed. Before the convention adjourned it was decided to hold the next session at Hoboken in May, 1904.

Letters from Women

Cured by the use of Kodol are received daily. Their troubles nearly all begin with indigestion or other stomach disorder.

If the food you eat fails to give strength to your body, it is because the juices secreted by the stomach and digestive organs are inadequate to transform the nutrient properties of the food into blood. That is Indigestion. The system is deprived of the amount of nourishment required to keep up the strength, and the result is that one or more of the delicate organs gradually grows weak, and then weaker, until finally it is diseased. Here a great mistake is made. That of treating the diseased organ. The best doctors in the land make this very mistake. Why should they? It is so easy to see that the trouble is not there.

Kodol Cures

This famous remedy puts the stomach and digestive organs in a healthy condition so that rich, red blood is sent coursing through the veins and arteries of every muscle, tissue and fiber throughout every organ of the entire body, and by Nature's law of health, full strength and vigor is soon restored to each.

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders.

I have taken Kodol for nearly two months after each meal and it is the only remedy that gave relief from the terrible pains I endured. After a time I would take it but once a day, and now, while I keep a bottle handy, I seldom need it, as it has cured me. MRS. J. W. COOLBAUGH, Milo Center, N. Y.

MORGAN AND SCHWAB

Alleged Agreement In Regard to Shipbuilding Shares.

STOCK HOLDINGS WERE TIED UP

It Is Said That Nixon and Dresser Agreed With Gates Company and Schwab Not to Sell Until Morgan Shares Were Sold.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—An extract from the agreement under which the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. and Charles M. Schwab, it is alleged, expected to unload 200,000 shares of United States Shipbuilding company stock on the public for their own benefit before the corporation should be allowed to make a sale is as follows:

"Said parties of the first part hereby agree and guarantee that no part of the preferred stock and common stock of the United States Shipbuilding company, excepting so much only of said 15,000 shares of the preferred stock and 15,000 shares of the common stock which is now to be distributed among said venders, shall be distributed, sold or otherwise disposed of until after the 25,000 shares of the preferred stock and the 25,000 shares of the common stock to be delivered to J. P. Morgan & Co. and the 75,000 shares of the preferred stock and the 75,000 shares of the common stock to be delivered to the party of the second part shall have been marketed and disposed of."

It is said that Mr. Nixon and Mr. Dresser agreed with Harris, Gates & Co. and Charles M. Schwab that they would not sell Shipbuilding stock until Mr. Morgan's 50,000 shares and Mr. Schwab's 150,000 shares had been marketed, sold and disposed of. It will be hard work to make financiers believe that the Morgan firm did not know about and coincide with this arrangement. Nor will they believe with facility that the Morgan firm did not know that Mr. Nixon and Mr. Dresser were obligating, themselves to tie up their holdings of the stock in a trust until the Morgan and Schwab shares had been "sold and disposed of."

It will be noted in the final paragraph of the agreement that Harris, Gates & Co. bound themselves to get as much more for the preferred stock and for the common stock as they could.

Subpœna For C. M. Schwab.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Process servers are still searching for Charles M. Schwab in an effort to serve a subpœna upon him to insure his attendance at the hearing brought by a bondholders' protective association against the defunct United States Shipbuilding company. Mr. Schwab was not at his office, 71 Broadway, and no information as to his whereabout could be learned there. It was learned that those who are anxious to have Mr. Schwab tell what he knows about the organization of the shipyard trust do not believe it will be necessary to apply for an attachment against Mr. Schwab's body.

Christiancy's Resignation Accepted.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—The postmaster general has accepted the resignation of G. A. C. Christiancy, assistant attorney in the office of the assistant attorney general for the post office department. Christiancy was acting attorney general of the post office department for a time, until in April of this year Charles K. Robb was appointed and replaced him. When an investigation was made of the rifling of a safe in the office of the attorney general by the wife of General James N. Tyner of papers wanted in connection with the post office investigation it was alleged that it was Christiancy's neglect that permitted her to obtain the documents.

Landslide Causes Two Deaths.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Oct. 10.—John Cooper, aged forty-five, and Fred Smith, aged eighteen, were killed by a landslide on the West Shore railroad opposite this city. They were railroad men, living at Milton. With John Anwater they were repairing the telegraph line which had become broken by a small slide when a great mass of rock and gravel, loosened by the heavy rains, slid down the mountain and swept the three men into the river. Anwater's overcoat became tangled in the branches of a tree, but he managed to slip out of it and swam to a telegraph pole, clinging to it until rescued. Cooper and Smith were drowned.

Record Rainfall.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Oct. 10.—The rainfall in this section during the past twenty-four hours has been seven inches, one of the heaviest on record. The river was unusually high, and all tributaries are swollen. There were a number of washouts and landslides on both the New York Central and West Shore railroads, and trains were run with considerable delay.

Murder on a Box Car.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 10.—L. C. Dare, a young man of Walkerton, Ind., was murdered on top of a Northern Pacific box car near North Town Junction. It is supposed that he was killed by four tramps who sought to rob him of money which he carried.

Bad Fire at Irwin, Pa.

IRWIN, Pa., Oct. 10.—The plant of the Hackensmith Wheel and Mine Car company in West Irwin has been destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of about $50,000; insurence $10,000.

Rome Man Shoots Himself.

ROME, N. Y., Oct. 10.—John Fisher, forty years old, a well known resident of Rome, took his life by shooting himself in the head.

CITIES ARE FLOODED

Greater New York, Jersey City and Paterson All Suffer.

RECORD RAINFALL DID GREAT DAMAGE

Traffic Was Seriously Disturbed In Two States—Loss by Floods Will Amount to Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10. — Damage reaching into the hundreds of thousands was caused throughout New York city by floods. The rainfall of 10.4 inches has broken all local weather bureau records.

Surface traffic was seriously disturbed and in several instances blocked in the morning hours.

Commuters were forced to wade through pools of water to their knees at the New York entrances of the ferries.

For several miles from Claremont park toward Melrose the Harlem and New Haven tracks were submerged from three to five feet.

Much damage has been caused in Paterson, N. J. It is flooded to as great an extent as in the memorable flood of March, 1902. The inhabitants of River street have had to seek safety in the second story of their houses. The water is five feet deep in the streets adjacent to the river, and much damage has been done to property.

Men in boats rescued persons from the flooded houses.

The whole business section of the city was threatened. Bridges have been swept away and railway traffic tied up. Similar conditions prevail in all northern New Jersey. Dynamite has been placed to blow up the Morris canal if necessary to divert its waters.

A girl lost her life when Molly Ann's bridge was swept away.

The dam confining the waters of Pompton lake, New Jersey, burst, carrying away bridges and inundating the country almost to Paterson. A hundred houses were submerged and a territory containing 5,000 persons affected.

At Rutherford, N. J., a break in a dam supplying the McKensie Bleaching company with water for their works caused the flooding of the works and heavy damage. Tracks of the Erie railroad at Rutherford were three feet under water, and trains were stalled.

In Hoboken, N. J., the meadow district is flooded in consequence of the heavy rain, and the tenement house section is almost entirely under water. In some parts in the lower section of the city the streets are impassable. Grand, Adams, Jefferson and Madison streets are badly flooded, and trolley cars have to travel through water that reaches to the floors of the cars.

BRIDGE GOES DOWN.

Dam at Pompton Lake Gave Way Before Rising Waters.

POMPTON JUNCTION, N. J., Oct. 10.—With a crash and a roar the great dam that confined the waters of Pompton lake, near here, gave way before the floods of rain which swept over this town, the rush of the waters carrying with it the iron bridge across the Ramapo river just below the dam. One hundred houses were submerged and considerable damage done to the Pompton Iron and Steel works. No lives were lost, although there were many narrow escapes.

When the dam broke the roar of the rushing water could be heard for a long distance. Just below the dam are a cluster of houses where the men employed in the works lived. The roar of the water warned them in time, and there was a rapid scurrying to higher ground.

The onrush of the water carried away the heavy iron bridge as if it was made of wood.

Bridge Washed Away.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 10.—The wagon bridge at Hutchinson pond, between this city and Yardville, was washed away, and the dam of the pond also burst. The rushing of the waters also weakened the trolley bridge over the pond and has interrupted trolley traffic between this city and Yardville. Some damage was also done to the mill at the pond, one corner being washed away. The total damage will probably reach $10,000.

Packard Resignation Accepted.

GREENFIELD, Mass., Oct. 10.—Yielding to the pressure of public opinion, the trustees of the Greenfield Savings bank at a meeting received and accepted the resignation of Treasurer William G. Packard. Mr. Packard was president of the Packard National bank, which recently suspended, and, while there has been no official criticism of his capacity as an official of the savings bank, so many rumors have arisen causing some uneasiness among many depositors that the trustees felt that the interests of the institution would be served by his resignation.

Pattern Makers' Strike Off.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 10. — The Pittsburg association of the Pattern Makers' league has formally declared the strike off against the Manufacturers' association of Pittsburg. All of the shops in the district have been declared open, and the men are working for the wages the manufacturers offered before the strike was declared. The men were out four months.

Nyack Man Drowned.

NYACK, N. Y., Oct. 10. — Edward Smith, a brother of Postmaster David Smith of West Nyack, was drowned while crossing a bridge over Hackensack creek. The flood upset his buggy and threw him into the creek.

TRADE CONDITIONS.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Report For the Week.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s review of trade says:

There have been no developments of importance in the commercial world. As a rule there is more caution in making contracts, especially among manufacturers. Uneasiness regarding the financial situation recedes as the season advances without producing any monetary pressure in connection with crop moving. The proposed reduction in pig iron output has been indorsed by all leading producers, steadying prices just when changes in freight rates started another reduction. Other manufacturing news is favorable, except where the raw material markets are unsettled or labor struggles cause trouble. Suspension of an iron plant was attributed to the latter cause, and the movement of cotton at New Orleans also suffered because of a strike. Trade locally is quiet, preparations for election, together with unseasonable weather, having an adverse effect.

Wholesale trade is active at Baltimore; a brisk business has been transacted in fall clothing, and the outlook for spring is considered bright. Weather retards the sale of fall and winter clothing at Boston; building materials are quiet, and business in lumber is smaller than last year.

Latest returns of foreign commerce at this port are unsatisfactory, exports showing a loss of $1,188,646 compared with the same week last year and imports decreasing $2,577,124. Bank exchanges at New York for the week were 23.6 per cent smaller than last year, while at other leading cities there was a gain of 4.1 per cent.

Coffee reacted from the best price, but holds fairly firm on the strength of gloomy cables from Brazil, although stocks are very large.

A generally lower level of quotations for the leading farm staples was most encouraging. It indicated that supplies were coming freely to market and testified to the growing confidence in ample crops.

Failures this week numbered 239 in the United States against 245 last year, and 17 in Canada compared with 21 a year ago.

ENGLAND AND FRANCE.

By Agreement Will Try to Prevent War In the Far East.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—In addition to the settlement of an Anglo-French arbitration treaty an important understanding exists between the governments of the two countries in connection with the far east.

When the French foreign minister, M. Delcasse, accompanied President Loubet to London recently he discussed with Lord Lansdowne the possibility of a Russo-Japanese war, with the result that both foreign ministers agreed to exert the utmost possible pressure to prevent their respective far eastern allies, Russia and Japan, from coming to hostilities. It was frankly recognized that any such war would seriously endanger the entente which is now having practical results in an Anglo-French arbitration treaty, as some reckless action by either Russia or Japan might involve France and England in hostilities.

To avert this a private understanding was arrived at that Minister Delcasse should urge pacific measures at St. Petersburg, while Lord Lansdowne should use every endeavor to keep Japan in check. This understanding is the most important factor looking to peace in the far east and, taken in conjunction with the Japanese assurances to Russia with regard to the evacuation of Manchuria and the generally pacific tone adopted by the Japanese government and its representatives abroad, it goes far to explain the feeling of security exhibited in London and several other European capitals in connection with the alarming reports emanating from China and elsewhere.

Denbigh Cables King Edward.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Lord Denbigh has sent the following cablegram to King Edward from New York: "Pleased to inform your majesty four days' visit Boston most successful. Saturday visited Providence; great enthusiasm. Enormous enthusiastic crowd in Boston for church parade Sunday. Saw magnificent march and drill of West Point cadets; commandant sent respectful greetings to your majesty. Great cordiality everywhere toward your majesty and England. Going to Washington, where president receives us."

Panic on Chicago "L."

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—Harry Jacobs, nineteen years old, a painter, rushed through the smoker of an elevated train, his clothing enveloped in flames, causing a panic among the passengers and sustaining painful injuries. Jacobs' clothes, which were saturated with benzine, became ignited from a cigarette which he held in his hand. A policeman extinguished the blaze by throwing his overcoat about the man.

Tom Kim Yung Killed Himself.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10.—Tom Kim Yung, the acting secretary of the local Chinese consul, who was found dead in his room at the Chinese consulate, committed suicide by gas asphyxiation. Yung committed suicide on account of the disgrace which followed his arrest on a charge of battery.

Asylum Attendants Acquitted.

TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 10.—Earl Noll and J. M. Peterson, the young men who were attendants at the State Insane asylum and who were charged with the murder of A. B. L. Maxwell, one of the patients, were acquitted in the district court.

THE TILLMAN TRIAL.

Prisoner Gives His Version of the Shooting.

LEXINGTON, S. C., Oct. 10.—The examination of James H. Tillman, who went on the stand as a witness in his own behalf, was resumed when court convened.

Mr. Tillman, in line with a ruling of the court rendered after an hour's argument by counsel, was asked what impression was made upon him by the editorials written by Mr. Gonzales. He replied that they were intensely bitter.

Mr. Tillman, giving his version of the shooting, said he was walking down from the state house after the adjournment of the state senate Jan. 15 in company with Senators Talbird and Brown, the former being on the outside, the latter on the inside. Before reaching the transfer station, he said, he noticed Mr. Gonzales down the street looking at him very intently. He said he (defendant) had on his overcoat, buttoned. He said he never took his eyes from Mr. Gonzales and that Gonzales did not take his eyes off him.

He said Mr. Gonzales had on an overcoat, tightly buttoned, with hands in his pockets, thumbs sticking out. Mr. Gonzales cut diagonally across in front of him, he said, and the thumb of his right hand disappeared in the pocket.

He said he thought Mr. Gonzales was going to draw a weapon, and he fired, first saying, "I got your message." The message, he said, referred to the statements reported to him by Witnesses White and Holzenbach. These statements were to the effect that Gonzales had said he had made Tillman show the white feather twice before and would do it again. The defendant said he did not fire a second shot, as Mr. Gonzales did not draw a pistol.

On cross examination the defendant said he had reason to expect from the moment he saw Mr. Gonzales that he (Gonzales) would shoot when they met.

WILLIAM M. RICE MURDER.

Patrick, Under Sentence of Death, May Escape.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 10.—The postponement until Monday of argument in the Rice will case, in which Albert T. Patrick, awaiting death in Sing Sing prison for the murder of William M. Rice, led to the discovery of a remarkable chain of circumstances by which Patrick may escape the electric chair, not through a reversal by the court of appeals of his conviction and death sentence, but through an amazing tangle of legal technicalities. As the case stands Patrick is a condemned prisoner in the death cell at Sing Sing prison. Nearly eighteen months have passed since the week in which he was to have died for the murder of Millionaire William M. Rice, his execution being stayed astensibly by an appeal to the court of appeals, but the records of the court show no such appeal in existence.

The legal time for the filing of such appeal elapsed six months ago, and a legal problem which may prove exceedingly troublesome lies behind the question as to how the death sentence may again be imposed upon him.

Mrs. Williams Not Guilty.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10.—The jury has returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of Mrs. Emma Williams, on trial for the murder of her two children. The woman was accused of administering arsenic to her little daughters in order to secure the insurance on their lives. John Williams, her husband, was also indicted for the crime and has been in prison awaiting trial. Both denied any knowledge of the cause of the children's death.

LIPTON RETURNS HOME.

Owner of Shamrock III. Bids Farewell to America.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Sir Thomas Lipton, who came here in June expecting to "lift the America's cup" with the Shamrock III., is on his way back to England. He sailed on the White Star liner Cedric.

There was a banquet in his honor at the Waldorf-Astoria, at which the baronet received a great send off. Many members of the Honorable Artillery Company of London attended the feast. Commodore Tod of the New York Yacht club made a speech and wished Sir Thomas a pleasant voyage home.

Before the Cedric sailed Sir Thomas said that he was not feeling as well as he looked, but that he expected to gain strength on his way to England. He bid goodby to H. H. Davies, his agent in this country, and Captain Webster, who were the only persons at the pier to see him off owing to the early hour at which the vessel sailed. He would not talk about the possibility of his challenging again for the cup.

Irish Lady Golfer Won Again.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10. — The semifinals in the Griscom invitation golf tourney were played on the links of the Merion Cricket club here. Never before in the history of golf have women been forced to endure such conditions as prevailed. The two big matches were between Miss Rhona Adair, the British champion, and Miss G. Bishop of Brooklawn and Mrs. C. T. Stout (Genevieve Hecker) and Mrs. R. H. Barlow of the Merion club. Miss Adair and Mrs. Stout each won, and the final will see the meeting of Great Britain's leading exponent and America's best player.

Young Henry Won In the Mud.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The track at Morris park was fetlock deep in mud owing to the heavy rain. Three favorites won. The Fordham handicap, seven furlongs, went to Young Henry, with the favorite, Grenade, second. Lady Uncas made the running to the stretch, where Fuller, on Young Henry, sent him to the front and won driving by three-quarters of a length. Jocund, the favorite, finished first in the fourth race, at one mile for two-year-olds, but was disqualified for fouling Ormonde's Right in the stretch.

One Auto Towed In by Wagon.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Oct. 10.—Howard M. Davis and V. H. Gunderman, the twentieth and twenty-first drivers in the automobile endurance contest to reach this city, came in at 7 o'clock. Shortly after 6 o'clock a machine was towed into the city behind a farmer's wagon. Messrs. Gunderman and Davis expect to continue in the morning, hoping to reach Buffalo Sunday and to continue from that city with the others. They report the condition of the roads as growing worse.

Racing at Worth.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10. — Giving away weight to everything opposed to him, Proceeds made a show of his field in the mile and seventy yards' handicap at Worth. Proceeds allowed C. B. Campbell to lead to the back stretch; then the two-year-old took command, led by three lengths turning for home and from there to the wire only breezed, winning in a canter, with two lengths to spare. By Ways easily held C. B. Campbell safely for the place, while the others were beaten off.

Caspian Won Transylvania.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 10. — Six thousand people braved the biting west wind to see Caspian, an Ohio horse and second favorite in the betting, win the fifteenth Transylvania, with a purse of $6,000. The best time was 2:09½. Hawthorne, the favorite, made a poor showing. Caspian is the horse of which it has been said that he cannot go more than two heats, but he went three and won the first and third heats with ease. Kent was second.

Nationals Shut Out Americans.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10. — In the best played game of the series the Nationals gave the Americans their third shutout. Barring a little wildness, it was strictly a pitchers' battle, with both twirlers almost perfectly supported. The only run scored resulted from a single, a gift, Owens' unfortunate wild pitch and an out. The score—Nationals, 1; Americans, 0.

Josie F. Amazed St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 10.—Josie F. won the fair grounds feature, a handicap. Dan McKenna was second, half a length in front of Taby Tosa. Josie F. has always been considered a very cheap selling plater, and her victory over such a field of horses is an amazing performance.

Cause of Accident a Question.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Oct. 10.—H. W. Tanner, a Delaware and Hudson brakeman, was found lying beside the tracks here in an unconscious condition. He was removed to the hospital, where he is gradually failing. It is not known whether he was accidentally knocked from his train or thrown off by tramps.

New Counterfeit Twenty Dollar Note

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Chief Wilkie of the secret service announces the discovery of a new counterfeit twenty dollar national bank note of the First National bank of Mayfield, N. Y. This counterfeit is a plain, uncolored photograph, apparently the work of an amateur photographer.

Western Miners May Strike.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 10.—A strike of coal miners in Colorado, New Mexico and Utah will follow failure to adjust differences within a week, according to a statement issued by President Mitchell and Secretary Wilson of the United Mine Workers.

TURKISH REFORMS.

Sultan's Troops Have Destroyed a Hundred Villages.

SOLDIERS OPENLY SELL THEIR LOOT

Adrianople Vilayet Situation Described as Intolerable—Women Are Carried Off and Killed by the Turks.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 10.—Military preparations are proceeding actively around Dubnitza, Rila and Kostendil. Parties of miners and sappers are throwing up gun emplacements and intrenchments, and the garrisons are being increased.

Reports from Adrianople describe the situation in that vilayet as intolerable. The Turkish officers and soldiers are carrying off the women and killing them, while the streets and markets are filled with loot from villages and churches, the soldiers selling icons and sacred vessels openly. The Turks boast that they have "reformed" the district of Losengrad and destroyed nearly 100 villages.

In a fight near Kotchana more than 100 Bulgarians were killed. The Turks lost twelve killed and eighteen wounded.

A band retreating into Bulgaria fought a severe action in which it lost eighty killed. One hundred wounded revolutionaries were carried off, and another hundred were left on the field.

A party of Turkish muleteers near Kratiowa wiped out a band of seventeen Servians who had attacked them. A detachment of Turkish troops arriving on the scene mistook the muleteers for Bulgarians and fired on them. Several were killed on both sides before the mistake was discovered.

The so called Macedonian secret police, composed of insurgents, have executed seventeen alleged Turkish spies. Most of the men executed were Greeks.

A small band of insurgents, under their leader, George Petrova, got into a tight place in the Eltepe mountain and were surrounded by three companies of Turkish regulars. The Turks, however, did not open fire. After a time the commander of the Turkish troops stepped forward and shouted to the insurgents:

"Allah be with you! Go your own way!"

The insurgents gave a shout of joy and hastily retreated, while the Turks watched them with evident amusement.

British Minister Did Not Attend.

PEKING, Oct. 10.—The empress dowager gave her first audience of the season in the summer palace. Sir Ernest Satow, the British minister, and the entire staff of the British legation were absent, it is understood on account of the throne dereliction in the case of the arrested members of the staff of the Chinese reform newspaper Supao at Shanghai, for whom the Chinese government has refused to provide a magistrate, thus compelling the prisoners, whom it hopes to dispose of, to remain in jail, and also on account of the flogging to death of the Chinese reformer, Shen Chien, whose execution was ordered by the empress dowager.

Oregon Bandit Confesses.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 10.—Gay Harshman, alias Jim Conners, the bandit who was wounded in an attempt to hold up the Oregon Railroad and Navigation train at Corbett two weeks ago, has disclosed to the sheriff the names of the rest of the gang of train robbers. According to Harshman, the leader of the band was Jim James, a distant relative of the notorious outlaw, Jesse James. The other members were George Underwood, Bill Morgan and his nephew, Charles Morgan, and himself.

French's Sentence Is Dismissed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Captain George E. French, Sixteenth infantry, stationed at Fort Slocum, N. Y., was recently tried by court martial on the charge of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman as a consequence of intoxication and sentenced to be dismissed from the army. The record of the proceedings and the findings of the court martial were received at the war department and will be submitted to the president for action.

Fatal Shooting at Jail Break.

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 10.—A jail break occurred at the state penitentiary, located just outside this city. Ed Dalton, who was serving a short term for burglary, was shot and killed. Abe Majors was probably fatally wounded, one guard was wounded, and Lynch and Haworth, two prisoners under death sentence, made good their escape.

Embezzler Wanted In England.

TORONTO, Oct. 10. — A. Stanley Rowe, wanted in England for the alleged embezzlement of a large amount from the Great Fingal Consolidated company, came before the police magistrate. He pleaded not guilty, but during his examination his identity was practically revealed as the man wanted.

Home Wrecked by Dynamite.

JOPLIN, Mo., Oct. 10.—The home of Foster McConnell, a constable who had made enemies among the rough element, was wrecked by dynamite. Mr. McConnell's two little children were hurt, but the other members of the family escaped injury.

Stabbed His Sweetheart.

MARION, Ind., Oct. 10. — William Green fatally stabbed Miss Alice Walker on the main street of this city. Miss Walker had refused to marry him. Green was arrested as he was attempting to leave the city.

Plainfield, N. J., Oct. 10, 1903.

The Daily Press has a higher circulation rating than is accorded to any other paper in Plainfield.—Printers' Ink.

In the last five years the cost of living has advanced eleven per cent. The cost of dying remains the same.

"The great majority of the people of Elizabeth do not want a new Sunday," says the Elizabeth Journal. Good for the people of Elizabeth.

In the midst of a recital over in Orange the other day, the keys of a piano were broken and the entertainment was brought to an abrupt finish. What effect the strain had on the audience is not reported.

There are many persons in a community who do not insure because the advantages of insurance or the danger of fire losses are never vividly brought to their attention. Newspaper advertising along the lines indicated, supplemented by literature of the same sort would bring the need for insurance home to such persons.—Printers' Ink.

In speaking editorially of the discussion over the proposition made at the North Plainfield Board of Education's meeting to consolidate borough and city so far as the public school system is concerned, the Newark Evening News, says: "This would seem to indicate that the consolidation sentiment is somewhat increasing, since at no previous time nor on any previous occasion, so far as is at present known, has any suggestion of a combination come so near being adopted in North Plainfield. Left to themselves the people of those two contiguous places will sooner or later unite their municipal interests, but as long as the politicians pull their ears and make them fight there will be little prospect of consolidation. Naturally and geographically the two are one, but politically they are separated by a narrow brook and still narrower antagonism." That's the idea in a nutshell. Had the Republican leaders in the State kept their hands off, they would have received the thanks of the North Plainfield Council, the Plainfield Common Council, the Plainfield-North Plainfield Board of Trade and the great majority of the well-meaning and thinking people of the two municipalities, particularly the property owners. Consolidation is bound to come. It is a progressive movement and for that reason alone many of those who at first disproved of it are beginning to realize their mistake. The longer the delay the greater the detriment to both city and borough.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Councilman Edward E. Pray, of West Seventh street, has purchased a new runabout.

—A flock of quail alighting on East Fourth street Thursday presented a sight for city streets. There were sixteen quail in the flock.

—For the best coffee trade at Neuman Brothers. Java and Mocha and Old Government Java at prices which stagger competition. Everything at Neuman Brothers is the best from kitchen soup to canned goods.

—The tickets for the Star Course of Entertainments at the Y. M. C. A. are now on sale at Hodge's drug store on East Front street and there are still about two dozen reserved seats left. An extra block of seats have been set aside this season and the entertainments promise to be better than ever before. The first of the series will be held Monday evening.

behind it with two large dressing rooms on each side. Both this floor and the second floor have lavoratories for each sex which are furnished with a flood of light from the interior court. Broad stairways run from each of the side entrances up to the third floor, and their situation makes it almost impossible for both of them to be cut off in case a fire should ever occur. The main corridors on this and the other two floors are splendidly lighted from the interior court.

On the second floor, over the main entrance and the offices, are the library and two recitation rooms, seating about forty-five pupils each, which will be supplied with sliding partitions so that the whole can be thrown into one large library room when the recitation rooms are not in use. Much of the work of the modern high school is done in the library, consulting references and studying up topics from various authorities.

The plans as arranged will give the school a splendid equipment for the best work according to modern lines in such subjects. On this floor are also six classrooms with separate wardrobes like those on the first floor, seating 250 pupils, also a retiring room for the women teachers and a hospital or emergency room for the retirement and care of any pupils that are sick.

The third floor is devoted entirely to science and drawing, and contains a chemical laboratory and a physical laboratory with a lecture room between that will seat about 100 pupils and can be entered from either room. There are also rooms for supplies and instruments and a dark room for use in photography. A third room is intended for use in botany, zoology, geology and other sciences. A large room on the northeast side of the building will be devoted to the drawing and art work. Since the auditorium and the rear tier of classrooms on each side run up only two stories, there are but five class rooms on the third floor.

The plan is so made as the school grows it can be enlarged, first by raising the wings where they are now only two stories high, which would increase the capacity about 80, also by building successive tiers of schoolrooms on each wing; one tier would furnish three classrooms seating about 120 pupils.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

An important meeting of the Woman's Society for Christian Work will be held at the Seventh-Day Baptist Church on Wednesday afternoon, October 14.

Rev. John Sheridan Zelie, pastor of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, will address the Y. M. C. A. meeting tomorrow at 4 o'clock. The choir of the Crescent Avenue Church will render special music.

The Sunday temperance service of the Reform Club will be in charge of the Gospel Mission of Bayonne. C. T. Roakes and Mrs. Robert Ross, of the Bayonne Mission, will be the principal speakers. The exercises will begin at 4 in the afternoon. The temperance services will continue through the week, Monday's speakers being Charles Sandford and Joseph Fisher. The club has been extremely successful in persuading men to sign the pledge during the week.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN.

The borough escaped fortunately from the terrific storm yesterday. A few limbs were blown down from trees and some of the cellars in the lower sections were filled with water. No serious damage, however, was done. Green brook overflowed its banks and reached the highest point since the flood of 1896. Farmers living on the outskirts of the town were unable to drive to town this morning.

Levering & Garrigues' steel works has been compelled to lay off about forty men this week. This is caused by the strike among the construction men in New York City. Owing to the flood at Bound Brook and the trains being unable to get through, the New York trains from Easton and Somerville were made up here and sent to New York. The road was not cleaned up as late as 9 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Robinson, of Newark, have returned home after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Staats.

Miss Carrie Heyle has been entertaining Dennis Sheen, of Plainfield, and Miss Abbot, of Brooklyn, during the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Conklin and family, of Bound Brook, are visiting at the home of John Conklin, on North avenue.

The young women of St. John's Church are making elaborate preparations for the fair which will be held next week.

Thomas MacNamarra, of the borough, will play on the Y. M. C. A. basket ball team this winter.

Eugene Runyon is regretting the loss of a valuable horse, which hung himself in his halter.

NEW MARKET.

The water in the pond and brook was the highest last evening that has been seen here in a number of years. The brook below the dam was very high and at times it was feared that the mill would be flooded. No serious damage, however, has yet been reported.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The baseball fans, weather permitting, will enjoy one of the best treats of the season this afternoon, when the local team cross bats with the Cuban Giants, champion colored team of the country. Game will be called promptly at 3:30.

Services tomorrow at the Baptist Church will be as usual: Sunday-school, 9:30; morning preaching by Rev. George Francis, of Westfield, 10:45; B. Y. P. U. service, 7 p. m.; evening sermon, 7:45.

The heavy fall of rain Thursday and Friday morning, raised Green brook to the highest water mark in several years. In some places the banks overflowed on the low lands, washing out corn and other crops.

The culverts in town could not begin to carry off the water during the storm yesterday. In some places the sidewalks were under several inches of water.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Atha and family, who have been spending the summer months at Glenside Park, have returned to their home in Newark.

Several of the liquor licenses in town were granted by Judge Vail this week, not a remonstrance was presented, so all were granted at once.

Dr. J. Ackerman Coles is making a number of improvements about his handsome residence on Mountain avenue.

As usual, the water during the storm yesterday was flowing over the platform at the Fanwood station.

Fanwood Council, R. A., held its semi-monthly meeting in the library rooms, Tuesday night.

Ground has been broken on the Darby property, on Westfield avenue, for a new house.

There will be prize waltzing at the weekly dance at Earl's pavilion tonight.

James Johnston is doing petit jury duty at Elizabeth.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

The funeral service of Mrs. Joel Manning, of Plainfield avenue, was well attended yesterday afternoon notwithstanding the incessant rain. Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes, pastor of the dead woman, preached a comforting discourse in which the rare qualities of Mrs. Manning, as a Christian mother and wife were set forth. The hymn, "Rock of Ages," was read by request. Prayer was offered by Rev. J. A. Cubberley.

Public worship at the Baptist Church tomorrow will be at the usual hours, 10:30 and 7:45 o'clock.

THE FORUM.

Communications from readers of The Daily Press on all subjects of local interest are invited. All such communications must be stripped of personalities, and must be signed by the writer. His name will not necessarily be published. The editor is not responsible for views expressed in this column.

Editor, The Daily Press:

Your paper yesterday contained a communication signed "C." that is untrue, unjust and misleading. There has not been a single trunk broken at Plainfield station this summer, nor a single claim made for any such damage. The baggage is not dropped from baggage cars to the ground but is handled as carefully as it can be done; of course baggage must be handled quickly so as not to detain trains longer than necessary and thus avoid complaints on that score. The officials of the C. R. R. Company are always ready to make satisfactory settlements for just claims, and there is the proper place to make complaints and not through the columns of newspapers. A great many trunks arrive at Plainfield at the end of the season in bad condition from handling on other roads that the C. R. R. Company are in no way responsible for. K.

—Horace C. Huff, of Codington avenue, has resigned his position in Newark and is now with Seigel, Cooper & Co., of New York.

—That there is a shortage of closed trolley cars in this city was shown yesterday, when several open cars were seen in operation on the various city lines.

—It is expected that the iron work for the new Giraud avenue bridge will arrive within a short time and the work of completing the structure will then be commenced.

—The Plainfield Land and Building Company have sold ten building lots from their Rock avenue tract to Geo. W. Worth, of New York. Mr. Worth contemplates building several houses in the near future.

—The fall and winter season having arrived hot soda is just the thing to drink and L. W. Randolph's drug store, on West Front street, is just the place to get it. Commencing today this beverage will be served at Mr. Randolph's store.

ALIS FINANCIALLY SOUND.

To Increase the Size of Crescent Oval and Enlarge the Grandstand.

The report of the treasurer, made at a meeting of the Alis Club last night, showed a large balance for the season just closed and it was decided to increase the present size of Crescent Oval, enlarge the grandstand by the addition of two wings. Quinby, who made such a favorable impression with the patrons of the game this season, will probably fill his old position at second base and captain the team next season. The club will enter the baseball association, thereby enabling it to hold players under contract.

Surprise Party.

A pleasant surprise was given to Mrs. Amy E. Lorton, of Watchung avenue, on Thursday night. The affair was arranged by Mrs. Lorton's daughter, Miss Ethel Lorton. The evening was spent in a social manner, after which refreshments were served.

A NEWLY-COINED WORD.

An Ugly One and the Thing It Stands For Has Very Ugly Aspects.

Any familiarity with continental journalism and periodical literature brings the reader in these days face to face at every turn with the newly-coined word "arrivism," and with dissertations on the modern tendency which it represents. The word is a very ugly one, says Scribner's, and the thing which it stands for certainly has very ugly aspects; but it is doubtful whether we can dismiss, as insignificant, either the one or the other. Doubtful whether we can do so in our quality of Americans, especially. The conservative European, who is rasped and abraided by the general rawness resulting from the doctrine that the most of the time spent in preparation for the achievement of the ends of life is time wasted, and that the wise course to pursue is simply to "get there," and to learn by doing or enjoying instead of learning to do or enjoy, does not hesitate to say that it is the American and his Americanism that are primarily responsible for the doctrine. And he is right.

We have, in effect, a new way of regarding human existence and the human career, in this particular. We are inclined to apologize for this new way at times, and at times to assert with unnecessary aggressiveness that it is the only right way. In reality, we probably ought to do neither. The matter is still on trial.

Whether "arrivism" be humanly possible when pushed to its logical limits, whether it will give us more out of life or less, is what we do do not yet know and cannot yet tell. But it is the contemporaneous problem, and one surely calling for meditation and experiment.

SIMPLE BOOKKEEPING.

Lead Pencil May Be Used Just as Well as Pen and Ink, Says One Who Knows.

The supervision of every store should extetnd to the books, says Victor Robertson, in Credit Men's Bulletin.

The simplest is always the best method of expression. Why use a pen, penholder, ink and erasers, when a pencil with a rubber on the end will supply all demands better, cheaper, and with less labor?

Is there any good reason why a retail merchant should not keep his books in lead pencil? One of Chicago's largest wholesale houses does.

If pencil is used, then the books used can be of cheaper paper and correspondingly less expensive. Therefore, I think a retail merchant's books should be kept with a hard lead or indelible pencil.

It is easier, cleaner, takes less time, and makes the correction of errors quicker and easier. Ink is no safeguard against errors or dishonesty. A man can falsify and steal as easily through ink as through pencil.

Bookkeeping is only memorandum work, anyhow. Make it as simple and easy as possible. Don't waste profit in ink. It is the little leaks that eat up the profits. Unnecessary labor is a leak. Expensive paper in books is wasteful. I believe in cheap paper and pencils, bright boys or girls who can add and subtract, and good comomn sense business judgment to tell them how to put the figures down so they will add up something to show the movement of the business.

UNLOADING WATERMELONS.

Work That Calls for Activity and Not a Little Skill in Tossing and Catching.

"Play ball!" said a stalwart looking young man standing on a big truckload of watermelons backed up to the curb in front of the store at which the melons were to be delivered, and a moment later he had tossed the first big and solid green globe to a man standing in the middle of the sidewalk, who tossed it to a man standing at the front of the store, where the watermelons were to be piled, says the New York Sun.

And then these three men kept the watermelons going through the air till the whole load had been transferred from the truck and stacked up in a pile at the store door. This is the common way in which watermelons are unloaded, and in which they can be shifted a good deal quicker than they could be by picking them up and carrying them in.

It is strenuous work, and work that calls for skill, too, tossing and catching watermelons; but the men that handle watermelons handle many loads thus and get well accustomed to the work in the course of the season, and they transfer load after load without mishap.

But even an expert watermelon catcher may muff a ball occasionally, and when he does they never stop to gather up the fragments. It is quite beyond repair.

Much-Directed Roads.

The Irish railways are said to have more directors in proportion to their size, importance and earning capacity than any similar corporations in the world. They average one director to every 20 miles of road. In 1872, when an effort was made to have the roads brought under the supervision of the state, they averaged one director to every six miles of road. At that time there were 56 roads, averaging 48 miles in length. They had 430 directors, 56 solicitors, 56 secretaries and 70 engineers.

Dangerous Fishing.

Killing fish by the use of explosives ought not to be permitted anywhere. The fate which befell two men in British Columbia who were using dynamite in this way was an impressive instance of the engineer hoist by his own petard. They lost their lives by carelessness in handling the explosive, and became food for fishes themselves.

LANGUAGE USED BY TABBY.

The Speech of Cats as Translated by a Frenchman Who Has Studied It.

A French professor has become the Columbus of Catland. He has learned the language of cats, says the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. The vocabulary is so small that it is a matter of wonder that the world waited so long for some one to put it among the things anyone may know. Here are some of the cat words he has learned:

"Aelio" is a request for food.
"Alliloo" is a request for water.
"Lae" expresses a desire for milk.
"Bl" is a demand for red meat.
"Bleeme-bl" means kitty wants cooked meat.
"Ptlee-bl" is mouse meat and is applied to any food which kitty fondles before devouring.
"Meouw," uttered simply, is a greeting; uttered fiercely and with accent on the "Me," is an expression of hatred and defiance.
"Mieuow, vow, wow, yelwoyow, tiow, ys-ss-syow" is the yell of defiance in battle and is variously accented to tell of the progress of hostilities, "ys-s-s-s-s-s-yow" being the cry of battle madness.
"Yew" signifies that the cat is in distress and needs human aid. It is uttered very softly.
"Parriere" is a request to open a door.
"Purrieu" is the I-love-you of catland, and when uttered with rolling "r" and a rise on the last syllable is a call from a mother to its kitten.

CHARTERING SPECIAL TRAINS.

Can Be Done Nowadays Almost as Easily as Checking a Passenger's Baggage.

"Special trains are becoming so frequent now that they attract little attention, except they make record runs for long distances or unless there is some trouble collecting payment for them," said a veteran railroad man, to a New York Times reporter. "Ten years ago, when I was division superintendent on one of the big trunk lines running out of New York, a special train was an event that never failed to get mention in the newspapers. Stationmasters required ample notice to get one in readiness, and there was a great deal of fuss making arrangements along the line. At any of the big railroad terminals in any city now a man can get a special engine and car to chase a flier almost as easy as he can check his trunk. Only a few minutes' notice is required, and right of way is obtained for 100 or 200 miles along the line without noticeably disturbing schedule runs. A man who has to keep an important business engagement, or a woman hurrying to a sick husband, pays $100 or double that sum for a special with as little concern as paying a supper check in a swell hotel. We live in a rapid and extravagant age, and grow accustomed to such things."

ELOQUENT IRISH EYES.

They Tell of Great Love of Country and Devotion to Religion.

The eye is what the soul makes it, and, like a true indicator, it records the character of its possessor. The Irish eye most eloquently bespeaks the character of Ireland's people, says the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Deep and blue as the great waves of the ocean, tender and sparkling as the lovelight of the stars, brave and fearless as the heart of steel-clad warrior, peerless eyes of blue! The undying patriotism of generations, the faith in their holy religion, and the matchless wit and humor, the bright optimism, which, however dark the clouds may be, can always see the silver lining—all these are beautifully blended in the azure orbs of Erin's children—ideal eyes of blue.

The laughing eyes of France's daughters are charming indeed, luminous are the midnight orbs of the sunny Italian maiden, mild and blue are those of the light-browed children of the Rhine, soft and sweet the eye of the golden-haired English lassie; but for beauty and depth of meaning there is none like the true, honest blue of the Shamrock land, "sweet eyes of heaven's own hue."

MAN IS MOST ADMIRED.

Boy and Girl Readers in Most Cases Select Men as Their Heroes.

"Men consider themselves the superior to women, and women, even in their childhood, coincide in this view," said a school teacher, according to the Chicago Tribune. "To a class of fifty girls and fifty boys, of the average of 15 years, I once put the question: 'Who is your ideal human being—the one you admire and love most?' In reply to this question about 95 per cent. of the boys gave me a male character and 75 per cent. of the girls did the same thing.

"Statistics, I understand, have been gathered on this matter, and these prove quite conclusively that boys and girls alike prefer men to women. When girls are under 10, about 40 per cent. of them will, according to the statistics, name women as their best loved characters, but as they grow older this minority changes over to the men's side.

"The characters that are chosen are, as a rule, George Washington, William Tell, Napoleon and Shakespeare."

Vaccination in France.

Vaccination is now compulsory in France during the first year of life and revaccination during the eleventh and twenty-first years.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth. 7 Miles from Newark.
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

EVENING DRESS.

Costly Wraps of Velvet—Handsome Long Coats.

A lovely papal shade of velvet is much used in Paris for evening wraps. It is lined as a rule with ermine and shows a big pelerine collar of the same fur. Electric blue velvet is also worn with mink.

A beautiful evening wrap model seen recently was gauged in shawl-like fashion edged with a fifteen inch fringe of knotted silk of the same shade and finished with a collar of mink which fell in stoles down the front. This was lined with a thick creamy white satin.

Many of the cloth models—generally those of white or cream—are trimmed with a mixture of silk and chenille fringe of the same shade and ruchings of a slightly deeper tone of velvet. These ruchings are a sure sign of the return to the early Victorian styles. They have a smartness all their own, but look better on dresses than on mantles.

For some time past a return to the old round umbrella skirts has been noticeable. These should be worn with tiny pads at the back to give roundness to the waist. The tendency is still to shorten the waist at the back and to lengthen it in front, as is seen by the prominence of the 1830 corsets. This fulness at the back is almost universally becoming.

The picture shows a chiffon gown trimmed with Irish lace. The double skirt is gauged from the waist. The sleeves are of tulle.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

FOR OUTDOOR WEAR.

Silk and Chenille Fringe the Fad. Long Shoulder Seams.

The silk knotted and chenille fringe seems to me to be an admirable trimming intermingled with beautiful furs, and lace is used as much as ever, the real for preference, although many of the imitations are quite beautiful.

The long shoulder seam is indispensable for outdoor garments. Sometimes it is arrived at by a big pelerine over-cape and ofttimes by the long shoulder piece and the sleeve being put in as one. There is something extremely graceful about these drooping shoulders except when they are accentuated to such an extent as to make them ridicrous. The clever tailor manages when necessary to square the shoulders of his clients before sloping them.

BLACK CLOTH TAILOR MADE.

A very pretty pelerine or fichu effect is obtained in mantles by an insertion around the shoulders of heavy guipure lace edged on each side with narrow fur trimming.

Many beautiful fur mantles are made with a draped capuchin of contrasting lace, fur and chiffon.

Touches of orange are frequently introduced into a dark blue costume, and this combination is far newer than navy green and blue, which has become so common.

The illustration shows a tailor made of black cloth trimmed with narrow velvet piping. JUDIC CHOLLET.

AN INTELLIGENT MOUSE.

Mother Filled Up Hole in Wall to Keep Her Young from Being Trapped.

"When we think of mice it is usually of the trouble they cause us; we are not apt to credit the rodents with much intelligence," said a lady at the sewing circle, according to the New York Times, "but I really had an experience which shows that the little creatures possess a good bit of wisdom after all. I had been annoyed for some time by a family of mice which lived in the walls of the bedroom. They nibbled my clothes, disturbed my sleep, and when they grew so bold as to go into the canary's cage and eat up its seed, my patience gave out and I determined to fix them. I bought a trap and set it by the hole in the wall. For five nights I caught a mouse, then several days passed without catching one, although they were still there, for they kept up their noise, although not coming into my room any more.

"I found that the trap was all right, but the hole in the wall had been closed from the inside. I pulled the filling out. It was not easy work, for it had been evidently put there to stay, and was made of bits of plaster and rubbish. I kept the hole open with the trap close to it, but next day it was filled again. I repeated this clearing out process five times and five times the filling was replaced. It was evidently the work of the mother mouse to prevent her little ones from passing through what had proved a fatal gate to so many. And I left the hole closed, for the mice did not come into my room again."

THE CHEAPEST TELEGRAMS.

Charges for Service Are Lower in Australia Than in Any Other Country.

The Australian commonwealth's telegraph service is the cheapest in the world. It is operated entirely by the government as part of the postal system, says the Review of Reviews. For city messages, which include a suburban area of a radius of ten miles beyond the city limits, the rate is 12 cents for messages of ten words and the address; for messages of the same length to any point within the same state—and the states are generally very much larger than any American state—the charge is 18 cents, while for similar messages to any station within the commonwealth—and from Rockhampton, to Queensland, to Perth, in West Australia, the distance of wire is more than 4,500 miles—the uniform charge is 24 cents.

It is calculated, on the basis of past experience, that these rates will return a revenue sufficient to pay operating expenses of every kind, including the cost of maintenance, and in addition interest on the original expense of construction, amounting to fully $18,000,000. Australians send more than twice as many messages over the lines at the lower rates as Americans do at the present charges.

SHOES FOR DEFORMED.

Specialty Made of Footgear for Persons with Crippled Feet and Short Legs.

"With all that is published about comfort for the feet and improvements made by men in the regular trade," said a shoe manufacturer in Brooklyn, "nothing has been said about men who make a specialty of extension shoes for cripples and deformed persons. It is not so long ago that it was almost an impossibility for a man with a deformed foot or a short leg to hide his misfortune. We all remember the heavy, thick-soled blocks with high heels, that made a man feel almost as uncomfortable as though he had a wooden leg. You see very few of them now. Manufacturers have been improving on the extension shoe, as it is called in the trade, by the use of springs and other contrivances, until they can make a deformed foot look very much like any other foot, unless it is a very bad case. A man with one leg two or three inches shorter than the other can have a pair of boots made so that nobody need know it but his shoemaker. Customers in our particular line have as many pairs of shoes as other men, in calf, tan and patent leather, and in all the fashionable shapes, too. They have to pay about three times as much for them as men with both feet alike do; that's all the difference."

Lived as an Ox.

Dr. Edward Stanton, a character of Kokomo, Ind., for 60 years, died recently, aged 80 years. Years ago Stanton lost his practice and fortune, and it affected his mind. Since then he had imagined himself an ox and grass and hay was his principal diet. He walked on all fours in the pasture of the county farm, grazing constantly with the cattle, horses and sheep. He almost lost his power of speech, and of late years his conversation consisted of guttural sounds, resembling those of an animal. He died suddenly, with mouth and stomach filled with grass. It is thought poisonous herbs killed him.

Sheep Shearing in the West.

Sheep shearing is now done in the west by a barber clipper operated by power. It works by means of a flexible shaft. The knives or shears can be operated as rapidly as the gearing contained in the shaft can be moved. Electricity, team or a hand crank may be used. A trained workman can shear a sheep every three minutes. The record is 2,650 pounds of wool from 360 sheep in 15 hours.

Good Climate.

A man 106 years old has started a popcorn business at Long Beach, Cal., and the California papers are making much of the incident, as an advertisement for the climate, which keeps a man in good health at that age.

LIFE SAVING SERVICE

Good Work Done by Uncle Sam's Coast Line Guard.

A Class of Brave, Fearless Men Who Are Inadequately Rewarded for Their Dangerous Service—To Help the Navy.

A feature of the naval maneuvers off the New England coast this month is to be the active cooperation of the life saving stations in patrolling the entire coast line from Cape Cod to Eastport, Me., on the lookout for the approach of an enemy's ship or ships. The conditions are to be as nearly as possible those which would prevail in case of actual war. It is for the purpose of drill, so that in case of conflict with a foreign foe the defenses of the nation would be as complete as possible against the approach of the enemy.

The life saving service is admirably adapted for this work, for, although it may not be generally known, the coast from Maine to Florida has an almost continuous line of life saving stations, and the shore between stations is patrolled four times between sunset and sunrise, and, should the weather be foggy, the patrol is continued through the day. This will enable the life saving service to render the navy the assistance which is desired without entailing any additional work upon it, save that of detecting vessels skirting the shore and making reports concerning the same. The treasury department, by which the life saving service is directed and controlled, has issued the necessary orders, and the life savers, who are already familiar with the idea, having rendered most valuable assistance during the late war, are ready to enter heartily into the plans.

The service which the life savers on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts are thus enabled to render the nation, in addition to their succoring of distressed and wrecked ships, the rescue of the drowning, etc., marks about the only difference there is between the work of the stations located upon the coast and those on the great lakes. The equipment of all the stations is almost identical, and about the only difference which the crews experience is that those on the great lakes are only in active service eight months of the year, from April to November, or during the period of open navigation, while those on the coast serve the year round. The pay of the service is uniformly $65 a month, remuneration which is not commensurate with the work demanded or the class of brave, fearless men required. With the general advance in wages in all other directions, it is beginning to be difficult to secure enough men to fully man the stations. It is only by action of congress that better pay can be secured, and relief from that direction is rather uncertain.

Taking the record of last year of the life saving service, which is declared to be the most remarkable in its history, so far as disasters were concerned and aid extended, it is readily apparent how valuable and important the work is. During last year there were 385 vessels wrecked upon our shores. Of these 54 were over 1,000 tons. The total number of souls on board these wrecked vessels was 3,424, of whom only 19 were lost. The value of the ships lost was $12,125,000, and of cargoes, $2,268,000, while the cost of the life saving service, which has so vast a usefulness, is only a little over $1,500,000.

There are 270 stations divided up among the thirteen districts of the service. Sumner I. Kimball is the general superintendent, and it is largely due to his efforts that the service has been developed until to-day it is the finest in the world. Three of the thirteen districts are around the great lakes, and include 59 stations. The Atlantic coast has eight of the districts, with 187 of the stations, while the gulf coast is comprised in the ninth district and includes eight stations. In addition to the 187 life saving stations along the Atlantic coast, from Cape Fear southward to the end of the Florida peninsula, where there are no life saving stations, there are what are known as houses of refuge, located about 15 miles apart, and in charge of a keeper, who, after every storm, patrols the beach to see if anyone has been cast up by the storm. If such unfortunate is found he is cared for as long as necessary.

Summer visitors to the coast and the lake resorts where life saving stations are located never fail to visit them, and never grow weary of looking at the boats and life saving equipment and asking questions of the stiff but good-natured and brave members of the crew.

SPORTING NEWS.

TENNIS.

Several exciting tennis matches were played Saturday, October 3, on the courts of the Ilderan Outing Club, Rahway, when an invitation tournament was held. The event was men's doubles, and nine teams, representing various clubs of nearby cities, participated, including one from the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club. This team defeated the Sewaren Land and Water Club, 6-2, 6 0, in the first round and in the second round was defeated by the Elizabeth Town and Country Club, 6-1, 6-1. The tournament will be completed today.

ROD AND GUN.

John Springer, of South Plainfield, shot two shelldrakes and two mud hens Thursday in the South Plainfield swamps.

C. A. Thorn and Albert L. Calloway have deposited forfeits for a shooting match for a stake of $25 to be contested Saturday, October 24, on the grounds of the Independent Gun Club. Each contestant will shoot at twenty-five sparrows.

BASKET BALL.

Following next week's series of temperance services, the Reform Club will organize a basket ball team under the management of E. P. T. Smith. It is planned to join a city league if one is formed. Boxing will also be a feature of the club's athletic activities during the coming winter.

FOOTBALL.

The Somerset Athletic Club and the Raritan football club will play football this afternoon at Raritan, weather permitting. A large delegation from North Plainfield will witness the game.

H. C. Smith, manager and captain of the Orange Field Club eleven, announces that the game scheduled for this afternoon between Orange F. C. and the Carlton A. C. has been cancelled on account of the weather conditions.

Plainfield Officers.

The New Jersey Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paper-Hangers has chosen H. A. Moulton, of this city, third vice president and C. W. Munday, also of this city, recording secretary.

Clam Bake Monday.

The clam bake which was to be held last night at Earle's Hotel, Scotch Plains, was postponed until Monday night.

HONORING PATRIOT'S MEMORY

PLAINFIELDERS TO JOIN IN CELEBRATION OF EMMET'S BIRTH.

One Hundred Years Ago Tomorrow Robert Emmet Died.

The one hundredth anniversary of the death of the Irish patriot, Robert Emmet, will be observed in Elizabeth tomorrow by a parade of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. One hundred members of the order from Plainfield will attend in charge of Patrick Casey, Michael Nugent, James Foubre and John J. Gallagher, the local committee. The Independent Fife and Drum Corps will accompany the Plainfield representatives. The parade will be followed by speech-making which will be made especially notable by an address by the great-grandson of Robert Emmet.

EXTRA SESSIONS.

First Time in History That Legislature Holds Two Adjourned Sessions.

The special session of the Legislature which is to be held next week will be the second since the adjournment of the regular session last April, and this will be the first time in the history of New Jersey that her lawmakers have been called in special session twice in the same year. There have been extra sessions before—twice of the Senate to act upon nominations for State officers about which the Governor and the Senate had differed—one of both houses in 1861, to aid Governor Alden to send New Jersey's army quota to the field of conflict at the outbreak of the Civil War, and another to put in a passed law a comma that the engrossing clerks had omitted. But the cause that have led to two unusual sittings of the Legislature of 1903 are unique.

MRS. HYDE'S LUNCHEON.

Charming Event in Honor of Daughter-in-Law, Mrs. Louis K. Hyde.

In honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Louis Kepler Hyde, of Titusville, Pa., who is her guest, a luncheon was given yesterday by Mrs. Charles Hyde, of East Front street. Despite the severity of the storm the affair was a charming one. The decorations consisted of pink and white carnations.

Covers were laid for ten, those being present: Mrs. A. D. Shepard, Mrs. Warren Ackerman, Mrs. Chapman Fisk, Mrs. George Wharton Edwards, Mrs. Pierre Malli, Mrs. Charles Hyde, Mrs. Dorsey Hyde, Mrs. Francis DeLacey Hyde, of this city; Mrs. Louis Kepler Hyde and Mrs. Hostetter, of Titusville, Pa.

IMPERIAL CLUB'S RECEPTION.

Programme Rendered in Olympia Hall on Sycamore Street.

About fifty couples danced at a reception last night, the first of the season given by the Imperial Social Club. Olympia Hall on Sycamore street was handsomely decorated for the occasion. J. R. Scott, of Brooklyn, gave variety to the prrogamme by rendering two baritone solos. The reception committee consisted of Charles G. Vardon, John G. Vardon and William Hartfelder. Suhr's orchestra furnished the music. Refreshments were served at midnight. The club will hold its regular weekly dance tonight.

Throat Sore?

There's no telling what a sore throat will do if you give it "right of way." Uncertain remedies often cause dangerous delay. Make a cure sure with Painkiller, known for half a century as a specific for sore throat, croup, coughs, and all kindred troubles. Keep it by you for an emergency. It never fails. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'. 25c. and 50c.

ALLEGED CROOK'S HEARING.

Man Calling Himself Peter Sorenson to be Examined Tonight.

A hearing will be given Peter Christian Sorensen, the alleged house breaker, who has been confined in the North Plainfield lockup since his capture by Mayor Smalley, this evening, before a North Plainfield Justice of the Peace. It is expected that a representative of Pinkerton's agency will be in this city this afternoon with photographs to identity the fellow. He still maintains his innocence, although the story he tells now and the one he told at the time of his capture differs.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wyman, of East Front street, have been visiting relatives at Middle Valley, N. J.

WHEAT LUNCHEON.

King's Daughters of Trinity Church Conducted Demonstration Successfully.

A demonstration-lecture and shredded wheat luncheon, given complimentary to the Whatsoever Circle, King's Daughters, of Trinity Reformed Church, yesterday afternoon was a success despite the severe storm. The affair was given in the lecture room of the church where a delightful menu was served under the direction of Miss Marx, assisted by Miss Berry. A very satisfactory sum was realised by the King's Daughters as profit from the affair, a large number of tickets having been sold for the luncheon.

MR. HUNT IN POLITICS.

Former Plainfielder Now Tax Collector at Waterbury, Conn.

Edwin S. Hunt, at one time principal of the Plainfield High School, has just been elected collector of taxes on a reform ticket in Waterbury, Conn. Mr. Hunt was born in Charlestown, N. H. in 1865. He graduated from Amherst College in 1890 and shortly afterwards filled the position of principal of the Plainfield High School for three years. He then took a course in the Columbia Law School, graduating in 1895 and being admitted to the bar in the same year. Since that time he has peen practising law continually in New York and Waterbury.

Offends People.

Chief Justice Gummere's decision that baseball played Sunday is not an offense against the statutes of New Jersey is undoubtedly true, but it is an offense against the sentiment of a large number of the best citizens of the State, and for that reason, if it is to be played, it should not be where it will disturb the peace and comfort, either of mind or body, of those who are not interested in the game.—Trenton State Gazette.

Somerset Republican Convention.

The Somerset County Republican convention will convene at the Court House, Somerville, on Thursday morning, October 15, at 11 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Assembly and County Clerk. North Plainfield borough is entitled to six delegates and the township to one delegate.

PERSONAL.

—Miss Emma Kitchen, of Somerville, has resigned her position with I. H. Boehm.

Adolphus Emery, of Watchung avenue, is entertaining relatives from Perth Amboy.

Miss Mary Overman, of New Brunswick, was a guest of friends in this city, yesterday.

Miss Annie Butler, of this city, has returned home after a visit with friends at Junction, N. J.

Mrs. William Bergman, of Hornellsville, N. Y., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. William C. Smith's home, in North Plainfield, preparatory to their moving to Lorraine.

William Earle, hotel keeper of Scotch Plains, will spend the winter in Norfolk, Va., in search of health He will go in company with Harry Winters, of Scotch Plains.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Miss Kean, of Elizabeth, has received a telegram from her brother, United States Senator John Kean, who is at Seattle, in which the Senator stated he would leave there yesterday for home.

Five members of the Democratic County executive committee, seven less than the necessary quorum, were present at last night's meeting in Elizabeth. The fact that the electric lights were all out prevented the discussion of important business. Andrew J. Nolan attended from this city.

James E. Martine says that friends of United States Senator Kean have been endeavoring to prevent the Democrats nominating Charles L. Moffett, of this city, as a candidate for assembly. Moffett's popularity here, where the Republicans are in rebellion, he states is the reason for the anxiety of the anti-Fowler faction to have Moffett placated. Mr. Martine refuses to give the name of the alleged agents of the Kean Republicans. He declares that Moffett's nomination is certain and says that there is no doubt of his election.

Lad's Funeral.

The funeral of Charles H. Ulrich, whose death occurred at the home of his parents, on East Fifth street, Tuesday, took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. WESTFIELD-ST. MARY'S SERIES NOW A TIE

Plainfield Champions Shut Out Their Opponents in Fast Game.

PLANK'S GOOD PITCHING

TWIRLER FOR THE PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS ALLOWED ONLY FOUR HITS.

Teams Have Each Won One Game of Series—Burke, of Westfield, Presented With Bouquet—Waller Was Not in His Usual Form.

Westfield was shut out by the champions of Plainfield, Saturday afternoon, on the Westfield grounds. The game was close and exciting.

The St. Mary rooters nearly went wild when Batch crossed the rubber in the third inning with the first tally. In the last of the second inning, Manager Denman sounded the gong for time and Jack Burke, Westfield's regular catcher, who was injured seriously in a ball game last week, was called on the field and presented with a handsome bouquet of flowers from the Knights of Columbus, of Plainfield. Garret Kiely made the presentation speech. Burke was loudly cheered by all present, and responded with a few fitting remarks.

In the seventh inning with two men on bases, Hoffman smashed out a two-base hit against the fence, scoring Plank and McCormick, again the visiting rooters went wild with delight.

Plank, of the Philadelphia Athletics, did the twirling for the Plainfield champions. He pitched a great game, allowing but four scattering hits and striking out nine men.

"Red" Waller had poor control the first run of the visitors resulting from his wild throw. Eight hits were made off his delivery and only two men fanned. Smithson, center fielder for Westfield, made several sensational catches.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL RALLY.

Special Music and Address by Superintendent at the Monroe Avenue M. E. Church.

Special singing and an address by Superintendent Walter M. McGee marked the formal opening of the year's Sunday-school work in the Monroe Avenue M. E. Church yesterday afternoon. The Rally Day exercises opened with prayer by Rev. John MacMurray. Mr. McGee, in his superintendent's address, reviewed the work of the past year, stating that the school was never in so strong and prosperous a condition as now, with the signs all pointing to a bright future. There was singing by a special quartette, David W. Jones, Walter M. McGee, John P. Thompson and J. W. Daub.

COLORED REPUBLICANS GETTING IN LINE

Auxiliary Committee Discussed Political Canvas of City and County.

DATE OF MASS-MEETINGS

COUNTY COMMITTEE ASSURED THAT THEY WILL NOT OPPOSE MACHINE.

Mass-Meeting in This City Will be Held Thursday, October 29—Chas. Hawkins and Wm. Reed to Conduct Elizabeth Meeting.

The third weekly meeting of the Colored Auxiliary Republican Committee was held yesterday afternoon in the Babcock building. Business relating to the canvassing of the city and county was discussed and dates set for mass meetings in this city and other towns. A meeting will be held at Rahway, Wednesday, October 28; and in this city, Thursday evening, October 29. The meeting at Elizabeth will be held on a date to be announced later. The committee on arrangements for this meeting consists of Charles Hawkins and William Reed, of Elizabeth.

A communication has been addressed to the County Republican committee assuring that body that the colored Republican organization is not in any way in opposition to the machine and asks to be recognized as an auxiliary.

A canvass is to be made of Cranford and Westfield and the committee in charge of this matter is R. D. Wood, chairman; Charles Hawkins, Walter Hammond, of Rahway, and Dr. J. C. Anderson, of this city. Mass meetings will be held probably on Tuesday or Wednesday of this week.

William H. Kline presided at yesterday's meeting and Charles Van Dyke was the secretary pro tem. The meeting was attended by eight members of the committee and immediately after the session a dinner was held at Walker's hotel on West Second street. Another meeting will be held in Elizabeth next Sunday.

LEARN THE BIBLE.

General Lack of Knowledge of Scripture Subject of Sermon by Rev. John MacMurray.

The lamentable lack of knowledge of Bible history that prevails generally among the people of the present day was the theme of an eloquent discourse by Rev. John MacMurray in the pulpit of the Monroe Avenue M. E. Church Sunday morning. This ignorance of even the most salient facts of Bible history, Mr. MacMurray declared, is a most astonishing indication of present day tendencies. Many young people, he said, are less conversant with the Bible than with their Sharkespeare. The pastor announced that he is an advocate of the study of the Bible as literature in the schools and colleges of today. At the evening services, Mr. MacMurray discussed narrowness as a vice, stating that many men are like lobsters with a hard shell of narrowness, separating them from progressiveness and breadth of view.

THE GREATEST WORKINGMAN.

Special Sermon by Dr. Snodgrass Last Night in First M. E. Church.

"The Greatest Workingman" was the subject of the last of a series of special sermons to workingmen by Rev. Dr. W. O. Snodgrass, at the First M. E. Church last evening.

The speaker cited such men as Lincoln, Grant, King David and many others as examples of great workingmen. Christ's greatness as a worker, he said, came from his unselfishness. He did not try to array class against class. That, said the pastor, is the work of the lowest politician and agitator, and, continued he said, "Christ did not try to do away with the evils of his time and state by organization, but by the purification and development of the individual elements of society. Too much is expected of organization which brings power but seldom wisdom."

Infant Baptism.

There was infant baptism at Trinity Reformed Church, yesterday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, baptized Gertrude Estelle Rittenhouse and George VanNest.

Imperial's Dance.

The attendance at the dance of the Imperial Social Club Saturday evening was large. The music was provided by Charles Suhr. At a late hour refreshments were served.

HILLSIDE TENNIS CHAMPIONS

MISS MARRY K. WHITON AND H. D. BULKLEY WIN THE LAURELS.

The Final Matches for the Cups—The Results of the Play.

The final matches for both the men's and women's tennis championships were played Saturday afternoon, Miss Whiton and H. D. Bulkley being the winners. For the women's championship the winners of the four preliminary tournaments played during the summer were drawn against each other. Miss Mary K. Whiton beat Miss Sarah E. Schuyler by default. Miss Elsie Burke beat Miss Helen F. Bushnell, 2-6, 6-4, 6-3. In the final match Miss Whiton beat Miss Burke, 6-0, 6-4, thus winning the Mellick cup. The corresponding cup last year was won by Miss Schuyler.

For the men's championship, H. D. Bulkley won the club cup by beating Albert D. Beers, 6-2, 6-4, 11-9. The challenge cup played for during three previous seasons became last year the property of Kenneth Bulkley, who then won the championship.

MR. BUCKELEW ALIVE AND WELL

REMAINS OF MAN KILLED AT JERSEY CITY NOT IDENTIFIED.

Family Communicates With Plainfield Man—Story of the Commutation Ticket.

Charles W. Buckelew, of West Fifth street, who was believed to have been found dead in the Jersey City yards of the New Jersey Central last Friday night, is alive and well. Saturday night Mr. Buckelew's father succeeded in locating the son at Perth Amboy. As previously stated, he had been off on a cruise on a boat jointly owned by A. M. Griffin and Allen B. Laing, of this city. Saturday morning he left Nyack, where he had been stopping for a day or so, and he reached Perth Amboy on Saturday afternoon. He knew nothing of the finding the body in the Jersey City yards until informed of the fact Saturday night over the telephone by his father.

The commutation ticket found near the body was for the month of September and it was merely a co-incidence that it should have been found near the dead body. Mr. Buckelew discarded the ticket when the last ride was punched and it was probably swept out of the train in which he was riding. As yet the body has not been identified. The supposition is that the dead man was a boatman and that he was struck by a train while wandering about the railroad yards Friday night during the storm.

As soon as Francis M. Bacon, of this city, examined the body on Saturday, he at once declarded that it was not C. W. Buckelew, and he could not identify him in any particular.

INSTALLATION SERVICE.

Programme for Induction of Rev. Mr. Zelie and Ordination of Mr. Lovell.

The Presbytery of Elizabeth will meet in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church on Thursday night at 8 o'clock for the purpose of installing the pastor-elect, Rev. John Sheridan Zelie, and to ordain to the ministry as an evangelist, Gilbert Lovell. The ministers officiating at the installation will be the Moderator of the Presbytery, Rev. Dr. Bliss, Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards, Rev. Dr. Henry Elliott Mott, Rev. Charles E. Herring, Rev. J. O. McKelvey, and at the ordination, Rev. Dr. Richards, Rev. G. Kennedy Newell and Rev. F. D. Tildon.

Trinity Entertainment.

An entertainment under the auspices of the Young Women's Mission Band, of Trinity Reformed Church, will be held at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday evening, October 20. The entertainment will consist of a dramatic reading by Miss Minnie Marshall Smith, who is well known here. She will be assisted by a male quartette.

Surprise Party.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hiscox were given a pleasant surprise at their home in West Sixth street, Saturday night, by abut twenty-five of their friends from the Seventh-Day Baptist Church. The evening was spent in a social manner. Refreshments were served.

Miss Hayes' Funeral.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Miss Frances D. Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubbell L. Hayes, of Dunellen, who died Saturday, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 from the residence of her parents.

SORENSEN CLAIMED IN PERTH AMBOY

Borough Police Gave Clever Thief Into the Custody of Authorities of That Place.

WANTED IN MANY CITIES

PRISONER IS A SLICK OPERATOR CAPTURED BY MAYOR SMALLEY.

Convinced Many Borough Citizens of His Innocence — Identified by a Boy Who Saw Him Steal a Watch.

Peter Christian Sorensen, alias "Kid" Nelson, the smooth-appearing Swede who was held on suspicion in the North Plainfield lock-up under a technical charge of disorderly conduct, for entering the house of Thomas U. Dudley, Jr., on Park place, Thursday, has been taken to Perth Amboy by Chief of Police Burke, of that city, to answer charges of daylight burglary. He is wanted in Bayonne and, it is believed in other cities. He has stoutly protested his innocence but has been positively identified by a six-year-old boy, who saw the fellow steal a watch from the front rooms of his parent's house in Perth Amboy recently.

So clever is the prisoner that he convinced Councilman Charles Lee and other citizens that he was a much persecuted man and a victim of circumstances. He made everybody who talked with him believed he was innocent, and one citizen, in particular, was positive that he had met the fellow in Brooklyn and was entirely satisfied that he had no intention of wrong doing.

Chief Burke visited the jail Friday and again on Saturday afternoon. When he returned Saturday he brought with him a man and woman and the latter's six-year-old son, from Perth Amboy. When the prisoner was placed beside a dozen borough citizens the three Perth Amboy people were brought in to identify the man. The little fellow said: "That's the man, mama," pointing to the cringing burglar. "You're the man who stole my watch," cried the woman, stepping up to the accused and pointing her finger at him. The foreigner shrunk back and said below his breath: "It's all up, I guess."

Convinced that the prisoner, captured by Mayor Smalley, was a clever "second story man," the borough police turned the fellow over to the Perth Amboy authorities. Chief Burke said that the prisoner had been operating in Perth Amboy for over a year and had plied his trade on exactly the same lines as those used here.

It is probable that Sorenson will receive a heavy sentence as he has a number of serious charges against him. It was at first thought that the fellow was the same second story thief who robbed the home of Charles Matthews last spring. It was said that the fellow who entered the home of Charles Matthews wore a number eight shoe. This was disovered by measuring the footprints in the soft mud about the front porch. It developed that the prisoner of last week wore a number seven shoe, thus seemingly clearing him of the charge of entering the house in Grove street.

The reason the prisoner was given up by the authorities in North Plainfield was that the police of Perth Amboy had more damaging evidence against him, the evidence held by the local police not being sufficient to warrant giving him the sentence it was apparent he deserved.

Damages for Mrs. Cannon.

Mrs. Anna M. Cannon has recovered damages from the Central Railroad of New Jersey for a fire in her residence on West Front street on April 26 of last year, caused by a spark from a passing locomotive. The building was totally destroyed. The action was brought for the present term of the Supreme Court, but the case was settled out of court before the date set for the trial. William Newcorn, Esq., represented the plaintiff. Mrs. Cannon was the only one of the sufferers from the Eight Row fire to receive recompense.

Local Hibernians There.

Plainfield was represented in the parade of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in Elizabeth yesterday afternoon by the biggest delegation present. There were 140 Plainfielders in line headed by the Independent Fife and Drum Corps. The speech-making in the Lyceum theatre was presided over by Mayor P. J. Ryan, of Elizabeth.

GEN. O. O. HOWARD'S ADDRESS

TALK AT THE CRESCENT AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SERVICE.

The Mountain Whites of Kentucky His Topic—An Appeal for Aid.

A large congregation listened to General O. O. Howard, the distinguished veteran and Christian worker, at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, last night. He gave an intensely interesting talk on the work among the Mountain Whites of Kentucky. This subject is very dear to the heart of Gen. Howard, he having made an extended tour through the mountains of Kentucky, visiting these people and making extensive notes.

He gave a graphic description of the condition of the people and told of the benefits received by them through the noble work of the missionaries. He made an earnest appeal to the congregation to lend its support to this worthy enterprise.

Gen. Howard came to Plainfield Saturday afternoon and during his stay here was the guest of Major W. D. W. Miller, of Watchung avenue.

ATTEMPT TO COMMIT SUICIDE

MOTLEY TRIED TO KILL HIMSELF IN POLICE HEADQUARTERS.

Discovered in Act by Charles W. Runyon—Was Arrested for Drunkenness.

John Motley, a hod-carrier of North Plainfield, about 55 years old, was arrested for drunkenness by Patrolman Moses Quass at 4:20 o'clock Saturday afternoon and ten minutes after having been placed in his cell made an unsuccessful attempt to hang himself. He climbed upon the chair in his cell, tied his belt to the steel bars of the cage and was about to step off into eternity when discovered by Charles W. Runyon, manager of the Plainfield office of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company, who happened to be passing by the cell door. Mr. Runyon immediately called to Sergeant Frederickson who cut the strap and released the would-be suicide. If the man had succeeded in stepping off the chair he would have been beyond help, as his bemuddled condition would have brought about an immediate collapse. As it was he escaped with a slight wrenching of the wrist, caused by his fall.

Motley was arraigned before City Judge Runyon this morning on a charge of helpless intoxication. He told the court a pitiful story of sufferings from rheumatism and ill-treatment at home and the Judge released him with a warning.

SETTLES FOR $2,100.

Miss Carrie Pangborn Receives Big Sum From Central Railroad Company.

The case of Miss Carrie Pangborn, of Linden avenue, against the Central Railroad of New Jersey, to recover damages for injuries sustained in the Westfield disaster, was settled this morning in Elizabeth before Judge Vail and a jury. Several witnesses were called upon to testify, the trial by jury being necessary from the fact that the plaintiff was under age. Judgment was rendered for $2,100. Miss Pangborn was represented by Francis J. Blatz, Esq.

MRS. TROWBRIDGE DEAD.

Aged Woman Passes Away at Home of Her Niece.

Mrs. Helena L. Towbridge, aged seventy-two years, died yesterday at the home of her niece, Mrs. S. D. Lounsbury, on East Seventh street, where she has been living for the past year. She was born in New York City and with the exception of the one year in this city, had always lived in New York and Brooklyn. Mrs. Trowbridge was a member of the Episcopal Church. She is survived by a number of brothers, nephews and nieces. No arrangements for the funeral have yet been made, but the interment will be at Astoria, L. I.

Dramatic Reciter to Appear.

An evening with Mrs. Minnie Marshall Smith, dramatic reciter, will be the attraction at Y. M. C. A. Hall Tuesday evening, October 20. She will be assisted by Miss Zelie Frost, violinist, and a male quartette. Benefit Trinity Reformed Church Young Women's Mission Band.

ALIS WON FIRST FOOTBALL GAME

Opened the Season Saturday With 6 to 0 Victory Over the Columbia Field Club.

EVENLY MATCHED WORK

THE VISITORS FROM JERSEY CITY MADE HARD FIGHT.

Alis Scored on Tackles Back Formation—Columbia Would Have Tallied But for Fumble Near Goal Line.

In the presence of one hundred onlookers the Alis Club opened its football season Saturday on Crescent Oval with a victory over the Columbia Field Club eleven. The game was played on a muddy field, which made snappy work impossible and was the cause of many fumbles on the part of both teams. Creditable work was done by Cumming and Wilson for Alis, and Munford for the Columbia team. The score at the end of the first half was 0 to 0, but the ball was in the hands of the Jersey City team continually throughout the half. H. Pattberg, who played quarter back for the visitors, showed good generalship and ran with the ball time after time for gains of from twenty to thirty yards. But for a fumble within fifteen yards of the Alis goal the Columbia eleven would have scored a touchdown. Alis scored on tackles back, Pond being pushed over the line for a touchdown, after long runs had been made by Cumming and Woltman. The goal was kicked by Capt. Phillips. The teams were evenly matched as to weight. Line up:

MRS. GALLAGHER DEAD.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stevens, of This City—Married Four Years Ago.

Mrs. Thomas Gallagher died suddenly at her home in Raritan, Friday night, following a short illness with peritonitis. A husband and infant daughter survives her.

Mrs. Gallagher was formerly Miss Stevens, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stevens, of Watchung avenue. She had a host of friends in this city. She and Mrs. Gallagher were married four years ago at the home of the brides's parents and her husband and herself were universally popular.

The funeral services were held this morning from St. Bernard's Church, at Raritan, and the interment took place in Hillside Cemetery, this city, today noon.

DEADHEAD PASSENGERS.

Crowd on Trolley Car Refuses to Pay Fare.

A hilarious baseball crowd succeeded in tying up the traffic of the Elizabeth, Plainfield and Central New Jersey Railway for a half hour on the main line Saturday afternoon. When the car started out from Westfield the baseball fans would not pay their fare. The conductor pleaded in vain. He threatened ejectment, but the crowd was too large. He stopped the conveyance, an open one, and threatened to sidetrack it. This the passengers who had already paid their fare objected to. Several cars were stalled and after consultation with other conductors, the man in charge of the open car started up and brought the mutinous crowd to this city. Open cars were operated all day yesterday.

Mrs. Hyde's Luncheon.

These persons were present to enjoy the social function: Mrs. Louis Keppler Hyde, Mrs. Daniel T. Ginna, Mrs. Howard Tracy, Mrs. Evarts Tracy, Mrs. J. Doull Miller, Mrs. Eugene Hatch, Mrs. L. G. Timpson, Mrs. Dorsey Hyde, Mrs. Powell, Mrs. Robert Bushmore and Mrs. Francis DeLacey Hyde.

PARK CLUB MEMBERS GUESTS AT HILLSIDE

Musical and Tea Enjoyed by Many Society People From Both of the Clubs.

A FEW OUT FOR GOLF

FIRST HONORS IN WEEKLY PLAY FOR GOLF COMMITTEE CUP DIVIDED.

Glenney and Stockton Tie With Score of 81—Westfield Club Entertained at Cranford and Lost a One-Sided Match.

The Hillside Tennis and Golf Club was the scene of much social activity Saturday afternoon, when the Park Club was entertained at a musicale and tea. During the afternoon from 3 to 6, the clubhouse was thronged with the members of both clubs and all thoroughly enjoyed the programme of music, as well as the social features in connection with the tea. Those in charge included the wives of the trustees, together with members of the house committee. The clubhouse was prettily decorated with autumnal foliage.

The event on the course was the weekly play for the Golf Committee cup. First honors were divided between W. L. Glenney and H. R. Stockton, each making a net score of 81 and receiving 2½ points. This advances Stockton well up to Peterson's leading position with 18 points. Glenney now has a total of 8½ points. Mr. Peterson won the remaining point making his total nineteen.

These scores were posted for the cup:

W. L. Glenney, 89, 1—81; H. R. Stockton, 85, 4—81; Walter Peterson, 92, 6—86; C. B Morgan, 99, 12—87; E. P. Goodwin, 101, 13—88; G. T. VanBoskerck, 100, 9—91; Arthur Murphy, 104, 10—94.

This is the standing by points for the Golf Committee cup at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club:

Walter Peterson	19
H. Reeve Stockton	16½
Olaf Sangstad	15
Frank O. Reinhart	9
W. L. Glenney	8½

The Westfield Golf Club team journeyed to Cranford Saturday afternoon and received the worst defeat of the season at the hands of the home team. The score was 44 to 2 in favor of the Cranford Golf Club. W. A. Townsend, of the Park Golf Club, played with the home team and scored eleven points. A return match will be played at Westfield on Saturday, October 24.

This is the summary of Saturday's match:

Cranford—G. W. Davis, 10; J. C. Edgecumbe, 0; J. C. Cottrell, 0; R. J. Mix, 0; T. J. McClellan, 6; L. M. Lyon, 6; H. Fisk, 6; A. Bigoney, 5; W. A. Townsend, 11. Total, 44.

Westfield—C. E. Halsted, 0; R. I. Townsley, 0; E. F. Raynor, 2; E. D. Floyd, 0; Chas. Hansel, 0; A. D. Tuttle, 0; W. J. Bogert, Jr., 0; E. R. Perkins, 0; H. W. Gladwin, 0. Total, 2.

Mr. Clark Spoke.

There were rally day services yesterday in Trinity Church, Newark, and Robert Clark, Jr., of Jackson avenue, addressed the Sunday-school in his old church. Mr. and Mrs. Clark were guests of Rev. J. P. Morris, pastor of the Newark church.

Democratic Convention This Week.

The Union County Democratic convention will be held at Elizabeth next Thursday, when three Assembly candidates and one coroner will be nominated. Plainfield is entitled to thirteen delegates.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCE FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

If your clock gets out of order take it to a reputable watchmaker. Carl Silbert, Somerset street.

If you want the best grapes and other fall fruit, go to Lusardi's fruit store, West Front street.

T. S. Armstrong, the Park avenue apothecary, has good news for men with bald heads. Reynolds' petroleum hair tonic.

Have that last winter's gown made over for this season at S. Hirsch, 430 Watchung avenue. All workmanship guaranteed.

No reason why one should have warts on their hands or superfluous hair on their faces. See Dr. Allen, Park avenue.

For a satisfactory hair cut or shave visit E. B. Maynard's tonsorial parlors on North avenue. The most complete shop of the kind in the State.

You don't appreciate how much the appearance of a room depends upon its wall paper until you get some of the artistic styles offered by J. C. Hansen, East Front street.

R. W. Barnes, Park avenue and North, makes a specialty of fruits and vegetables and housekeepers who are thirfty trade there regularly. Headquarters for vegetables.

For the height of art in hats, go to Bonn's West Front street store. Their hats in shape and trimming are the most stylish for sale in Plainfield. Those who buy of Bonn once, buy always.

No home is complete unless its walls are adorned with pretty pictures and if you want to make such purchases go to the Audsley Art Store in East Front street. The collection is one of the finest in the city.

The New Jersey Loan Company, of Newark, will lend you money on house-hold furniture, pianos, horses, wagons and you can pay the same back on the easy-payment plan. The company's offices are at 740 Broad street, Newark.

If you have not yet selected the wall paper for your house call at the New York Painting and Decorating Company store in Park avenue and examine the attractive designs now shown. J. M. Cahart, the proprietor, will be pleased to quote you prices.

AMUSEMENTS.

Paul Nicholson, of the "Peggy From Paris" company, was kicked by a brewery horse last week. He was very much aggrieved, but too much of a gentleman to kick back. For a couple of nights he danced chiefly on one foot, but is now able to sit up and take a little nourishment if anybody should ask.

SPECIAL FROM HUNTERDON.

These items are clipped from the Clinton Democrat:

We noticed a strange dressmaker in town. Now boys, be ready with your tar-barrels.

Ross Kitchen and bride returned home to his father's, last Saturday. The boys were "around" at night.

It is hoped that new brains will dominate the Legislative halls on the 15th. If the same old brains control them, they might as well stay home.

Rhutson Harsel, of Martin's Creek, spent a short time here with his parents. Rhuts looks well, says he eats well and sleeps well, and likes his place. What more can he want?

City boarders are soon to be in our little town for the summer.

People who sell drink to men to come to our town and abuse us had better go a little slow, as we are getting tired of it.

Mahlon Philhower is home again, looking well as ever.

A trolley is talked of in our town and it is needed very much.

New Jersey Fearless.

State Superintendent of Schools, O. J. Baxter, who formerly resided here, in his forthcoming annual report, now in the printer's hands, claims that New Jersey is ably maintaining her educational rank among the sisterhood of States. Mr. Baxer calls attention to the fact that the people are generously responding to the demands of the times, which he says are a higher standard of qualifications and better salaries for our teachers, more thorough and effective instruction, more advanced and rational courses of study, and more adequate and sanitary school accommodations.

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Thomas Chamberlain, of the Potter Press Company's plant, visited friends in Elizabeth yesterday.

Edward Texier, of the Perrin Frere glove factory, has returned from a visit with New York friends.

Arthur Calcen, of the Aluminum Press Company's plant, has returned from a visit with friends in New York.

William Rapp, of the Potter Press Company's plant, is entertaining his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Raffin, of Sterling.

Jack Little, of the Campbell Press Company's plant, has returned from Philadelphia, where he was working at the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, for the interest of the Campbell firm.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Potter Press Company's Mutual Aid Society will be held in the Coward building, Saturday evening, October 17. Officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

Edward Holmquest has resigned his position at the Perrin Frere glove factory. Having received word from Sweden that his mother was seriously ill, he left Saturday for Sweden on the Hamburg-American line.

George Murphy, of the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, had his foot badly burned while at work in the foundry, Saturday. Murphy triped over a casting while carrying a ladle of hot metal. He will be detained at home for a few days.

Though unable to prevent Buchanan's re-election Sam Parks has returned to New York with increased prestige, and is now said to be reorganizing the iron workers with the object of a National strike, if necessary, to gain his ends.

Charles Williams, of the foundry of the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, was struck under the chin with a heavy plank, Saturday morning. Williams was unconscious for an hour. He was taken to his home where he will be confined for some time.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Many Plainfielders had expected to attend a dance scheduled for last Friday by the Catholic Ladies' Benevolent Society, of Bound Brook, which had to be postponed to next Friday on account of weather conditions.

—A new fire horse to be used by the West Engine Hose Company No. 8 is expected in this city today. The animal has been brought here by Stonewall Jackson on trial. It is a heavy dapple gray horse and will match the animal already in service in that house.

—Miss Mary Green gave an entertainment of music and dancing to a number of her friends Friday night at her home on West Third street. William Skinner sang several of the latest comic songs and others contributed to the musical programme. Among those who attended were Mrs. Martha Marley, Miss Elizabeth Horder, Miss Sadie Freeman, Mrs. Robert Skinner, William Skinner and George Meyers.

—Since the law passed by the last Legislature fixing the minimum age at which children can be employed in manufacturing establishments in this State at fourteen years went into effect, Governor Murphy has been desirous of having the act enforced strictly. With that end in view, he has directed John C. Ward, inspector of factories and workshops, to cooperate with the Governor's private secretary, John L. Swayze, in seeing that the law is carried out in all its provisions.

—"It is said, though there is no evidence to substantiate the assertion, that a restaurant in Philadelphia alternates Scriptural texts with business epigrams, and that the result is something like this: 'The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away;' 'Watch your hats and overcoats;' 'Man shall not live by bread alone;' 'Try our hamburger steak with onions, 20 cents;' 'Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat or what ye shall drink;' 'Welsh rabbit and lobster a la Newburg to order;' 'The wind passeth over it, and it is gone, and the place thereof shall know it no more;' 'We positively cannot be responsible for umbrellas or personal property.'"—Ex.

Mrs. John McCann, of Summit avenue, left Saturday morning to visit relatives in Boston, Mass.

Dieting Invites Disease.

PATERSON FLOODED

Passaic's Rising Waters Cut the City In Two.

SEVEN BRIDGES WERE CARRIED AWAY

Boatmen Have Been Busy at the Work of Life Saving—Mayor Hinchcliffe Considers the Situation Critical.

PATERSON, N. J., Oct. 12. — For nearly forty-eight hours Paterson has been at the mercy of the Passaic river. The waters have maintained a height sufficient to cut the western half of the city from the eastern half, and almost all means of communication by bridges have been destroyed. Two bridges above the falls remain, but approach to them is impossible. Three bridges below the Valley of the Rocks still stand, but it is impossible to live in reaching them. Seven other bridges in the city have been carried away, and their loss alone is half a million dollars. The inundation of the low lying districts of the city has resulted in inconceivable damage to property.

A number of buildings have fallen, and many others have been undermined. Spruce Street hill is falling away piecemeal, and only a little more than two feet of dirt and stone separate the Falls basin from the big Black race, through which millions of gallons of water are rushing every hour. The gate house is in a very weakened condition and is liable to go if Spruce Street hill breaks much farther.

Mayor Hinchcliffe, who has been at this point all night superintending the work of strengthening the dikes and water gates, regards the situation as most critical.

All day long boatmen have been at work rescuing people from the flooded districts. The suffering in the First and Second wards has been intense, as it was almost impossible to reach the residents there. Several hundred persons were removed from houses completely surrounded by the flood and ready to collapse at any moment. A dozen or more of these houses later did collapse and floated down the stream.

The damage to mill property is chiefly from the submersion of portions of the plant and great quantities of products. Thousands of men, women and children will be out of employment for a long time, and it seems altogether probable that this flood will cause to the city of Paterson a greater direct loss of money and property than the fire of two years ago. The gross loss then was $6,000,000, with an insurance of more than $4,000,000. The present loss is estimated at considerably more than $2,000,000, with no insurance.

The constant rain has renewed the flood, but it is hoped the waters have reached their maximum. There is considerable water in the boiler room of the Edison electric light station, there being only about four inches of clear space between the grate bars and the water. It is from this station that the city receives its entire supply of light and motive power.

Five hundred families are homeless. Of these about 150 are being sheltered in Apollo hall, while the others are taken care of in the armory.

The city of Passaic passed a sleepless night, it being feared that the Dundee dam would give way. That would have relieved the city of Paterson at the expense of the cities below. Fortunately, however, Dundee dam is still intact. The suffering at Wallington and Duttonville has been very great, as no relief has been able to reach those places. All through this district houses and outbuildings, together with a great quantity of dead stock, may be seen floating about.

Seven men are now in great peril of their lives in the Kearns Bros.' dye house on the river margin near Paterson. A part of the works has been carried away. The men are in that part which remains standing. While they were trying to save thousands of dollars' worth of silks by carrying them to the top of the building the building was surrounded by water, and the men were cut off from all assistance because of the raging torrent that has been rushing by ever since. It is believed that the entire building will be carried from its foundation unless the flood subsides very soon.

Twenty-five bridges are down in Passaic and Sussex counties on the Susquehanna railroad. Many flooded houses on River, Main and West streets may fall.

Many Bridges Go Down.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 12.—The extent of damage done by the flood in this section is now beginning to be fully realized. At least six and possibly nine of the wagon and foot bridges across the Delaware river between this city and Easton, Pa., have been carried away. The bridges destroyed are those at Yardley, Washington's Crossing, Lambertville, Frenchtown, Milford and Reigelsville. It is believed that the bridge at Stockton and the one between Ravenwood, N. J., and Lumberville, Pa., are also washed away. They are wooden structures, the same as the ones known to have been destroyed.

Ramapo Is Almost In Ruins.

SUFFERN, N. Y., Oct. 12.—The storm which prevailed throughout this section was one of the most disastrous ever known. The trestle which leads over the Piermont branch is a total wreck. Western trains are unable to proceed beyond this place. The town of Hillburn, one mile from here, is cut off, as all the bridges have been washed away. The town of Ramapo is almost in ruins. Many persons are homeless. The iron works at Hillburn have been flooded.

A VIRGINIAN STORM

Coast Is Strewn With Wrecks of Big Vessels.

THREE MASTED SHIP DRIVEN ASHORE

Surfman Capps With Heroic Courage Saves Three Lives, Plunging Into the Waves at the Peril of His Life.

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 12.—The northeast gale that has raged over this region since Thursday has practically spent its power, but for miles and miles along the Virginia coast the beach is littered with wreckage, and throughout this entire section of the country devastation lies in the wake of the storm. Thousands of people crowded trains to the coast and saw the wrecks of the big barges Ocean Belle and Georgia near Virginia Beach.

There is nothing left but an indiscriminate tangle of debris along the shore at Dam Neck to mark the end of the three masted schooner Nellie W. Howlett. The body of Captain George E. Evans of the Georgia washed ashore two miles south of Sea Tack life saving station and is now at that station. The body of George Peters, the colored seaman of the same vessel, has not been recovered. The rescue of the remaining three negroes of the crew by Surfman William Capps of Sea Tack station was one of the most heroic acts in the history of the surfmen on the Virginia coast.

Capps while two miles from any other human being and patrolling his stretch between the stations saw one negro over 100 yards offshore in the roaring surf. Without a moment's consideration of the peril he was facing, he stripped and plunged into the sea that was already a seething mass of wreckage from the barges and after a half hour battle, single handed and alone, brought the unconscious man ashore. He had not recovered his breath before he discerned through a rift in the spume another form, and once more he went into the surf and again succeeded in saving a life, and for a third time plunged in and brought an unconscious man ashore. Capps did not cease his work until all three men had been cared for at the station, and at midnight he resumed his regular trick at patrolling the storm swept coast.

The steamer Hamilton reached Norfolk after a terrible experience in the gale.

The steamer was not damaged to any great extent and will continue her schedule, but the suffering of the passengers, particularly those in the steerage, was heartrending. Life preservers were worn constantly by nearly every one, and some women became hysterical and collapsed. Few on board expected the Hamilton would survive the blow, but Captain Boaz, profiting by his experience in last month's hurricane, kept the situation in hand throughout and brought his boat to her pier in safety.

CITY DESERTED.

High Tides and Hurricane Empty Ocean City, Md.

OCEAN CITY, Md., Oct. 12.—This city is practically deserted. Owing to the hurricane and high tides the greater part of the city has been submerged since Thursday night, and many of the residents have sought shelter on higher ground. The front of Congress Hall, a leading hotel, about a hundred feet in extent, has been torn away. The entire ocean front of the Windsor hotel collapsed. A large number of cottages were also either washed from their foundations or destroyed. All day residents were busily engaged removing household goods to the mainland.

The wind was blowing at the rate of forty miles an hour from the north, and it was feared by the few citizens who remained in the city that at high tide the water will again cause damage to the buildings which remain standing.

Besides the life saving crew stationed here not more than twenty-five or thirty men and women have remained to protect their personal property.

Death on Steamer Jefferson.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The Old Dominion liner Jefferson has arrived at this port after a very stormy passage. The Jefferson was due to arrive Saturday, but owing to the prevailing easterly storm was obliged to take shelter at Old Point Comfort. She experienced the prevailing easterly gale, with a heavy cross sea, which boarded the vessel continuously. One of her passengers named E. B. Hawley, from Lake View, Moon county, N. C., was knocked down on deck by a heavy sea and was killed.

Autos Have the Usual Smashes.

BATH, N. Y., Oct. 12.—Five more belated automobiles on the endurance run from Weehawken to Pittsburg have reached here. Two of them arrived at 6 o'clock. They left for Buffalo, expecting to reach their in time to start out with the leaders this morning. One is delayed here on account of a broken strut rod. The press car came into Bath on the rim of one of its wheels and was laid up for several hours before a tire could be fitted to replace one that blew up a mile east of here.

Yellow Fever Cases 210, Deaths 10.

LAREDO, Tex., Oct. 12.—The official bulletins show eighteen cases of yellow fever, with one death, making the total number of cases to date 210, with total deaths ten. Dr. Tabor expresses the opinion that the disease is well in hand and that no spread to outside points is anticipated. News from Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, is to the effect that there are now fourteen cases of fever in that city.

AMERICA'S MODEL STORE.

For us to claim that we have the Model Store of America is not a vain boast. We base the assertion on this ground: Since our present building was completed, two years ago, hundreds of merchants, from all parts of the United States and Canada, London, England, as well, have inspected the structure thoroughly. These have adapted to their own establishments the prominent features of construction and arrangement contained in ours.

When you come here kindly notice the many conveniences and comforts for light, air, rest and refreshment, like those you saw in some big New York store; and notice, too, how much finer is our display, how much smaller our prices, and how vastly superior our facilities for shopping.

Our Furniture Department covers an acre and a half of space on third floor, laid out in the most artistic manner.

We're sorry we can't use more space to give you additional facts about our magnificent store; but this we will say: If you have'nt been here you are missing a great deal.

LACE CURTAINS.

Here's the sale for which housekeepers have been waiting. They knew they would get good curtains. They knew they would save money. They won't be disappointed. The variety is almost as complete as if they went to regular stocks. The prices are even lower than they would expect.

Scotch Lace Curtains—About 200 pairs of Scotch Lace Curtains, fifteen different patterns to select from. Among them are the most popular makes and effects—Irish Point, Renaissance, Brussels, etc. So cleverly executed are the designs and workmanship, even an expert might mistake them for real lace. Their real value is 3.00 a pair. Take your choice now at.. 2.25

The Large Family of Jones.

Sixty-two years ago a man named Jones moved from Kentucky to Dade county, Mo., taking with him his family of ten children. At a reunion recently held at Everton, 1,019 of his decendants were present, and there are a few who were unable to attend. Almost all of his descendants have married and settled in the same neighborhood in southwest Missouri, and as they are clannish a stranger who goes in there and talks unfavorably about anybody he has met is very likely to find he is talking to a relative of the person who has incurred his displeasure, and that he has got himself into trouble. They are said to be the largest family living in a single neighborhood in the United States.

The Kindly Cannibal.

"My dear," said the kindly cannibal to his wife, "I wish you would realize that my business affairs are not within your scope. I don't like this habit of yours of always putting your fingers in my pie."

"I want you to understand," retorted the wife, "that I am going to exercise every right I have. As your wife"—

"And I want you to understand," interrupted the cannibal husband with some heat, "that if you keep on putting your finger in the pie the first thing you know all the rest of you will go into a potpie."

Silenced, the woman returned to her household duties.—Judge.

BATTLE ON FRONTIER

Bulgarian Territory Invaded by Ottoman Troops

ORDER TO MOBILIZE FROM SOFIA.

Massacre at Mohomia One of the Most Shocking of Turkish Barbarities—Hundreds of Villagers' Homes Destroyed.

MONASTIR, Bulgaria, Oct. 12.—There has been a fierce fight near Dubnitza between the Bulgarian regular troops and the Ottoman soldiery stationed on the frontier.

The loss has been quite heavy on both sides. How many men have been killed cannot be estimated, but it is learned that two Bulgarian and four Turkish officers were killed.

The real gravity of this encounter lies in the fact that it has occurred on Bulgarian territory and was far more than a clash between outposts.

The Bulgarian war office ordered the complete mobilization of the first and second class of the reserves resident in the Kostendil district and of the Thirteenth Macedonian infantry. This step, it is understood, was taken as a precautionary measure in view of the repeated provocative acts of the Turks on the frontier.

The particulars of the hitherto undetailed massacre at Mohomia, one of the most shocking of recent Turkish barbarities, show that the Turks formed a cordon around the village as darkness came on. Finding no insurgents in the village, they opened fire upon it. The fire continued intermittently throughout the night. It was impossible for the terrified inhabitants to escape.

Early in the morning the Turks set fire to 700 Bulgarian houses and massacred all the inhabitants except comely women and girls, who were carried away under the eyes of their husbands, brothers and fathers.

Negotiations are proceeding between the Bulgarian and Turkish governments for the repatriation of the 20,000 fugitives from Macedonia, now in Bulgarian territory. The porte offers to take all the refugees back under the joint supervision of the Bulgarian and Turkish functionaries, but there are many difficulties in the way owing to the destruction of their homes and means of subsistence and the doubt whether they will be willing to return.

Regarding the frontier incidents of cruelties to women and children, the porte has informed the Bulgarian government that the sultan has ordered a commission to make the strictest investigation and punish the guilty officers.

THE HONORABLES' TRIP.

Visit to Niagara Falls, Toronto and Montreal.

BUFFALO, Oct. 12.—The Honorable Artillery Company of London and its host, the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts, at Niagara Falls visited all the points of interest and contiguous country.

Lord and Lady Denbigh and a score of other occupants of the special cars through the gorge had folding cameras and took pictures at many interesting points.

The cars went over the Belt line course, across the upper steel arch bridge to the Canadian side, up to Horseshoe falls, back down the Canadian side to Queenstown, then across to the American side and back up the gorge line past the rapids to where the start was made. The cars moved slowly most of the way, brief stops being made at all points of interest.

The two sections of the special train then started for Toronto. They will go from there to Montreal.

Quaker City Has Ruinous Flood.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 12. — Delaware avenue, which runs along the Delaware river in this city, was again flooded for a distance of two miles at high tide. The water rose about six inches higher than usual. The water was so high that ferryboats were unable to enter their slips without doing damage, and for several hours service between this city and Camden and Gloucester was suspended. The cellars of most of the business houses on Delaware avenue in the flooded district were filled with water, and goods valued at many thousands of dollars were either entirely ruined or damaged.

Shot In Mistake For Burglar.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 12.—Henry Brown, a retired hotel keeper and a man of considerable means, was mistaken for a burglar and was shot by Peter Kotz, into whose house Brown had forced an entrance. Brown was shot twice in the head, and his physicians have no hope of his recovery. Brown's act in breaking into Kotz's house is inexplicable except on the ground of insanity. Brown has been acting strangely.

Alleged False Roosevelt at Rome.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Relative to the report cabled from Rome that an American bearing the family name of President Roosevelt and claiming relationship with him had arrived there and that it was alleged he was charged by the president with a confidential mission to the Vatican, Assistant Secretary of State Loomis said that no commission of any description had been sent from this government to Rome.

In Memory of Prince Bismarck.

POSEN, Prussian Poland, Oct. 12.—A memorial to Bismarck was unveiled here in the presence of Prince and Princess Herbert Bismarck, Count Rantzau, Baron von Rheinbaben, Baron von Hammerstein and the local authorities.

The Daily Press has a higher circulation rating than is accorded to any other paper in Plainfield.—Printers' Ink.

"Pledged to no party's arbitrary sway, we follow truth where'er it leads the way."

"About this time expect a storm" might serve for the political as well as the weather almanac.

If the threat of a street railway strike cost the Public Service Corporation $30,000, what would the real article have cost?

Plainfield will certainly have a beautiful High School whenever the new building is erected. The architects' plans submitted approach perfection in regard to both beauty and utility.

We have no quarrel with the artist who says the American girl is the most beautiful in all the world. He neglected to state that we've got her in Westfield.—Westfield Standard.

But you had to come to Plainfield to get her.

The well known quotation "Who Struck Billy Patterson?" might appropriately be changed to "What Struck the City of Paterson." The number of tornadoes, cyclones, fires, floods and anarchists that fail to strike that burg is not worth consideration.

Noah was the first man to adverise. He advertised the flood and it came all right. The fellows who laughed at the advertising got drowned and it served them right. Ever since Noah's time the advertiser has been prospering, while the other fellow is being swallowed up in the flood of disaster. —Ex.

Company K deserves congratulation on its record for marksmanship especially considering the handicap it has been labering under. If the company could lead its regiment without an indoor rifle range, it should be able to lead the entire State with the additional practise that the range will make possible.

NEW MARKET STRAWBERRIES

BEING CULTIVATED ON ELSTON S. ELLIOTT'S FARM.

Phenomenon at the Garden Patch —Picking Berries by the Quart.

Close to the dreamy village of New Market, Elston S. Elliott owns a seven-acre farm which he has divided off for the cultivation of vegetables and fruit. One section of the plot he has long devoted to the culture of strawberries.

The bushes have invariably yielded him a generous crop, and the past season was no exception to the rule. When, several weeks ago, the last of the season's crop had been plucked and shipped away to market, Mr. Elston abandoned the farm to the ravages of the coming winter and thought no more of his plants. About two weeks ago he had occasion to pass through the field wherein the berries had grown, and, to his great astonishment, every bush was bending under the weight of additional fruit.

Mr. Elston had never seen the like before, although he has been farming all his life. The berries were then red and tempting, and they were promptly picked and taken to market. In another few days he again visited the field, and had no trouble in gathering another few quarts. Altogether he has gathered more than twenty quarts during the last two weeks, and again the other morning he picked six quarts, every berry being blood-red and more than ordinarily palatable.

"The phenomenon is all the more surprising to me," Mr. Elston said the other day, while he proudly displayed his collection, "because I had a full crop from the same bushes in the spring and early summer. I have been farming for so many years that I don't like to remember so long, but I never before saw strawberries growing at this time of the year. It is the most unusual thing I have ever heard of. It is odd, too, that while owners of neighboring farms all had full crops this season none of them is now getting any benefit of their dying bushes. I seem to be especially benefitted by nature and I don't know why. I made no effort to try and force a second crop. It just came unassisted."

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN.

William Tige and John Stiller were arrested yesterday afternoon by Constable Mohan on a charge of stealing chickens, the complaint being made by Frank Meranonunk. They both are employed at the brick yard and live in the small shanty near the brick yard on North avenue. A colored man named Jones says he found the dead chickens in the shanty. The case will probably be heard in Plainfield as the act was committed within the city limits.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pennock moved from the Loft residence, on Washington avenue, to the house formerly occupied by E. T. Morrison, on Fourth street, today. Mr. and Mrs. Loft and family, who have been living in New York for the past year, will move into the vacated house.

The Holy Name Society, of St. John's Church, received communion yesterday morning at the 7:30 mass. In the evening the regular monthly meeting was held at the church. A committee was appointed to secure furniture for their new quarters in the parsonage.

Miss Frances Hayes, who had been ill for some time, died Saturday morning. Miss Hayes was twenty-five years old and lived in the borough for the last four years, during which time she made many friends.

A large bay horse was drowned in a pasture at Greenbrook Saturday night by the high water. The animal would have gotten out all right but it became tangled up in a wire fence and was unable to swim.

A number from the borough journeyed to Bound Brook yesterday to see the damage done by the high water.

Work which was retarded on the new factory at Dewey Park by the heavy rains, was resumed this morning.

Stacy H. Opdyke has returned to Rutgers College to resume his studies. He spent the summer at Niagara Falls.

Alexander Terry has returned from a short visit with relatives in New York City.

Miss David Teston, of Bound Brook, was the guest of Mrs. John Logan yesterday.

A party was given by the Misses Hunt, of Front street, Saturday evening.

Archie Brakeley, of Princeton University, visited his home yesterday.

M. H. MacNamarra is visiting his parents at Newburgh, N. Y.

NEW MARKET.

The water on Saturday was the highest since the freshet of 1896. The bridge on the main street was about a foot under water and the Lehigh Valley tracks were also submerged. Several boats and a couple of small chicken houses were washed down the stream but no further damage was done.

The finishing touches are being made on the new house erected on Prospect avenue by Charles Kelley and the house will be ready for occupancy in a few days.

Dr. Whitford was in New Brunswick Saturday on business.

Joseph Alberta, of Perth Amboy, is in town today on business.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Manager Johnston very wisely cancelled the game of ball scheduled for Saturday afternoon with the Cuban Giants. The weather conditions were such that it would have been impossible for the fans to have enjoyed the game. If the Cuban Giants are unable to play next Saturday afternoon some other good team will be substituted, as Manager Johnston wants one more game to close the season.

Owing to a number of the closed cars being on the retired list, as a result of the burning out of the motors during the storm of last week, the trolley company was obliged to run nearly all open cars yesterday. The fresh air was not enjoyed by the patrons, although travel was light for Sunday.

Scotch Plains fortunately escaped any serious damage during the heavy storm of Thursday and Friday of last week. The principal damage was to fences and the corn crops along the line of Green brook.

Batch, who is playing left field for the local ball team, put up a fine game at second base for St. Mary's in the game at Westfield on Saturday afternoon.

The reception of the Berkely Heights Social Club, held Saturday night at that place, was attended by a number from the village.

Charles Wade led an interesting weekly meeting of the Epworth League at the Methodist Church Sunday evening.

Rev. George A. Francis and family, of Westfield, were the guest Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. John Hetfield, of Stout avenue.

The members of the B. Y. P. U. held their weekly meeting in the parlors of the Baptist Church Sunday evening.

Rev. George A. Francis, of Westfield, occupied the pulpit in the Baptist Church Sunday morning.

Eugene Wood, formerly of the village, now of Plainfield, was the guest, Sunday, of friends here.

John E. Flannery, of Plainfield, spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. George H. Johnston.

Mr. and Mrs. Geroge A. Clark and children spent Sunday with out-of-town friends.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Walter J. Harris has so far recovered from his serious illness as to be able to walk with the aid of a cane. He is still with relatives in New York.

Edward Horne, who has been suffering from a long attack of rheumatism, is able to walk with crutches.

Miss Maude Smith after several weeks absence, has returned home.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

Rev. Dr. John H. Wyckoff, who is engaged in mission work in India, and who is now in this country, will speak at Trinity Reformed Church, Sunday morning.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies, of the Monroe Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, will hold their meeting tomorrow afternoon at the parsonage at 2:30 o'clock.

The annual State convention of the Christian Endeavor Societies of New Jersey will be held at Orange, Thursday and Friday. It is believed that most of the Plainfield societies will be represented.

All the Roman Catholic Churches of Newark diocese will take special collections next Sunday for completing the new cathedral. It will be a jubilee offering in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of Newark diocese.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, of the Crescent Avenue Church, will be held in the church parlors tomorrow afternoon at 3:30. The subject will be "Home Life in Persia."

Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, of Orange, is expected to preach at the First Baptist Church, Sunday. Beginning November 1 he will continue to occupy the pulpit until a successor to Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes is chosen.

WILL VISIT PARIS.

Sovereigns of Italy Will Be Welcomed on Wednesday.

PARIS, Oct. 12. — Because of the prospect that it may have political results as important as those which attended the courtesies personally exchanged by President Loubet and King Edward, France is awaiting with eagerness the approaching visit of the king and queen of Italy, who, accompanied by the Italian foreign minister and other distinguished Italian officials, will cross the French frontier Wednesday morning.

The first official reception to their majesties will be given at Dijon, and from the frontier until they reach Paris King Victor Emmanuel and his consort will see decorations, including the intwined arms of France and Italy, which the enthusiastic French peasants have raised at almost every station.

On arriving in Paris their majesties will be received at the Bois de Boulogne railway station by President and Mme. Loubet, the presidents of the senate and chamber of deputies, the ministers of state and other high officials of the republic. French soldiers will surround the station and stretch in two long lines from the station along the flag bedecked Avenue du Bois de Boulogne through the Arc de Triomphe and the Champs Elysees to the Place de la Concorde, where a battery will add its thunder to the official welcome.

Between the lines of troops the Italian rulers, accompanied by the French president and Mme. Loubet, will drive to the palace of the ministry of foreign affairs, where they will be lodged during their stay. The apartments have been exquisitely furnished, and the king will sleep in the bed used by Napoleon. Many souvenirs of Marie Antoinette beautify Queen Helena's boudoir.

ROXBURGHE-GOELET.

A Quiet Wedding and a Honeymoon at Floors Castle.

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 12.—The date fixed for the wedding of Miss May Goelet and the Duke of Roxburghe has been announced. It will be solemnized in Trinity church, Newport, on Nov. 15 and will be a very quiet affair, being witnessed by only the relatives and intimate friends. Miss Goelet will be given away by her brother, Mr. Robert Goelet.

The duke and his duchess will immediately after the ceremony sail for Scotland to spend their honeymoon at Floors castle.

Society people who have been anticipating a brilliant wedding for the first week in November, with 2,000 invitations, will be disappointed.

The decision to have a quiet wedding is due to the death of the British ambassador, Sir Michael Herbert, which was a severe blow to Mrs. Ogden Goelet, the bride's mother. She considered that a brilliant wedding under the circumstances would be inappropriate. Miss Goelet agreed with her mother.

The Duke of Roxburghe, who has been enjoying a hunting trip in Wyoming, is now on his way to Newport.

Floors castle is one of the most picturesque and beautiful estates in Scotland. More than 60,000 acres surround the castle.

The ancestral estate is on the left bank of the Tweed, and the pleasing view over the great undulating park takes in the ruins of Roxburghe castle, a part of Teviot Dale and the exquisite sloping land where the Tweed and Teviot meet.

AMERICAN DEMANDS.

Leishman Is Patient but Persistent in Obtaining Satisfaction.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 12.—Two more claims of the American legation have been satisfactorily settled, the more important being the issue of a firman granting to Dr. Banks permission to excavate the ruins of Bismah, in Mesopotamia. The claim has been pending for three years, its settlement being constantly thwarted by a German professor engaged in similar work.

The second question settled concerns property belonging to the wife of the American consul at Smyrna, upon which immigrants have established themselves and which the government now agrees to purchase.

Some powers are showing irritation at the prolonged stay of the American war ships at Beirut, but United States Minister Leishman maintains an attitude of patient and steady pressure and is obtaining satisfaction for his demands without any unnecessary bluster such as would be calculated to trouble his friendly relations with the Ottoman government.

Two Drowned at Port Jervis, N. Y.

PORT JERVIS, N. Y., Oct. 12.—Two men were drowned when the 651 foot suspension bridge across the Delaware river connecting Port Jervis and Matamoras, Pa., collapsed and was carried away by the worst flood ever known on the Delaware river. Of three men who were swept away with the bridge one, Theodore Durant, who is a cripple, saved himself by holding to a portion of the bridge until rescued after drifting half a mile. Three hundred houses are flooded by the overflowing of the banks of the Delaware.

Erie Canal Blocked.

FONDA, N. Y., Oct. 12.—The entire fleet of state boats has been ordered to Amsterdam to repair two breaks in the Erie canal. This will cause a suspension of traffic for two weeks and a loss to the state of more than $10,000.

Czar Will Visit Rome.

ROME, Oct. 12.—Neither the Italian government nor the Russian chancellery doubts that the projected visit of the czar to Rome will take place in spite of the reports published abroad to the contrary.

SPORTING WORLD.

Princeton Golfers Badly Beaten. Baseball Results.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 12.—The Cleveland American league club won the series from the Cincinnati National league club by taking the second game of the double header, making it stand six to four for the Ohio championship. By great batting in the first game the Cincinnati club tied the score in the eighth inning and won out in the ninth after two outs. It grew so dark that the spectators lighted their score cards and held them up and swarmed on the field so Umpire Hurst would call the game. He absolutely refused, and the policemen pushed the crowd back, and the game proceeded to the eighth and ninth innings, in which Cleveland secured all her runs. Score—First game: Cincinnati, 7; Cleveland, 6. Second game: Cincinnati, 1; Cleveland, 3.

Nationals Were Blanked.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—The Nationals were blanked through the inability to hit "Dr." White, who allowed them but six safe ones, scattering one to an inning. Lundgren's work was gilt edged, excepting in the third inning, when four bunched hits scored two runs. The score: National, 0; American, 2.

Nationals Won at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 12.—In the final game of the post season series between the St. Louis Americans and the St. Louis Nationals the Nationals won by a score of 9 to 5. Brown's pitching was the feature of the game. The Nationals outhit and outfielded the Americans.

Princeton Golfers Beaten.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—In the team match golf championship played at Springfield, N. J., between Princeton university and the Baltusrol club the latter beat Princeton badly. Score—Baltusrol, 23; Princeton, 9.

RUSSIA AND JAPAN.

Critical Situation May Result In Ultimatum Any Moment.

BERLIN, Oct. 12.—Russia and Japan act as though either would fight if the other should hold immovably to the position taken up in the last exchange of communications. This is the actual situation as understood officially from reports received from the German embassy in St. Petersburg and the German legation at Tokyo. Yet this mutual attitude, with hostile preparations by both countries, is still regarded here as not excluding an honorable arrangement. Neither government has gone so far that it must fight or be humiliated, but either cabinet by a single step can put the other in that position. This delicate balance may of course be violently disturbed any day, though no ultimatum has yet been thrown on either scale.

It is believed here officially that war, should it occur, would be between Russia and Japan alone and that neither England nor France would be involved. Frederick the Great's remark was quoted to a correspondent as illustrating the present posture of affairs, "Negotiations without weapons behind you are like a musical tone without instruments."

Baron von Rosen, the Russian minister to Japan, is still awaiting instructions from his government in the matter of negotiations now proceeding between Japan and Russia.

A Russian regiment from Baikal military district has arrived at Fengchangteng, 150 miles northwest of Peking and ninety miles from the Russian frontier.

M. Lessar, Russian minister to China, has announced that the Manchurian convention has lapsed.

M'KINLEY'S MEMORY.

Honored at Adams, Mass., by a Bronze Statue.

ADAMS, Mass., Oct. 12.—The late President William McKinley's memory was honored by the unveiling of an imposing bronze statue, faithful in likeness and artistic in conception, before an assembly numbering thousands from Berkshire county. Hon. William B. Plunkett of Adams, to whom Lieutenant Governor Guild referred in his speech as "the dead president's friend," presided at the exercises, and many men of prominence participated. John D. Long, who was secretary of the navy in McKinley's cabinet; Governor John L. Bates and Lieutenant Governor Curtis Guild, Jr., took a prominent part.

A parade of the militia, Grand Army and civil bodies was held, the march ending at the monument.

The memorial represents not only the voluntary tribute of all classes of citizens of the town, but even organizations of women and the pupils of the public schools shared in contributing to the fund for its erection.

Attempt at Train Wrecking.

DANVILLE, Va., Oct. 12.—A bold attempt was made to wreck a passenger train on the Norfolk division of the Southern railroad about three miles east of this city. The track had been piled with crossties and a fish plate. The train was running at a very slow rate of speed, and but for this fact a disastrous wreck would undoubtedly have occurred.

Soldiers Fighting Forest Fires.

BUDAPEST, Oct. 12.—Nine thousand acres of moorland in the neighborhood of Etsed is on fire. The peat is burning to some depth, and intense heat has loosened the ground, causing a general subsidence of the village of Boervely. Several houses have collapsed, and four persons have been killed. Troops are trying to extinguish the fire.

Weather Probabilities.

Partly cloudy; high north winds.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad
Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors
BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.
BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.
LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW
BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.
BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.
LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT
BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.
BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

DRESSY TOILETS.

Velvets and Corduroys Are Becoming and Useful.

Flounces are much in vogue. A pretty puffy colored specimen of sartorial art showed three deep flounces with little piped ruches of taffeta in between. This had a deep cape collar edged with the same ruching and finished with a taffeta belt of a deeper tone. With this there was a hat of plaited chenille in three shades of brown, with feathers to match. This was accompanied by a deep stole of mink.

Light cloth dresses trimmed with dark furs are ideal for the autumn and early winter, and this combination will be much in evidence.

There is a distinct fancy for old corduroy velvets, and in brown and deep ivory shades they are really lovely. Although light, they are warm, and they may be worn without a coat.

Velvet, plain and spotted, will be used as trimming on almost every costume.

The picture shows a gown of striped velveteen trimmed with Irish lace.

FRILLS OF FASHION.

Wine Color a Favorite In Paris. Birds on Millinery.

Leather and kid strappings are again used with tweed coats and skirts which are to be worn in the mountains. They are a necessity in a hunting costume across the shoulders of the Norfolk jacket. Leather around the skirt except in a very narrow binding, is a mistake, as it adds greatly to the weight.

Paris has gone mad over wine color, from the richest shade of burgundy to the most insipid shade of pink.

The prevalence of birds is the chief feature of autumn millinery. Wings of every possible color and description adorn nearly all the autumn toques.

Some of the smartest millinery models for ordinary wear are three cornered, made of beaver and trimmed with choux of gold braid, cords and tassels. The beaver is especially smart in claret color.

Some of the most elegant of the broadcloth skirts have very decided watteau plaits at the back. Six, seven and nine gores are seen on the skirts. Panne cheviot is a new fabric and is already being purchased rapidly by those who always like to be first in everything.

The cut shows a gown of black liberty silk shirred on the waist and hips. The skirt has three flounces.

THE WOMEN LEADERS

Some Who Have Been the Heads of Great Movements.

Mrs. Stowe, Susan B. Anthony, Florence Nightingale and Clara Barton Are Typical of a Class.

"Mother" Jones, with her little army of textile workers marching on to appeal to the president in behalf of her particular cause, brings up before us forms of other women leaders; leaders, however, whose efforts are regarded in quite a different light from those of Quixotic "Mother" Jones. Various names and movements deserve mention, but space allows a hurried glance at only a few.

As a child, Mrs. Stowe showed remarkable ability as a scholar, but the most widely-known work from her hand, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," speaks rather of deep feeling than of giant intellect. The strong anti-slavery feeling with which the book is permeated had its growth begun in early girlhood, when the little Harriet Beecher sat listening to the fiery denunciations uttered in the pulpit by her father. The Beechers all along were very outspoken on this question, even after removing from their New England home to Cincinnati, dangerously close to southern territory and southern prejudices. Whilst residing in Cincinnati, Mrs. Stowe frequently visited the south and thus became familiar with the surroundings which later were to be so vividly pictured in her book. Her home sheltered many a fugitive slave, and she and her husband aided not a few runaways on their escape into Canada. After the return of the Stowes to New England, Mrs. Stowe, fearing the fugitive slave act might lead to the spreading of slavery even to the northern states, and feeling that people did not at all realize the horrors of slavery, set to work to attempt a book that would have some small influence. Neither she nor her family dreamed what that influence was to become, and when the story was published in serial form it did not attract much attention. But presently it grew into fame; within five years from publication, 500,000 copies were sold in the United Staets alone. To-day, critics pronounce "Uncle Tom's Cabin" by no means the best of Mrs. Stowe's productions, but it certainly is the book by which she is known to the world at large.

MISS CLARA BARTON,
Head of the Red Cross Society.

Susan B. Anthony, "leader of a cause," is a leader whose name is a household word at least in the United States. Miss Anthony has been interested in many reforms—temperance, educational and the great movement for the abolition of slavery — but she is best known as the champion of "Woman's Rights." Though born a Quaker, Miss Anthony has been known for aggressiveness rather than meekness of spirit. She has declaimed on public platforms, petitioned legislatures, edited a paper, and written a book, all for the furthering of equal civil rights for women. This indefatigable leader in "the emancipa-tion of women" is still living, having attained the ripe age of 84 years. That she has seen her cause considerably advanced none will deny.

During the Crimean war, Miss Florence Nightingale exerted her womanly energies to lessen the sufferings entailed by that war, and owing to her zeal and fearlessness great reforms were effected in the care of wounded soldiers. When a grateful host desired to present her a testimonial of $250,000, she refused to accept it, but suggested the fund be subscribed to an institution for the training of nurses. In our own country, reforms in the care of soldiers were established by Miss Clara Barton, whose talents came into active play during the civil war. Then when the Franco-German war called for nurses, she aided the Red Cross in its work abroad. For her services she was decorated with the golden cross of Baden and the iron cross of Germany. In 1881, she became president of the American Red Cross society.

DOWIE'S CAMPAIGN.

Will Travel in Princely Style and Reform New York.

WAUKEGAN, Ill., Oct. 12.—Alexander Dowie will travel to New York next week in one of the finest private cars maintained by any railroad, while his followers will have to content themselves for two nights in ordinary coaches. In fact, Dowie's private carriage and horses will have better accommodations than most of his followers, for the palace horse car which is to transport the "prophet's" conveyance is already at Zion City, being put in shape for the journey. As Dowie's carriage is electric lighted and he drives some of the finest horses in the state, he expects to show the New Yorkers how "prophets" travel in style.

Dowie himself, with his wife and son, will occupy the private car of the Nickel Plate railroad's president, this courtesy having been extended to him when the crusade was first talked of. A Pullman sleeper is to be attached to each train for those who can afford to pay, but Dowie has kindly suggested to his people that it is not necessary to go to that expense; that they had better sit up nights and turn the extra $5 into Zion's bank. The cars will all be profusely decorated with Zion banners both inside and outside.

There are three things which Dowie intends opening up against with great determination at his New York meetings. He says he will "lash some of the churches as New York has never heard them lashed before," he will force most of the drug stores to close shop, and he will show up Christian Science, which, he declares, is one of the worst frauds existing. On the other hand, he will boom Zion City by trying to sell stock and will also endeavor to form a branch of his theocratic party.

A CLOUDY HORIZON.

Colombia In a State of Turmoil. Revolution May Break Out.

PANAMA, Colombia, Oct. 12.—Presidential aspirations are clouding the political horizon of Colombia. It is reported that General Pedro Nel Ospina, who has been proposed by the Carlos party as a presidential candidate for the next term, angered by President Marroquin's opposition to him and the latter's support of General Reyes, who is considered the official candidate, has become seriously complicated in a projected revolutionary outbreak somewhere on the isthmus.

It is said that General Benjamin Herrera and other prominent Liberal leaders are associated in the movement. If the report is true this is General Ospina's second attempt at an insurrection, for in 1902, while holding the post of war minister, he was banished from the republic because of his complicity in a scheme to overthrow President Marroquin. Later he was elected senator for Antioquia and, with Senor Caro, now president of the senate, has led the opposition in congress.

It is stated that the concentration of Venezuelan troops on the Colombian frontier is part of the revolutionary plan, President Castro's idea being, if not actually to help the revolutionists with men and arms, at least to prevent the government from moving the northern army of 10,000 men under General Gonzales Valencia against the rebels.

Governor Obaldia of Panama says that any rebel movement, such as reported, could be suppressed by the government within a short time.

General Tovar, recently appointed military commander of the isthmus, is expected to arrive here at any moment.

Pittsburg League Player Insane.

ANDOVER, Mass., Oct. 12. — After felling his nurse with a terrific blow over the head with a stove poker Edward Doheny, the Pittsburg National league baseball pitcher, for more than an hour, armed with the same weapon, held a score of neighbors and several policemen at bay and defied them to lay hands upon him. Finally he was overpowered and after an examination by two physicians was adjudged insane. The nurse, Oberlin Howarth, is seriously hurt, but it is believed he will recover. Doheny first showed signs of insanity several weeks ago, when he suddenly deserted the Pittsburg club in an Ohio city while laboring under the delusion that he was being pursued by detectives.

Woman Nominated For Legislature.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Oct. 12.—The Prohibitionists of the First Hampshire representative district have placed in nomination for the second time Mrs. Fanny J. Clary of Williamsburg. Mrs. Clary was nominated last year, being the first woman candidate in Massachusetts for membership in the state legislature, and, although she was defeated by the Republican nominee, she polled more than 500 votes.

Much Damage In Dover, N. J.

DOVER, N. J., Oct. 12.—Longwood dam, on the Rockaway river at this place, was broken, causing a torrent of water to rush through the rolling mill of the Ulster Iron works. One hundred men were forced to flee for their lives. The Richardson & Boynton Stove works and other buildings in the vicinity were flooded.

Colbert Colliery Resumes.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Oct. 12.—The Colbert colliery, owned by the Shipman Coal company, has resumed operations, giving work to 500 men and boys. Six months ago the breaker was burned, and a new one has just been completed at a cost of $30,000.

Lamp Burst With Fatal Effect.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Oct. 12.—Through the bursting of a lamp which he was carrying Mrs. Michael Gillen, aged eighty years, was burned to death in her home here.

KEAN'S FRIENDS AT WORK

HEADQUARTERS ENGAGED IN THE BABCOCK BUILDING.

Aim to Save Republican Ticket —A Circular to be Issued.

There were things doing in the Republican camp Saturday night indicating that a war to the knife will be fought between the Kean and Fowler factions in this city. The Republican Club, in support of Kirk for assemblyman, held a meeting and it is announced that they have engaged a room on the second floor of the Babcock building as headquarters for the campaign. It is rumored about the street that they "have it in" for Andrew McCardell and other leaders of the Fowler faction, including J. T. MacMurray, but McCardell more particularly.

The leaders in the fight in Kirk's behalf are preparing a circular which, it is said, will make its appearance tomorrow night and will contain much that is of interest. It will make a concise presentation of the Kean case in Plainfield and will attempt to explain the aims and methods of the leaders for "home rule." Its purport will be that the Kean people are not trying to take away from Plainfield its proper privileges; they are simply attempting to prevent what they consider is the unwarranted assumption of control in party circles throughout the county as well as in Plainfield by Mr. MacMurray and Mr. McCardell. They assert that these men have been dictating to the county for the past ten years and they declare that this is not just to the part of the county outside of Plainfield.

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

A meeting of the Independent Gun Club will be held this evening at the home of Charles Jensen, on Somerset street.

A meeting of the Retail Clerks' Association will be held this evening at which [time] a photograph will be taken of all the members.

Miantonomo Tribe, No. 118, Improved Order Red Men, will celebrate its fourteenth anniversary next Friday night. The affair will be for members of the tribe and their male friends.

At the meeting of Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., tonight, final arrangements will be made for the visit of the commandery to Atlantic City on Wednesday, when the annual field day will be observed. It is expected that a large number of Plainfielders will make the trip.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Democratic county committee will meet in Elizabeth, tomorrow night, to discuss the business postponed last Friday night on account of the storm.

A rumor that has gained some credence during the past day or two to the effect that Tax Collector Frank H. Smith would not be a candidate for re-election has no foundation in fact, according to Mr. Smith himself.

OVERHEAD WIRES DISFIGURE STREETS

Dangerous Increase Particularly in the Business Section of the Community.

TIME TO TAKE ACTION

UNDERGROUND CONDUCTS FOR ELECTRIC LIGHT AND TELEPHONE WIRES.

What the Ordinance Demands—Places Where Insulation is Poor—Particular Points Where Danger Lurks.

The increasing use of telephones and electric lighting in this city is fast placing the business community in the condition it was before the ordinance went into effect compelling the telephone, telegraph and electric light companies to place their wires underground. Front street, both east and west, is today made unsightly by these wires. The same is true of Park avenue, North avenue and Somerset street.

The ordinance prescribes that all wires for the transmission of electric current be placed in conduits underground in a certain section. The telephone company covers a large part of the business district with its underground conduits but on account of the location of the distributing poles, important business corners are overhung by scores of wires. This condition prevails on such corners as Park avenue and Front street, North and Park avenues, Front and Somerset streets, Front street and Madison avenue. Where this condition occurs tall buildings are located and in case of a fire on the middle floors the firemen would find much difficulty in erecting ladders and valuable time would be lost. Other cities have ignored these conditions until some terrible calamity resulted when it was too late to take action. The fire at Atlantic City and the Windsor Hotel fire are examples.

In time of a severe blow or heavy snow or sleet storm in this city, people's lives are actually endangered by falling electric light wires which are strung on rotten poles in some cases. A recent case is cited where a life was lost in this manner. Electric light wires carrying a potential of 3,000 volts are carried on poles through some of the main streets of the city. These should be placed underground. The insulation, becoming worn off, allows the electricity to escape to the trees, damaging them and in case the wires should fall at any time through the breaking of a pole or during a storm they would be particularly dangerous.

An example of the condition of some of the poles on which the electric wires are carried was shown during a recent storm when a pole in front of H. G. Runkle's home, West Eighth street, fell to the ground, carrying with it some wires charged with high voltages of electricity. The pole proved to be rotten at the base and unfit for use. At a recent meeting of the Common Council, it was reported that the insulation on some of the wires in the City Park was worn off and the electricity escaped during a rain storm, making it dangerous for persons to pass in that locality. It is probable that the insulation is bad on the wires in different parts of the city and in some places the worn coverings hang down in large pieces, making an unsightly appearance.

All these wires in the business districts, it is claimed, should be placed underground and the sooner the better. The distributing poles, instead of being on the corners of prominent streets, it is said, should be in the center of squares and the wires brought into the houses through the rear. It is said that this could be done very cheaply by both the telephone and the electric light companies. In many of the squares in the business blocks it would not even be necessary for the company to purchase a right-of-way because public alleys run from street to street and through these, underground conduits wires could be layed to the distributing poles.

At present the wires of the fire alarm service and the police alarm system are overhead. When the Gamewell system for the police department was put in, the wires were strung underground in some places, but in other places they were run overhead. The constant trouble with the wiring of the fire alarm system through "short circuiting" and "grounds," caused by the wires in contact with the trees in wet weather is an argument in favor of under-

TALK OF SECESSION IN A. O. U. W.

ONLY ONE SECTION OF NEW LAW IN EFFECT IN NEW JERSEY.

Grand Lodge of the State Must Adopt New Rates Before Any Change Can be Effected.

"Members of the Ancient Order of United Workmen," says the Newark Evening News, "continue to discuss the action of the supreme lodge of the order in adopting optional assessment rates for the insurance given to its members. At first the majority of members supposed that they would be compelled to pay according to the new rates as soon as the law was adopted. They now understand, however, that the grand lodge of the State in which they hold membership must first adopt the new rates before any one will be asked to pay amounts different from those of the present time.

"The only part of the new law which went into effect October 1, 1903, is that section relating to the amount to be paid by members each month on account of the guaranty fund. It is said that the total amount to be guaranty fund is $3,500. So far this year only eight assessments have been levied, and the officers have figured that with an assessment for November and one for December, there will be left after all death claims have been paid a balance sufficiently large to take care of the guaranty fund contributions for these two months. This will but increase the cost to the membership.

"It is also figured that the average monthly contribution to the guaranty fund would be thirty-five cents per member in this State. With the present assessment rate continued in this State, and twelve assessments levied per year, it is thought by many that the surplus will be sufficient each month to take care of the State's share of the guaranty fund.

"As in the case of every fraternity when a radical change is attempted or made, some of the members commence to talk about leaving the order. This frequently followed by a threat to organize a new order. The A. O. U. W. in this State is now confronted with this same condition of affairs. A few of the members are talking strongly of starting a new order to compete with the parent organization. It is said that they are endeavoring to have a special session of the grand lodge called."

REPUBLICANS TO MEET IN THE REFORM HALL

City Convention Scheduled to be Held There on Tuesday Night.

MEETING AT ELIZABETH

COUNTY COMMITTEEMEN TO ASSEMBLE HERE TONIGHT.

Much Discussion Provoked by Ernest R. Ackerman's Resolution—Judge Runyon the Man He Aimed At.

The Republican city convention scheduled for Tuesday night will take place in the basement of the Reform Club building in West Second street, it having been selected by Assemblyman Newcorn who was appointed to choose the location. It is expected that the Democrats will hold their convention, which takes place the same time, in the Democratic Club's headquarters on East Second street.

A meeting of the Republican County committee will be held at Elizabeth tonight. The Plainfield members will turn out in force and will be prepared for any hot shot that may be fired at this city by the friends of Senator Kean. There is no particular business for the committee to transact.

Much comment has been caused by the disposal made of the resolution introduced by Ernest Ackerman, of the Third ward, at the last meeting of the local Republican committee. This is the resolution offered by him and tabled after some discussion:

"Whereas, One of the members of this committee, acting as a delegate, together with other Republicans from this city at the last county convention, refused to vote to adopt the platform presented at said convention, and later withdrew from participating in the nominations made at that convention, and whereas, such action caused an uncertainty as to the position that this committee will take in the coming election; therefore, be it resolved, that this committee does hereby heartily endorse the nominations made for assemblymen and coroner at the said County convention, and does hereby call upon all Republicans as well as any independent voters in this city to loyally support and vote for the nominees of said convention, and we do further pledge the active support of this committee to the nominees made at said time."

It is generally believed that City Judge William N. Runyon, a loyal supporter of Congressman Fowler and a close friend of City Clerk James T. MacMurray, is the man who refused to vote for the platform. Runyon and James Morrison are both members of the city committee and were also delegates to the county convention. Both bolted.

SCHOOL GIRL KILLED.

Louise Matthews Struck by An Express at Bound Brook This Morning.

While crossing the tracks of the New Jersey Central at Bound Brook, this morning, Louise Matthews, aged fourteen, was struck by an Easton express and instantly killed. The young girl was on her way to visit her aunt, Mrs. Louise Fisher, proprietor of Fisher's Hotel, and why she did not go through the underground tunnel instead of crossing the tracks is a mystery. The girl had several school books under her arm and these were scattered in all directions. The body was frightfully cut and mangled. She was the daughter of the late E. B. Matthews, for many years agent for the Union News at Bound Brook.

Swackhamer a Spellbinder.

Assemblyman Samuel S. Swackhamer, of North Plainfield, has been engaged by the Democratic committee of Middlesex County to speak at four mass meetings during the present campaign. He will speak at Cranbury, Monmouth Junction, Chambersburg and Metuchen on October 16, 21, 23 and 26.

Plainfield Authors.

Two Plainfield writers, whose first book, "The Frolicsome Four," will doubtless be numbered among the successful "juveniles" of the season, are Miss Edith L. Gilbert and Miss Ariadne Gilbert. The story is brightly told and will please the young folks.

FIREMEN TO CROSS BATS

PLAINFIELD LADDIES TO MEET ELIZABETH FIRE FIGHTERS.

Game on St. Mary's Diamond Tomorrow Afternoon—The Local Lineup.

Plainfield and Elizabeth firemen will meet in baseball tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on St. Mary's grounds for the second game in a series. The first game, played in Elizabeth, was a victory for Plainfield. Captain Burns, of the Brooklyn fire department, will probably umpire. In the Democratic Hall, on East Second street, a dinner will be served at 7 o'clock and a musical entertainment will follow. The committee consists of Frank McCabe, Daniel Force and Theodore LaRue. This is Plainfield's line up: McCabe, c.; Force, (Capt.) p; J. Daly, 1b; W. Townley, 2b; J. Young, ss; E. Townley, 3b; George Hermen, lf; W. Jaegar, cf; T. LaRue, rf.

THIRTIETH REGIMENT REUNION

THE PLAINFIELD VETERANS WHO WILL ATTEND SESSIONS.

Meeting at Somerville—J. Frank Hubbard the Only Surviving Captain.

The Plainfield members who expect to attend the thirteenth annual reunion of the Thirtieth Regiment, New Jersey Volunteers, which will be held tomorrow at Somerville, are these: Captain J. Frank Hubbard, Sergeant Nelson Runyon, Theodore Runyon, Randolph Thorn, J. Lance Mundy, Peter V. Weaver, Corporal David R. Weaver, Theodore Rutan, Samuel Moore, John Stryker, John Giddis and Jacob Manning. During the past year one Plainfield member, Garret Eick, died.

It is expected that this will be one of the best reunions ever held as elaborate arrangements have been made for the gathering. Captain J. Frank Hubbard is the only surviving captain of the regiment.

GEN. O. O. HOWARD TO PUPILS

FAMOUS CIVIL WAR VETERAN MAKES ADDRESS AT HIGH SCHOOL.

Major W. D. W. Miller a Member of His Staff—Sketch of the Man.

Gen. O. O. Howard addressed the pupils of the High School yesterday morning and related to them incidents of his experience in the Civil War, chiefly connected with the battle of Fair Oaks on June 1, 1862. Though shot through the arm, he still led the advance of his troops, until, after two horses had been shot under him, a second shot so shattered his arm that he was obliged to relinquish command. He also referred to his work in founding and supporting the Lincoln Memorial University at Cumberland Gap, Tenn. Gen. Howard spoke simply, often humorously, but always with deep feeling.

Among officers serving with Gen. Howard in the battle were Lieutenant, afterwards Major, W. D. W. Miller, of this city; Col. Brooke, now Major General, and Lieutenant Miles, recently retired as Lieutenant-General. Of the many generals who exercised command of armies in the Civil War, Gen. Howard and Gen. Slocum are the only survivors.

Miss Trowbridge's Funeral.

The funeral services of the late Miss Helena Trowbridge, who died at the home of her niece, Mrs. S. D. Lounsbury, of East Seventh street, Sunday, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. George's Parish House, Astoria, L. I. The interment will be at Astoria.

Successful Contestants.

From nine contestants who entered the competition for leaders in the intermediate department of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon, four were successful: H. Thompson with 82 points, M. Long, 81; M. Dewey, 71; T. Gavett, 78. A further test will be held Monday, November 9, to select the four more leaders necessary.

—A. R. Kellar, of West Seventh street, has received a building permit from Inspector T. O. Doane for erecting an addition to his house to be used for a dining room.

Mrs. Hostetter, of Titusville, Pa., is the guest of Plainfield friends.

FORMER TAX COLLECTOR JOHN JOHNSON DEAD

Eighty-Three Years Old Resident Passes Away at His Daughter's Home.

STORY OF HIS CAREER

FOR A LONG TIME WAS PROMINENT IN POLITICS IN THIS CITY.

Funeral Services Private—To be Held at Home of Andrew Love, Jr.—Interment in the North Plainfield Cemetery.

John Johnson, who for sixteen years was tax collector of this city, died last night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Andrew Love, Jr., on Lincoln place. His death was due to bladder trouble which had weakened him considerably for some time. He had passed the three score years, he having celebrated his eighty-third birthday last month. He was very well known in this city as a prominent Republican.

Surviving Mr. Johnson are two children, Mrs. Andrew Love and Charles Johnson. His wife, Phoebe Hankinson Johnson, died several years ago. He was one of the oldest residents in this city and located here when the town was little more than a village. Born in Hunterdon County, he received his early education in the country schools there and when he graduated taught school there for some time. Later he married and when he was about thirty years of age moved to this city.

The dead man was in charge of the Spicer & Hubbard saw mills, one of the oldest concerns in this city and also of the Pettibone planing mills. He held these positions for years and later was elected city tax collector. This position he held for sixteen years. His successors are James Martin, Postmaster Elias Bird and Frank Smith, respectively. He resigned his position about six years ago.

The funeral services will be private. They will be held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Love, on Lincoln place, at 2:30 Thursday afternoon. The interment will be in the North Plainfield Cemetery where the family plot is located.

RAILROAD VICTIM IS DEAD

WALTER CARPENTER, HIT BY BLUE LINE EXPRESS, EXPIRES IN HOSPITAL.

Resident of Lancaster, Pa.—Fatally Injured at Westfield—Thirty-five Years Old.

Walter Campbell, a young man from Lancaster, Pa., who was struck by a Blue Line flyer on the New Jersey Central at Westfield, last Wednesday, died yesterday afternoon at Muhlenberg Hospital. His injuries consisted of wounds on the head and shoulder. He was struck by the pilot of the engine.

Campbell was employed in New York as a printer. The dead man has no relatives here, but word has been sent to a brother at Lancaster and he will no doubt take charge of the body. Campbell was about thirty-five years old and married.

Masons to Gather.

Anchor lodge, No. 149, F. and A. M., will hold its first communication in the restored lodge room in the Babcock building tonight. The master mason degree will be conferred on three candidates and arrangements have been made for a large attendance. Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., held a conclave in the rooms last night. The rooms are the finest Masonic quarters in the State, no means being spared to complete the elaborate appointments.

Cupid Rings the Bells.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Irene Lemaire, daughter of John J. Lemaire, of Somerset street, to Frank J. Leivers, of South avenue. The wedding will take place November 18.

Bishop of Porto Rico Here.

Bishop VanBuren, of Porto Rico, will give a talk in the parish house of Grace Church, Friday night, telling of the religious work being done in his diocese. The public is invited to attend.

BALDWIN WILL CASE SETTLED

Hugh Baldwin, of This City, Defeated in Attempt to be Made Sole Beneficiary.

$100,000 WAS INVOLVED

FIVE OF THE RELATIVES BENEFITTED BY INTERPRETATION OF COURT.

Estate in Question Was Located on Park Avenue—Alterations in the Will Grounds for Contest—Counsel From This City.

The Mary F. Baldwin $100,000 will case is ended and the Supreme Court has sustained the will as it stood before attempted alterations. Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh represented the will. Former Judge Joseph Orgen, of Elizabeth, and William M. Stillman, of this city, the opposing counsel, represented Hugh J. Baldwin, of this city, the son of the testatrix, who wished the will so interpreted that he should be sole beneficiary. Under the court's decree, the beneficiaries are, in addition to the son, Hugh Baldwin, five of Mrs. Baldwin's own relatives, including her sister and her aunt who had lived with her for many years. The court directed that letters testamentary be issued to Henry C. Niles and William B. Wadsworth, the executors. Mrs. Baldwin lived on Park avenue.

The only grounds for contest were concerning the effect of some alterations appearing in the will, which the evidence showed were all in the handwriting of Mrs. Baldwin and made after the will had been regularly executed. The decree of the court establishes the will as originally executed. In a case of this sort it is said in explanation that the law allows a testator to cancel a legacy or to cancel a whole will, but alterations can be made only by a codicil or a new will, witnessed as the law required the original will to be witnessed.

AS TO THE FRIDAY NIGHT CLUB

REORGANIZATION OF POPULAR ASSOCIATION MAY BE EFFECTED.

No Definite Steps Yet Taken—Leading Spirit Last Season Has Removed.

With the approach of winter a movement is on foot among some of the society folk to reorganize the popular Friday Night Club which constituted one of the leading social affairs at the Casino last season. Up to the present time nothing has been done as far as meetings are concerned but a few of the committee on organization, who did much to make the club a success last season, are endeavoring to revive interest in the association for the present season.

G. Herbert Taylor, who introduced the plan in this city last season, has removed to Philadelphia. Thomas R. VanBoskerck said last evening that it is very probable that a reorganization would be effected. He said that no committee had been appointed so far and that no meetings had been held but that there was some talk of reorganizing for this winter. The committee which organized the club last season was composed of Mrs. Daniel Ginna, Miss Huntington, Miss Edith Gilbert, Miss Maud VanBoskerck, Thomas R. VanBoskerck, Evarts Tracy and G. Herbert Taylor, treasurer. It is possible that some of those on last season's committee will be named on the committee of reorganization this year.

Every meeting last season was enjoyable and the Casino was filled to its capacity. The organization met each Friday night at the Casino when such games as ping pong, badminton, bowling, cards, billiards and pool were played. The membership, it is said, will be limited to 100 and only Plainfield people will be eligible.

Miss Crane's Wedding.

Miss Grace Agnes Crane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Uzal B. Crane, of this city, and Hugh Morgan Smith, of Westfield, will be married on Thursday evening, October 15, at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, No. 315 East Second street.

Swackhamer to Talk.

Assemblyman Samuel S. Swackhamer, of North Plainfield, has been asked to address the Democratic county convention at Elizabeth, Thursday evening, Oct. 15, at which time three assemblymen and one coroner will be nominated.

LARGE AUDIENCE AT ENTERTAINMENT

Initial Attraction in the Star Course Series Witnessed by Enthusiastic Audience.

PARTIALLY MEDIOCRE

DRAMATIC EXPRESSIONIST NOT A SUCCESS AT THE ART.

Soprano Soloist, Violinist, Basso and Accompanist, Skillful Artists—The Numbers on the Programme.

A crowded house greeted the Mendelssohn Club, of New York, last night, in the first of the series of entertainments in the Star Course at the Y. M. C. A. The performers were Miss Charlotte M. Miller, soprano; Miss Ruby G. Braun, violinist; Douglas Lane, basso; Robin Ellis, dramatic expressionist, and Florence D. Cuyler, accompanist.

The character and quality of the entertainment evidently pleased the audience, for enthusiastic encores followed almost every number. Miss Braun, violinist, and Miss Miller, soprano, were the favorites, and the work of each was satisfying.

Mr. Ellis, the "dramatic expressionist," as the programme described him, was pleasing in at least one of his renderings and that was the reading of a letter in a rich Irish brogue and brimful of Irish "bulls." His attempt at the Scotch dialect was not so successful, however, and when he essayed to recite poetry, that was truly poetical in thought, he was decidedly out of his element. His gestures were supernumerous and often meaningless; his expression woodeny. Mr. Ellis was never "cut out" for a poet or for poetic interpretation, and the performance would have benefitted much had he appreciated that fact and confined himself to selections in the Irish dialect in which he was really clever.

The evening's entertainment was none the less enjoyable and made an interesting opening of the work of the season. The programme follows:

Duet, Amore, Pinsuiti, Miss Charlotte Daude Miller and Douglas Lane; reading, "The Bishop and the Caterpillar," specially arranged by Robin Ellis, Robin Ellis; violin solo, Faust Fantasie, Sarasate, Ruby Gerard Braun; bass solo, The Soldier's Song, Mascheroni, Mr. Lane; soprano solo, (a.) Extasi, Wieniawski, (b.) Fairy Lullaby, Beach, (c.) Jennie, Pepper, Miss Miller; reading, (a.) Young Lochinvar, Scott-Hawley, (b.) The Birth of the Opal, Wilcox-Hawley, Mr. Ellis; violin solo, Hungarian Idyl, Keller Bela, Miss Braun; bass solo, "Vulcan Song," (from Philemon and Baucis), Gounod, Mr. Lane; soprano solo, "O Jugend wei bist du so schon," Abt., Miss Miller; humorous recitation, The Pig in Bed, Scotch, Mr. Ellis.

What Drink Does.

James Welsh, of Plainfield, while visiting at Westfield on Saturday evening indulged in the flowing bowl to such an extent that he pushed up against an Italian vender's peanut stand, upsetting the pushcart. Welsh and the Italian had some words, when Policeman John Knapp came along and placed Welsh under arrest. After spending the night at the lockup Welsh was discharged. H. Lewis, an old soldier, who claimed Plainfield as his home, was arrested on Saturday night at Westfield, for being intoxicated. Lewis was bothering a resident of Ross place, who, finding the man upon his porch, sent for an officer. Policeman Knapp took Lewis to the lockup. After sobering up the old soldier was given his liberty.

To Be Bridesmaid.

Miss Adele H. Kirby, of Grandview avenue, will be one of six bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Edith Acken Dorrance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Dorrance, of New York, to Herbert Bradley Sexton, also of New York, which will take place at the West End Collegiate Church, New York, on Tuesday evening, October 27.

George Mantz's Wedding.

The wedding of George Mantz and Miss Elizabeth Harris, will take place tomorrow evening at the bride's home, 126 Grand street, Rahway, at 7 o'clock. A large number of people from this city will attend the ceremony.

Patching Up Cars.

A few of the closed trolley cars on the local lines have been overhauled, repainted a bright yellow and otherwise put in better condition for the winter's service.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

Your dinner will be much more of a success if you buy your meat of J. W. VanSickle, of North avenue.

For fish or oysters there is but one place to go and that is Jerry Foss's seafood market on Park avenue.

The union man and the union made cigar are inseparable. Buy your cigars at H. Eggerding's store, Park avenue.

It is a surprising fact that Seed plates give uniform satisfaction at all times. For sale at F. VanWinkle's, North avenue.

Whenever you desire anything in the line of choice drugs or medicinal or toilet articles, go to C. M. Nagle's West Front street.

Purity in milk is essential to health. Nothing but cleanliness and absolute purity are tolerated in the Lindsay dairy on Mountain avenue. Their cream is made with a patent separator. Call telephone 2511.

J. Hervey Doane, the Park avenue jeweler, is showing an exceptional line of jewelry, silver and goldware and many articles suitable for wedding presents. He will be pleased to have you call and inspect these goods.

For hardware of all kinds the H. E. Gayle Hardware Company is headquarters. You will find the quality of the goods the best and the prices reasonable. Before you select a parlor stove or kitchen range inspect the stock at this store.

The success attending the opening of Roth & Co's. new meat market on East Front street, is the talk of the town. The firm is well pleased with the patronage accorded and will continue to give the best meats, fish and poultry at the lowest market prices.

Poor electrical wiring is far worse than none. Have it done right by placing your contract with W. H. Pope, North avenue. With the thorough experience he has had in wiring large buildings, Mr. Pope is thoroughly competent to figure on any kind of work.

If you need a new suit of clothes and business is not such that you feel as though you could afford to pay a large sum out at once, visit the up-to-date clothing parlors of the People's Credit Company, on East Front street. They can please you on styles and in the manner of payments.

The recent change in the weather necessitates heavier clothing and M. Weinberger, the West Front street clothier, is now prepared to see his patrons and give them the best values in clothing for men and boys. The goods represent the best quality, workmanship and are sold at very low prices.

If Charles Conover & Co., the painters and decorators, do your work, you will never have any reason to complain. All work is done in a first-class manner and only the best materials are used. The firm carries one of the finest lines of wall papers in the State and it will be a pleasure to show you these designs.

I. H. Boehm announces that during the alterations at his store on West Front street special bargains will be offered. The sale has been going on for some time and will be in force for several weeks longer, during which time great bargains will be offered in order to make room for new stock which has been ordered.

AMUSEMENTS.

E. H. Sothern opens the new Empire Theatre, Broadway and Fortieth street, tonight, in "The Proud Prince." The fame of the piece reached New York ahead of the company and a great reception is expected to be given it as the remodeled play house tonight. The interior arrangements and decorations of the theatre are the subject of much favorable comment.

"Babes in Toyland" opens tonight at the Majestic Theatre. It is a new musical extravaganza by Hamlin & Mitchell with William Norris and his company of fifteen in the roles. Victor Herbert is the composer of the catchy music.

Richard Mansfield in "Old Heidelberg" is the attraction at the Lyric this week. The name of Mansfield, the dean of American actors, is sufficient guarantee that the play will be witnessed by crowded houses and it would be well for Plainfielders to order seats in advance.

—The effect of the flood at Stirling, N. J., Saturday, was still felt yesterday when the employes of the silk mill were taken to the factory in row boats. Much damage was done to some of the stock in the mill which was stored in the basement. The streets were still a foot under water yesterday morning.

Mr. Robert Love, of 44 Duer street, member of the firm of Love Brothers, grocers, of 257 West Front street, says: "I suffered from kidney complaint for eight or nine years—pain across the back and a lameness over the kidneys. Cold always settled there and aggravated it. At last my back grew weaker and any heavy lifting or too much standing or sitting gave me additional pain. In the morning my back bothered me greatly until I moved about and took some exercise, when it became better to a certain extent. I doctored and used different kinds of so-called kidney cures but it was throwing money away. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended in our papers, and, being in bad shape at the time, I got a box from L. W. Randolph's drug store. Before taking half of it my condition was greatly improved, and, continuing their use, all the pain left me."

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Adolph Koehler, of the Potter Press Company's plant, is detained at home by illness.

The International Association of Machinists held a meeting last night for the regular monthly discussion of business.

Word has been received from John Barrowman, who recently resigned from the Potter plant to take up a course of phrenology at a New York institution.

The Bethlehem Steel Company has reduced the wages of its blast furnace workmen 10 per cent., to take effect at once. More than 800 men are affected by the reduction.

William O'Laughlin, of West Second street, who was injured at the Potter Press Company's plant, is speedily recovering. He will be able to resume work within a week.

The great Morse Iron Works and Dry Dock Company, which closed its gates last Monday, was highly prosperous one year ago, when it employed 30,00 workmen. Strikes ruined it.

Because the officials at Zion City attempted to place a Dowieite as foreman in the stereotyping plant of the publication house, four experts in that department "fixed" the machines so that inexperienced workmen could not handle them.

By order of President Nuraburgerin Chicago about 1,000 type founders in New York, San Francisco, Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Philadelphia and Boston have struck for union recognition. The employers' strike headquarters will be in Jersey City, at the factory of the American Type Founders' Company. Robert W. Nelson, president of that company, will be in charge of the employers' side.

The United States Commission of Labor, in his sixteenth annual report, gave the following statistics of strikes for the previous 20-yeard period: Number of strikes, 23,793; ordered by organization, 14,457; not ordered by organization, 8,339; number of establishments, 117,509; number closed, 77,344; aggregate days closed, 1,549,934; average days closed, 20; days until strikers were re-employed or places filled by others, 2,789,160; average, 23; establishments in which strikes succeeded, 59,638; partly succeeded, 15,935; failed, 42,509; employes' wage loss, $257,863,478; assistance given, $16,174,793; employers' loss, $132,731,121; employed before strikes, 9,779,574; strikers, 4,694,849; thrown out of work, 6,105,694; new employes' after strike, 586,557; imported, 214,455.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bennett, of Rahway, have been visiting relatives in Plainfield for a few days.

Willis Smith, of Watchung avenue, who is a student this year at the Albany law school, visited relatives in this city Sunday.

IN TUXEDO VALLEY

Bursting Dam Threatens Danger to Suffern.

HUNDREDS HURRIEDLY TOOK REFUGE

Town of Ramapo Reported Swept Away by the Flood—Inhabitants Said to Be Prisoners on River Bank Opposite Town.

SUFFERN, N. Y., Oct. 13.—Millions of gallons of water have burst through the Tuxedo dam and, rushing down the Ramapo valley, swept the town of Ramapo away. This town is in imminent danger, as the entire bursting of the dam would mean that the great wall of water would sweep down this way. The people of Suffern are in a state bordering on panic. Those who can have fled from the city, but hundreds of families are unable to flee. The few trains that are able to run over the broken roadbeds and weakened bridges are moving so irregularly that they are of no service whatever.

The Ramapo people are now practically prisoners on the opposite side of the river.

So strong is the current that boats cannot live in the stream, and the refugees are cut off from the world. Scores of women and children can be seen from here. They are standing on a rise that overlooks the river, huddled together.

Suffern is in direct line for the water should there be a complete breaking of the dam. At present part of the dam is standing, and the water is rushing over it and eating it down fast. So great is the danger that men cannot be had who will attempt to stop the flow of water. Bags of sand have been thrown in the opening, but they have been swept away. About 1,000 men laden with bags of sand are at work on the dam.

The first breaking of the dam came with a great noise like an explosion. A great wall of water rushed down the valley.

The bursting of the dam may, it is thought, so raise the waters of the Ramapo river as to do incalculable damage to the great estates of New York's millionaires which lie along the course of the stream between Ramapo and Pompton, N. J.

At the end of the valley, just above Pompton lake, lie the Oakland Cap and Powder works. They are on low ground, receiving their power from the Ramapo river, and must be entirely submerged by any great rise of water.

RESCUES AT PATERSON.

Many Were Saved by Life Rope Guns.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Fire Commissioner Sturgis received a letter from Mayor Hinchliffe of Paterson, N. J., thanking him for the loan of a New York city fire department life line gun. The letter informed Mr. Sturgis that with the breeches buoy successfully manipulated by means of the gun many lives had been saved which otherwise must have been lost in the flood which raged in Paterson.

While the storm was at its worst, the water rising and hundreds cut off, steam launches proved inefficient against the swift currents, and attempts at rescue in them were very dangerous for the rescuers.

Then Mayor Hinchliffe thought of the life rope guns used by the New York fire department. He communicated with Mr. Sturgis by telephone and received the latter's quick permission to borrow one of the implements.

By means of it ropes were hurled across the waters in Paterson to second and even third story windows. On the ropes, made fast over window sills, women and children and men were swung to safety.

Trains Are Running Again.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 13.—Travel was resumed over the Amboy division of the Pennsylvania railroad, the washouts having been repaired. A train was run over the Belvidere division from this city as far as Titusville, but could get no farther on account of the bad condition of the tracks. It is believed that it will be two or three days before travel over the Belvidere division is fully restored.

A Victim of the Flood.

HACKENSACK, N. J., Oct. 13.—The body of an unidentified man who is supposed to have been a victim of the flood was found on the east side of the Passaic river at Fairlawn. The freeholders estimate that the loss on bridges alone in Bergen county by the flood will reach $750,000. Eight bridges on the Passaic river and at Oradell, on the Hackensack, and many culverts are gone.

May Be Miss Zimmerman.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Captain Henry Zimmerman of 240 South street, Elizabeth, N. J., believes that the woman who committed suicide from the ferryboat Uncas near the Elizabethport slip was his daughter Elizabeth, nineteen years old. Miss Zimmerman is known to have boarded the Uncas, and she has not since returned to her home. Grief over the loss of her sister, of whom she was very fond and who died a year ago, is thought to have unsettled her mind. She has been despondent ever since her death.

Soldiers Held by Civil Authorities.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 13.—The jury sitting in the inquest on the body of Crowley, shot by Sentinel Dowd, handed in their verdict recommending that Private Dowd and Lieutenant Drury be held for the shooting. They were taken before Judge Shafer and released on $5,000 bail each. United States Assistant District Attorney Miller gave bond for both.

MANY SHIPWRECKS.

Oracle Founders, Carrying Down Captain and Crew.

THE MABEL ROSE AND HOLDEN LOST

Caught in the Storms Off the Virginia-Carolina Coast—Surfmen Take Off Crews With Life Lines.

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 13. — Two schooners and one barge in addition to those reported have been lost off the Virginia-Carolina coast, and five men are known to have been drowned. Three large schooners are missing.

The tug Buccaneer, Captain Joseph Lane, reports that the barge Oracle foundered off Cape Henry, with Captain Cookson, her cook and three seamen. Off Hog island the storm struck her, and the barge, with her crew, went down. The tug could not approach the barge in the frightful sea running and was forced to come in here for safety.

Observer A. W. Drinkwater of the Currituck station reached Norfolk by the inland route and reports the loss of the schooners Mabel Rose and J. W. Holden.

The Mabel Rose left here for New York with lumber. She passed out the capes and was caught in the storm off the eastern shore of Virginia. The vessel was blown down the coast and became waterlogged. Captain Walton and his crew took to the fore rigging and remained until the boom broke, compelling their retreat. The eight men crawled under the after quarter-deck and lashed themselves. When the Rose struck the beach the life savers tried to get a shot line to the vessel, but darkness prevented, and the attempt had to be abandoned until morning. The life savers then succeeded in shooting a line across the wreck, and within eighteen minutes after the first man had been started ashore from the Rose all were on the beach in safety.

The Mabel Rose and her cargo were uninsured and will be a total loss. It is estimated that the cargo of lumber carried by the Mabel Rose from Norfolk was worth more than $60,000. The three masted schooner J. B. Holden of Suffolk is ashore near False cape, Virginia, and is a total loss. Her captain, W. O. Cranmer of Suffolk, and her crew were taken off by the life savers. An attempt to save a portion of her cargo of lumber will be made.

The ocean going tugs accustomed to stand off Cape Henry awaiting the arrival of Baltimore bound schooners were unable to withstand the storm and came in here. They report that the schooners Isabella Gill, Mary Lee Patton and Jennie Thomas, bound from the south for Baltimore, are not accounted for.

CHIQUITA SERIOUSLY ILL.

Mexican Midget May Not Survive Cæsarian Operation.

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 13.—Chiquita, the Mexican midget who was married two years ago to Anthony Woeckner of this city, is in a critical condition here following a cæsarian operation. The operation was decided to be the only possible means of saving the life of the tiny woman, who is only twenty-six inches tall. Scientists and medical men had awaited the expected maternity of Chiquita with much interest.

Until she was wooed and won by young Woeckner, who is of normal stature, Chiquita was exhibited all over the country. It is believed that she is the smallest perfectly developed woman in the world.

Newsboys' Home Fraud.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Oct. 13.—A warrant was issued here for the Rev. Harry McKnight, who represents himself to be the secretary of the National Newsboys' association, charging him with grand larceny. McKnight has disappeared. He turned up here six weeks ago, rented a building and canvassed the city for funds for the establishment of a local branch of the National Newsboys' home. After disposing of a number of tickets of admission to a wild west show which he advertised extensively McKnight, according to the charge sworn out against him, sold all the furniture in the building he had leased and fled with the proceeds.

Moose Go Back to Canada.

MALONE, N. Y., Oct. 13.—A big cow moose was seen in Westville near the place where the bull moose was recently shot. This makes three that have been seen in that vicinity near the Canadian woods, and it is believed to indicate that the attempt to stock the Adirondacks with these animals from Canada is a doubtful experiment, as they have all taken the same trail to Canada that their ancestors did seventy-five years ago.

Goulds' Gift to Railway Y. M. C. A.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 13.—Miss Helen Gould and her brother, Frank J. Gould, of New York have given the local branch of the Street Railway Young Men's Christian association $5,000, which it is proposed to apply to the improvement and equipment of a clubhouse for the street railway men.

Jeff Davis Was His Prisoner.

HUTCHINSON, Kan., Oct. 13.—Captain S. I. Stauber, who was first lieutenant in charge of the troop of Michigan cavalry that captured Jefferson Davis, is dead at his home here.

San Antonio Quieted Down.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 13.—Everything is quiet here now. There has been no further rioting, and all cars are running with the exception of those on a small line.

Won't England seem tame to those honourables.

Plainfield extends sympahty to its sister municipalities in the State which suffered from the heavy rains.

The heavy rains have had no effect on the Bill Devery side show for the "pump" was kept working continually.

James F. Metcalfe, of Life, is a Tammany candidate for Assembly, but he is not the only funny man on the tiger ticket. There's Grout.

George B. McClellan says that he will speak to the voters in four languages. Low thinks the English tongue contains enough epithets.

Two attempts to commit suicide in the police station recently illustrates the baneful influence of strong drink. Intoxicating liquor is responsible for more than half of the world's woes.

A New York priest appeals to the Irishmen to stay at home. As the hustling son of Erin runs pretty much the whole earth at present, we wish the clergyman would be more definite in his pleadings.

Gangs of workmen are placing coal for ballast purposes on the Newark branch of the Erie road, the washouts having been particularly severe along that line. Just wait until there's another storm and watch the washout.

Open trolley cars are the forerunner of a big harvest for druggist, doctor and undertaker. This fact is not pleasant for the general public, though the Public Service Corporation doesn't seem to mind, judging from the way it continues these pneumonia agencies.

"Good advertising, the right kind," says an exchange, "actually costs nothing. When you advertise in the right way, your competitors, who do not advertise, skillfully or effectually, pay for it. Then the customers of the advertiser also pay for it, and in the end the good-will can be sold for as much more than all the advertising costs."

Harvard is the first of the "big four" to be scored against in the contests on the gridiron this fall, Yale, Princeton and Pennsylvania not having had their goal lines crossed by opponents. Pennsylvania has rolled up the highest number of points, while Yale is second and Princeton third. Coaches and critics are all at sea, however, over the probable outcome of the season.

It is really amusing to read the views expressed by the Elizabeth papers on the political situation in the Republican ranks here. The people down at the county seat are a misguided lot and they'll realize that fact on election day. Secret meetings of the two factions here doesn't look much like harmony. The woods are full of boxers and they don't represent a single faction either.

As General O. O. Howard pointed out in his address at the Crescent Avenue Church on Sunday, there is a great work to be done among the mountain whites in Kentucky. There are plenty of devoted Christian workers anxious to undertake the task of spreading education and religious light among these simple folk, but financial aid is imperative. Crime will continue among the mountain whites until they are brought to a higher level in civilization and it is the duty of the more fortunate people to contribute towards this noble work.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

"Method and Spirit" will be the topic of the mid-week prayer service at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, tomorrow night.

The last two days of the Feast of the Tabernacles are being celebrated by local Hebrews by morning, afternoon and evening services.

The Woman's Home Mission Society, of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, will meet in the church parlors Friday afternoon for sewing.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, of Orange, who is to occupy the First Baptist Church pulpit for an indefinite time, will also have charge of the mid-week prayer meetings.

The Sunshine Mission Band, of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, will hold its first meeting for the season in the church parlors tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The subject will be "Persia."

The Boys' Mission Band, of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, will hold its first fall meeting in the church parlors on Friday afternoon. Important business will be considered and a full attendance is desired.

The thirteenth annual convention of the Elizabeth District Epworth League will be held in the First M. E. Church next Thursday, commencing at 10 o'clock in the morning. There will be afternoon and evening sessions.

The first session of the Normal Bible Class was held at the First Baptist Church Sunday-school on Sunday and promises to be a success. From this class teachers will be chosen as needed, after the members become fitted for that work.

A picture of Rev. Dr. Henry K. Carroll, of Westervelt avenue, appears in this morning's Tribune in connection with an article on the great missionary convention of the Methodist Episcopal Church now in session in Philadelphia. Dr. Carroll is assistant secretary of the Methodist Missionary Society.

The committee from the First Baptist Church, whose duty it is to select a successor to Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes, has resumed its work after naturally quiet summer season. Last Sunday a portion of the committee visited in the vicinity of Boston, while recently others of the committee have been on a trip to the South. It is stated that the members of the committee have not come to any decision as to who they will recommend.

The twelve living members of the First Baptist Church who were members when Dr. David J. Yerkes first joined the church in 1868, presented the Sunday-school with an excellent portrait of the pastor-emeritus last Sunday afternoon. O. B. Leonard made the presentation speech and George H. Batchelor, superintendent, accepted in behalf of the Sunday-school. The portrait has been hung in the Sunday-school rooms.

The twenty-sixth annual meeting of the Woman's Synodical Society of Home and Foreign Missions, in the Synod of N. J., will be held in the Prospect Street Church, Trenton, on Thursday. Devotional meeting, at 9 a. m. Annual meeting, at 9:30. Addresses will be made by Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D. D., of New York, and Mrs. Ella Boole, corresponding secretary of the Woman's Board of Home Missions. The foreign session will open at 1:45. There will be a conference led by Mrs. Crane and Miss Allen, of Elizabeth, also an address by Dr. George Alexander, of New York. Delegates wishing entertainment over night, will correspond with Mrs. Walter A. Brooks, Spring street, Trenton. Trains leave Plainfield at 7:44 and 8:44. Returning, leave Trenton at 5:30. Get off at Prospect Street station, after changing cars at Trenton Junction.

PERSONAL.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Miller and daughter, Miss Grace Miller, of Clinton, Iowa, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Miller's sisters, Miss Grace T. Johnson and Mrs. Sarah A. Randolph, 108 Duer street.

Dr. W. L. Russell, recently appointed expert medical examiner for the New York State Insane Asylums, has been spending a few days with his father-in-law, Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis, of West Seventh street. Dr. Russell's new home will be at Poughkeepsie.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN.

The two men who were arrested for stealing chickens were given a short hearing this morning and then transferred to New Brunswick. It was reported today that the negro, who made the complaint, was also implicated. The case will be sifted thoroughly.

The long-looked for tower for the new fire bell has arrived, and the foundation for same is now being dug. The work will be hurried along and as the bell is already here, the old hoop will no doubt be discharged soon.

The house wives about town are complaining of the plague of tramps which have infested the borough. There have not been so many seen around in years. An anti-tramp movement is being seriously considered.

Our football team which appeared to be very promising, has suddenly disappeared. There is certainly plenty of good material for a team, and all that is necessary is for a hustle to take hold of the matter.

During the past week when our electric lights about town were most needed, they were, as usual out. It seems as though they do not do well unless the moon is out.

The funeral of Miss Francis Hayes will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from her late home on New Market road. Friends and relatives are invited.

The bi-monthly meeting of the Foresters was held last evening in Apgar's Hall. A number of candidates for membership were initiated.

At a high mass tomorrow morning at St. John's Church, Miss Annie Eganey, of this place, will be married to William Stein, of Lincoln.

The disabling of the bridge at Easton has put a stop to the running of coal, and but one or two trains ran through town yesterday.

Robert Malby has returned to his home in Newark, after visiting old friends in the borough for a few days.

Earnest Peters has finished installing electric lights in the store of our new butcher, on North avenue.

The flag walks on Prospect avenue are being laid rapidly on both sides of the street.

Mrs. Bernard Siriski has returned from a few days' visit with friends in Raritan.

Mrs. James Dumphy is visiting friends in Vineland, this week.

Henry Case is the latest owner of an automobile around town.

NEW MARKET.

Michael Reidy has returned to work at Greenbrook tanks after being laid up for a number of weeks with injuries received while crossing the Lehigh Valley crossing at West Dunellen.

Charles Kelley has made quite a reputation as a billiard player and will play some important match games with some of the best skill in this section in the near future.

George Schomp, who has been visiting his son, Victor Schomp, for the past few weeks, has left for Porto Rico, where he will spend the winter months.

The new coal dump which the Lehigh Valley has been constructing for O. T. Rogers & Co., is completed.

Charles Rogers, Jr., has recovered from a slight illness.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The Billy Sullivan Association held its postponed clam bake and outing at Earle's pavilion yesterday afternoon from 4 to 10. Guests were present from Plainfield, Rahway, Elizabeth and the village.

Fanwood Council, R. A., hold its semi monthly meeting in the Library rooms tonight. A full attendance is desired as business of importance will be transacted.

Mrs. Charles Grant, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Paff, Sr., has returned to her home in Plainfield.

Fred Johanson, who returned to work last week, after an illness of two weeks, has suffered a relapse, and is again confined to his home.

The fans are hoping for a pleasant day Saturday so that they may enjoy one more game of ball before the closing of the local season.

The heavy winds during the storm of last week cleaned the hickory and chestnuts pretty well from the trees.

Rev. G. M. Shott was in New York, Monday, attending the weekly ministers' conference meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel MacCauley were the guests, Sunday, of relatives in Plainfield.

Miss Evelyn Buckley, of Plainfield, has been visiting her aunt, Miss Susie L. Parse.

John G. Cook has rented his Westfield avenue property to a Westfield party.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

The State Christian Endeavor convention will be held in Orange on Thursday and Friday of this week. It is probable that one or more delegates from here will attend.

Mrs. May Randolph was received Sunday as a member of the Baptist Church by letter from the Baptist Church of Piscataway.

Rufus Delafield is putting in a driven well on his chicken farm, to be operated by a gasoline engine.

The work of repairing and painting the Baptist Church is nearly finished. The improvement is noticable.

James H. Cubberley, after a visit of a few weeks in Los Angeles, Cal., returned home Sunday.

ground conduits for this important system.

Underground wiring is the cheapest and best plan and the constant expense of keeping a large force of men at work repairing the insulation and repair gangs which are necessary after each storm to repair the broken and disabled lines, would be practically done away with.

Distributing poles are placed in the center of squares in cities where the telephone company has put in the conduit system. In New York and other cities this is enforced by ordinance. It should be enforced here.

WORLD OF SPORT.

Astarita Won at Brighton—Records Made at Worth.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Sidney C. Love, coupled with Huzzah, as the Stutte & Arthur entry won the fourth race at Worth, a handicap, and equaled the track record of 1:43 3-5. Major Tenny, the favorite, was second and Nitrate third. Sidney C. Love set the pace and finished in the lead by two lengths with plenty in reserve. In the first race Tokalon equaled the track record. The third race, at a mile and a sixteenth, was won in a romp by Our Bessie. She covered the distance in 1:46 flat, which equals the track record.

Gray Gem In Charge of Police.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 13.—Gray Gem and his driver and owner, W. B. McDonald, were suspended by the judges here for one year after Gray Gem had won the fifth heat of the 2:18 trot, with Scott Hudson in the sulky. Gray Gem had won the first two heats of the race and lost the third and fourth heats to Gracie Kellar. Gray Gem was placed in charge of a policeman. Billy Buck broke a stake record to win the Walnuthall farm cup, $3,000, in 2:07¾.

Basket Ball Players Meet.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—At the annual meeting of the Intercollegiate Basket Ball association here the league was named to consist of Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Pennsylvania, Cornell and Columbia. Officers elected: President, V. H. A. Fisher of Columbia; vice president, F. C. Pitcher of Cornell; treasurer, R. J. Wood of Harvard.

Astarita Won at Brighton.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The Ripple handicap, the feature of the opening day of the Brighton Beach Racing association, was won in a hard fought finish by the favorite, Astarita, with Rostand second and Young Henry third. Astarita jumped away in front and, making all the pace, won by a length.

Nationals Beaten at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—The Nationals ran bases poorly and were unable to hit Owen and lost their fifth game of the series to the Americans, who hit Taylor rather freely. The score: Nationals, 2; Americans, 4. Batteries—Taylor and Kling; Owen and Sullivan.

Dan McKenna Won by a Nose.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 13.—Dan McKenna won the feature at the fair grounds. M. Beaucaire, the heavily played second choice, was a nose behind McKenna. The latter led the entire distance, lasting just long enough to stall off M. Beaucaire's rush.

ANARCHY AT SAN JUAN.

American Residents Demand Punishment of the Rioters.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Oct. 13.—Governor Hunt has returned from Ponce, where he attended a banquet in celebration of the extension of American railways in the island. He was everywhere received with demonstrations of confidence and esteem. During the governor's absence the anti-American socialists and anarchists had a clash with the police on the plaza of this city. Forty arrests were made, and many of the prisoners were convicted and sentenced to six months' imprisonment, including the anarchist, Conde, who was recently convicted of insulting the American flag.

The clash was due to the socialists, who attacked the police. The latter ordered the mob to disperse, and on meeting with a refusal they used their clubs freely.

Americans here are particularly incensed at the carrying of black and red flags and a craped American flag by a mob as an incitement to disorder. Conde delivered a very offensive harangue, in which he approved of the mob resorting to bloodshed if necessary.

The Americans demand the punishment of all the dangerous socialists and are overwhelming Governor Hunt with assurances of support in a vigorous campaign to uphold law and order. They urge that an immediate death blow be given to anarchy here.

Millionaire Dies In Poverty.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 13. — Thomas Murray, until a few years ago rated a millionaire and who made most of his fortune in dealing in secondhand goods, has died in a shack in the southern part of the city. Murray, who had lived in Omaha for fifty years, was a bachelor and was famous for his peculiarities and eccentricities. He built the first six story brick building in the city, for which he burned his own brick and was twelve years in its building. His second store, which was known as the Old Curiosity shop, contained almost everything known to junk lore. A great deal of his fortune was lost in real estate.

A Deer Cost $200.

MALONE, N. Y., Oct. 13.—Game Protectors Selkirk and Vosburgh arrested John Soper of Malone and another man for hounding deer at Elkbow pond, near Loon lake. They were caught just after a deer had been shot and when they were carrying it from the boat to the bank. Soper had a guide and two dogs. The prisoners settled by paying $100 each.

Will Recall the Bill.

SANTO DOMINGO, Oct. 13.—The Dominican government has informed United States Minister Powell that in view of his protest it will recall the bill now before congress providing for the neutrality of Dominican waters and declaring certain harbors to be free ports.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad
Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors
BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.
BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.
LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW
BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER, AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.
BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.
LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT
BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.
BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

THE NEW WOMAN

She Is Doing Things

YESTERDAY I met a dear old lady, seventy-eight years of age. She belongs to a political club of women, and a day or two before I saw her she had been at a meeting to help decide what action her organization should take in the coming municipal campaign in New York city. Before that she had been with her daughter down at Coney Island for a little lark, and a few weeks ago she went up Long Island sound on a steamer excursion, an all day trip, from which she returned somewhat tired, but full of life and red blooded interest in up to date things. Until yesterday I had not seen this new woman of seventy-eight for some months. The last time we met she seemed to me to look aged and sallow. She was not then in good health. This time she was better and stronger, but the improved health did not sufficiently account for her improved looks. She seemed now fifteen years younger. Her complexion was fair; her clear, pretty blue eyes were girlish in their brightness. Then I noticed her dress. Yesterday she wore a light colored skirt and a white shirt waist with neat up to date neckwear. The last time I had seen her she was dressed in the dull black so much affected by old ladies. The difference in her looks was caused by the difference in her dress. If elderly women deliberately tried to disfigure themselves and add a decade or two to their appearance they could not do it more effectually than by rigging themselves out in the rusty black togs which most of them, rich or poor, wear habitually. The duller and more wrinkled a woman's complexion becomes the more she should shun black clothing, which exaggerates every defect of the skin—that is, unless she has arrived at that hopeless, thoroughly unwomanly stage where she does not care how she looks.

Here is a good story of a gifted young new woman: Alice Beach McComas, the pianiste, was playing at a concert in Blue Earth, Minn., when in the midst of the music a terrific thunderstorm suddenly swept over the place. The storm area covered the whole section of country and was accompanied by a tornado that in some localities knocked down buildings, killing several persons. Wind, thunder, lightning and rain burst upon the hall where Miss McComas was at the piano, but she played on. Crash after crash of thunder shook the building, the electric lights went out, but the girl played calmly on in the darkness that was only illuminated by the lightning flashes. Persons in the audience were badly frightened, but not Miss McComas. In the darkness, without being able to see a note, the storm raging like a thousand demons, she played on and calmed and held the excited audience till the tempest ceased. It was a splendid exhibition of womanly nerve and cool headedness.

Many people's idea of a friend is some one who will listen to them while they talk about themselves.

Blessed be the woman who does things and makes no fuss about it.

The pretty, healthful and comfortable fashion of going about without hats has prevailed among women more extensively than ever the past summer, to the great benefit of their hair. In the country recently I noted some young ladies who gave their heads a rest by braiding their hair and letting it hang down the back all day. The injunction of Paul against uncovered heads among oriental women has no application fortunately to Christian women of western nations. Women in our time do not go to church to "prophesy." They go to hear sermons, and they listen to these all the more devoutly for having their heads cool and comfortable. May the bareheaded habit become permanently established among our sex!

Say to yourself continually, All mankind are my friends and I am their friend.

The only person who ever did go over Niagara falls and live to tell the tale is a woman, and she did the feat in a barrel of her own devising.

Oh, that women cared more for beauty and less for clothes!

All the women's hotels conducted on the liberal new woman plan are filled to overflowing, with many applicants on the waiting list.

The highest praise old timey people could bestow on a little boy or girl was that he or she was a "biddable child." That may be a credit to a child, but it is by no means so to a woman. In general women are far too "biddable" even to this day. They are in bondage to husbands, doctor or minister, sometimes to all three, but always to the masculine sex. Not one woman in a thousand knows the joy of exercising her own will or the resistless, splendid power of it when she does exercise it.

For your comfort in discouraged hours know this: Nothing is more certain than that you will win out at last if you keep on working and willing toward a given end. Know this too: No trouble will ever be put upon you that is greater than you can bear.

ELIZA ARCHARD CONNER.

GONZALES' MURDER.

Counsel Now Addressing the Jury In Tillman's Defense.

LEXINGTON, S. C., Oct. 13.—Arguments to the jury in the trial of J. H. Tillman were begun with the convening of court, three attorneys for the state and two for the defense addressing the jury during the seven hours court was in session.

Mrs. J. H. Tillman and the mother of the defendant were present, as they have been almost continuously from the beginning of the trial, and were attentive listeners.

Solicitor Thurmond opened for the state, both sides having submitted to the court their requests for instructions to the jury, preliminary to which Mr. Thurmond addressed the court in the presence of the jury on the doctrine of self defense and the law defining murder and gave the state's interpretation of the law relating to threats and provocation.

Addressing himself then to the case and referring to the editorials in the State, Mr. Thurmond said they were before the jury to show the feeling between Gonzales and Tillman. In this connection he referred to the liberty of the press. The solicitor devoted himself largely to a review and summing up of the evidence adduced by the prosecution concerning threats, next taking up and comparing the testimony of witnesses on the two sides relative to the shooting with a view to showing that Gonzales was unarmed and sought to avoid a difficulty when he met the defendant on the day of the shooting.

The solicitor was followed by Mr. Hembert of counsel for the defense, who said, among other things, that the defense did not concede that N. G. Gonzales was unarmed at the time he was shot. Stress was laid by counsel upon the charges made by Gonzales against the defendant to show, as he stated, the influence they had on the defendant's mind when he met Gonzales.

SOFIA AWAITS REFORMS.

Ambassadors of Austria and Russia Will Present the Scheme Today.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 13.—The details of the new Austro-Russian reform scheme are awaited here with the greatest interest. A dispatch from Constantinople says that the Austrian and Russian ambassadors will present their proposals to the porte today.

The government here is taking the strictest precautions to prevent insurgents from crossing the frontier. One band is reported to have been fired on by Bulgarian troops near Rila while trying to assist a crowd of fugitives who were being pursued by the Turks. This incident is considered to be evidence of the government's correct intention.

Desperate fighting is reported to have taken place at Seltzi, in the district of Dibra. Three bands engaged a body of 600 Turks and lost twenty-five men. After several hours fighting Boris Sarafoff, with re-enforcements of 600 insurgents, arrived on the scene and killed all save forty of the Turks.

It is reported that Colonel Karawanoff, inspector of the frontier district of Burgas, has been killed in an encounter with Turkish officers.

THE KILLING OF SKINNER.

Witnesses Said Haywood Shot Only to Save His Life.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 13.—Two addresses and part of a third were made in the Haywood-Skinner murder case, and the argument still continues. The judge's charge will be delivered probably tomorrow.

Senator Herbert E. Norris for the state agreed that Skinner had struck Haywood; that after the first shot he had reached for his pistol and urged that as he turned to defend himself Haywood had fired the fatal second shot.

Colonel S. G. Ryan in his argument for Haywood held that Haywood shot only to save his life.

Fatal Collision at Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 13.—Three men were killed and three others were injured, one seriously, in a collision between Missouri Pacific and Frisco freight trains in the switch yards at St. Louis avenue and Santa Fe street here. The Frisco train was standing on the crossing when the Missouri Pacific train ran into it, turning over a freight car. This car fell over on a crowd of men on the other side of the Frisco train who were waiting for the latter to pass. The engineer of the Missouri Pacific train says he received a signal to proceed across the crossing, but it is believed that he momentarily lost control of his engine.

New Russian Destroyer.

CRONSTADT, Russia, Oct. 13.—A new submarine boat shaped like a cigar has been put on trial in the waters of Cronstadt. It is constructed after the plans of Engineer Boubnow and has a gasoline motor. The submersion, however, is effected by an electric motor. It will be manned by a crew of twelve and commanded by Captain Beklemischeff.

Was Not Killed by Boxers.

DELAWARE, O., Oct. 13.—Rev. F. L. Johnson of this city has received word disproving the report that Rev. C. W. Kennedy, a young missionary from this city, had been killed by Boxers in China. Rev. Kennedy is now at Otaru, Japan, engaged in mission work.

Brown Is Very Low.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 13.—Harry Brown, the retired hotel keeper who was shot in mistake for a burglar by Peter Kotz, is still alive, but the physicians say there is no possible hope for his recovery. Kotz was released from jail and will not be prosecuted.

WHEN COMPANY DROPS IN

you feel like serving them with something a little extra in Meats or Poultry. Our Meats are always a little fine because we are careful what we buy. All our Meats, Provisions, Poultry, also Seafood, undergoes the closest inspection before we sell it. Tough, stringy and unnutritious meats are never sold here. Seafood—Do you like Oysters? RUSSIA AND JAPAN

War May Be Declared In Far East Any Moment.

RELATIONS HAVE REACHED A CRISIS

Occupation of Masanpho May Be Viewed by Russians as an Act of Aggression.

YOKOHAMA, Oct. 13.—It is reported here that the Japanese have occupied Masanpho and that an official declaration of war may be expected at any moment.

The relations between Japan and Russia have reached a crisis, according to the official view here. The exact nature of the diplomatic exchanges between the two governments that brought the present tensity appears to be unknown at the foreign legations.

The announcement by M. Lessar, the Russian minister to China, that the Manchurian convention between Russia and China has lapsed is received with ridicule.

The premier and the ministers for war, navy and foreign affairs had a simultaneous audience of the emperor, but Baron von Rosen, the Russian minister, and Baron Komura, the Japanese foreign minister, are yet to have a conference.

It is understood that Great Britain is privy to Japan's movements.

According to the Manchurian convention between Russia and China, signed April 8, 1902, the evacuation of the three Manchurian provinces was to be carried out in three successive periods of six months from the signing of the convention. A note from M. Lessar was appended to the convention declaring that "if the Chinese government, notwithstanding the assurances given by it, violated any provision of the convention the Russian government would not hold itself bound either by the terms of the Manchurian agreement or by the declarations previously made in connection with the matter and would be compelled to repudiate any responsibility and consequences that might result therefrom."

M. Lessar in his note to the Chinese foreign board promised to begin the evacuation of Manchuria Oct. 8, provided China accepted several new conditions, which China has refused to do, under pressure principally from Japan and Great Britain.

Czar Wanted at Headquarters.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—The peculiar official explanation of the postponement of the czar's visit to Rome "owing to circumstances over which he has no control" is interpreted in some quarters to mean that the threatening outlook in far eastern affairs calls for the emperor's presence in Russia. It is noteworthy that the king has just approved the appointment of Vice Admiral Sir Gerard Noel as commander in chief on the China station. Vice Admiral Noel is an officer of great energy and decision. It was he who cleaned the Turkish troops out of Crete because of an insult to the British flag.

Russian Embassy Not Alarmed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. — At the Russian embassy the officials are not alarmed over the situation in the far east. The view held there is that neither Russia nor Japan desires war, though both may be making preparations to that end, and that there is really no question at issue which cannot be settled without recourse to arms provided the negotiating parties are disposed to use diplomacy rather than the sword.

Russian War Ships For the East.

PORT SAID, Egypt, Oct. 13.—The Russian battle ship Czarevitch and the Russian armored cruiser Bayan arrived here, bound for Chinese waters.

Lynchehaun's Extradition.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 13.—In the arguments in the Lynchehaun case here before United States Commissioner Moores Charles Fox, representing the British government, opened. He insisted that the act for which Lynchehaun was convicted and sentenced to prison for life was not of a political nature and is therefore extraditable. Henry Spaan followed for the defense, arguing that the act resulted from the political conditions and was therefore a political crime and not extraditable. Addison C. Harris, ex-minister to Austria, will follow for the defense. There may be a decision this evening.

Electric Cars Run Away.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct 13. — An electric motor car and trailer heavily loaded with passengers en route to the circus grounds here ran away and rapidly descended the Gay street hill, one of the steepest inclines in the city, and struck another car at the foot of the hill. A number of passengers were injured, including many women, as they fell and jumped from the cars.

St. Pierre Survivor Killed.

PARIS, Oct. 13. — Martin Thir, a Hungarian, after being one of the extremely few and lucky survivors of the St. Pierre (Martinique) disaster, was killed here by an automobile while on a few days' visit to Paris.

Colonel Boone Dies In Frisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—Colonel Daniel E. Boone, a celebrated circus manager and trainer of wild animals, died here after a long illness, aged sixty-two years. He was born in Kentucky.

Fatal Collision at Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 13.—A freight train collided with a street car at Mulberry and St. Louis avenues in the west bottoms, and it is reported that three or four persons were killed.

SPORTING NEWS.

GOLF.

As there are seven more weeks' play for the Golf Committee cup at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club it is not so easy to determine the winner at present, although Walter Peterson now holds the lead with 19 points. H. R. Stockton has a total of 16½ points and he may overtake Mr. Peterson yet. Then there is Frank Reinhart, who has not been playing of late on the course, may return and succeed in capturing the cup before the season closes. He now has 9 points. The weekly play for this cup has excited a great deal of interest and, as there is not much difference in the number of points among the leaders, the finish is sure to be full of interest to all.

The golf team from Princeton University defeated the Baltusrol Club, Saturday, by a good margin. Frank Reinhart and J. Whitney Baker both played with the Princeton team and each scored against their opponent.

FOOTBALL.

A football team has been organized at Westfield with W. J. Bogert, Jr., captain, and E. S. Brown, manager. The first game will be played early in November at Recreation Park, Westfield.

William F. Walters, manager of the Eagle Football Association, is anxious to make arrangements for a game with either a Somerville team or New Brunswick club for a game Saturday. A game is particularly desired with the team from the latter place and arrangements may be made by addressing W. F. Walters, Lee place, Plainfield, N. J. Teams averaging 135 pounds are the ones with which Manager Walters is especially anxious to book games.

STOLEN BASES.

Manager John Owens, of St. Mary's baseball team, says that while he had a strong team last Saturday in the game against Westfield, he intends to have even a stronger one in the deciding game next Saturday. Manager Denman is quoted as saying that he will win the last game, while Manager Owens is equally confident.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

Frank Day, of West Fourth street, has purchased a valuable hound dog.

There will be a meeting of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium leaders at 9 o'clock tomorrow evening.

The new locker room of the Y. M. C. A. is now ready for the batch of lockers which have been ordered in readiness for the rush of members.

Councilman W. S. Tyler is now one of the most enthusiastic automobilists in the city and he is frequently seen enjoying a spin over Plainfield's fine roads, and at the same time looking out for matters in connection with his committee work in the Council.

ROD AND GUN.

Patrick Muldoon and James Day, of this city, are spending today fishing for spot and weak fish in the Amboys.

John Welsh, of Madison avenue, and Clarence Thorn, of Almont place, shot seven large gray ducks in the South Plainfield pond yesterday.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

There will be a meeting this evening in the interest of a minor bowling league, at the Y. M. C. A. at 8 o'clock.

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

The second annual ball and entertainment of the Plainfield Democratic Club will take place in Saengerbund Hall Thursday, October 22.

Worshipful Master William Thompson, of Apollo University Lodge, of Oxford, England, visited Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., of this city, at its regular communication last week. He is a don of Oxford University.

The Retail Clerks' Association will hold a reception and dance next month at some date not definitely set. This was decided at a meeting of the association in G. A. R. Hall last night. The dance will probably be held in the Casino. Charles Greer, Caspar Waglow, James McLean, Albert Koch and G. A. Ayers will make the arrangements. A group photograph of the members of the association was taken last night.

The cornerstone of the new Masonic Orphanage near Burlington was laid Saturday afternoon, although the storm delayed the exercises and prevented most of the 1,000 guests expected from attending. The ceremony of laying the cornerstone was performed by Grand Master W. Holt Apgar, and his fellow grand officers. A banquet was served at the home, but owing to the lateness of the hour, and absence of several of the principal speakers, further exercises were abandoned. The new building is located about 300 yards from the State Home on the magnificent grounds owned by the State grand lodge. It is three stories high, and about forty feet wide by sixty-five feet long. It is built of Indiana stone and brick to correspond with the other buildings, and is heated with steam throughout. When completed it will accommodate nearly one hundred, including the matron and assistants.

—The W. C. T. U. has decided to hold its fair in the vacant store in the Babcock building early in November.

—The gas-arc light is the latest artificial light on the market and it is being used with much success at L. W. Randolph's drug store in West Front street.

—Mrs. Robert Skinner wishes to say that that she was not present at the entertainment given by Mary Green, of West Third street, Friday evening, as stated.

John B. Dumont, Jr., is stopping at the Park Avenue Hotel for the present.

PUBLIC SCHOOL EXHIBITION

WORK IN NEW JERSEY'S SCHOOLS TO BE SHOWN AT EXPOSITION.

State Won Gold Medals at Chicago, Charleston and Buffalo—Letter From Mr. Baxter.

In a letter received from State Superintendent of Public Instruction C. J. Baxter by the county and municipal school superintendents, some information concerning the preparation of the State Board of Education for the New Jersey school exhibit at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis next year, is given.

This preparation is already under way, and Silas R. Morse, of Atlantic City, a member of the board, has been secured to take charge of the work of collecting and arranging this department of the State's exhibit for the New Jersey World's Fair Commission.

There will be shown in this department specimens of the work of the State's public schools in every branch, including manual training and the arts. New Jersey won high honors with its exhibits in school work at Chicago, Charleston and Buffalo. Each one of these displays was under Mr. Morse's personal supervision, so that the commission and the State school authorities are confident that his work will be well and thoroughly done.

Gold medals were won by the State at each of the three expositions named by the school exhibits, and as there has been a general progression throughout the State along educational lines, there is little question that New Jersey will not come away from the State Louis Exposition empty handed.

So wide was the attention drawn to this State's displays at the other expositions that the directors of the Louisiana Purchase show decided to copy Mr. Morse's ideas to a large degree in arranging the "palace of education," the special building to be set apart at the St. Louis Fair for the display of school work.

The letter of Superintendent Baxter is designed to enlist the interest of all the schools of the State in the work of preparing for this exhibit.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dufford, of this city, have returned from a visit with relatives in Hunterdon County.

Assistant Postmaster James Martin, of Westervelt avenue, has returned to his post after a vacation of fifteen days.

William Saunderson, of Fairview avenue, who has been the guest of friends in Newark, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Owens, of New York, who have been the guests of friends on Rock avenue, have returned home.

Charles Meyers, of New Brunswick, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Williams, of Fairview avenue, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Casnove, of Bayonne, were entertained in this city Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Walker, of East Fifth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Keppler Hyde, of Titusville, Pa., who have been visiting Mr. Hyde's mother, Mrs. Charles Hyde, of East Front street, left for their home last night.

Councilman E. E. Pray has given up his interest in the Lasher-Pray Coloring Works, to engage in the manufacture of wallpaper. The plant he is interested in is located at Hackensack.

Rev. Dr. K. P. Ketcham, of Freeport, L. I., who is ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Eugene Hatch, of West Eighth street, is steadily improving and will soon be able to return home.

In reply to inquiries we have pleasure in announcing that Ely's Liquid Cream Balm is like the solid preparation of that admirable remedy in that it cleanses and heals membranes affected by nasal catarrh. There is no drying or sneezing. The Liquid Cream Balm is adapted to use by patients who have trouble in inhaling through the nose and prefer spraying. The price, including spraying tube, is 75 cents. Sold by druggists or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—In accordance with a resolution of the Council the Electric Light Company is placing several new lights about the city.

—The funeral of Mrs. John Dorgan took place from the home of Frank Hart, 116 West Fourth street, Mr. Hart taking charge of the burial.

—The blowing of whistles for fires in Rahway the past two nights has deceived many people into believing that the alarm was for Plainfield fires.

—A valuable dog following a carriage along West Front street yesterday afternoon was struck by a trolley car and so badly injured that Patrolman Higgins was called in to shoot him.

—A trolley car, bound for Elizabeth, ran off the track on the East Fifth street switch, Sunday evening, and ran up partly on the sidewalk. It required almost an hour's time to get the car back on the tracks. None of the passengers was injured.

—There was advertised in Saturday's Press the loss of a small package from a carriage between the railroad station and 718 Madison avenue. Shortly after The Press was issued, Charles Barry saw the advertisement, and being the finder, returned the package to the owner.

—Wm. O. Leek, representing Lewis DeGroff & Son, importers and wholesale grocers, 79 Beach street, New York, has taken up his residence at 248 East Fifth street, Plainfield, and will soon call on the grocery merchants and by fair dealing and low prices hopes to secure a share of their patronage.

—Near the corner of West Front street and Park avenue there is a very tall pole, formerly used by the telephone company for its wires. The pole does not now seem to be of much use and persons who have noticed it have suggested that it would improve the general appearance of the street at that point if it should be removed.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—The average school attendance in Westfield during September was 938, much larger than a year ago.

—Mrs. Westcott's dancing classes will commence today at the Casino. Children's classes at 3:30 and adults at 8.

—Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., will meet this evening and consider matters of much interest to veterans.

—Rev. T. R. Davis, of this city, personally conducted a party of twenty-four women and men to the Gettysburg battlefield, last week.

—A mistake in the plans for the stable in the rear of police headquarters has necessitated the widening of the door several inches.

—Henry Liefke has entered suit in Justice Nash's court in a landlord and tenant case against Mary Ross. The hearing will be given October 27.

—The Plainfield Electric Light Company is engaged in West Front street in replacing several old poles with new ones, an improvement long needed.

—The Forward Movement Club, of the Y. M. C. A., will meet this evening. All men interested in work among young men in foreign mission lands are invited to be present.

—I. H. Boehm, the dry goods merchant, has hopes that the new front to his store will be completed in a week or ten days and the glass put it. The work has been delayed by the weather.

—As soon as the committee on bowling is announced at the Park Club, an active season on the alleys will be started. It is expected that a strong team will be organized for the fall and winter months.

—A sale of the goods of Mrs. Laura F. Albertson, of 159 Crescent avenue, has been announced for Oct. 19, as the result of a suit in contract brought by Robert H. Keenan, of Richmond street, in Justice Moffett's court.

ELEANOR C. COOLEY WEDS H. C. JENKINS

Married According to the Friends' Ceremony in Local Meeting House.

SISTER, MAID OF HONOR

ONLY RELATIVES AND CLOSE FRIENDS PRESENT AT WEDDING.

Miss Marjorie B. Cooley and Miss Elizabeth Haviland Bridesmaids —Howard W. Jenkins Best Man—Guests Present.

Miss Eleanor Clifton Cooley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Justus H. Cooley, of North Plainfield, and Henry Carpenter Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Jenkins, of Brooklyn, were married this afternoon at 1:30 at the Friends' Meeting House on Watchung avenue. It was the third wedding ever performed in that building since it was erected in 1777 and the first in seventy years. The ceremony was performed according to the custom of the orthodox Society of Friends and was witnessed only by the immediate friends and relatives of the couple.

The custom of the Society of Friends does not prescribe that a minister shall officiate but instead a committee is appointed to act as official witnesses. The committee was composed of Cornelia A. Gavett, Anna Rice Powell, William W. Angell and William D. Williams, all of the local congregation. The service was a simple but impressive one.

The bridal party entered the Meeting House and took their places in the front. The vows of matrimony were recited by the bride and groom which is of the form of an agreement both verbal and written. After reciting the words of the contract the groom affixed his name to the document in charge of one of the committee and was followed by the bride who also placed her name on the paper. Following this ceremony a season of prayer lasting almost an hour was held.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Agnes M. Cooley, as maid-of-honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Marjorie B. Cooley, her sister, and Miss Elizabeth Haviland, of Bellefountain, Ohio. The best man was Howard W. Jenkins, of Brooklyn, brother of the groom. The ushers were Walter K. Cooley, brother of the bride, and Howard W. Drake, both of this city.

The bride's dress was of white peau de crepe trimmed with Duchesse point Bertha. She wore a white tulle veil and carried a bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. The maid-of-honor wore white point de esprit trimmed with white ribbons and carried white bridesmaid roses, while the bridesmaids wore gowns of point de esprit trimmed with pink ribbons and carried pink American beauty roses.

After the wedding and prayers at the Meeting House the wedding guests were driven to the bride's home on Westervelt avenue where a wedding luncheon was served previous to the departure of the bride and groom on their honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside in Brooklyn.

Palms, ferns and flowers made the parlors of the house very attractive although nothing elaborate was attempted in the way of decorations.

The groom is well known in Wall street where is prominently connected with the firm of Goesbeck & Company, brokers.

There were about sixty guests present, many of whom were from Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Mount Vernon and this city. Among those present were Mrs. C. M. Taylor, Jr., Miss R. M. Ely, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. George C. Blank, Miss Alice Blank, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Carpenter, the Misses Lane and Miss Wakley, of Brooklyn, and Miss Grace Cooley, of Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Several Machines Here.

Plainfield is likely to have two or three of the new voting machines for the coming election instead of one. One machine is issued to every senator and assemblyman in the State and the Elizabeth representatives have turned over theirs to Plainfield.

—A demonstration of "Graphol," a new powder for making photos on paper, card, silk, wood, etc., will be given tomorrow at Frank VanWinkle's store, 129 North avenue, from 2 to 8 p. m. Call and see it done.

CAN "WORK" VOTING MACHINE

ALLEGED THAT BALLOT COUNTERS CAN BE "MANIPULATED."

Defect Shown by Experiments in Indianapolis and Union Hill.

The voting machines sent here by the Standard Voting Machine Company and which have been set up for exhibition purposes in Robert Trewin's barber shop on Somerset street and in Cole's stable on West Second street, can be doctored, according to stories emanating from Indianapolis and Jersey City.

It is reported that it was shown in Indianapolis that the machine would be made to register for a certain candidate every time the lever was turned by a voter in casting a ballot, merely by putting a little clamp on the key inside of the machine, which could be done in a few minutes. The machine was "worked," it is said, before the eyes of the official representative of the company, and the only excuse, it is alleged he could offer, was with an "honest" election board it could not be done.

The Jersey City Journal states that the same defect was discovered by a sixteen-year-old boy in Union Hill, N. J. Willie Filon, son of Martin Filon, a political leader, was the first to discover that the new voting machine could be manipulated by voters, and what the lad pointed out as a defect has been seen during the past day or two by a number of other persons in Union Hill.

REVIVAL MEETINGS.

Reform Club Meeting With Success at Its Nightly Meetings.

There was a large attendance at last night's meeting of the Reform Club. Charles Sandford, a reformed drunkard of Newark, was in charge, and he and Joseph Fisher, a reformed saloon keeper of Kearney, pleaded earnestly in behalf of temperance. Mr. Fisher sang several solos and Edward Snyder, of Westfield, played cornet solos.

Tonight's meeting will be in charge of George White, superintendent of the Crittenden Mission of Jersey City, and favorably known in this city as a strong speaker. Mr. White's daughter will conduct the musical part of the programme.

In Miss Cox's Honor.

In honor of Miss Fanny Cox, whose wedding takes place Oct. 31, Miss Mary Whiton, of Central avenue, gave a delightful luncheon this afternoon. Other social functions in honor of Miss Cox will be a dinner to be given by Mrs. Lewis E. Waring, of West Seventh street, on Oct. 24 and a luncheon by her aunt, Mrs. George Wharton Edwards, of Franklin place, on Oct. 30.

Women to Debate.

There will be a debate upon the subject "The relative claims of Foreign and Home Missions upon us a Women," at a meeting of the Women's Association, of the Congregational Church, tomorrow afternoon. General discussion will follow the debate. Special music and afternoon tea will follow.

Toes Amputated.

John Tier, Jr., who was recently removed to St. Barnabas Hospital in Newark, suffering with an affliction of the foot, underwent an operation Monday. Two toes were amputated and reports from the hospital yesterday were that the patient was doing as well as could be expected.

Accidental Death.

John Caffry, of the local trolley lines, received word this morning of the death of his brother James, in Middlesborough, England, last month. He was killed by falling from a scaffold. He is survived by John, Martin, Michael and P. J. Caffry and Mrs. Mary Dorgan, of this city.

Criterion's Dance.

The members of the Criterion Club, which is to reorganize formally next week, have completed plans for a series of monthly subscription parties or dances to be held during the season. The first of which will be held in the Casino, Tuesday, November 10.

Druggists' Deliberate.

The Union County Retail Druggists Association met in regular session yesterday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. Hall. President Thomas S. Armstrong presided. Two new members were elected and routine business was transacted.

Police Court Work.

John Taylor, colored, was found not guilty of drunkenness last night by Recorder, of the borough. John Higgins, disorderly while suffering from the "D. Ts.," will receive a hearing tonight.

GOVERNOR ADVOCATES RADICAL CHANGES

Murphy Favors New Senatorial Lines on Basis of Population.

SPECIAL LEGISLATION

CHIEF EXECUTIVE WANTS A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

Undecided Whether to Embody His Views on Message Which Will be Read to the Legisture Tomorrow.

Gov. Murphy gave out yesterday an interview favoring the holding of a constitutional convention to devise a new State Constitution.

The Governor is in favor of new Senatorial lines on a basis of population. He says this should not interfere with the holding of a convention. He thinks representation to the convention should be had from each county, so that the smaller counties would not be in a position to be outvoted on the proposed change.

The Governor favors the establishment of Assembly districts, and he also favors the wiping out of the constitutional provision which prohibits special legislation. The Governor has not decided whether in his message to the special session tomorrow he will advocate action on any matters outside the school law.

The President and Speaker and House and Senate Committees on Education will have a meeting on the new school bill today, and the Republican Assemblymen and Senators will hold their caucuses tomorrow morning to determine on a line of action to be followed at the special session which will be convened on that day at noon.

BOROUGHITES OBJECT TO DAM

A special meeting of the North Plainfield Council has been called for Friday evening at which time the public and property owners residing at the upper end of Somerset street will be given an opportunity of stating their objection to a dam maintained near the Somerset street roadway by Dr. Justus H. Cooley, near Brookside Sanitarium. It is alleged that the dam is the cause of washing away $300 worth of top dressing on the Somerset street roadway which was recently put down by the Council. The dam, a low one, two feet in height, was built years ago to beautify Dr. Cooley's grounds.

AMICABLE SETTLEMENT.

Railway Company's Offer to Mrs. Carrie E. Bristol Accepted.

The case of Mrs. Carrie E. Bristol against the Elizabeth, Plainfield and Central Jersey Railway Company, came up for trial at Elizabeth yesterday. Before the jury were called, counsel for the railway company submitted an offer of cash settlement, which Craig A. Marsh, Esq., accepted. This is the second case growing out of the accident at the corner of West Fourth street and Madison avenue. In the other case Mr. Marsh secured a verdict for Mrs. Bristol's sister, Mrs. Searles and her husband for $15,000.

Another Commuter.

Through the Mulford Real Estate Agency, George A. Beaton has leased the handsome residence of the late Charles Potter, on West Seventh street, and will soon take possession. Mr. Beaton is the president of the American Finance and Security Company, of New York.

Triplets.

Edward Sobenck, of New Market, is the possessor of a cow that gave birth to three calves Thursday, two of which died. The third is healthy and likely to live. The case is said to be almost without parallel.

Rasores Club Meeting.

The Rasores Club held its first fall meeting yesterday afternoon, when the members gave brief accounts of their summer trips. The programme was voted a great success.

Olympia Club's Session.

A meeting of the Olympia Club, of the North Plainfield High School, was held yesterday afternoon at which time further arrangements were made for the winter games.

Mrs. Ramsey's Funeral.

LOCAL POLITICAL CIRCLES ALL AGOG

Charles L. Moffett Suppresses Excitement by Reconsidering His Withdrawal

POLITICIANS EXCITED

FOWLER PEOPLE HINTED THAT IT WAS A KEAN DEAL.

Moffett Will Stand for Nomination to Show That His Desire to Withdraw Was Not Prompted by Ulterior Motives.

For several hours this morning there was some suppressed excitement in political circles in this city because Charles L. Moffett, the avowed candidate for the Democratic nomination for assemblyman, had withdrawn from the race. The announcement brought dismay in the ranks of the Fowlerites and Democrats, who read in the action a political move of considerable depth. All kinds of reasons were assigned for the act, most of those interested thinking that it was the result of Kean influence. And then after it had been brought home to Mr. Moffett that his reasons for withdrawal could not but be misunderstood, and that the misunderstanding would do him lasting injury, came the final statement from Mr. Moffett himself that he would reconsider his determination and accept the nomination if tendered him.

Mr. Moffett withdrew because he had decided to extend his law business by opening a New York office. He was acting from purely personal reasons. At a considerable self-sacrifice, Mr. Moffett announced at noon that he would stand by his original determination to became a candidate.

The effect of Mr. Moffett's withdrawal at this stage of the political game would have been startling. It would have altered the whole complexion of the Kean-Fowler fight. It would have been disastrous to the plans of the Republican element that opposes Kirk for the Assembly. When the fact was proclaimed at last night's meeting of the Democratic County committee that Moffett had given up the fight, the members confessed themselves at sea in choosing his successor.

OPINIONS ON LOCAL BOLT

DON'T NEED PLAINFIELD SAYS ONE NEWSPAPER.

New York Editor Thinks Efforts Are Misdirected—Only Hot Air.

Misdirected.

If one-half the spirit engendered by factional strife in the Plainfield section of Union were concentrated in an on-slaught on the Democracy the local Republicans would be invincible. If they want to see Democratic candidates for the Assembly elected they simply have to carry out their threat of cutting the ticket nominated by the Republican convention.—New York Press.

Only Hot Air.

The New Brunswick Home News had this comment on the political situation in this county: "Union County Republicans are said to feel somewhat shaky over the prospects there. The troublesome Plainfielders are still sulking, and refuse to be cajoled. The trouble nowadays with political bolting is that the bolter has no place to go. The other side might use him for the time being, but that is all. Men are generally being made to adhere closer to party lines than they used to. Ten years ago no doubt the bolt of the Plainfielders would be an assured fact, while now it is only in the air."—Elizabeth Journal.

Don't Need Plainfield.

Since 1890 only once has the Republican majority in Plainfield been necessary to elect a candidate on the Republican ticket for a county office. That instance was the election of B. Frank Coriell to the office of sheriff. In 1890, when the county vote was solidly Democratic, George Kyte, Republican, was elected to the Assembly from the old Second district by the majority which Plainfield rolled up for him. Every election since the Republican candidates for the county offices have had votes enough to have left Plainfield out and still have had a comfortable majority. This statement is not made to detract from the honor due the Republicans of Plainfield, for

SUNDAY-SCHOOL PROSPERING

THE TEACHERS AT TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH GRATIFIED OVER CONDITION.

Facts and Figures From Reports Read at Session—Treasurer's Report.

The most largely attended of any of the regular fall meetings of the Sunday-school teachers of Trinity Reformed Church was that of last night in the Sunday-school rooms. There was additional cause for gratification in the fact that the reports of officers indicated a growth in the numerical strength of the school and a most prosperous condition generally. Superintendent F. E. Smith presided at the meeting.

The report of the treasurer, H. E. Gayle, showed that beginning May 11 there was a balance on hand of $120.94. With this included, the total receipts to date amounted to $302.20 and this, with $136.86 already disbursed, left a balance of $165.34. Subtracting from this the amount necessary to meet outstanding obligations, the net balance to date was announced as $83.50. There was a deficit of something more than $34 from the excursion to Asbury Park, but it was reported that the number of tickets still remaining unpaid for was sufficient to offset the greater part of this amount.

Mrs. George Sauns, treasurer for the home department, reported a membership of 140. She announced that the amount collected during the past quarter was $30.69, of which $29.34 had been turned over to the treasurer of the Sunday-school.

In the primary department, Mrs. J. M. Tier stated that there were 183 primary pupils and 54 infant pupils with a total of 237, the conditions in the department being very much crowded. On this account, the church auditorium had to be used for a portion of the infant department.

Mrs. L. R. Schofield, of the Junior department, announced that the membership had increased from 27 to 40. In the main school, the exact number of pupils was not known to the superintendent, but it was stated that from four to six new pupils were joining the school every Sunday.

ELECTION RETURNS.

Complete Official Result of Canvas of Vote.

The State Board of Canvassers appointed by Gov. Murphy to canvass the vote at the recent special election met at Trenton, yesterday afternoon, and canvassed the returns on the proposed constitutional amendments. The returns show a total vote of 43,905. There were rejected 1,534 ballots.

The vote is compiled on a basis of eight amendments. All of these were defeated, the majority against the principal amendment, that for a separate Court of Errors and Appeals, being 2,709.

The amendment for a reorganization of the Court of Pardons was defeated by 1,668, and the one relating to the appointment and terms of judges to be appointed in case the amendments went through received an adverse vote of 2,213.

The following table shows the vote by counties on the amendment for a separate court of Errors and Appeals:

SOME GOOD AVERAGES

BATTING AND FIELDING RECORDS OF INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS.

The Makeup of Team Frequently Changed of Necessity—Manager and Members Encouraged by the Work.

The record of the Alis Club on the baseball diamond for the season just passed is of interest and shows that the team has done good work throughout. The management had the trouble more or less of being obliged to change the personel of the team frequently and this did not always turn out satisfactory. However, the club has given good exhibitions in the twenty-two games played. This is the list of games and scores, the score of Alis Club being first:

May 2—St. Mary—13-8.
May 9—Star A. C.—10-11.
May 16—Hope Y. M. A.—7-15.
May 23—Hope Y. M. A.—13-8.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

When you buy coal you want coal and not dirt and slate mixed with it. John Johnston, South avenue.

A. Kane, of Filmore avenue, dealer in second-hand lumber and gravel roofing. Old buildings bought at high prices.

In hunting for a place to buy good drugs you do not need a dog or a gun. Use your eyes and go to Hodge's, East Front street.

It matters not what you want in the way of meats, Smalley Brothers, North avenue, can supply you. Everything the best; prices the lowest.

James R. Blair, Park avenue, enjoys a liberal trade because he has a stock equal to any store in New York for good values. He is the local agent for the celebrated Hawes hats.

For a superior quality of stationery and all kinds of writing materials call on A. M. Harper, on Park avenue. His stock is very complete. He also sells dolls and toys of all kinds.

It's bad luck to refuse money but Fred Endress does not want your money without giving you its full equivalent in pure and high grade meats. You get what you order when you order meats at his store.

Many people passing along North avenue have noticed the attractive store of the Persian Wall Paper Company. It is easily noticable because of the new wall paper designs displayed in the window. Trade there.

W. W. Dunn, of Lincoln place, has the reputation of being a grocer who has an excellent line of fruits, vegetables and groceries. His up-to-date delivery system and fine stock of groceries brings contentment to all who trade there.

Putnam & DeGraw, the West Front street dry goods firm, is offering specials in hand-made shawls, wrist and side bags, men's negligee shirts, ladies', gents' and children's hose in a large variety. The firm is also an agent for the celebrated May Manton patterns.

Wearing quality and comfort are the essential features of M. C. Van-Arsdale's shoes. The best shoes for children. VanArsdale studies children's wants as closely as those of grown folks. Buy your children's shoes there and they will satisfy you in all details.

It is most necessary to keep the summer gowns which are soon to be put away for the winter in trunks absolutely moth proof. Shirley & Johnson have that kind of trunks at prices which stagger competition. They also rent canopies for weddings and put up and sell awnings.

It may be a trifle early to talk about furs, but then the Boston Cloak and Fur Store on West Front street is the place to make your selection. The firm is making some specials in opening the season. The tailor-made suits at this store are all that the most particular woman could desire.

SIDE LIGHTS ON TIMELY TOPICS NOTED IN PASSING.

Griffith Jenkins, of East Fifth street, while visiting at Paterson, N. J., after the recent hurricane in that city, found a curious manuscript while walking along the street. He sent the paper to a friend of his at Providence, R. I., who has sent word back that the find was probably a valuable one. It proved to be a piece of parchment of great age on which are some characters scarcely discernable.

A man riding upon one of the Westfield trolley cars recenty was the cause of much amusement among the passengers. By mistake he rang up two fares, thinking he was ringing for the motorman to stop. When the conductor demanded that he pay the two extra fares he sat back in his seat and declared: "Faith, I'll be blowed if oil get off now, I'll ride all the way to Plainfield to get me money's worth out of it." He did not realize that it would be necessary for him to pay five cents again to get home.

The members of the West End Hose Company are puzzled to know whether or not their engine house on Harrison street is haunted or whether some member played a joke upon them. All the evidence at hand is that the big fire bell rang out Saturday night for almost half an hour during which time every box in the entire North Plainfield district was rung off. The members, scantily clad hastened to the engine house only to see the indicator rushing around the dial like an eight day clock gone wrong and the interior of the house like a boiler factory for the noise. Exactly one half hour the noise continued when the bell stopped ringing as suddenly as it commenced. The bell of Warren Engine Company did not ring. It is believed by Frank Keller and Assistant Chief Herman Klinsman, both of whom made an investigation, that in some manner the circuit became "crossed" and started the bell ringing.

The Golden Rule, carried out in practical business life is very seldom heard of nowadays but one Plainfield man lived up to the teachings of his childhood religiously all through his life. A. A. Weeks, whose death occurred some weeks ago, was the owner of a large stationary supply concern in New York. He was also the publisher of large catalogues which are accepted as standard in many of the large stationary firms in this county today. His business grew because he was honest. On the fly leaf of each new catalogue appeared this introduction:

"To the trade from A. A. Weeks:

"In presenting my catalogue of stationer's specialties, I beg leave to respectfully suggest that 'A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver and gold.'

"A good name, with perseverance and ability, is absolutely necessary in any ligitimate undertaking. It helped to bring riches and secured loving favor, and no reverses can take from anyone a well merited good name.

"Believing this, I mean to be governed by the following rules in all my transactions:

"1. To deal honestly with and be just to everybody, myself included.

"2. To make good work and sell it at reasonable prices.

"3. To treat everybody with civility and fairness.

"4. To injure no one nor to submit to injury myself.

"5. To be firm in all things that are right, resenting wrong.

"6. To never misrepresent anything or deceive anybody.

"7. To never speak disparagingly of a competitor or of his goods.

"8. To mind my own business."

This set of rules was the foundation of success of a man who built up from a small concern, one of the largest business in the East.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—A great part of the estate of James H. Duke, president of the American Tobbaco Company, which is near Raritan, was still under water early this week.

—Justice Garretson, of the Somerset County Court has fixed the date for the trial of DeBaco, charged with the murder of his brother-in-law. The case will be tried Oct. 26. A panel of forty-eight jurors has been drawn.

—Through the efforts of Councilman Garrigues an improvement has been made at the corner of Watchung avenue and East Seventh street. The pole recently used for the street signs has been removed and the signs have been placed on the same pole with the police patrol box.

—An accident to your eyes will often cause total blindness, but how many people have lost the sight from their own neglect, when by consulting our eye specialist in time they could have saved the vision. Stiles & Co., Philadelphia Eye Specialist, 107 East Front street, tomorrow.

HOW SHE KNEW THE DRESS.

The reader, if a man, never went home from a play or social function which his wife did not attend, without being asked the first thing, "What did she have on?" Nine times in ten the man can't tell. Men see the women, but they don't often notice their dresses. It is different with women. They always see the dress, but they don't always see the woman. This feminine singularity was amusingly illustrated the other day. A man, coming up from the depot, noticed that two women who had met and passed turned simultaneously to look back. They halted, advanced, and one said: "Why, it's Mrs. ——! I didn't hardly know you." "I wasn't sure it was you, either," replied the other, "but I was sure I recognized that dress." It was a Hahne fabric. Our gown stuffs are all so pretty, make up so stylishly and are so easy to pay for, that their excellence is appreciated and remarked everywhere. We have the banner display of the town this Autumn—as big again as any other. New York stores show no greater variety if they do charge more. Now as to Colored Dress Goods:

Plainfield, N. J., Oct. 14, 1903.

The Daily Press has a higher circulation rating than is accorded to any other paper in Plainfield.—Printers' Ink.

Advertising is the connecting link between supply and demand.—Merchants' Record.

Assemblyman Swackhamer won't announce his candidacy for a renomination. That's right. So long as the bouquets are coming your way, don't go after them.

Some politicians are kicking because the local situation is receiving publicity in these columns. The purpose of a newspaper is to print the news. The only proper time to kick is when the news is not published.

When the Legislature meets tomorrow it is hoped that no time will be lost in the passage of the school bill, for which purpose the special session is called. Plainfield wants its new high school building and it can not have it until the lawmakers do the work assigned to them.

Wanted—The whereabouts of Senator S. S. Childs, who will find something of his advantage at the Somerset County Democratic convention. When last seen he was sitting silently in the Legislature at Trenton. Address, An Anxious Constituency, care of a Discontented Republican Faction.

The Union County Democrats nominate a county ticket tomorrow. There is every indication that the convention at Elizabeth will be a love feast. The minority party's chances are considered by some to be better than they have been in years and this is due to the factional fight in the majority party here. Whether they will land any candidates in office is a question, for no matter how hard Republicans fight among themselves at other times there is one day in the year when they are united and that is when the ballots are being cast. The result of the coming election in Union County largely depends on the attitude of the Republicans in this city, for it is generally conceded that they can swing the county into the enemy's column if a sufficient number stand solidly against the ticket named by their own party. Taking advantage of the situation the Democrats seem to be exercising an extraordinary amount of care in selecting candidates for the several offices to be filled. The nomination of Charles Moffett, of this city, appears to be beyond doubt. Mr. Moffett would be a worthy candidate in all respects and his name would grace the Democratic ticket as an Assembly nominee. It appears equally certain that Joseph Gunn, of Springfield, will be another nominee for Assembly. Little is known of him in this city but the citizens of his home town have a good word to speak in his behalf. Who the third man will be is a matter of conjecture. The name of Charles Moore, of Elizabeth, has been frequently mentioned in this connection but it is said that he is adverse to the idea. His run for sheriff last year was creditable like to himself and his party and if he consents to run for Assembly he will be a member of a strong trio.

is the one that will cleanse the system, set the liver to action, remove the bile, clear the complexion, cure headache and leave a good taste in the mouth. The famous little pills for doing such work pleasantly and effectually are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Bob Moore, of Lafayette, Ind., says: "All other pills I have used gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers are simply perfect." Sold by L. W. Randolph.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

Rev. John McMurray, pastor of the Monroe Avenue M. E. Church, is attending the missionary meeting of the M. E. church in Philadelphia.

The Ladies' Aid Society, of the German Reformed Church, will meet in the church parlors tomorrow afternoon. A full attendance is desired.

The topic for the Christian Endeavor Society meeting at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, Friday night, will be "Witnessing for Christ."

Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, of Orange, will be in charge of the prayer meeting at the First Baptist Church, tonight. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

A petition has been sent to Rome asking that Washington, D. C., be made an archdiocese of the Roman Catholic Church, independent of the Baltimore see.

The women of the First Presbyterian Church have about completed arrangements for the Japanese social to be held in the chapel of the church on the night of October 22. It will be an elaborate affair.

It now seems almost certain that the consecration of the Rev. Dr. Lines, of New Haven, as Bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Newark, will take place in Grace Church, Newark, where the late Bishop Starkey was consecrated.

As yet no date has been fixed for the meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Baptist Church when there will be a discussion as to the advisability of changing the night of meeting. A call for the meeting will probably be issued soon.

The twenty-first annual meeting of the Presbyterian Synod of New Jersey will be held at Lakewood, Tuesday afternoon and evening, Oct. 20. All the ministers of the Presbyterian churches in New Jersey and an elder from each church will be present at the services.

The printer's boy was devoted to the minister's daughter and she finally prevailed upon him to go to church. Whether her father knew of their coming is not definitely settled, but there is evidence that he did for he gave out as his text, "My daughter is grievously tormented with a devil."—Ex.

Plainfield Baptists will be represented at the seventy-fourth anniversary of the New Jersey Baptist Missionary convention which will be held October 26, 27 and 28, at the First Baptist Church, in Asbury Park. At the meeting, last year, in Jersey City, it was decided thereafter to hold the convention in a central location, easy of access from every part of the State, and a committee appointed to select a place gave preference to Asbury Park over Atlantic City. The Baptist convention began its course in 1880, with 55 churches. An organization affiliated with the convention and celebrating at the same time its 65th anniversary is the New Jersey Baptist Educational Society, which receives funds from the churches and uses them in the training of needy young men preparing for the ministry.

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

Much nonsense has been printed from time to time relative to women who were reported to have been received into the Masonic order—a few with a knowledge of their sex, but most by means of subterfuge, says the Chicago Chronicle. There are, however, authentic reports of the initiation of but one member of the sex. She was Mrs. Aldworth, the youngest child and only daughter of Arthur St. Leger, created first Viscount Doneraile, Ireland, June 28, 1703, and Elizabeth, daughter and heiress of John Hayes, of Winchelsea. The lodge in which she was initiated was No. 44 of Ireland. The warrant of Lodge No. 44 was issued in 1735. It was a highly respectable lodge, including all the elite of the country around Doneraile, and its meetings were held often under the presidency of Lord Doneraile at his residence.

Miss Irene Samuels, of West Front street, has recovered from an attack of chicken-pox.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN.

The marriage ceremony of Miss Annie Eganey, and William Stien, of Lincoln, was celebrated in St. John's Church, this morning, with a nuptial high mass. Rev. Father Duffphy officiated. The bride wore white silk and carried a bouquet of white roses. The young couple left immediately for the home of the groom at Lincoln, where they will reside.

St. John's fair, which opens tomorrow evening in Apgar's Hall, promises to be the most elaborate of its kind ever held by the church. The young women have been working hard for the past few weeks and some new attractions have been arranged. The two contests for gold watches will also arouse considerable interest.

The funeral services of Miss Frances Hayes were conducted at her late home on New Market road yesterday afternoon. Rev. N. J. Sproul officiated and gave a short address. There were many handsome floral pieces. Interment was made at Hillside.

Work on the new cement culvert at Greenbrook has been begun. The work will take several months before it is completed, and a flagman and operator have been stationed there.

Charles Lake, of the borough, is now practicing with the football team of the Norwood A. C. He is playing in good form and will probably cover right end on that team.

During the rush hours yesterday morning one of the passenger train engines broke down and drill engine 40 took the train to Jersey City.

The steel tower for the fire bell is already half completed and the work is expected to be finished by the end of the week.

Music will be furnished by Eugene O'Reilly at the St. John's Catholic church three-days' fair.

The dancing class, conducted by Jesse Ayers, will meet this evening in Apgar's Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Brag and family, of Lebanon, have moved into the Dealaman building.

John Logan has laid off from work and is enjoying a much needed rest.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ayers are rejoicing over the arrival of a son.

Miss Lillie Kennedy is detained at home with a severe cold.

NEW MARKET.

"Mayor" Bill Smith, who met with an accident in his auto in New York some time ago, has been reimbursed. He is traveling in a new machine.

W. D. Nicholas, the new school principal, is rapidly becoming acquainted and seems to be quite popular with both pupils and parents.

George F. Bunting is representing the township as a member of the Grand Jury.

Weekly cottage prayer meeting will be held this evening.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The remodeled closed cars of the trolley company are an improvement over the combination car which had been a nuisance ever since the first season they were run by the company. It was very nice for a time for the smokers but this class was soon routed out by the rougher element, which considered that the compartments were especially built for tobacco chewing and vile language. The company saw the error and have remedied it, much to the delight of the women patrons of the road.

Fanwood Council, R. A., held one of its interesting semi-monthly meetings in the library rooms last night. Fanwood is making a determined effort to increase the membership to 100 during this fall and winter. Special Council prizes have been offered in connection with the prizes offered by the Grand Council. Hardly a meeting goes by but one or more applications are read.

The summer season at Glenside Park is fast drawing to a close, only a few families remaining. The season, under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Malloy, has been a successful one, every cottage at the Park being rented.

Seeley's paper mill, which has been closed for two weeks while necessary repairs were made, resumed work again this morning.

Mrs. Warren Ackerman, of Mountain avenue, has been making interior improvements about her handsome home, Lyde Park.

The electric light service on several of the streets, which was crippled by the storm last week, has been repaired.

The members of the Amity Club enjoyed a weekly meeting of reading and study last night.

Mrs. John George, of New York, spent Monday with her sister, Miss Minnie Squiers.

Miss Bella Mercein has been visiting her sister, Miss Mamie Mercein, of Plainfield.

LeRoy Day will wear the Carlton Athletic Club colors on the gridiron this season.

Mrs. Theodore Reger, of Westfield, was the guest, Tuesday, of Miss Sadie Reger.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. Bethune Dunham were surprised Monday evening by a visit from about thirty of their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, who came to celebrate the seventy-fifth birthday of Mr. Dunham, also the fifty-first anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Dunham's marriage.

Miss Nellie Manning had much difficulty Monday morning in getting to Passaic to attend to her school duties, on account of the high water in that neighborhood.

There are again several dangerous washouts along the mill dam. They are particularly dangerous in the darkness of the night.

Harold Eckert, formerly of this place, is suffering from a severe attack of diphtheria at the home of his parents in Plainfield.

Miss Nellie Vannest was able to walk out on the street yesterday afternoon by the aid of friends who accompanied her.

Miss Violet Grey, of North Plainfield, is visiting Mrs. Samuel Pyatt, of Clinton avenue.

Henry Mullison, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with his family on Clinton avenue.

Mr. Labaw's new house is gradually nearing completion.

Editor, The Daily Press:

In the columns of your paper last evening there appeared an account of my defeat in trying to break my late mother's will, thereby making myself sole beneficiary. I feel that I have been greatly misrepresented and beg you to allow me an explanation. Soon after my mother's death in October, 1902, a will, which she had made several years before her death, was found in her deposit box in a Plainfield bank. This will had many interlineations and changes in it, proved to have been made after it had been signed, thus making it void, in any other state than our own, where as you know the laws are not strict in such cases. As my mother, a week before her death, had told me many of her wishes, which she intended to put in a new will, upon her recovery, and which were not contained in the old one, I felt obliged to file a caveat, thereby calling the court's special attention to this case, and I would say that I heartily favored the legacies left to my two aunts, who had lived with us for so many years, but that I did not approve of such large legacies being left to my aunt and cousin in Pennsylvania. About a month ago I signed the last papers of a compromise, agreed to by the so-called defendants, and in order that this might be carried out it was necessary for me to withdraw my caveat, thus allowing the will to be probated as it originally stood.

As you note by my acquiesence to the legacies left my two aunts, I had no desire to be the "Sole Beneficiary."

POST OFFICE TRIALS

Daniel V. Miller and Joseph M. Johns Defendants.

CONSPIRACY TO OBTAIN A BRIBE

Have Been Indicted on Six Counts—J. J. Ryan, the Star Witness For the Government, Told of His Company's Dealings.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 14.—The first trial under about two dozen indictments against post office officials secured in different parts of the country by the government recently has been begun here. The defendants are Daniel Voorhees Miller of Terre Haute, Ind., formerly assistant attorney general for the post office department at Washington, and his friend, Joseph M. Johns, an attorney at Rockville, Ind.

The government charged a conspiracy between these defendants for the purpose of obtaining money from John J. Ryan, a turf commissioner, with offices in Cincinnati and St. Louis, for protecting him from post office officials in the use of the mails for his schemes.

Miller claims absolute ignorance of any transaction that may have occurred between Ryan and Johns.

Johns claims that he made an ordinary contract with Ryan as attorney to assist in securing a decision from the postal department upon presentation of the case.

Both defendants emphatically deny any understanding between themselves or with Ryan or any conspiracy. The most eminent counsel are engaged on both sides. Miller and Johns are old friends, having lived in adjoining counties in Indiana for years, where both have been prominent politically, professionally and otherwise.

The defendants have been indicted jointly on six counts of conspiring to obtain a bribe from John J. Ryan & Co. of Cincinnati and St. Louis. The government has called a dozen witnesses and the defense three times that many. It is not expected that the arguments will be reached until the latter part of the week. The witnesses were Richard M. Webster, a clerk in the legal department of the postmaster general at Washington; J. M. Morrow, telegraph operator at Rockville, Ind., and John J. Ryan.

When court convened Webster was examined. He stated that he was in charge of what were known as lottery cases, while Miller was in charge of fraud cases. He testified that when it had been decided that cases were not put on the fraud list that such a decision by the assistant attorney general for the post office department had heretofore been final.

J. M. Morrow testified at length regarding the work of the inspectors at Rockville and produced about two dozen copies of telegrams that passed between Johns and Ryan and one that passed between Johns and Miller.

John J. Ryan, the star witness of the government, was on the witness stand from 3 o'clock until court adjourned. He gave a history and an explanation of his co-operative investment company, telling how he advertised in the papers and received answers with money by mail. Last November he was called on by post office inspectors and soon afterward received a notice from D. V. Miller as assistant attorney general of the post office department that his turf commissioner's operations were fraudulent. Later he had a hearing before Attorneys Christiancy and Miller. He continued, however, to have trouble, and soon after his return from Washington he received a letter from Joseph M. Johns, in which the latter said he could be of service to him. After considerable correspondence by mail and wire they met in Terre Haute, where Ryan stated he registered under the name of Rose.

Ryan described in detail how they mingled about the hotel in Terre Haute and finally retired from others to his room, where Johns opened the conversation about his troubles with the post office department.

Ryan was proceeding to repeat the conversation that took place when the two were alone in a room at Terre Haute when he was interrupted by an objection from Rullson to the witness testifying as to what Johns recited about Miller. Ryan was testifying that Johns claimed to be close to Miller and able to advise Ryan what Miller had said could or would be done in the pending case. Rullson objected to connecting Miller in a conspiracy before any conspiracy had been established.

After both sides argued the question of allowing Ryan to proceed with what Johns had stated that Miller had said regarding the case court took the objection under advisement.

King Leopold to Visit Vienna.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—A Vienna correspondent asserts that King Leopold is going to that city to ask Emperor Francis Joseph to become arbitrator of the Anglo-Belgian differences concerning the Kongo and that the emperor will accept, as both Germany and England have intimated that they will be content with his arbitration.

Towns Will Buy Waterworks.

NEWBURG, N. Y., Oct. 14.—The villages of Fishkill Landing and Matteawan voted in favor of municipal ownership of waterworks and will buy the plant for $130,000. For twenty years a stock company has operated the plant. The reservoir is situated on Mount Beacon.

Mrs. Moody Buried.

EAST NORTHFIELD, Mass., Oct. 14.—After a simple funeral service in the little Congregational church here the body of Mrs. Dwight L. Moody was laid beside that of her husband, the famous evangelist, at Round Top.

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that an ordinance, entitled an ordinance for the laying out and opening of Myrtle Avenue, from the center line of Compton Avenue to the city line in Green Brook, a copy of which is subjoined to this notice, has been introduced before the Common Council, read the second time, and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the Common Council to adopt such ordinance at the regular meeting of the Common Council to be held in the Council Chamber, No. 140 North Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, N. J., at eight o'clock p. m., on Monday, the Second day of November, A. D. nineteen hundred and three, at which time and place prior to the adoption of said ordinance, said ordinance will be considered by the Common Council, and all persons interested may be heard before the Common Council with reference to the proposed ordinance.

By order of the Common Council,
JAMES T. MacMURRAY, City Clerk.
Plainfield, N. J., October 5, 1903.

AN ORDINANCE

for the laying out and opening of Myrtle Avenue, from the center line of Compton Avenue to the city line in Green Brook.

Whereas, the Common Council have judged and do hereby judge that the public good requires that Myrtle Avenue should be laid out and opened between the points named in the title to this ordinance, therefore

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That a public street, to be known as Myrtle Avenue, be and the same is hereby ordered laid out and opened in said city as hereinafter specified, that is to say:

The center line of said street shall begin at an an iron manhole head, marked, being the intersection of the center lines of Dunellen and Compton Avenues as now laid out and opened, and running from said point in a magnetic course of north fifty-nine degrees and three minutes east over lands now or formerly of Halstead C. Compton and Christian C. Sprech, a distance of three hundred and thirty-four and fifty-one one-hundredths feet to a point of curve; thence curving to the left, with a radius of one thousand feet, over lands now or formerly of Christian C. Sprech and Mary C. Moore and Caroline R. Moore, a distance of three hundred and fifty and twenty-three one hundredths feet to a point of tangent; thence in a course of north thirty-eight degrees and fifty-nine minutes east, over lands now or formerly of the said Mary C. Moore and Caroline R. Moore and Halstead C. Compton, a distance of ninety-seven and fifty one hundredths feet to a point in the center line of Green brook, said point being also in the city and county line and there to end. Said street shall be sixty-six feet in width, that is to say, thirty-three feet on each side of said center line and the roadway shall be forty feet in width, that is to say, twenty feet on each side of said center line. Said center line and also the side and curb lines of said street are delineated on a certain map filed with the City Clerk October 3d, 1903, entitled "Map showing proposed laying out and opening of Myrtle avenue, from Compton avenue to Green brook, Plainfield, N. J., Sept. 1903," to which reference is hereby made for greater certainty.

The lands real estate and appurtenances to be taken for the laying out and opening of said Myrtle avenue on the northwesterly side of said center line of said proposed street from the center line of Compton avenue to the city line in Green brook, are all those lands, real estate and appurtenances included between said centre line and a line thirty-three feet distant therefrom and parallel therewith and includes all that part of the land, real estate and appurtenances now or formerly of Halstead C. Compton, Christian C. Sprech, and Mary C. Moore and Caroline R. Moore which lies within said lines.

The lands, real estate and appurtenances to be taken for the laying out and opening of said Myrtle avenue on the southeasterly side of said center line of said proposed street from the center line of Compton avenue to the city line in Green brook, are all those lands, real estate and appurtenances included between said center line and a line thirty-three feet distant therefrom and parallel therewith, and includes all that part of the land, real estate and appurtenances now or formerly of Halstead C. Compton, Christian C. Sprech and Mary C. Moore and Caroline R. Moore, which lies within said lines.

The lands, real estate and appurtenances to be taken and the lines of the proposed street as the same is hereinbefore ordered to be laid out and opened, are shown on said map on file with the City Clerk, hereinabove referred to and made a part hereof.

WAR AT THE ISTHMUS.

Report of Declaration by Nicaragua and Guatemala.

PANAMA, Oct. 14.—There are reasons to believe that Nicaragua and Guatemala are on the eve of declaring war on Salvador and Honduras.

Information has been received that President Cabrera of Guatemala was considering the invasion of Salvador and had endeavored to enlist the aid of the Honduran government, but had failed. President Cabrera, however, had not abandoned his plan, and between 6,000 and 7,000 Guatemalan troops were at that time gathered at various points on the Salvadorean frontier.

A week previously advices had been received of an expected invasion of Nicaragua by Honduras to enforce that country's opposition to Nicaragua's action in giving a territorial concession to James Dietrich of Pittsburg, in which Cleveland capitalists are interested. There is also a frontier dispute between the two countries regarding their respective rights in the valley of the Wanks river.

Nicaragua and Guatemala have apparently now joined hands against Salvador and Honduras.

Some months ago Salvador and Guatemala were on the threshold of war, which was averted by the friendly intervention of Leslie Combs, United States minister to Guatemala.

Ten thousand Guatemalan soldiers are reported to be marching toward the Salvadorean frontier with a powerful force of artillery. At Santa Ana, thirty-five miles northwest of San Salvador, a Salvadorean army is being organized under General Regalado. Many war munitions have been transported from the port of Acajutla to La Union, which is near the Nicaraguan frontier.

Nicaraguan emigrants are receiving arms from General Regalado, which have been transported to Amapala.

It is reported that Salvador and Honduras will back the Liberal movement in Nicaragua headed by Dr. Francisco Baca against President Zelaya.

SOVEREIGNS AT PARIS.

Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena at French Capital.

PARIS, Oct. 14.—The Parisians are celebrating the visit of the king and queen of Italy, who arrived here today. The boulevards and central thoroughfares were thronged with a merry crowd of sightseers so thick that it practically stopped vehicular traffic, who came out to admire the elaborate decorations and to cheer the sovereigns as they passed. Every building in the central districts is gay with French and Italian flags, occasionally mingled with the American and British colors. A Franco-Italian banquet was attended by the sovereigns and all the notables, French and foreign, in the capital.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, OR LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

DAME FASHION'S DECREES.

The Growing Importance of Neckwear In Women's Costumes.

Time was when a lady's collar was but an adjunct to her costume, but now it has assumed far greater proportions and has become a most important factor, adding, as it does, the last touch of elegance and dainty grace. A wisp of lace, a linen band or a flat collar which left the entire throat bare was once considered fine enough, but today the daintiest, the prettiest and most delicate of the things belonging by right to the fair sex are put into the new neckwear, and as if the materials alone were not good enough ingenuity has been taxed to find something better.

Neckwear has never been so fine as now, and handwork has taken the place of machine stitching, so that it is doubly delicate. The beautiful Mexican drawnwork is made especially for collars and cuffs, and all who know how durable and desirable this is are aware of its exceeding value. First, it requires the greatest patience, the best sight and the neatest hands. The threads of the pure sheer linen are carefully drawn out from the body of the material, and the design is then worked in with needle and thread, forming exquisite patterns in the lace which it becomes. Now it is adopted for the new neckwear in forms easily understood by a glance at the illustration.

There are so many different designs that one could not mention them in a day. Those in the upper part of the picture have the stock of velvet or black silk, with the sheer lawn fastened over. Points overlap all around in some cases. In others there are what we might call tabs down the center of the front. Some are straight and in one piece, and others are in two pieces, but the prettiest of all are those where four triangular pieces are laid so that they lap over one another. In them all the drawnwork is seen in some one of its variations. The triangles seem to display the design best.

There are stocks of white and pale blue and other colors in soft, lustrous silk overlaid with the dainty lace work. Some few are plain. There are in many cases wide girdles of the material to match, but these are only of the silk, with a handsome buckle in front. They are planned in folds which narrow to a point in front. The cuffs match the collars.

The mingling of black and white has resulted in the production of some most effective neckwear. Velvet, crepe de chine and black silk are employed for foundations, on which lace is superposed in some cases, while in others applique of a little white is made. When this is done only the most striking part of the design is employed. Then wheels of white crocheted work are set on in different ways to enhance the effect. On the lower line is illustrated the manner in which these are utilized. The silk itself has a rich design of raised hand embroidery defining the edges and marking a beautiful tracery in which black and white mingle. Sometimes the foundation is white and the ornamentation black.

One very stylish and novel tie was attached to a black silk stock, which has a sheer white linen collar, with scalloped edges daintily hemstitched in three lines. The tie bow, about five inches wide, is of black taffeta hemstitched all around. At each end is a novel openwork arrangement made of narrow flat folds of the silk, crossed in latticework and held with tiny silk buttons. This end is pointed. The other is finished square with the same narrow folds, but these have a lace pattern worked in black sewing silk.

There are many dainty stocks entirely of the hand wrought lace, all light and airy and all having some novel arrangement in front—tabs, diamond shaped pieces, curved and scalloped, single, double and triple and all lovely.

Most of the dark silk collars have cuffs and belts to match. Some are several inches wide in the back, but the majority are not over two. All are beautifully made, with a little exceedingly tasteful trimming in folds, stitching and embroidery in raised outline and in clusters of small crocheted rings. These rings are seen so often in the different trimmings that one wonders where they all came from, for they are necessarily made by hand.

Very many of the stock collars show much fagot stitching, black on white and vice versa.

These stocks and collars will be worn extensively, so much so that no woman will be considered well dressed without one. Ribbon stocks are relegated to the scrap trunk, and the washable stocks are disappearing from the face of the earth. So if any lady knows how to make this tedious but exquisitely beautiful drawn lace she can have a stock. It is to be feared that the few cherished pieces of table decoration in this work will be suddenly put to a new use.

WORLD'S CHAMPIONS

Boston Americans Hold the Coveted Baseball Pennant.

PITTSBURG'S PLAYERS SHUT OUT

The Championship Series of Seven Games Has Resulted in Victory For the Great Team From the Bay State Capital.

BOSTON, Oct. 14.—The Boston Americans shut out the Pittsburg Nationals in a great game here and won the world's baseball championship, to the almost frenzied delight of 7,000 enthusiasts.

The demonstration which followed Dineen's striking out of Hans Wagner in the ninth equaled any college football game.

The world's champions were borne to their dressing rooms on the shoulders of thousands, and the cheering lasted many minutes.

Phillippe, who was such an enigma to the Bostons in the first few games, essayed to pitch for the visitors for the sixth time. He was not only batted hard, but he saw his rival, Dineen, carry off the honors by holding the Nationals down to four scattered hits, which, backed by perfect fielding, prevented a single Pittsburg man getting farther than third base. Dineen struck out seven men, and his support by Criger contributed materially to the success of the game. The latter's bluff throw to second in the fourth inning, followed by a quick snap to Collins, catching Leach off the bag, was the best piece of work in the game.

Other features were mainly contributed by the visitors, and Boston's score would undoubtedly have been larger but for the great running catches of Beaumont and Clark, Wagner's work at short and Leach's at third. For the home team Parent's hauling down of a liner from Clarke's bat roused the greatest enthusiasm.

Though the home team had men on bases in the first and second innings, they did not succeed in getting a man across the plate until the fourth, when Freeman's long three bagger and Parent's first base on error, followed by Lachance's sacrifice and Ferris' sharp single to center, sent in two runs. One more was added in the sixth by Lachance's three base hit into the right field crowd and Ferris' second hit. The visitors looked dangerous in the fourth, when, after two hands were out, Leach received a free pass, followed by Wagner's single, which advanced him to third. He was caught a moment later by Criger's throw described above. In the sixth Phillippe singled, but was caught off first in a quick double play, Criger to Lachance, Beaumont striking out. The Pittsburgs also had men on bases in the fifth and seventh, but they never got any farther than first. Score—Boston, 3; Pittsburg, 0. Summary:

Earned runs—Boston, 2. Three base hits—Freeman, Lachance, Sebring. Sacrifice hit—Lachance. Stolen base—Wagner. Umpires—O'Day and Connolly.

Hermis Made a New Record.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—A perfect day for racing greeted the patrons of the sport at Brighton Beach. In the fourth race Hermis ran a fast race and won handily, though Major Daingerfield made an expiring effort at the end and got to within a length and a half of Hermis. The latter took the track from flagfall and simply played with the big black, several times allowing him to get almost up and then drawing away. Igniter was not up to a hard race and was badly beaten. Hicks went on and worked him up to cup distance before pulling up. The time, 2:32 1-5, is a new track record, breaking the old one of 2:33 3-5.

Racing at Lexington.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 14.—The racing was marked by close and exciting finishes. With two or three exceptions every heat was won by a neck or less. Cotillon, the favorite in the 2:17 class, pacing, was forced to travel six miles to win the race. The first four heats of the race were won in succession by Dutch Mowery, Cotillon, Irish Jack and Reaver. Cotillon took the fifth and sixth heats, the fifth heat by a nose from Money Musk, which, with C. O. D., was ruled out in the sixth heat.

Lady Jocelyn Beat Six Shooter.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—Six Shooter, the odds on favorite in the mile and a sixteenth handicap at Worth, was given a decided beating by Lady Jocelyn. The three-year-old filly ran one of the best races of her career and tied the track record of 1:46 for the mile and a sixteenth. Had she been extended she could have beaten the mark by a good margin. Six Shooter was eight lengths in front of Fingal for the place, with Lendin a like distance back.

"Dr." White Helped.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—"Dr." White helped the Nationals win their seventh game of the series, one of his gifts turning into a run, a very wide throw and a wild pitch scoring two more. Wicker held the Americans down to one hit an inning, a base on balls, a sacrifice and an out alone preventing a shutout. Score—Nationals, 5; Americans, 1.

Brancas Won at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 14.—In the card at the fair grounds Brancas, an odds on favorite, won the third race by a length making the best time of the meeting. Miss Crawford was second and Ben Adkins third. In the second race Harry Griffith broke his leg and was shot.

Explosion Wrecks Store.

WELLSTON, O., Oct. 14.—An explosion of gas or gasoline wrecked Edward Gilland's general store. Four persons were injured, one seriously.

A LESSON OF PEACE

Alaskan Boundary Tribunal Officials Honored.

LONDON'S LORD MAYOR ENTERTAINS

Present Arbitration and Settlement of a Dangerous Dispute, Said the Host, Would Be a Guiding Post to the Rest of the World.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—With what Secretary Root described as "all the ceremonies and regalia which from childhood have been more a fairyland than a real land to all Americans," the members, counsel and attaches of the Alaskan boundary tribunal were entertained by the lord mayor of London, Sir Marcus Samuel, at a banquet at the Mansion House, where almost all those associated with the case now in the balance from Lord Chief Justice Alverstone down were present, though Attorney General Finlay and Sir Edward Carson were notable absentees.

It was a memorable occasion, attended by all the ancient customs, loving cups, city liveries and gorgeously appareled footmen.

The lord mayor proposed the health of President Roosevelt while the band played "The Star Spangled Banner." Then his lordship proposed the toast of "The Alaskan Boundary Tribunal," with which he coupled the names of Lord Alverstone, Secretary Root and Sir Louis Jette. He declared that the present method of the submission to a tribunal of a dangerous dispute between two great nations would be a lasting lesson of peace to the world.

"This we may say," said the lord mayor—"that the verdict will be loyally accepted and acted upon, and what might lead to serious trouble will be averted."

Lord Chief Justice Alverstone, in replying, after having feelingly referred to the death of Sir Michael Herbert, said that, though the tribunal was not an illustration of arbitration, it was "an honest and patriotic attempt to solve by mutual discussion subjects which might become serious."

Secretary Root followed with a brilliant speech. Amid intense silence he depicted Sir Michael Herbert's "sweet reasonableness" and the loss sustained by both nations by the ambassador's death. "His friendship with many public men in the United States and his wide experience," said Mr. Root, "these and many other qualities made him competent to exercise great usefulness in cementing the friendship between two nations on whom civilization and the hopes of all mankind depend."

Some thought, continued Mr. Root, that the Americans and Canadians came to London because Alaska was a wonderland of claimants, but the greatest object lesson of the whole proceedings was that the United States had such trust in Great Britain that she was willing to meet and discuss a question vital to her not in a neutral capital, but in a capital belonging to one party to the controversy. Nothing, he said, could more emphasize "the absolute confidence of all parties in the good faith, generous hospitality and fair play of the English people. The admirably graceful, tactful and correct way in which the British government had fulfilled that trust has made us feel at home in the trust we have reposed in you."

In a humorous vein Mr. Root said that they felt even more at home, as doubtless the fiscal controversy had been especially raised at this time for the benefit of the American members of the tribunal. Then analyzing the arguments of both political parties in England he added, amid shouts of laughter, "Nothing could be more delightful to us than to find our country simultaneously upheld as the best example of internal free trade and of the successful protection."

Secretary Root concluded with a glowing tribute to the spirit of justice and righteousness shared in America and Great Britain which it was his sincere desire should be evidenced by the verdict of the tribunal.

Sir Louis Jette echoed the sentiments expressed by Mr. Root in behalf of Canada, and Senator Lodge wittily proposed the health of the counsel engaged on both sides of the case, declaring that the rapidity of the proceedings was a lesson to all nations who avoided such a pacific method of settlement on the ground of prolonged procedure.

Messrs. Dickinson and Robinson responded in behalf of America and Canada respectively, and Ambassador Choate proposed the health of the lord mayor and Lady Samuel.

FISHKILL LANDING, N. Y., Oct. 14.—A shortage has been discovered in the accounts of Town Collector Van Voorhies, and his bondsmen, several prominent citizens of this place, have been ordered to make good the deficiency at once. Collector Van Voorhies says he must have lost the money, but where or how he does not know.

Murder In Vermont.

SPORTING NEWS.

HOME RUNS.

Both St. Mary's and Westfield supporters are confident of winning Saturday's game, and the clubs will spare no expense in the attempt to attain the championship title. To the unprejudiced observer it looks like a case of victory for the team management that is able to produce the most money to buy players. The nines cannot be called representative in any sense.

The Scotch Plains baseball team has closed its season and, so far as known, the same team will represent the town on the diamond next year, with possibly a few exceptions. George Bolsterli, of Wacthung avenue, who has been playing second base for the team, has made an excellent record, both in the field and at the bat. He will probably remain with the nine another season.

BASKET BALL.

There is some talk at the local Y. M. C. A. of forming a basket ball league among the nearby Y. M. C. A.'s of the State. It is believed that such a league would stimulate considerable interest and would attract more people than a strictly local organization such as was formed last season. There is no doubt that the best material is in the Y. M. C. A., of this city, for a local team. Such a league could be formed with teams from Rahway, New Brunswick, Elizabeth and Summit.

GOLF.

On Saturday, October 24, the Westfield Golf Club team will entertain the team from the Cranford Golf Club on the home course. At that time it is hoped that the score of last Saturday at Cranford will be wiped out.

FOOTBALL.

H. C. Smith, of the Orange Field Club, is the manager for the football eleven and not captain.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—The Democratic and Republican city conventions will be held Monday night, Oct. 19.

—Rev. T. E. Davis, recently of Bound Brook, has been invited to take the vacant Presbyterian pulpit at Melrose, near Troy, N. Y.

—The Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association, of Bound Brook, will hold the postponed dance tonight, and the members of the Plainfield association have been invited. Eugene O'Reilly will furnish music.

—Edward Gottlich, of Scotch Plains, and David Smalley, of this city, both driving runabouts, collided at about 6 o'clock last night at the corner of Park avenue and Front street. The shaft of Gottlich's carriage became hooked with the wheel of Smalley's carriage. Gottlich was thrown out, his runabout overturned and his shaft broken. The horses were controlled with difficulty and no one was hurt.

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS.

QUESTIONS OF THE DAY DISCUSSED BY THE PRESS.

The Whole Show.

Samuel Swackhamer still goes up and down the State, being hailed as "Governor." How often do the plans of politicians gang aglee. The above mentioned Samuel was put on the Somerset Democratic ticket last fall for Assemblyman as the tail to the big kite of that other Samuel "Hamand" Childs, who owed his election principally to the fact that the Somerset voters who visit the big cities are wealthy enough not to patronize his luncheries. And it came to pass that Childs in the Senate was completely overshadowed by Swackhamer in the Assembly. Somerset was completely at the latter's shrine; Charlie Reed is sniggering in his sleeve. Swackhamer himself has happiness enough left to last until the Gubernatorial campaign. If he is nominated for Governor, Union and Somerset will have to be annexed to make a county big enough to hold him. The other Samuel might be located up in the Bernardsville hills, with a good telescope.—New Brunswick Home News.

—Ernest Baker, arrested yesterday for drunkenness, was released this morning on suspended sentence by City Judge Runyon.

S. T. Sarson and Mrs. A. E. Lorton, of Watchung avenue, are spending a few days at the home of Mrs. P. B. Laire, of Sunnyside, Hunterdon county.

Dieting Invites Disease.

To cure dyspepsia or indigestion it is no longer necessary to live on milk and toast. Starvation produces such weakness that the whole system becomes an easy prey to disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that one cares to eat, and is a never failing cure for indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by L. W. Randolph.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Some few announcements of importance were made at the meeting of the Democratic County committee last night in addition to the statement of Charles L. Moffett's withdrawal. Committees on credentials were instructed to make final arrangements for the convention. James E. Martine and S. S. Swackhamer are slated for speeches at the convention. Preparations are underway for a mass meeting in Plainfield on the 29th or 30th.

There was a large representation at the Republican County committee meeting in the McKinley Club rooms at Elizabeth last night. A committee from the colored Republican Auxiliary Club made its report. Names of challengers at the various polling places on election day were submitted with the exception of those from Plainfield who will be announced the last of this week. Candidates were given instructions as to the places in which they might be expected to speak during the campaign. A meeting will be held at the same place tomorrow night.

A brand new story of the case of enmity existing between United States Senator John Kean and Congressman Charles N. Fowler was a short time ago in the Elizabeth Times. That newspaper quotes as its authority for the correctness of the tale James E. Heg, former superintendent of the Rahway Reformatory and a brother-in-law of Congressman Fowler. According to Mr. Heg's story, as told in The Times, the Congressman was born in November, 1853, one month and two days earlier than the date of Senator Kean's advent in the world. The former spent his boyhood days on an Illinois farm. Later he went to Beloit College, in Wisconsin, and, in 1872, he entered Yale. Now among his classmates was John Kean, of Ursino, Union County, N. J., and it was not long before there sprang up between the two a rivalry for the scholarship and social honors of the class and of the college. Fowler was poor and Kean immensely wealthy, at least according to the standards applied in those days. Heg claims that Fowler was the more popular of the two, but that Kean used every effort to dislodge him from his position. They were factors in the progress of their class, but, according to Heg, his brother-in-law had slightly the better of the contest, in any event, when they separated they were not on the best of terms, neither having had any desire to approach the other for the purpose of reconciliation. Kean went to Columbia, graduating in '76, and was admitted to the bar the following year. Fowler again went West, also studied law, in the Chicago Law School, and was admitted to practice in 1878. He remained in the West seven years longer, and then, according to Heg, not having forgotten his college days, when he and Kean were opponents for the favor of a select few, determined to become his rival for popular preferment. Heg said that Fowler came to this part of the country for no other reason than because Kean was here, and already becoming a prominent factor in business and politics. Fowler came as a stranger, while Kean had the advantage of being at home, but he felt that he could duplicate his success at college, and the periodical factional fights, which are now the talk of every campaign, have been the result.

The Shoe Fits Here.

The following article clipped from the Bound Brook Chronicle applies equally well to Plainfield:

"The average young man about town seems in danger of losing altogether the happy faculty of expressing his thoughts (if he has any) without interlining his extremely limited vocabulary with many and strange oaths, varied quite frequently by indecent and disgusting phases, picked up evidently from the lowest strata of civilization. The passer-by, even though it be a lady of refinement, is seldom taken into consideration and the ears of respectable people are daily shocked along the streets, in public buildings and even at the entrances of places of worship.

"While the Bound Brooks are perhaps no worse than other towns in this respect it may be well to consider whether or not this growing evil can be checked by enforcing the law where such nuisance can be controlled. A few arrests and fines would soon lead to more refined and fluent language than we so often hear around the trolley depot, postoffices and other public places."

—Owing to the state of uncertainty over the McKee School Law recently declared unconstitutional by the Court of Errors and Appeals, the State Board of Education will not appoint superintendents for Bergen, Essex, Monmouth, Morris, Passaic and Salem Counties.

they always do splendidly, and the 400 or 500 Republican majority they add to the county ticket is something we are all proud of. When the count of loyal Republicans is made this fall the total will not be much short of the usual figures.—Elizabeth Daily Journal.

Easy for Kean.

There is still much talk heard of a deep-laid plot to retire United States Senator John Kean to private life upon the expiration of his present term. In all the more or less wild stories of political intriguing now going on Congressman Fowler and his faction figure conspicuously, notwithstanding that in the recent unpleasanteness in Union County the Kean forces won nearly everything in sight, clearly showing that in their home county Senator Kean holds the whip hand over the Congressman from the Fifth district. Essex with becoming humility also has a candidate, according to current rumor, but then it would not be Essex if that county did not have a candidate no matter what the office to become vacant. It is a little early to predict the results, but it can safely be said that Senator Kean will start off with a very comfortable lead over any other aspirant who may enter the race, yet many a long lead has been overcome in fifteen months' time.—From the Mt. Holly Mirror.

PLAINFIELD FIREMEN BEAT ELIZABETHIANS

Local Laddies Won Baseball Game by Score of Thirteen to Four.

FEASTING AFTER GAME

THE QUEEN CITY FIREMEN WIN THE SERIES ARRANGED.

"Doc" Doyle as Umpire—Billie Townley and Daly Good at the Bat—Dan Force Pitched a Good Game.

Plainfield firemen had their Elizabeth brethren "way down" in baseball yesterday afternoon on the St. Mary's field, winning the game, 13 to 4, and the series two games to none. The Plainfielders batted and fielded like old hands at the game. Force pitched well. The stick work of William Townley and Daly was a feature. "Doc" Doyle acted as umpire. The line-up:

Plainfield—Herman, lf; Young, ss; E. Townley, 3b; McCabe, c; Jaeger, cf; Daly, 1b; W. Townley, 2b; Larue, rf; Force, p.

Elizabeth—Johnson, 1b; Grimm, rf; Pester, cf; Dennison, 3b; Desmond, ss; Wind, lf; Neighbor, c; Burns, 2b; Walsh, p.

Plainfield ..... 6 0 1 0 0 3 0 3 x—13
Elizabeth ..... 0 1 1 1 0 0 0 1 0— 4

The Elizabeth firemen were royally entertained last night after their baseball game with their brothers from this city. An elaborate feast was spread in the Democratic Hall and after everybody had been dined and wined there followed a number of bright speeches by men prominent in the city affairs and a musical programme that kept things lively until the early hours of the morning.

Robert Lee, chairman of the fire and buildings committee of the City Council, was toastmaster, and he was introduced with a few bright remarks by Daniel Force, captain of Plainfield's victorious nine. Judge William N. Runyon delivered the address of welcome in his usual entertaining way. James F. Buckle, president of the Common Council, made a few political references in his speech, including high compliments to the qualities of Mr. McArdell and Mr. MacMurray as leaders.

Andrew McArdell, who was introduced as the man who enabled St. Mary's to beat Westfield last Saturday, confined his remarks to the baseball situation. Other speakers were Frank Randoph, of the police commission, and Frank Kellar, who represented the Elizabeth firemen. Robert Lee, in his office of toastmaster, said that he was proud of the knowledge that Plainfield had the best fire department in the State. He also remarked that although Plainfield had won in baseball, 13 to 4, Elizabeth had previously won a political game, 15 to 4, referring to the action of all but four of Plainfield's delegates bolting the recent convention.

In a musical line, James Stewart was prominent with the selection, "The Scavenger Brigade." Judge Runyon sang and played the piano, and George Carroll gave several clog dances and Irish songs. Other vocal artists were John Moran, of this city, and Joseph Grimm, John Brynn and J. Bond, of Elizabeth. The Liberty Fife and Drum Corps, of Elizabeth, aided in the parading, and several members of the Independent Fife and Drum Corps added their talents. The Warren Engine Company of North Plainfield made a friendly call during the evening.

All the arrangements for the supper and entertainment were made by the Plainfield firemen. Frank McCabe, Daniel Force and Theodore Lane were the committee in charge and they were assisted by James Kane, John Todd, Daniel Addleman and William Townley. Mrs. W. E. Townley, Mrs. Frank Hand, Mrs. Andrew Saffron were also invaluable assistants in the arrangements, and Miss Margaret Townley contributed several piano selections to the musical programme.

The tables were set for seventy guests, but many more were entertained during the evening. After the festivities closed everybody adjourned to the fair of the Independent Fife and Drum Corps in the borough.

Approaching Wedding.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss B. Veronica Reville and C. H. Waldron, both of West Third street, which will take place Wednesday, October 21, in St. Mary's Church.

TRINITY COMMANDERY AT HEAD OF LINE

Plainfield Knights Receive Great Ovation at Templars' Field Day Festivities.

GALLA TIME AT SHORE

FIELD DAY MAY BE HELD HERE TWO YEARS HENCE.

Grand Generalissimo Jacob Kirkner Escorted With Grand Commander D. C. Adams by the Local Sir Knights.

Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., of this city, carried off the honors at the annual field day of the New Jersey jurisdiction of Knights Templar, held at Atlantic City, yesterday, much to the gratification of the local Sir Knights, and especially to Grand Commander Daniel C. Adams, of North Plainfield.

The trip to Atlantic City and return was made in a special train composed of four new vestibuled coaches of the latest pattern, drawn by the fastest engine on the New Jersey Central. The Plainfield party was made up of 157 people, of which number forty-three were members of Trinity Commandery. The others were wives and friends of the Sir Knights, and the Crescent Military Band, of Raritan. Nelson Y. Dungan, as captain general, had charge of Trinity Commandery in the parade, although Samuel Bingaman, as eminent commander, commanded the Sir Knights. It was 11:30 when the special train arrived at Atlantic City. Grand Commander Daniel C. Adams and Grand Generalissimo Jacob Kirkner were escorted to the Hotel Rudolf, where the Grand Commandery had its headquarters, while Trinity Commandery and its friend went to the Hotel Beaumont, where dinner was served.

After dinner there was the parade, and by reason of the fact that the grand commander is a Plainfielder Hugh Payne Commandery, of Jersey City, gracefully gave way and allowed Trinity Commandery to take the right of line. The Sir Knights from this city received one grand ovation from the beginning to end.

It is estimated that there were about 1,000 Sir Knights in line and those who have witnessed other similar affairs consider it to be the most successful. It is quite likely that two years from now the field day will be celebrated in Plainfield, when it is probable that Jacob Kirkner will occupy the position now held by Dr. Adams.

The Plainfield delegation left Atlantic City at 7:30 and arrived home at 11:40. There was a little delay on the return journey occasioned by a hot box due to the fact that the coaches were brand new. However, the New Jersey Central was complimented for the very efficient manner in which it provided for the trip of the Plainfield people.

"Prof." Ernest Austin, of this city, accompanied the delegation and looked after the baggage of the Sir Knights.

GYM LEADERS.

Tests Made at Y. M. C. A. to Select Junior Department Leaders.

In accordance with the usual custom a test for leaders in the junior department of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, has just been held. There were thirteen contestants and from that number four leaders with the highest per centage were chosen, those receiving over 75 per cent. being eligible. The four chosen are Walter Caldwell, 79 per cent.; William Lambert, 77 per cent.; Walter Stern, 77 per cent.; Chester Denton, 76½ per cent. Howard Freeman with 76 per cent. and William Laughlin with 75½ per cent. were next. There will be another test in November, when four more leaders will be chosen. Physical Director C. E. A. Heywood is in charge of this work.

Dr. Lederle to Speak.

Dr. Lederle, health commissioner of New York will open the lecture course of the Village Improvement Association Monday evening at St. Paul's Church, Cranford. He will give an informal talk on "Modern Methods of Fighting Filth and Disease in New York."

Charles McCann Promoted.

In recognition of faithful services in this, the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company has promoted Charles McCann to a responsible position in the Newark main office.

DAVID WIKOFF WEDS MISS M. ERMA GREENE

Ceremony Takes Place at the Home of Bride's Mother, Mrs. Eva W. Greene.

REFORMED CEREMONY

REV. A. F. TODD, OF DUNELLEN, OFFICIATES—THIRTY GUESTS PRESENT.

Miss M. Catharine Jones Bridesmaid—A Philadelphian as Best Man—The Couple to Reside in Quaker City—On Honeymoon.

The marriage of Miss M. Erma Greene, daughter of Mrs. Eva W. Greene, of Lee place, and David Cole Wikoff, of Philadelphia, was celebrated last evening at 7 o'clock at the bride's home. Rev. A. F. Todd, of Dunellen, officiated, using the brief service of the Reformed church. The groom was a life-long resident of Plainfield up to six months ago, when he left a position with the Pond Machine Tool Company for one with the William Cramp & Son Ship and Engine Building Company, of Philadelphia.

The bride was gowned in pink satin with Irish point lace and medallions and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. She was attended by Miss M. Catharine Jones, of this city, the bridesmaid, who was dressed in blue silk mulle with Irish point lace and with a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. The flower girl, Miss Marguerite Leonard, of Tar City, Pa., wore a white silk gown and carried a basket of white chrysanthemums.

W. A. Riggs, Jr., secretary of the Kensington branch of the Y. M. C. A., of Philadelphia, was best man, and Frank Throne and Irving DeHart, of this city, were ushers. Mrs. Irving DeHart played the usual wedding marches.

The house decorations were appropriate to an autumn wedding. The parlor, where the ceremony was performed, was decorated in green and white with white chrysanthemums predominating. In the dining room, where an elaborate marriage feast followed the ceremony, the color scheme was green and red, with beautiful fall foliage prominent.

The bride received many handsome gifts, among them the gift from her mother of a deed to a valuable piece of property in one of the pretty suburbs of Philadelphia. A brooch set with pearls and diamonds was the groom's gift to the bride. The groom presented his best man with a handsome stick pin and the bridesmaid with a moonstone ring.

About thirty members of the immediate families and near friends witnessed the ceremony, most of them coming from Plainfield and Pennsylvania. Mr. and Mrs. Wikoff will reside in Philadelphia following a wedding trip which will include Washington.

Applicant for Franchise Remiss in Not Supplying Information—William Tyler Industrious.

The Common Council committee on public service is investigating the various telephone systems. As a means of assisting the committee in its work of forming an unbiased opinion, Councilman William Tyler has written letters to a large number of people in this city seeking individual ideas regarding the advisability of having two systems in Plainfield. The weight of opinion as conveyed through these letters is not known, but will become public after a report has been made to the Council, probably at the November meeting. Mr. Tyler has evidenced an unusual amount of interest in the telephone investigation and has also spent a great deal of valuable time.

The failure of the Central Jersey Telephone Company to respond to the committee's requiries into its standing and ability to carry out and fulfill the provisions of such a franchise as they seek, is a mystery to the committee and does not tend to help the cause of this company in it efforts to get a franchise.

Choosing Class Pins.

These members of the senior class of the Plainfield High School have been selected to choose pins for the class of 1904: Harry Brooks, Miss Edna Batchelor, Miss Patton and Miss Robbins.

CAPT. J. F. HUBBARD ELECTED PRESIDENT

Chosen Head of the Thirtieth N. J. V. Regiment Association at Reunion.

SWACKHAMER, SPEAKER

THIRTEEN ANNUAL SESSION OF OLD VETERANS AT SOMERVILLE.

James J. Bergen Made Address of Welcome—Meeting in the Court House—Parade of Survivors—Ninety-One in Line.

Many veterans attended the thirteenth annual reunion of the Thirtieth New Jersey Volunteer Regiment at Somerville, yesterday. The comrades met at the Court House at 10:30 o'clock for their business meeting. Capt. J. Frank Hubbard, of this city, was elected president in place of Col. A. S. TenEyck, who, for many years held that office. Capt. James D. VanDerveer, of North Branch, was chosen vice president and Capt. James Bowman, of South Branch, was elected secretary and treasurer.

The address of welcome was made by James J. Bergen, president of the Somerville Board of Commissioners. Comrade James Brown responded.

At 1 o'clock, the comrades marched up Main street, of that place, escorted by the Somerville band, and returned to the place of formation. There were ninety-one in line. Then they went to the County Hotel, where a sumptuous dinner was served.

Among thoese who made addresses was Assemblyman Samuel S. Swackhamer, of the borough. The comrades disbanded, having had an enjoyable gathering and reunion.

The local committee of arrangements were James B. Brown, J. K. DeMottt, C. Elmi and George H. Miller.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY POLITICS

SITUATION IN WHICH PARTY WAS PLACED BY MOFFETT'S ACT.

Some Candidates for Assembly Nominations—Moffett's Reconsideration of Withdrawal.

What would have happened had Charley Moffett withdrawn from the contest for Assemblyman, as was his pronounced intention up to a late hour yesterday morning, is still a topic for interested discussion. His intention of refusing to run was known to a few Democratic leaders and some of the opponents of Kirk in the MacMurray faction as long ago as last Friday, but, when the announcement was made at the meeting of the Democratic committee Monday night, the members were all at sea as to the man most available in his stead.

Andrew J. Nolan, of the county committee, said yesterday that on account of Moffett's expected withdrawal, the Plainfield members of the committee had been instructed to obtain a candidate from this city, as the desire of the Democratic party was to meet Kirk on his home ground, the main battle field in the campaign.

In spite of this fact, it was announced yesterday morning by prominent Democrats that Plainfield would not have a candidate if Moffett withdrew. Elizabeth would have had the nominee instead, and the other two in the county being George Tewis, of Rahway, and Joseph Dunn, of Springfield.

Herbert W. Stover, of the Second ward, president of the Democratic Club last year, announced himself as a candidate as soon as he learned of Moffett's intended withdrawal but his selection would have been most doubtful. James E. Martine flatly refused to allow his name to be considered under any circumstances.

At any rate Mr. Moffett's final determination to re-enter the arena excited high commendation and prevented a serious misunderstanding of his motives. It leaves the situation practically as before.

Tea for Japanese School.

Mrs. J. Evarts Tracy has sent out invitations for a tea to be given at her residence, 440 West Eighth street, today for the benefit of the Girls' Union School, Yokohoma, Japan. Candy and fancy articles will be on sale and a silver offering will be received.

—The great sale of the famous "White Label" canned goods is still going on at Neuman Brothers. The fruit put up in cans with the white label can be relied upon for purity.

PLAINFIELD GROOM FOR RAHWAY BRIDE

Geoege Mantz Marries Miss Elizabeth Harris at Home of Bride's Parents.

JOHN MANTZ BEST MAN

BERTHOLD J. SCHREINER AND J. HENRY CRANE AS USHERS.

One Hundred Guests Present—Honeymoon in Washington, D. C.—Mr. and Mrs. Mantz to Reside in This City.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Harris, of Rahway, and George Mantz, of East Fifth street, took place last evening at 7 o'clock at the bride's home on Grand street, Rahway. It was a home affair at which there were about a hundred guests, including many from this city, New Brunswick and Rahway.

The ceremony took place in the front parlors of the house where, beneath a large bank of palms and ferns, they plighted their troth. The maid-of-honor was Miss Ida Harris, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaid was Miss Belle Harris, of New Brunswick, a niece of the bride. The Misses Clara Neuman and Nina Du Four were flower girls and Miss Ethel Neuman and Miss Agnes Mantz were ribbon girls. The best man was John Mantz, brother of the groom, and the ushers were Berthold J. Schreiner and J. Henry Crane, both of this city.

The entrance to the parlor was effected through a ribboned aisle leading from the back parlor and hallway. The bridal couple were preded by the flower girls and other attendants to the front room where they halted beneath the palms. The bride wore a gown of white Liberty satin over white taffeta trimmed with Escural lace. A tulle veil fell over her shoulders and formed a train. The bridesmaid was gowned in the same material.

A reception was held after the ceremony and shortly after 10 o'clock the bride and groom left for a wedding trip to Washington, where they will spend a short honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside in this city on East Fifth street.

The groom was president of the Bachelor's Club and is the first member to sever his connection with the organization through marriage. A large part of the club's membership attended the wedding in a body.

THE TEMPERANCE REVIVAL

MEETINGS UNDER AUSPICES OF THE REFORM CLUB POPULAR.

Superintendent of Crittenden Mission in Jersey City Makes Stirring Argument Against Drink.

The meeting of the Reform Club last night was the most largely attended of any of the temperance revivals thus far held by the organization. George White, of Jersey City, superintendent of the Crittenden Mission of that place, was the leader and he gave a stirring temperance speech. George Belcher and others of this city added their testimony to the weight of evidence against the liquor traffic. Vocal solos were contributed by W. C. Smith, Jr., and George Belcher.

James Johnson, of the National Florence Crittenden of Bleecker street, New York City, will have charge of the service tonight. Mr. Johnson is said to be the best speaker that has yet addressed the club. Vocal and instrumental musical selections will be on the programme and all are invited. The meetings will continue through tomorrow night, and there is some prospect of their being continued through next week also.

Street in Bad Condition.

Frequent complaints are heard in the West End of the sloppy condition of West Fourth street opposite Lee place. The condition of the street at this point is said to be bad enough at the best, and what made it infinitely worse the other day was the washing of thirty-five cars in the street by the street railway company. As a result of the ablutions, a miniature lake two or three inches deep and extending all the way across the street confronted passengers.

Hebrew Juveniles to Meet.

The Plainfield Hebrew Juvenile Auxiliary Society will hold a meeting tonight.

EPWORTH LEAGUERS IN SESSION TODAY

Thirteenth Annual Convention Being Held in First M. E. Church.

SELECTION OF OFFICERS

ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHT DELEGATES ATTENDING THE SESSIONS.

Committees Appointed and Reports Read—Luncheon at Noon—Rev. Dr. Halleron Attending—Other Details.

The thirteenth annual convention of the Elizabeth District Epworth League is being held today in the First M. E. Church, opening this morning at 10 o'clock with a song service conducted by Nelson A. Miller. The president, R. F. Fenno, of Plainfield, occupied the chair. There are 108 delegates present.

Rev. Dr. Daniel Halleron, presiding elder, conducted the devotional services. The welcome address was made by Rev. Dr. W. C. Snodgrass, and the response by President Fenno.

After the appointment of committees, there was the review of the past year's work by the corresponding secretary, W. I. Goddard, of Roselle. This showed there are seventy-two chapters in the district with a total membership of 2,848, an increase of 166 over last year. There has been expended for local League work $3,746. There are thirty-one Junior Leagues with a membership of 1,228. The report of the treasurer, A. H. Stiles, of Plainfield, showed a good balance. These officers were chosen for the ensuing year:

President, C. A. Titus, St. James Church, Elizabeth; vice president, B. F. Dewey, Flemington; corresponding secretary, W. H. A. Clark, Clark Street Church, Elizabeth; recording secretary, Miss Mary B. Smith, First M. E. Church, Plainfield; treasurer, A. H. Stiles, First M. E. Church, Plainfield; superintendent Junior League, Mrs. E. L. Lillibridge, Roselle Park.

"Morning Watch" was an address by Rev. W. B. Fleming. A luncheon provided by the women of the Grace and Monroe Avenue M. E. Churches was served at noon.

The afternoon session opened with a devotional service conducted by Harry Gee, of Plainfield. At 2:30 there were a number of departmental conferences held.

MR. MARSHALL RESIGNS.

Consistory of Trinity Reformed Instructed to Convey Thanks for His Work at Marconnier.

With deep regret, the resignation of Harry W. Marshall, as superintendent of Marconnier Chapel, was received by the Consistory of Trinity Reformed Church, last night, he asking that it take effect on November 1. The clerk was instructed to convey to Mr. Marshall the thanks of the Consistory for the excellent and efficient service he has rendered the chapel during the past three and half years and also convey their regrets at his resignation.

Mr. Marshall feels obliged to give up this position at Marconnier Chapel owing to a pressure of other duties. During his service there he has endeared himself to the hearts of the members and friends of the chapel.

Chamberlin's Work.

An excellent likeness of the late Wilbur J. Chamberlin, the well-known newspaperman, former resident of Plainfield, appeared in last Sunday's Newark News, together with an interesting descriptive article of a book recently published, entitled "Ordered to China." The book contains many of the letters written by Mr. Chamberlin to his wife while he was abroad for The Sun.

Off to San Francisco.

Among the representatives of the New York State Bankers Association who left Tuesday afternoon for the annual convention of the American Bankers Association to be held in San Francisco next week, was A. V. Healy, assistant secretary of the Farmers Loan and Trust Company and vice president of the Plainfield Trust Company.

Attending W. C. T. U. Convention.

Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson and Mrs. Elizabeth A. Parse, of the local W. C. T. U., left yesterday for Morristown, to attend the State convention of the Union. Mrs. M. C. Dobbins, Mrs. J. H. French, Mrs. Stephen Caboone and Miss May E. Howlett left this morning to attend today's session.

REPUBLICANS SELECT DOLLIVER FOR ASSEMBLY

Somerset County Convention Selects Young Lawyer as Its Candidate.

SMALLEY FOR TICKET

NORTH PLAINFIELD MAYOR PLEDGES SUPPORT IN SPEECH.

Smalley and Clark Selected as Members of County Committee—Anderson Named for County Clerk.

Charles M. Dolliver, Esq., of North Plainfield, was nominated at the Republican County convention at Somerville this afternoon, for assemblyman of Somerset County, and will be the opponent of his law preceptor, Assemblyman S. S. Swackhamer, who will be the Democratic candidate. Dolliver's name was presented by the North Plainfield delegates and his nomination was made by acclamation. Newton B. Smalley, Dolliver's sponser, mounted the platform at this afternoon's session and declared his loyalty to the party and ticket, this being the sensational feature of the convention. A. G. Anderson, of Somerville, was named for county clerk, and W. Howard Toms, of Warren township, for coroner.

Joseph Frelinghuysen, of Raritan, chairman of the county committee, called the convention to order this morning and acted as temporary and permanent chairman. The North Plainfield delegates were Charles Lee, Dr. A. H. Dundon and Thomas Doud, of the First district and Robert Clark, Jr., Captain W. C. Smith and J. J. Stahl, of the Second district. Captain Smith declined to run for the chairmanship of the convention.

Mayor Smalley and Robert Clark, Jr., were made members of the County executive committee. Smalley resigned from that body some time ago and his reinstatement is a sign of harmony in the ranks again. Stephen Beeching, who was a delegate to the convention, was selected to represent North Plainfield township on the County committee.

HONOR THEIR PATRON.

Members of Watchung Council, K. of C., Celebrate Discovery of America.

Watchung Council, Knights of Columbus, celebrated the four-hundred-and-eleventh anniversary of the discovery of America in the lodge rooms in the old Common Council chambers last evening. Grand Knight James McCormick, of Bayonne, made an address on the condition of the order and its wonderful growth. Thomas Mara, of Bayonne, entertained with song, story and feats of legerdomain.

A two months' euchre tournament was started last evening among the members. John McNally made the best score of the evening. After the evening's entertainment a luncheon was served.

CONGREGATION ELECTS.

Officers Chosen at Trinity Reformed Church—Elders and Deacons Re-Elected.

Following the regular prayer-meeting at Trinity Reformed Church, last night, there was a session of the congregation. Elder Robert Clark, Jr., was appointed chairman and O. W. Dunham secretary. F. E. Smith, H. J. Martin and A. L. Force were re-elected elders for two years and Edgar F. Sheppard, Curtis M. Thorp and B. R. Force were re-elected deacons for the same length of time.

Mr. Conroy an Inventor.

James Conroy, Jr., rose cultivator, of Somerset street, recently patented a fumigating device which has been built by Louis E. Ely, the model designer at A. M. Griffen's hardware store. The machine has been erected and, yesterday afternoon, a trial was made of it at the hot houses on Somerset street. It proved that it was a great success and will successfully remove any mildew from the plants in a remarkably short time. The machine can be used as a vaporizer to kill bugs and insects as well as mildew. The demonstration of the machine shows that it will save many hundreds of dollars yearly to florists.

Bouncing Girl.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Ennis, of West Third street, are the parents of a girl who tips the scales at fifteen pounds.

—The contract case of H. C. Squires against George Tobin has been amicably settled out of court.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCE FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

For quick delivery of baggage and courteous service, go to H. J. Wierenga, North avenue expressman.

There are many different kinds of tobaccos but M. O. Dobbins has them all at his store on Park avenue at the head of North avenue.

Hotel Waldorf, the store with the illuminated front, is the place to smile with the "smile that won't come off." East Front street.

A palate pleasing of eatables is always on sale by W. W. Warnock, the West Front street backer. Usually the cheapest, always the best.

Everything in the way of fine work in electrical wiring and fixtures can be secured if you let Allen B. Laing figure on the contract. Office, North avenue.

Before purchasing your winter supply of coal examine the stock at Ten-Eyck & Harris's yards. It is the best coal obtainable and the prices are proportionately low.

L. Moraller & Son are known to all as the most reliable jewelers in this city. They have made a specialty for years of watch repairing and have always on hand a most complete line of clocks, jewelry, silverware and watches.

Did it ever occur to you that there must be a reason why so many people recommend the sporting goods sold by Harry Dreier, of West Front street? It's because they are always reliable and exactly as represented. And the prices are right.

The only kind of goods that it pays a store to handle is reliable merchandise. No store that hopes to forge into the front ranks will sell goods that are cheap in quality. The goods that J. W. Gavett, West Front street, sells, can be relied upon.

Dudley Miller, the Park avenue druggist, prides himself on the fact that he keeps in stock only the best drugs and medicines and that his prescription department is equal to any to be found. What you purchase at this store is sure to be satisfactory.

There is a big difference in the silverware and jewelry put on the market these days and it is gratifying to know that the stock carried by Charles E. Vail, of Park avenue, represents the very best quality. You can depend on always getting true value.
